

HOLD-UP ON FREE BRIDGE

Young Lady Was Relieved of Her Pocketbook.

CARMEN WERE ADVISED

Vaden Secures Bail and Returns to His Home—Negro Escapes and Gives Officers a Hot Chase—Scholarship to V. P. L.—Personal.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street, As Miss O'Leary, of Swansboro, was going home across the bridge yesterday afternoon, two negroes stepped up to her.

"Hand us your pocket-book, quick," said one of them. No one was near to aid her, so she complied.

"Now, go on," was the next order, "and if you look back or scream we will kill you."

O'Leary hastened home, and soon after the police were notified. Sergeant Alexander Wright arrested two negroes on suspicion, but they were not identified. Further efforts will be made to apprehend the guilty parties.

CAR MEN ADVISED. Councilman Grizzard and Dr. Rucker met the Manchester car strikers at the office of Dr. Rucker on Friday night.

MADE HIS ESCAPE. Special Policeman Stone arrested a negro named Addie Woody last night, on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Walter Vaden was granted bail in the sum of $1,500 by Judge Clifton, sitting in the Hustings Court room, in Manchester, yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, and he left for his home, near Wintercock, on the Southern train at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Vaden's bondsmen were his brothers-in-law, Messrs. P. H. W. T., and Floyd Fowlkes. His brother, Henry Vaden, was also present.

THE CASE WILL BE CONSIDERED at the November term of the county grand jury. In an interview, Mr. Vaden says he committed the act in self-defense.

There has been bad feeling between Mr. Vaden and Webster about the case for years. He was attacked by the latter about two years ago, his brother said last night, and there has been constant irritation for years.

"The cause of the whole affair is the fact that I forbade a certain member of the family to visit my house," said Mr. Vaden.

Mr. Vaden expressed much regret that he had been forced to kill the young man.

"This was what I considered the best man of all," said Mr. Vaden yesterday afternoon. "We had been on comparatively friendly terms, and I had no idea they intended attacking me. We had been talking about the case for years, and my young son was near. When the boy got into a distant part of the field the assault was made. Edward and Robert Webster hit first, both at the same time. I dodged one of the kicks aimed by Robert Webster and struck him with my knife. In the scuffle the knife shut and cut my hand. Linwood Webster also attacked me. I was hit seven or eight times—twice on the head, twice on the cheek, twice on the eye, and once on my right hand."

THE FEELING in the Wintercock neighborhood is high, but Mr. Henry Vaden said last night he didn't think there would be serious trouble. "None of the Websters were in Manchester yesterday," said Mr. Vaden.

MANCHESTER ELKS. Manchester Lodge will leave on the 4:30 train over the Southern to-morrow afternoon for West Point, whence they will go to the Grand Lodge meeting in Baltimore.

EXALTED RULER Eugene Lipscomb will leave on the noon train to-morrow over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac to make arrangements for the reception of the lodge when it reaches the convention city on Tuesday morning. The headquarters will be at the Lexington Hotel, where a handsome banner will be strung.

FALSE THEORIES

Lead to Worthless or Harmful Remedies. Stimulating the scalp may allay the itching of the dandruff, but that does not cure the scalp. The disease won't yield to quinine or casticum nor alcohol, because it is caused by a germ or parasite.

To cure dandruff the germ must be destroyed. Until recently there was no hair preparation, or dandruff cure, or hair restorer on the market, that would kill the insidious germ that dries up the scalp in little scales called dandruff, and absorbs the vitality of the hair, causing falling hair, and finally baldness.

Newbury's Hairdressing is the only really scientific preparation to cure dandruff, prevent falling hair and baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Owens & Minor Drug Co., Special Agents.

BRIAN AFTER G. CLEVELAND

In 1896 the Republican party under the leadership of Mark Hanna became the open ally of organized wealth, and a victory was secured by the use of means, which, when known, must be repugnant to every believer in the doctrine of self-government. The purchase of votes, and the coercion of employees--all these things were resorted to by the party then in power.

The party then in power resorted to bankrupt rival, stiff competition and extortion without limit. When the Spanish war occurred the syndicates, in complete possession of the United States, reached for new fields to conquer and there to do using the American army and a carpetbag government to exploit the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands, whose reverence for our institutions has thus been converted into hatred for our flag.

WE are handicapped just now by the fact that the last Democratic administration we had was more subservient to corporate domination than any Republican administration that had preceded it. The record of the present administration has been a millstone about the party's neck ever since. The odium which Mr. Cleveland's second administration brought upon the party which elected him is not the probability, but the possibility of the party's return to the position that it occupied from 1892 to 1896.

REMARKABLE FEAT OF FLEEING MURDERER (By Associated Press.) CODY, WYOMING, July 18.--James Gorman convicted of the murder of his brother, Thomas, and who escaped to-day from the sheriff and two armed deputies, who were secretly removing Gorman and another prisoner named Walters to a canyon about two miles from town, in order to protect the men from a threatened lynching, was captured. He was still unarmed and made no resistance. To reach this point Gorman swam the Big Horn river, a seemingly impossible feat and traveled over fifty miles of the roughest mountain country. He is now in jail. There are special guards on duty, but it is believed that Gorman and Walters, murderers of a Mrs. C. Hoover, will both be lynched.
