

TRIED TO GET AT HIM

Some Excitement in the County Court.

LIQUOR LICENSES MONDAY

General Holiday for the Schools of Henrico Next Friday—Negro Woman Skips Her Ball.

At one stage in the proceedings in the Henrico County Court yesterday the defendant in a case tried to climb over the bar and get hold of the plaintiff, who sat in the witness chair a short distance away. The excitement was quelled at once and the offender was fined for contempt of court until he apologized, when the fine was remitted.

The case was that of John P. McSorley vs. James W. Martin, action to recover damages for injuries to a buggy owned by Mr. McSorley. Mr. Martin defended himself. The plaintiff was represented by attorneys. There was some question over which shaft of the buggy had been broken, and Mr. McSorley made a statement contradicting that of Mr. Martin, remarking that the latter knew what he had said was not true.

This pronouncement from the witness stand excited the ire of Mr. Martin. He replied quickly to Mr. McSorley, made as if to jump over the bar. Before he could get any distance, however, he was caught by Deputy Sheriff Voegler, who kept him quiet thereafter. Judge Wickham fined the man $5 for contempt, but, afterward, remitted it when Mr. Martin apologized.

The jury rendered a verdict of $20 for the plaintiff.

The greatest interest is felt in the county in the granting of liquor licenses, which will occur in the County Court to-morrow. Since the enactment of the Mann bill it is believed that some fifteen or twenty saloons will go to the wall.

Petitions required by the new law are circulating, but it is doubtful if they will get signed. Some others will be unable to pay the high license.

It is understood that the Virginia Passenger and Power Company will oppose all applications for license to sell liquor near the Reservoir.

After consultation with several of the trustees yesterday Superintendent Fussell decided to give a general holiday in the county next Friday, that the teachers may have an opportunity to attend the educational conference here. The order, however, applies only to such teachers as intend to be present at the conference.

The Rev. J. H. Faulstich, of Henrico, is $100 out of pocket. There was to be tried Friday night before Mayor Jeter, of Fairmont, Mary Hill, the negro woman charged with stealing flowers Easter morning. She had been bailed in the sum of $100, the Rev. Faulstich going on her bond. But Mary appeared not. She had skipped her bail.

The Tuckahoe School Board met at the courthouse yesterday and transacted certain routine business.

Dr. Hugh Smith was at the courthouse yesterday. His many friends were delighted to see him out again.

Special Officer R. H. Hobson has announced himself a candidate for constable from Fairfield District.

Constantine T. H. Samuels is out again after a spell of sickness.

IN WEST POINT

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Celebrate Silver Wedding at "Chestnut Grove."

WEST POINT, VA., April 18.—Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Chandler celebrated their silver wedding at Chestnut Grove, near Kent county, the birthplace of Martha Washington, recently. Mrs. Chandler was assisted in receiving her son, Mr. P. Chandler, of West Point, and her daughter, Miss Blanche. The house was magnificently decorated with boxwood and spring flowers.

Dancing continued from 8 P. M. until this "evening hours" with time only taken to renew the inner man. The presents were many and handsome. There were many guests from a distance.

In spite of the weather, the Easter Sunday parade was as expected. There were many visitors to add to the enjoyment of the day. Messrs. Kemp Slaughter, Julian Bagby and Treadwell Conyers, from Baltimore; Messrs. Carl Tomlinson, from Baltimore; and Messrs. Hess, from Urbanna, Va.; Mr. Burnett Lewis, from Norfolk; Mr. Leland Treat, from Alexandria, and others.

Mr. George, of the Government Light Ship, is here on a furlough.

Mrs. O. C. Lewis, the mother of Mr. I. Lewis, left to-day to visit her daughter, Mrs. Dr. C. T. Whiting, at Port Conway, Va.

There was a pretty home wedding in lower King and Queen county. The contracting parties were Miss Ocie Crittenden to Mr. Stanley Didiak. Rev. J. A. Sullivan, of West Point, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome gown in ivory broadcloth. After the ceremony an elegant supper was served. Notwithstanding the stormy night of Easter Monday, there was a large crowd at the concert given by John A. The Bullman, for the Baptist Church. The programme consisted of music, recitations, stereoscopic views of Pilgrims' Progress, etc. An Easter Egg was presented to each of the first one hundred children at the door under the age of sixteen. The recitation, "When the Flag was New," by Master Thomas Lipscomb, only five years old, deserves special mention. His rendition would have done credit to a grown man.

