WONDERFUL SILK BARGAINS.

Continuation of Auction Silk Sale.

We told you last week of the auction silks which we were so fortunate in getting. Our week's business, which was immense, shows how they were appreciated, although they had not all arrived, but they will all be in stock to-morrow. We want to impress upon you—so that there will be no misunderstanding—this was A MANUFACTURER'S AND NOT A DEALER'S AUCTION, and if they had not been the most reliable makes Cohen's buyer would not have been there. The manufacturers lost their nerve, they had not sold as fast as they expected, and, needing money, they tried an auction.

WAISTINGS, FLANNELS

And All New Fall Cotton Fabrics.

Cotton was king so long that he tried to get autocratic and nearly lost his crown. He saw that he must be up and doing to keep out usurpers—the result is that the handomest cotton fabrics the world has ever known have been produced. Hand-some Waistings and all the light, fleecy weaves needed by ease-loving as well as the busy woman for lounging garments are here in profusion. All the prettiest patterns in Flannels are ready. As these goods were all bought before the recent rise, you get a saving of a fourth to a half. Note the hour sales.

COLORED DRESS GOODS. SOMB WINDFALLS.

Sometimes, if the wind has not been strong enough, we give the tree a good shake—that is what our buyer did—and you pick up what you please.
The rough-faced Zibelines are much in favor this season. Curious how they make Zibeline. They take an ordinary barnyard burr and teazle a piece of goods thoroughly, and when the process is done you have Zibeline, no matter what it was before. This and all the other new favorites are her.

Remarks About Richmond.
Newport News Press: Decorum is a good thing, but Richmond's ideal of good form these days is the man who is horsey. Norfolk Ledger: The anti-saloon people in Richmond can scarcely expect any other result than that of this week till they get a better brand of drinking water.
Newport News Press: The anti-Mann billions seems to have lined up and nominal straight whiskey in Richmond.

YELLOW TEA

Elegant Entertainment and Social Event at Chatham.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., Sept. 25.—The most delightful social event of the season was given, one of Chatham's most popular a "yellow tea" given by Mr. D. A. Jermolov, at the home of Mrs. N. J. White, Wednesday evening, in honor of the visiting young ladies. The hall, parlor and dining-room were beautifully decorated with goldenrod and evergreens, which colors were preserved throughout. Rustic seats had been provided in abundance on the lawn, which was beautifully illuminated with yellow Japanese lanterns.

The guests having all arrived, a novel feature of pairing was resorted to, which resulted in much merriment. Cards bearing very appropriate quotations, attached to small ribbons, had been arranged from the hall into the parlor, where all of the young ladies were seated, each of whom selected a card, and young men acting likewise in the hall, proceeded winding to their partners. This over, the guests were ushered into the dining-room and seated around two large tables, where delicious viands were served.

Mayor J. H. Hargrave, Jr., was called on for a toast, replying very appropriately, after which the party proceeded to the parlor and whiled away a most enjoyable evening.
Those present were: Misses Sarah

Starbuck Jones, of Lynchburg; Sallie Cunningham, of Richmond; Minnie Jones, of Redsville, N. C.; Mattie Tillman, of Powhatan, Va.; Evelyn Thornton, of Republican Grove; Lulu Crews, Annie Goolsby, Jesse Trivette, Annie Davis and Linda White, of Chatham; Messrs. S. G. Bennett, J. E. Lanier, W. E. Davis, W. E. Dugger, L. J. Sands, A. P. Edwards, William Smith, J. H. Hargrave, Jr., G.

E. Thompson, R. I. Smith, Dr. T. L. Whitehead and Dr. James C. Giles.
