

THE UNION AT IT AGAIN

Old Vexed Question Cropped Up Yesterday,

WHAT DR. GARDNER SAID

Declared That Preachers Better Keep Out of Politics—Chair Overruled the Decision Preventing Discussion of Papers.

By the time the Ministerial Union of Richmond adjourned yesterday afternoon, after a long and lively session, it had practically reversed in part its action of weeks ago and had opened, however slightly, the door through which, according to previous decision, no discussions were to come.

The vote was close in the extreme and was taken on a motion to sustain the ruling of the Chair. A paper had been read and some of the ministers wished to discuss it. A point of order was raised and the president ruled the discussion out. An appeal from the decision of the Chair was at once announced and the Chair was reversed by a vote of 13 to 12.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything dis-

It's...

quite a blow for us to say that in our

Matting, Carpet, Baby-Carriage

...and... Go-Cart Business

we've never been beaten in price or quality, but a short study of our stock will assure you that we are entitled to a little self-praise.

MATTINGS, (Per Roll of 40 yards), $3.50 to $30.00. DRUGGETS, $5.00 to $50.00.

GARRIAGES, $4.50 to $45.00.

CHAS. G. JURGENS' SON,

419-21 East Broad Street, (Between Third and Fourth.)

Sole agents for the celebrated

...ALASKA... REFRIGERATORS.

"Best in the world."

REFRIGERATORS, $75 to $100 Each, all strictly guaranteed as represented. We've sold Alaska Refrigerators here for fourteen consecutive seasons! Isn't that enough of a commendation?

If you need it we will give you all the CREDIT you want for the asking!

CHAS. G. JURGENS' SON.

Established a Century Ago. Wedding Gifts. THE distinctive worth of all Silverware bearing our name is a consideration worthy of attention when contemplating the purchase of WEDDING PRESENTS.

Upon satisfactory references we will be pleased to send goods on approval.

GALT & BRO.,

JEWELLERS, SILVERSMITHS, STATIONERS,

1107 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

agreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

THE PAPER.

The cause for the discussion was indirectly the paper read by Dr. C. S. Gardner of Grace-Street Baptist Church, on "The Ancient Prophet and the Modern Preacher." In the course of his paper Dr. Gardner took occasion to express himself upon the much vexed question of the relation of the preacher to politics.

"Our business," he said, "is to build the spiritual kingdom, and to let the political kingdom take care of itself. It is not the preacher's duty to concern himself with the politics of the day, but to be a witness to the truth, and to let the people decide for themselves whether they will follow him or not."

Dr. Gardner's remarks were received with much interest, and the discussion was continued for some time. The vote was close, and the Chair was overruled.

The debate in the Union was entirely pleasant. Not one sign of anything disagreeable except out except upon one occasion, when one member made a rather fierce attack upon the newspapers of Richmond.

ARREST IN MANCHESTER

Alleged Fugitive from Washington Taken in Charge.

DEATH OF MRS. G. W. STILL

Damaging Fire Early Sunday Morning in Which There Were Several Narrow Escapes—Council Meeting To-Night—Personal Notes.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Thimble Street.

Detective Captain Tomlinson and Detective Pratt, of the Metropolitan Department, Washington, and Captain Lipscomb, of Manchester, on Saturday arrested William Diggs, a man wanted in the capital city for the theft of $450 from George Vigovsky, a citizen of Wilmington, Delaware. The arrest has been kept quiet. Detective Pratt traced his man to Richmond, and upon arriving here he took Captain Tomlinson into his confidence. As a result a systematic search of the city was made Friday, but the fugitive was not found. Saturday Manchester was visited, with the result that Diggs was apprehended, through the assistance of Captain Lipscomb.

Quietly the officers placed the man upon a north-bound train, and he was out of Manchester, beyond Richmond and over the State border before the night had passed. He is now in Washington.

James Lettlich, it is alleged, drugged Vigovsky and lifted the money from his person while he was under the influence of the drug.

HEAVY RAINS. The heavy showers last night washed the streets and sidewalks and kept people at home. The several social functions that took place had small attendances.

A great amount of the red water embankment on the sidewalks found its way into James River.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS. At the meeting of the City Council to-night the Street Committee will present a resolution requesting the council to appropriate the funds appropriated to the committee into four equal parts among the four wards. Action may be taken upon the request at the meeting, or it may go back to the committee to be decided by that body.

If the matter comes up for discussion, it is likely that a fight will be precipitated by Councilman Wakefield, who is anxious to have the money distributed among the wards in accordance with the amount of taxation paid by each ward.

Under this division it is likely that the First Ward, in which the Southern shops are located, would get the bulk of the appropriation.

DEATH OF MRS. STILL. Mrs. Still, wife of Mr. George W. Still, died at the home, No. 112 West Fifth Street, Sunday night about 11 o'clock. She was 73 years of age. She was married to her husband in her wedding dress, in which she was married some years ago at James River Baptist Church, Campbell county.

The funeral will be at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Stockton-Street Church, and the interment will be in Maury Cemetery.

OFFICE RANSACKED. During his absence from his office Sunday night, and while he was in attendance upon the services at Fifth-Street Methodist Church, the desks, tables, wardrobes, clothing, and everything, also in Dr. Brodnax's office were searched, and tampered with by some one evidently in search of money.

Nothing was missing, and as the Doctor had no funds stored away in his office, this would-be thief departed empty handed.

Flames, supposed to have been the work of frodoes, destroyed the home of Mrs. Lula Wright, No. 212 East Eleventh Street, about 3 o'clock, Sunday morning.

