The tenth annual spring meeting of the Deep Run Hunt Club will be held at the club grounds near the city next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The beautiful club house, with its spacious parlors and piazzas, will be charmingly decorated in pink and white hennery-succulent ferns, the May weather giving to the entertainment many of the characteristics of an out-of-door fete.

Leading society matrons and maids, who will have charge and dispense the graceful hospitality for which it is noted, will be: Mrs. Thomas N. Carter, Mrs. A. H. Christian, Jr., Mrs. J. A. Montague, Mrs. Joseph E. Willard, Mrs. Otway Allen, Mrs. Horace S. Hayes, Mrs. George Benford, Mrs. E. Baskerville, Mrs. E. D. Crenshaw, Mrs. James Allison, Mrs. C. G. The spring races are always eagerly looked forward to by many interested spectators and participants. The races following the races are the most phenomenal in the bestowal of a full measure of the liveliest enjoyment.

Woman's College Alumnae. The annual meeting of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's College was held May 6th in the parlors of the Richmond Hotel. Extensive plans were made for the annual gathering and luncheon to be given at 1:30 P. M. June 6th, at the Richmond.

The meeting, which included many of the oldest members, was very enthusiastic. 1904 marks the semi-centennial year in the history of the college. Therefore an invitation has been extended to all members of diplomas from the college to attend the luncheon.

Those wishing to be present are asked to notify the secretary, Miss Clara Virginia Becker, No. 240 Grove Avenue, at once if possible, and not later than June 1st. They are also requested to remit the sum of one dollar to Miss Belle Willingham, No. 15 South Fifth Street, city. For further information, apply to the above, or to the acting secretary, Mrs. R. E. Gaines, No. 403 Lombardy Street.

Emma Andrews Club. The Emma Andrews Whist Club met in the home of Mrs. Thomas Bunker Ford in East End, on Friday, May 14th, and south was made by Mrs. T. O. Parker, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Sue Gordon, east and west, by Mrs. Beverly Crump and Mrs. Patterson.

A Pretty Home Wedding. The handsome new residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Mitchell, on Fairmount Avenue, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, when their only daughter, Miss Olive Quaries Mitchell, became the bride of Mr. Russell Gentry, in the presence of a large gathering of friends of the young couple.

The entire lower floor was thrown open and presented a lovely scene, being covered in white crash, and artistically decorated in potted plants, palms and cut flowers, the color scheme being white and green.

Promptly at 7 o'clock, as the sweet strains of the wedding march, from Lohengrin burst forth, under the skillful touch of Professor B. Bernard Burton, the bridal party entered; first the groom with his bridesmaid, Miss Gentry, as best man, then the bridesmaid, on the arm of the maid of honor, Miss M. Flagg Mitchell.

The Rev. Joshua S. Hunter, pastor of Fairmount Methodist Church, officiated. During the ceremony, "O Promise Me," was sweetly and bravely played, and immediately after, amidst the merry strains of the wedding march from Mendelssohn, the happy young couple received the congratulations of all present.

The bride, who is a handsome and accomplished young woman, was becomingly attired in a tan cloth tailored suit with hat and gloves to match and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor was beautifully gowned in white point d'esprit white picture hat, and carried a carriage. The young couple received quite a number of handsome and useful presents, which attested the high esteem in which they are held by a large circle of friends.

Mr. Gentry is the son of Mr. James Gentry and is a young man of sterling worth. Both he and his bride are universal favorites in the town in which they live. They were driven to the station, where they took the 8:45 train for Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington. They will be absent some time.

Personal Mention. Mr. J. Hamilton Capers, Jr., and Mr. E. J. Moseley, Jr., have gone to spend a week in fishing at Cobb's Island.

BEN BOLT.

BY ENGLISH.

Thomas Dunn English was born in Philadelphia, June 20, 1810. His ancestors were Irish Quakers. He was educated in Quaker schools. At 17, he wrote for Philadelphia newspapers. In 1833, he graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. He practiced medicine for a short while only, transferring his energy from medicine to law. He was admitted to the bar in 1842. He edited a daily paper in New York in 1844, and has published periodicals and magazines. He has been active in politics, and has been a member of Congress from New Jersey. The college of William and Mary gave him the degree of LL. D. in 1870. Ben Bolt was first printed in 1841 in the New York Mirror. The accompanying portrait represents the author at 24. He died April 1, 1902.

DON'T you remember sweet Alice, Ben Bolt— Sweet Alice whose hair was so brown, Who wept with delight when you gave her a smile, And trembled with fear at your frown? In the old churchyard in the valley, Ben Bolt, In a corner obscure and alone, They have fitted a slab of the granite so gray, And Alice lies under the stone.

Under the hickory tree, Ben Bolt, Which stood at the foot of the hill, Together we've lain in the noonday shade, And listened to Appleton's mill, The mill-wheel has fallen to pieces, Ben Bolt, The rafters have tumbled in, And a quiet which crawls round the walls as you gaze Has followed the olden din.

