

HOSTESSES AND GUESTS

Summer Social Courtesies Many in Norfolk.

MANY HOUSE PARTIES

Mrs. Killiam Entertains in Honor of the Guest—Lieutenant Read and Bride Visiting Relatives in Newport News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., June 20.—Mrs. Frederick M. Killiam entertained at cards Monday afternoon at her home, in Duke Street, in honor of her guest, Miss Bevan, of Baltimore.

There were two tables of eight-hand euchre, and a prize for each table. They were won by Miss Anna Taylor, who received a set of collars and cuffs, and Miss Elizabeth Winn received a pair of cuff pins. Miss Lillian Kennett drew the consolation, a pocketbook.

Mrs. Killiam's guests were Miss Bevan, Miss Nellie Little, Miss Anna Taylor, Miss Faith Farquhar, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Portia Baldwin, of Berryville; Miss Mary Lloyd, of East Orange, N. J.; Misses Belle and Cornelia Truxton, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Helen Taylor, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Bessie Grandy, Miss Lillian Kennett, Miss Elizabeth Winn and Miss Mary Lou Cooke.

Miss Lucy Baylor was hostess at a luncheon given Wednesday at the Country Club. The guest of honor was Miss Mary Lloyd, of East Orange, N. J. Covers were laid for fifteen and the guests were: Mrs. A. M. Akeley, Jr., of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Portia Baldwin, of Berryville; Miss Helen Taylor, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Belle Truxton, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Alice Kilby, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Helen Taylor, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Elizabeth Winn and Miss Mary Lou Cooke.

Miss Lucy Baylor was hostess at a luncheon given Wednesday at the Country Club. The guest of honor was Miss Mary Lloyd, of East Orange, N. J. Covers were laid for fifteen and the guests were: Mrs. A. M. Akeley, Jr., of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Portia Baldwin, of Berryville; Miss Helen Taylor, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Belle Truxton, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Alice Kilby, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Helen Taylor, of Sandy Spring, Md.; Miss Elizabeth Winn and Miss Mary Lou Cooke.

Mr. Tom Page entertained at Ocean View Tuesday evening. His guests were Mrs. J. F. Terrell, of Washington; Miss Kennett, of Baltimore; Miss Mildred Kennett, Mr. Lloyd Freeman and Mr. George Kelly.

Hon. W. W. Sale was host at a supper Tuesday evening at Hotel Nodde. Among those present were Hon. E. C. Jordan, Hon. S. Wilkins Mathews and W. D. Cardwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chamberlain and son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain, in Duke Street.

Misses Bessie Day, Hattie Williams and Elizabeth Scott are guests of Miss Madge Stokes, at Willoughby Beach. Miss Annie Graham returned to Newport News after being the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Maligne, in Bute Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pegram, of Richmond, are stopping at the Chamberlain Hotel.

Miss Katherine Yonge, of Richmond, is the guest of the Misses Old, in Freemason Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornhill, of Lynchburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Waddill, in College Place.

Miss May Nicholson, who has been visiting Miss Josephine Cooke, in York Street, has returned to Washington.

Mrs. Samuel A. Riddick, of Smithfield, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Griffin, in Court Street, Portsmouth. She came to attend the Bagley-Billey wedding.

Miss Nellie Tucker, who has been visiting Miss Belle Harrison at Brandon, has returned to Summit Point.

spend the summer at Virginia Beach. Mr. William H. Hendren, of New Orleans, is visiting his father, Mr. W. Hardy Hendren, in Bute Street.

Mr. H. C. Tyler has returned from a trip to New York. Mr. and Mrs. G. Paulding have returned from a trip to Japan and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. S. Reid, in York Street.

Mr. Westfall, who has been the guest of Mr. Robert L. Payne, Jr., in Freemason Street, has returned to his home, in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Townsend and little Miss Dorothy Townsend, of Richmond, are at Virginia Beach. Miss Bevan, who has been the guest of Mrs. F. M. Killiam, in Duke Street, has returned to her home, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Salomonsky and the Misses Salomonsky are in Ocean View. Mr. Frank Baxter, of Fender, of Texas, are visiting relatives in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Meade and son, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George H. Davis, in Ghent, have returned to Danville.

Mrs. Douthat and Mr. John Douthat have returned to their home, Weyanoke-on-the-James, after a visit to Mrs. Harry C. Tyler, in Ghent.

Miss Victoria Peed has returned from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Vail, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Rowland Walker, in Ghent.