The fire was discovered by Inez, the little daughter, who awoke with a sensation of smothering. She aroused her mother, who, with the other children made a dash for an exit. Mrs. Wright was overcome with the smoke and fainted, as she reached the staircase leading down, and fell down the steps. Messrs. Alexander Farley and Robert J. Jeter, who had saved Mrs. Johnson, a friend, who was asleep at the time.

The flames spread rapidly, and Mrs. Wright's loss was almost total. She has been keeping a boarding house since her husband's death, and her children were killed in a railroad accident.

Messrs. Jos. A. Slavov and Robert Jeter, boarders, lost nearly everything they possessed.

The house was owned by Mrs. Wright, and was insured for $400, through Gary & Royal. She was a member of Bainbridge-Street Church, and Rev. E. V. Baldy, pastor of the church, has issued an appeal for aid for her and her children. Her contributions may be left at either Mr. R. C. Broadbent or Mr. J. T. Abbott's.

Mrs. Wright will live temporarily with Mrs. Horum, on East Ninth Street.

Besides destroying the residence of Mrs. Wright, the home of Premier Alexander Farley, next door, was damaged. The fire department did excellent services in preventing the spread of the flames, and they have been the subject of commendations and thanks from many sources.

A silver turban will be given at the home of Mrs. E. S. Laprade, on Thursday night for the benefit of Bainbridge-Street Church.

An Easter egg hunt will be given at 4 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. W. H. Owen and one also at the home of Dr. E. G. Hill.

Revel services will be conducted at Oak Grove Baptist Church all week by Rev. E. T. Smith.

No cases were tried in the Mayor's Court yesterday.

The funeral of Miss Mollie Baird was held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Crawford at 11 o'clock yesterday.

St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church last night elected the following vestrymen: Messrs. Cyrus Bossieux, John P. Mayer, G. O. Minor, B. F. Howard, Geo. L. Currie, J. S. Moore, S. J. Craigie, W. E. Blankingship, J. N. Allen, J. N. Armstrong, M. Thomas Muesen and Edgar Sibley.

The vestrymen elected the following officers: Senior Warden, Major Cyrus Bossieux; Junior Warden, and Treasurer, Captain John P. Mayer; Reader, Edgar Sibley; Delegates to the Council, Messrs. Bossieux and Currie, Alternates, Messrs. Minor and Moore.

St. James Church elected Messrs. E. B. Addison, James Caskie, Dr. J. N. Usher, W. F. Gray, James H. Gordon, W. M. Woodward, Preston Cooke, B. Atson, John P. McGuire, S. G. Wallace, O. H. Funsten and S. W. Travers. Mr. Caskie was chosen a delegate to the Council and Mr. W. S. Crawford alternate.

Monumental Church elected the former vestry, with the addition of Messrs. Lewis C. Williams, Charles Watkins and A. S. Hurt.

Christ Church elected as follows: Messrs. Charles H. Burton, John B. Gregory, C. C. Baughman, Thomas Poindeexter, W. J. Cordley, A. F. Rogers, J. B. Day, J. W. Williams, Joseph L. Gregory, James A. Gregory, H. B. Taylor and J. E. Crorey.

At the request of the parties in interest we will offer the above property at auction on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1908, at 1 o'clock P. M. This splendidly built and perfectly adapted store, situated in the vacant lot of the wholesale district, should attract the attention of all inventors. TERMS—As by Sale. April 14-15

By A. N. W. BOWE, Real Estate Auctioneer.

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from W. T. O'Connell and wife to F. B. Davis, C. Newman and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 23rd day of July, 1874, and recorded in the County Court of Orange county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1908, at 11 o'clock A. M., the one undivided eighth of the tract of 225 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $12,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

APRIL 15, 1908. April 7-Tues. 21

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from F. B. Davis and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 30th day of September, 1872, and recorded in the County Court of Louisa county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M., the tract of 200 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $10,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

APRIL 23, 1908. April 7-Tues. 21

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from F. B. Davis and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 30th day of September, 1872, and recorded in the County Court of Louisa county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M., the tract of 200 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $10,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

APRIL 23, 1908. April 7-Tues. 21

AUCTION SALES—THIS DAY.

UNUSUALLY LARGE, WELL-SORTED STOCK OF FRESH GROCERIES, HORSE WAGON, IRON SAFE, FISH, BUTTER, EGGS, AND OTHERS. TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from W. T. O'Connell and wife to F. B. Davis, C. Newman and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 23rd day of July, 1874, and recorded in the County Court of Orange county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1908, at 11 o'clock A. M., the one undivided eighth of the tract of 225 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $12,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

APRIL 15, 1908. April 7-Tues. 21

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from F. B. Davis and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 30th day of September, 1872, and recorded in the County Court of Louisa county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M., the tract of 200 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $10,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

APRIL 23, 1908. April 7-Tues. 21

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from F. B. Davis and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 30th day of September, 1872, and recorded in the County Court of Louisa county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M., the tract of 200 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $10,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

APRIL 23, 1908. April 7-Tues. 21

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND IN LOUISIANA COUNTY, VA.

As surviving trustees in the deed of trust from F. B. Davis and William M. Dunn, for the benefit of the Gordonsville Building Association, bearing date 30th day of September, 1872, and recorded in the County Court of Louisa county, being thereto required by the said beneficiary, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M., the tract of 200 Acres of land, conveyed by said deed, and lying between the C. & O. Railroad near Darms Store, and is of good quality. TERMS—Cash enough to pay costs of executing the trust, and to pay the balance of the debt secured, viz., $10,000, with interest on $2,500 from October 15, 1898, and as to any residue upon terms to be announced at sale. CONWAY NEWMAN, F. B. DAVIS, Surviving Trustees.

</