At the Theatros.
The Bijou Musical Comedy Company will bid farewell to Richmond for many weeks at the performance to-night. The organization will go to Pleasanton, Va., on Monday, presenting the long list of Hoyt plays in which the company has been so successful here.

The House of Jack Bull, which will be given at matinee and night performances, is well calculated to leave happy memories in the minds of the audience, who see it. It is a kaleidoscope of color, a whirl of fantastic comedy, a riot of dance, and a sea of music.

The performance of "East Lynn" at the Academy last night by the Dalton Company was a distinct improvement on the first effort. The company was seriously handicapped by nervousness on the opening night, but the production now leaves no doubt as to its merit. The company, it is safe to say, will shine to greater advantage in light comedies and society plays, of which it has a large repertoire made up for the rest of the season, but for the sake of contrast this performance of "East Lynn" is well worth seeing, and if you do not know the play, then you should lose no time in doing so.

The Dalton Company will revive "Caste" next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "Kilnary and the Rhine." Both these delightful comedies should suit the company very well and a delightful treat is promised.

One of the merriest comedies the stage has seen in recent years, if all reports are credited, is "A Turkish Texan," which comes to the Bijou next week. The comedy is from the pen of that well-known popular comedian, Willie Collier, one of the cleverest of the younger dramatic writers in the country. George Parsons and Isabelle Urquhart play the principal roles, and the production is extremely clever people exceedingly well, and the balance of the company is said to be of the highest quality.

The men's meetings for the summer are being conducted by the young men and are proving full of interest. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Physical Director, Mr. Charles W. Hardy, will conduct the services. The theme will be "Jacob Wrestling."

It will be an interesting service, and will close with a social song, after which a cordial invitation will be made to meet and a three years' study in the life of Christ will begin. This class will be a half hour chat, and will prove of great interest to men.

The Association building is open from 2:30 to 6 o'clock on Sunday, and men are cordially invited to the reading room, library or to attend services.

WAITING FOR HIS MS.

The Wm. C. Rives Incident at the African Church.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir—I beg to say I was surprised to see your editorial of the 22d instant, under the caption of "Richie as an Orator," reference to an incident that occurred at the African Church, where the Hon. William C. Rives was to make a speech and could not do so until he got his manuscript from the Whig office. The incident, as you remember, but have never met with any other person who remembered it, and I have concluded that the incident would do with me, but it appears that there is nothing on earth or in the waters beneath that is worth knowing that The Times-Dispatch does not bring to light.

The Hon. William C. Rives was a speaker of wide reputation, and hence the announcement that he was to speak that night brought out a large crowd, the house being packed. When the time came to commence, Mr. Rives rose and walked to the desk and after glancing over the immense audience, said: "Gentlemen and fellow-citizens, and thank you for your presence and cheerfulness, and said again, 'Gentlemen and fellow-citizens,' took another sip of water and cleared his throat and again said, 'Gentlemen and fellow-citizens,' and took another sip of water.

At this unexpected turn of things every eye was on him. There was suppressed laughter among the audience, while Mr. Rives was in a thoroughly dazed condition, and being unable to utter another word, took his seat and engaged in conversation with other gentlemen on the platform, one of whom came forward and explained Mr. Rives' embarrassment and inability to proceed with his speech, by saying he had left his manuscript in the Whig office and that as soon as it could be had he would proceed with his speech.

The crowd was good natured and patient, and in a very short time the manuscript was forthcoming, and Mr. Rives arose as though he had never been dazed, and in a masterly effort swept his hearers off their feet so clearly that they soon forgot all about the incident, and the applause that surrounded the beginning.

TOBACCO MARKET

Conditions Which Prevailed During the Past Week.

Concerning conditions prevailing on the tobacco market, during the past week, Messrs. L. B. Vaughan & Company, proprietors of Crenshaw Warehouse, says as follows: Receipts of foreign tobacco and deliveries though still good; not so large as past several weeks. It looks like our climate has been reasonable, and that from the eternal fitness of things future transactions may be reduced hereafter for this season. Market firm. Inspections for this week, 1,000 packages; sold on exchange, 629 packages. We regret to still report unfavorable for outdoor planting. While we have had good and long continued season to plant plants are reported scarce and of inferior quality under temperature much below normal conditions, making planting difficult. We have ten days or two weeks yet in time to plant.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