Mrs. P. J. Dempsey, of Alexandria, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Armistead Carter, in Ward Avenue.

Mr. Frank Baxter, of Holyoke, Mass., passed through Norfolk Wednesday to spend his vacation with his parents, in Elizabeth City.

Mrs. Pleasant, who has been the guest of Mrs. Lucien Merritt, has returned to New York.

Misses Ella and Augusta Thornton are at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. A. M. Osborne and Mrs. W. T. Duncan have returned from New York. Miss E. M. Henry has returned from a visit to relatives in Smithfield.

Mrs. S. T. Wood has returned to her home in Lynchburg after a visit to Mrs. C. C. Waddill in College Place, and Mrs. C. C. Waddill in College Place.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Read, Jr., are visiting relatives in Newport News. Mrs. Read was formerly Miss Marguerite Walters Burruss, of this city, and was married in Santa Barbara, Cal., on June 24 to Mr. Read, who is a lieutenant in the United States army. Later Mr. and Mrs. Read will return here.

Mrs. Paxton, who has been the guest of Miss Clark, in Ghent, left Monday for Virginia Beach.

Mrs. George Ross, of Gloucester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Holt W. Page, in Yarmouth Street.

Miss Biggs, of Lexington, N. C., who has been the guest of Miss Melissa Payne in Freemason Street, has returned home, accompanied by Miss Adderton, of Washington, N. C., and Miss Payne.

SOCIETY OF DANVILLE

Bell and Bow German the Event of the Week.

GIVEN BY YOUNG LADIES

They Invited the Men and Did All the Honors—Hall Beautifully Decorated and the Figures Gracefully Danced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, Va., June 20.—One of the most delightful Germans given in Danville for a long time was the Bell and Bow German given the young men of the city by the young ladies on Wednesday night. The scheme of giving a German originated with Misses India Watson and Mary Gravelly, and to them is due in a great measure the splendid success of the affair, but they were ably assisted by Misses Bessie Watson, Mabel Robinson, Annie Salzman, and to the other young ladies of the city who so generously responded and contributed their charming presence. This was strictly a ladies' German, and the order was reversed.

The young ladies invited the young men, made the engagements and impersonated the sterner sex as best they could. During each figure the couples went to the table, where the young ladies planned on a bell and the young men a bow, thus indicating the number of dances each had. The decorations were beautiful. In the center of the hall at one end was suspended an immense bell and at the other a bow. The sides were decorated with flags and flowers, and the stand for the musicians was curtained off and decorated with ferns and banners. No little credit is due to Colonel J. Stanley Oliver, than whom there is none better when it comes to piloting

Raymond Hall, Max Coleman, Fred Noell and C. M. Flynn. The chaperones were Mrs. W. D. Watson, Mrs. W. R. Cosby, Mrs. O. Salzman, Captain and Mrs. L. C. West, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harwood, Mrs. P. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Williamson.

The event of the evening was the bell and bow figure, which was danced at 12 o'clock and led by Colonel Oliver and Mrs. Mary Hunter Bethell. There was a new figure, and was one of the prettiest of the evening. When the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" were at last wafted to the breezes the young people reluctantly took their departure, but will retain in their memory the bell and bow German given by the young ladies.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Hill, of this city, to Dr. Charles Robertson, of Greensboro, N. C., Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock was one of the events of the week. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the bride's mother, on Broad Street, where the color motif was green and white. The parlors, dining-room and hall were carpeted with white canvas. An arch of tall palms was formed before the mantel, the background being of ferns and small palms. Under this arch the solemn words of the impressive marriage service of the Methodist Church were spoken by Dr. J. W. Crawford, of Greensboro. The bride was crowned from the dining room, which was also decorated with palms and ferns through a aisle formed of ropes of smilax. Miss Anna Meade Michaux, of Greensboro, and Miss Bessie Holland leading, followed by Mr. A. V. D. Smith, of Greensboro, and Mr. George D. Boyd, of Charlotte. Then came Miss Bessie W. Miller, of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Robertson, of Chapel Hill, followed by Messrs. Richard Crawford and Z. V. Conyers, of Greensboro; next followed Miss Mabel H. Kase, first bridesmaid, with Mr. A. L. Goodloe, Jr., of Guilford. The dame of honor, Mrs. Nellie H. Miller, of Greensboro, sister of the bride, dressed in reseda crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of bride roses preceded the bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. W. B. Hill, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Wescott Robertson. The ushers were Messrs. James I. Pritchett and L. W. Clark, of Spry.