Do you mind of the cabin of logs, Ben Bolt, At the edge of the pathless wood, And the buttonball tree with its motley limbs, Which nigh by the doorstep stood? The cabin to ruin has gone, Ben Bolt, The tree you would seek for in vain; And where once the lords of the forest waved Are grass and the golden grain.

And don't you remember the walls as you gaze, Ben Bolt, With the master so cruel and grim, And the shaded nook in the running brook Where the children went to swim? Grass grows on the master's grave, Ben Bolt, The spring of the brook is dry, And of all the boys who were schoolmates then There are only you and I.

There is change in the things I loved, Ben Bolt, They have changed from the old to the new; But I feel in the depths of my spirit the truth, There never was change in you, Twelve months twenty have passed, Ben Bolt, Since first we were friends—yet I hail Your presence a blessing, your friendship a truth, Ben Bolt of the salt sea gale.

New York, to sail for England, where he will remain for some weeks, and then go to Paris to perfect himself in his special line of art.

Mr. Straus is a young gentleman of decided talent and ability, one who has gained golden opinions from his associates and students in the Art Club.

Mrs. Horace Slater, of Redlands, Cal., who will appear in the song recital to be given Friday at the Woman's Club for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms Hospital, was, before her marriage, Miss Blodgood, of this city. Mrs. Slater still retains her beautiful contralto voice.

ONE OF MERRIMAN'S STRONGEST BOOKS

"I could be home again in eight months?"

"Certainly! We thought that you might work the sale of the stuff in London, and in a couple of years or so, when the thing is in swing, Meredith will come home. We can safely leave the cultivation in native hands when once we have established ourselves up there, and made ourselves respected among the tribes."

A significance in his tone made Guy Oscar look up inquiringly.

"How?"

"You know my way with the natives," answered Durnovo, "with a cruel smile. It is the only way. There are no laws in Central Africa except the laws of necessity."

Oscar was nothing if not outspoken. "I do not like your way with the natives," he said, "with a pleasant smile. That is because you do not know them. But in this affair you are to be the leader of the fighting column. You will, of course, have carte blanche."

Oscar nodded.

"I suppose," he said, "after a pause, 'that there is the question of money?'"

"Yes," Meredith said, "I have talked that over, and he each put a thousand pounds into it, I put five hundred. For the first two years we share the profits equally. After that we must come to some fresh arrangement, should you or Meredith wish to give up an active part in the affair. I presume you would not object to coming up at the end of the year, with a handy squad of men to bring down the crop under escort?"

"Of course," Durnovo went on, with the details which he knew were music in Oscar's ears. "Of course, we shall be a clumsy party going up. We shall have heavy loads of provisions, ammunition and seeds for cultivating the land up there."

"Yes," replied Guy Oscar, absently.

GOVERNOR DAVIS, OF CANAL ZONE, ARRIVES AT COLON

(By Associated Press.)

COLON, May 17.—9:30 A. M.—The steamer City of Washington, from New York, May 16th, with Major-General Davis, governor of the Panama canal zone; Major Block and their secretaries on board, arrived here to-day.

General Davis was welcomed in behalf of the new republic by a committee of five, headed by Prefect Melendez and Tracy Robinson, the spokesman of the committee.

The governor will remain at Colon for a day or two and then will proceed to Cuba.

her quill. "And the times' fills its house from roof to cellar with people who believe as if they were in a hotel. Some of them—say number five on the first floor, number eleven on the second, or some of the attested relatives—announce at breakfast that they will not be home to lunch. Another says he cannot possibly be home to dinner, but must go away, and so on. The times' expects a great deal for its money, and does not even allow one to keep the small change of civility."

Lady Cantourne was blotting vigorously. "I admit," she answered, "that the reaction is rather strong; reactions are always stronger than they intend to be. In our early days the formalities were made too much of; now they are—"

"Made into a social hash," he suggested. Durnovo rose briskly. "The prevailing flavor in the common onion of commerce! Now, I'll wager any sum that that is an invitation to some one you do not care a scrow about."

"It is, but Sir John, the hash must be kept moving, gold has to be palatable. I will tell you at once; I am inviting young Semour to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Oscar's departure."

"Ah! Mr. Oscar proposes depriving us of his society?"

"He leaves to-morrow. He only came to say good-bye."

"He moves on to some other hostelry?"

"No! He is going to—"

She paused, so that Sir John was forced to turn in courteous inquiry and look her in the face.

"Africa!" she added, sharply, never taking her bright eyes from his face. She saw the twitching of the aged lips before his hand got there to hide them. He saw his eyes pitied him while she admired his uncompromising pride.

"Indeed!" he said, "I have reason to believe," he added, turning to the window again, "that there is a great future before that country; all the intellect of Great Britain seems to be converging in its direction."