The ladies of West Point Baptist Church are arranging for a "rummage sale" in the near future. They are never very far behind.

Miss Ruth Snoot, who has had a position in the Express office with Mr. J. W. Owen for the past season, left to-day for Washington, where she will spend the summer.

Misses Louise Daley and Fanny Brooks are visiting in Richmond.

The election for clerk of courts in King William county will be held in the fall of 1905, this being one of the exceptions in the coming fall elections.

Mr. Turner Longworth, of Pittsburg, has been visiting his parents in Leesburg.

Dr. Benjamin Elgin, of Baltimore, has been visiting in Leesburg at the home of his mother.

Miss Rebecca Harrison has returned to Leesburg, after an extended visit to the family of Dr. Winchester, at Mason, Ga.

Mr. Charles Wiso, who is with the corps of civil engineers of the Washash Railroad, has been on a visit to his father, Mr. W. N. Wiso, of this city.

AT THE CHARLOTTE

The Ball in Kaysville Wednesday Night a Brilliant Affair.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) KAYSVILLE, VA., April 18.—The ball at Hotel Charlotte Wednesday night was a brilliant affair. The commodious ball room presented a spectacle of gayety seldom witnessed in this town, and the costumes of the ladies added to the brilliancy of the scene. An elegant supper was served. Dancing was indulged in until early morn, when the merry party.

transacted of the company for the last fiscal year were $7,874.96. The reports showed the institution to be in a most flourishing condition, the assets running nearly $250,000 over liabilities. A portion of this surplus will be paid out in dividends. This is a home enterprise, and some of the best business men in Farmville are its officers, directors and stockholders.

General Stith Bolling, has appointed Captain E. W. Bailett, of this place, one of his staff officers for the New Orleans meeting of Confederates. This is the second time the honor comes to Captain Bailett, and again it has been worthily bestowed and will be worthily worn.

Miss Birdie Cox, a very charming young

Barn Dance.

It would seem that Richmond society has not had enough of barn dancing, for it intends to betake itself again to that rustic form of diversion on the evening of the 25th of April, at the Masonic Temple.

Again will the melodies of the banjo and the fiddle inspire the souls and feet of those who hearken to the programme which Mr. Miller's "merry men" have gotten out for that night, and again will Mr. Miller himself lead the swinging choruses and call the figures for the dancers.

The second barn dance, as the first, is to be given under the auspices of the chairman and ladies of the South Carolina club.

Personal Mention.

DEBATE AT ASHLAND

Celebration of the Public Debates of the Franklin Literary Society.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHLAND, VA., April 18.—The celebration of the public debates of the Franklin Literary Society took place last night before a large audience in the College Hall. The exercises were conducted by the officers, President Edwin Jason Dryer, Vice-President Clarence Adair Rhodes, and Albert Darling Pettijohn. Mr. Clifton Forrest McLintine was the orator, and used for his subject "True Patriotism."

The debate, "Resolved, That the combination of labor is necessary to meet the combination of capital," Affirmative, Philip M. Hank, Libby J. Mills; negative, James Thomas Morris, Henry W. Davis. The marshals were: Chief, Richard Beale Davis; assistants, Berryman G. Betty and Ossie H. Guy.

The evening was profitably passed and the assemblies were well pleased with the excellent work of the young men.

The Business Men's Association of Hanover will have a special called meeting on Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Mayor's office. There is much business before the meeting of great importance to the town and county, which will be pushed to completion.

Mr. John R. Taylor, the honored clerk of Hanover county, is very ill at his home, near Hanover Courthouse. Mr. Taylor is the oldest clerk in point of service in the State, and is a man of the strictest integrity and most kindly feelings. He is one of the old-time men of the State. His condition is very serious, and his friends, who are legion, are very apprehensive.

Local Option in Hanover.

Rev. L. S. Boyles has returned from Hanover, where he has been aiding in the local option fight. Mr. Boyles says the outlook for the "dry" is bright.

Mr. Hicks' Recovery.

E. T. Hicks, the young man who was thrown from a buggy last Wednesday night in front of Murphy's, as a result of a collision with a street car, is recovering from his injuries slowly. He is still confined to his home, No. 893 North Twenty-fourth Street.