The bride wore a going-away gown of navy blue taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore gowns of soft, white silk and white picture hats, trimmed with long plumes, carrying white silk parasols, the gift of the bride.

Miss Elnora Guerrant rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered, and "Call Me Thine Own," during the ceremony.

Mrs. Hill entertained the bridal party and a few friends Tuesday evening at an informal reception.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Halston, of Oak Hill; Mrs. A. B. Robertson, of Chapel Hill, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jeffries, of Durham; Miss Mildred Hill, of New York; Miss Ethel Hall, of Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Michaux, of Goldboro; Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Michaux, Mrs. J. W. Lindau and Mr. Clarence R. Brown, of Greensboro, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Clark, of Spry.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Epiphany Church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Sallie T. Holt was united in marriage to Mr. James D. Crews. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and clematis flowers, and presented a very pleasing spectacle. Miss Annie Wheeler, of Buffalo, N. Y., was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Crews was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Rosa Crews and Katie Woolfolk, Mrs. Henry B. Watkins, of Richmond, was dame of honor. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crews left on an extended bridal tour.

CREWS-HOLT. A pretty wedding was solemnized at Epiphany Church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Sallie T. Holt was united in marriage to Mr. James D. Crews. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and clematis flowers, and presented a very pleasing spectacle. Miss Annie Wheeler, of Buffalo, N. Y., was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Crews was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Rosa Crews and Katie Woolfolk, Mrs. Henry B. Watkins, of Richmond, was dame of honor. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crews left on an extended bridal tour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lee, of Hampton, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening at their cottage at Buckrook Beach. Among those present from Norfolk were Misses Josephine Cooke, Victor Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Horman Steinkney and Misses Annie and Carrie Volght.

AT OCEAN VIEW. Mr. Tom Page entertained at Ocean View Tuesday evening. His guests were Mrs. J. F. Terrell, of Washington; Miss Kennett, of Baltimore; Miss Mildred Kennett, Mr. Lloyd Freeman and Mr. George Kelly.

Hon. W. W. Sale was host at a supper Tuesday evening at Hotel Nodde. Among those present were Hon. E. C. Jordan, Hon. S. Wilkins Mathews and W. D. Cardwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chamberlain and son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain, in Duke Street.

Misses Bessie Day, Hattie Williams and Elizabeth Scott are guests of Miss Madge Stokes, at Willoughby Beach. Miss Annie Graham returned to Newport News after being the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Maligne, in Bute Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pegram, of Richmond, are stopping at the Chamberlain Hotel.

Miss Roberta Y. Winfrey.

Miss Winfrey is the oldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Winfrey, of Culpeper, Va. She was educated in the public schools of Culpeper, the Culpeper Female Seminary and the Rawlings Institute—a full graduate of the session just closed. She proposes to join the noble army of teachers.

Miss Fannie Bailey Kendall.

Miss Kendall's home is with her parents, near Nason's, Orange county, Va. She is an unusually brilliant and intellectual young lady, a full graduate of the Rawlings Institute, at Charlottesville, the past session, and will devote herself to the work of teaching.

of Miss Clark, in Ghent, left Monday for Virginia Beach.

Mrs. George Ross, of Gloucester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Holt W. Page, in Yarmouth Street.

Miss Biggs, of Lexington, N. C., who has been the guest of Miss Melissa Payne in Freemason Street, has returned home, accompanied by Miss Adderton, of Washington, N. C., and Miss Payne.

Miss Elouse Hayden has returned from a visit to relatives in Baltimore and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Borum, of Portsmouth, have opened their cottage at Ocean View.

Miss Mary Zollinger, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. T. F. Rogers, in Bute Street, left Wednesday for Elizabeth City.

Miss Louise Jones and Mr. Ralph Jones attended the finals at the V. M. I. Miss Louise Smith, of Lynchburg, is the guest of Mrs. J. Sidney Smith, at Ocean View.

Mr. Strass, of Poanoka, is visiting Mrs. C. A. Nash, in Granby Street.

Mrs. R. Calvert Taylor has returned after a visit of two weeks to her mother, Mrs. Delhaut, in Randolph, Md.

the many couples through the mazes of the intricate German figures, and last night he introduced a number of new figures, which were very beautiful indeed.

