INVASION BY THE CHURCH

Signor Mazza Declares Note of Papal Secretary of State an Insult.

NO DANGER, SAYS PREMIER. State and Church Must be as Parallel Lines and Both Enjoy Liberty.

(By Associated Press.) ROME, May 30.—The Chamber of Deputies was crowded to-day to hear the discussion on the interpellation of the attitude of the government towards the Vatican protest against President Loubet's visit.

Signor Mazza, Republican, called the note of Papal Secretary of State Merry del Val a perfect insult. He asked the government to take energetic action to prevent the invasion of the church into the kingdom's affairs.

Signor Guerci, Radical, followed, saying that "this time the Vatican is not protesting, but bleating." Signor Cabris, Socialist, interrupting, said: "Call it bawling" (laughter).

Premier Giolitti, who arose amidst a breathless silence, said the Vatican note naturally was not communicated to the Italian government. France had answered as she thought best. The affair was one in which Italy could not interfere. The note contained a phrase regarding the King of Italy, but the effect produced was such that they must be extremely glad of the existence of that phrase, as it offered Premier a chance to make a statement, clear so far as to Italian patriotism.

The crowded galleries rose and applauded for five minutes, crying "Viva Cabris."

Signor Giolitti continued: "Therefore the unhappy phrase was for Italy the happiest. The note contained the usual protest which the Vatican has been repeating for thirty-four years. Italy has no reason to change her policy." She does not fear the invasion of the congregations, as she has laws to protect herself. If these laws are insufficient she will make new ones. To fear that the country cannot protect itself against the influences of foreign congregations is to insult Italians.

"The state and the church must be as two parallel lines which never meet. Both must enjoy liberty. It will be worse for the church on the day that she illegally interferes in the affairs of the State." (Applause.)

Old time base-ball. The thousand faithfuls who went out to Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon to see two games between clubs of the Twin City League, saw plenty of good ball playing, and there was rooting galore.

The grandstand had a fine sprinkling of ladies, and the bleacheries were nicely filled. If the clubs continue to give the cranks such ball as they have been presenting, the old-time enthusiasm will soon be again in evidence.

The first game yesterday was between the two rivals for first place, Bender's, Richmonds, and Daley's Brownies. The result was the downfall of the Richmonds, which left the Brownies roosting on the top of the bunch. The Brownies got the game on the start, and not until the sixth inning, did the strong Richmond team do anything. Then they hit little Hulcher three good smacks, which, with a base on balls and an error, netted three runs. But they were out-played, and could do no more than make another run in the eighth. Thomas was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning, and was replaced by Crawford, who did better, holding the heavy hitting Brownies down to one hit off of him. George W. McEvoy went in the game, playing in the outfield, putting Crawford in the box. The official score follows:

MAJ. SANDS HEARD CLEVELAND TALK. Major William H. Sands, of this city, has just returned from a week's trip to New York, and from what he saw and heard while in the metropolis he is of opinion that things are shaping up for a stampede in the St. Louis convention to former President Grover Cleveland, and that if this shall take place, it will tend to nullify the Empire State Democracy for the Democratic platform this fall.

"I saw a great many leading business men and politicians on my visit to New York," said the major to a representative of The Times-Dispatch, "and I am convinced that the tide is moving toward Mr. Cleveland, and that he would make the strongest run in New York State of any man who has been mentioned among the Republicans and Democrats. The Judge and the Democrats, on Roosevelt were talking 'dark horses' all the while, and I learned enough to convince me that the dark horse talk meant the Republican and Democratic club with their friends, and I found that Mr. Cleveland still retains his powerful hold upon the business interests of New York city. I expect to see the old man put forward again, and I believe Hill, Murphy and all the big levers will support him loyally.

While away I had the pleasure of meeting Senator McCareen, of Brooklyn. I found him to be a brainy and interesting young leader of his party."