THE YOUNG LADIES. The young ladies present were Misses Mary Gravelly, India Watson, Kathryn Patton, Elizabeth Conrad, Lucy Cosby, Annie Salzman, Mary Hunter Bethell, Henrietta Anderson, Annie Lee Penn, Grace Conrad, Happy Hall, Empress Wooding, Lilly Venable, Myrtle Conrad, Sadie Harvie, Bessie Watson, Ethel Lipscomb, Lula Graves, Kathrine Reeves, Mabel Robinson, Mary Drewry, of Richmond; Annie G. Mullin, of Martinsville; Annie Tucker, Miss Robertson, of North Carolina; Annie C. Berkley, Christian Miller, Fannie Covington and Nannie Graves.

The young gentlemen present were Messrs. Walter Waddill, A. H. Drewry, of Richmond; Kenneth Noell, Ellis Penn, W. T. Gravey, J. J. Lonsdale, Jr., Edward Young, Frank Ferrell, Hunt Wimbish, Campbell Acree, James James, Roscoe Anderson, Richard Pritchett, Williams White, John Jordan, A. F. Patton, Henry Patton, E. H. Miller, Jr., Clairborn White, Roland Hill, B. Green, Jr., J. M. Featherston, C. G. Holland, Kyle Jones, W. M. Chalmers, Kenneth Wimbish, Warren Douthat, L. M. Walker, Harry Robertson, Dr. H. W. Cole, Jr., George Waitte, W. T. Swann, W. White, Jeff. Rislon, J. T. Catlin, Jr., Theo. Skinner,

SOCIETY OF DANVILLE

Bell and Bow German the Event of the Week.

GIVEN BY YOUNG LADIES

They Invited the Men and Did All the Honors—Hall Beautifully Decorated and the Figures Gracefully Danced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, Va., June 20.—One of the most delightful Germans given in Danville for a long time was the Bell and Bow German given the young men of the city by the young ladies on Wednesday night. The scheme of giving a German originated with Misses India Watson and Mary Gravelly, and to them is due in a great measure the splendid success of the affair, but they were ably assisted by Misses Bessie Watson, Mabel Robinson, Annie Salzman, and to the other young ladies of the city who so generously responded and contributed their charming presence. This was strictly a ladies' German, and the order was reversed.

The young ladies invited the young men, made the engagements and impersonated the sterner sex as best they could. During each figure the couples went to the table, where the young ladies planned on a bell and the young men a bow, thus indicating the number of dances each had. The decorations were beautiful. In the center of the hall at one end was suspended an immense bell and at the other a bow. The sides were decorated with flags and flowers, and the stand for the musicians was curtained off and decorated with ferns and banners. No little credit is due to Colonel J. Stanley Oliver, than whom there is none better when it comes to piloting

Raymond Hall, Max Coleman, Fred Noell and C. M. Flynn. The chaperones were Mrs. W. D. Watson, Mrs. W. R. Cosby, Mrs. O. Salzman, Captain and Mrs. L. C. West, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harwood, Mrs. P. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Williamson.

The event of the evening was the bell and bow figure, which was danced at 12 o'clock and led by Colonel Oliver and Mrs. Mary Hunter Bethell. There was a new figure, and was one of the prettiest of the evening. When the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" were at last wafted to the breezes the young people reluctantly took their departure, but will retain in their memory the bell and bow German given by the young ladies.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Hill, of this city, to Dr. Charles Robertson, of Greensboro, N. C., Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock was one of the events of the week. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the bride's mother, on Broad Street, where the color motif was green and white. The parlors, dining-room and hall were carpeted with white canvas. An arch of tall palms was formed before the mantel, the background being of ferns and small palms. Under this arch the solemn words of the impressive marriage service of the Methodist Church were spoken by Dr. J. W. Crawford, of Greensboro. The bride was crowned from the dining room, which was also decorated with palms and ferns through a aisle formed of ropes of smilax. Miss Anna Meade Michaux, of Greensboro, and Miss Bessie Holland leading, followed by Mr. A. V. D. Smith, of Greensboro, and Mr. George D. Boyd, of Charlotte. Then came Miss Bessie W. Miller, of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Robertson, of Chapel Hill, followed by Messrs. Richard Crawford and Z. V. Conyers, of Greensboro; next followed Miss Mabel H. Kase, first bridesmaid, with Mr. A. L. Goodloe, Jr., of Guilford. The dame of honor, Mrs. Nellie H. Miller, of Greensboro, sister of the bride, dressed in reseda crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of bride roses preceded the bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. W. B. Hill, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Wescott Robertson. The ushers were Messrs. James I. Pritchett and L. W. Clark, of Spry.

The bride wore a going-away gown of navy blue taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore gowns of soft, white silk and white picture hats, trimmed with long plumes, carrying white silk parasols, the gift of the bride.

Miss Elnora Guerrant rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered, and "Call Me Thine Own," during the ceremony.

Mrs. Hill entertained the bridal party and a few friends Tuesday evening at an informal reception.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Halston, of Oak Hill; Mrs. A. B. Robertson, of Chapel Hill, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jeffries, of Durham; Miss Mildred Hill, of New York; Miss Ethel Hall, of Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Michaux, of Goldboro; Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Michaux, Mrs. J. W. Lindau and Mr. Clarence R. Brown, of Greensboro, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Clark, of Spry.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Epiphany Church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Sallie T. Holt was united in marriage to Mr. James D. Crews. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and clematis flowers, and presented a very pleasing spectacle. Miss Annie Wheeler, of Buffalo, N. Y., was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Crews was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Rosa Crews and Katie Woolfolk, Mrs. Henry B. Watkins, of Richmond, was dame of honor. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crews left on an extended bridal tour.

CREWS-HOLT. A pretty wedding was solemnized at Epiphany Church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Sallie T. Holt was united in marriage to Mr. James D. Crews. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and clematis flowers, and presented a very pleasing spectacle. Miss Annie Wheeler, of Buffalo, N. Y., was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Crews was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Rosa Crews and Katie Woolfolk, Mrs. Henry B. Watkins, of Richmond, was dame of honor. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crews left on an extended bridal tour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lee, of Hampton, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening at their cottage at Buckrook Beach. Among those present from Norfolk were Misses Josephine Cooke, Victor Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Horman Steinkney and Misses Annie and Carrie Volght.

AT OCEAN VIEW. Mr. Tom Page entertained at Ocean View Tuesday evening. His guests were Mrs. J. F. Terrell, of Washington; Miss Kennett, of Baltimore; Miss Mildred Kennett, Mr. Lloyd Freeman and Mr. George Kelly.

Hon. W. W. Sale was host at a supper Tuesday evening at Hotel Nodde. Among those present were Hon. E. C. Jordan, Hon. S. Wilkins Mathews and W. D. Cardwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chamberlain and son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain, in Duke Street.

Misses Bessie Day, Hattie Williams and Elizabeth Scott are guests of Miss Madge Stokes, at Willoughby Beach. Miss Annie Graham returned to Newport News after being the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Maligne, in Bute Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pegram, of Richmond, are stopping at the Chamberlain Hotel.

SOCIETY OF DANVILLE

Bell and Bow German the Event of the Week.

GIVEN BY YOUNG LADIES

They Invited the Men and Did All the Honors—Hall Beautifully Decorated and the Figures Gracefully Danced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, Va., June 20.—One of the most delightful Germans given in Danville for a long time was the Bell and Bow German given the young men of the city by the young ladies on Wednesday night. The scheme of giving a German originated with Misses India Watson and Mary Gravelly, and to them is due in a great measure the splendid success of the affair, but they were ably assisted by Misses Bessie Watson, Mabel Robinson, Annie Salzman, and to the other young ladies of the city who so generously responded and contributed their charming presence. This was strictly a ladies' German, and the order was reversed.

The young ladies invited the young men, made the engagements and impersonated the sterner sex as best they could. During each figure the couples went to the table, where the young ladies planned on a bell and the young men a bow, thus indicating the number of dances each had. The decorations were beautiful. In the center of the hall at one end was suspended an immense bell and at the other a bow. The sides were decorated with flags and flowers, and the stand for the musicians was curtained off and decorated with ferns and banners. No little credit is due to Colonel J. Stanley Oliver, than whom there is none better when it comes to piloting

Raymond Hall, Max Coleman, Fred Noell and C. M. Flynn. The chaperones were Mrs. W. D. Watson, Mrs. W. R. Cosby, Mrs. O. Salzman, Captain and Mrs. L. C. West, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harwood, Mrs. P. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Williamson.

The event of the evening was the bell and bow figure, which was danced at 12 o'clock and led by Colonel Oliver and Mrs. Mary Hunter Bethell. There was a new figure, and was one of the prettiest of the evening. When the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" were at last wafted to the breezes the young people reluctantly took their departure, but will retain in their memory the bell and bow German given by the young ladies.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Hill, of this city, to Dr. Charles Robertson, of Greensboro, N. C., Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock was one of the events of the week. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the bride's mother, on Broad Street, where the color motif was green and white. The parlors, dining-room and hall were carpeted with white canvas. An arch of tall palms was formed before the mantel, the background being of ferns and small palms. Under this arch the solemn words of the impressive marriage service of the Methodist Church were spoken by Dr. J. W. Crawford, of Greensboro. The bride was crowned from the dining room, which was also decorated with palms and ferns through a aisle formed of ropes of smilax. Miss Anna Meade Michaux, of Greensboro, and Miss Bessie Holland leading, followed by Mr. A. V. D. Smith, of Greensboro, and Mr. George D. Boyd, of Charlotte. Then came Miss Bessie W. Miller, of Greensboro, and Miss Mary Robertson, of Chapel Hill, followed by Messrs. Richard Crawford and Z. V. Conyers, of Greensboro; next followed Miss Mabel H. Kase, first bridesmaid, with Mr. A. L. Goodloe, Jr., of Guilford. The dame of honor, Mrs. Nellie H. Miller, of Greensboro, sister of the bride, dressed in reseda crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of bride roses preceded the bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. W. B. Hill, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Wescott Robertson. The ushers were Messrs. James I. Pritchett and L. W. Clark, of Spry.

The bride wore a going-away gown of navy blue taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore gowns of soft, white silk and white picture hats, trimmed with long plumes, carrying white silk parasols, the gift of the bride.

Miss Elnora Guerrant rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered, and "Call Me Thine Own," during the ceremony.

Mrs. Hill entertained the bridal party and a few friends Tuesday evening at an informal reception.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Halston, of Oak Hill; Mrs. A. B. Robertson, of Chapel Hill, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jeffries, of Durham; Miss Mildred Hill, of New York; Miss Ethel Hall, of Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Michaux, of Goldboro; Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Michaux, Mrs. J. W. Lindau and Mr. Clarence R. Brown, of Greensboro, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Clark, of Spry.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Epiphany Church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Sallie T. Holt was united in marriage to Mr. James D. Crews. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and clematis flowers, and presented a very pleasing spectacle. Miss Annie Wheeler, of Buffalo, N. Y., was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Crews was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Rosa Crews and Katie Woolfolk, Mrs. Henry B. Watkins, of Richmond, was dame of honor. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crews left on an extended bridal tour.

CREWS-HOLT. A pretty wedding was solemnized at Epiphany Church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Sallie T. Holt was united in marriage to Mr. James D. Crews. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and clematis flowers, and presented a very pleasing spectacle. Miss Annie Wheeler, of Buffalo, N. Y., was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Crews was best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Rosa Crews and Katie Woolfolk, Mrs. Henry B. Watkins, of Richmond, was dame of honor. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crews left on an extended bridal tour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lee, of Hampton, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening at their cottage at Buckrook Beach. Among those present from Norfolk were Misses Josephine Cooke, Victor Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Horman Steinkney and Misses Annie and Carrie Volght.

AT OCEAN VIEW. Mr. Tom Page entertained at Ocean View Tuesday evening. His guests were Mrs. J. F. Terrell, of Washington; Miss Kennett, of Baltimore; Miss Mildred Kennett, Mr. Lloyd Freeman and Mr. George Kelly.

Hon. W. W. Sale was host at a supper Tuesday evening at Hotel Nodde. Among those present were Hon. E. C. Jordan, Hon. S. Wilkins Mathews and W. D. Cardwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chamberlain and son, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain, in Duke Street.

Misses Bessie Day, Hattie Williams and Elizabeth Scott are guests of Miss Madge Stokes, at Willoughby Beach. Miss Annie Graham returned to Newport News after being the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Maligne, in Bute Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pegram, of Richmond, are stopping at the Chamberlain Hotel.

Bind It Up.

Ever since men became weary and women ministered to them, it has been the custom to bind up any weak part of the body as the best preventive and relief for fatigue. Now the "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is made in such a manner that it "binds up" and Supports the weak part of the foot, which is the arch.

It strengthens and sustains the overworked muscles there which stretch at every step.

But it does not itself yield! Examine a "Dorothy Dodd" after two months' hard service and you find the shank has lost none of its curve. Examine any other Shoe after only two weeks and see how the shank has lost its stiffness and bends at each step. No support to the arch there! And the result is that long walking becomes wearisome.

Sincerely yours,

Oxfords $2.50. Boots $3.00. Specials 50c more.

Fast color eyelets do not wear brassy.

Dorothy Dodd

Dorothy Dodd