

THE SOUTH AND G. A. R.

Presence of Ex-Confederates a Notable Feature of the Encampment in Boston.

HER PRINCIPLES STILL LIVE

These, Captain Gay, Declares, Survived the Terrible Shock of War and Are Still Held.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 15.—A reunion of Grand Army veterans, an exchange of happy recollections and a fraternal mingling of Confederates and Unionists today marked the opening in this city of the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

At noon a parade of the Union ex-prisoners of war, blue jackets from the United States warships and others, marked the opening of the G. A. R. convention, together with its numerous subsidiary organizations, including the woman's relief corps, the ladies of the G. A. R. and the Sons and Daughters of Veterans.

At night in historic Faneuil Hall, a score of former Confederate officers gathered around the banquet table as the guests of Edward W. Kinsey Post, of Boston, as did Lafayette Post, of New York, and here enunciated the declarations that the North and South are strongly and inseparably welded, with the past strife forgotten.

Colonel Charles H. Taylor, of Boston, was toastmaster. Commander Joseph J. Little, of Lafayette Post, the first speaker, said a tribute to the guests from the South, who, he said, had joined hands with the North in supporting Old Glory, one country, one flag, one citizenship.

Before introducing Rev. E. A. Horton, the chaplain of Kinsey Post, toastmaster Taylor declared that it was worth all the "gold brick" Philippine Islands have ever to see reunited by means of the Spanish war, the people of the North and the South.

The last speaker was Captain Edward S. Gay, of Atlanta, Ga. Captain Gay said:

"I do not feel that I am asked to rejoice with you in the triumphs of your arms in the Civil War, and the defeat of the cause for which every true Confederate soldier was ready to sacrifice his life, but we do rejoice with you that the principles for which the South contended in the Union and out of it, survived the shock of war and apparent defeat, and to-day we may hold these principles in common essential to perpetuity of our form of government, where the rights of all are guaranteed and the weakness of one becomes the strength of all in an indivisible union of inextinguishable States."

"Accepting in good faith the terms of surrender, the men of the South returned to their devastated homes, and, despite the gloom of waste and poverty, they strove to join for the conflict of progress and peace, and here we are, that you may rejoice with us that our countrymen of the South have so met and are meeting the issues of the living at present in a manner worthy of their record in war."

Captain Gay called attention to the great material progress in the South, and referred also to the fact that the sons of the South were not laggards in the Spanish war. In closing, he prayed that "the day be not far distant when the weakness of one becomes the strength of all in an indivisible union of inextinguishable States."

THE VARDAMAN MATTER.

Postmaster-General Payne Issues Statement, Giving Gov.'s Letter.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, August 15.—Another chapter and probably the final one, so far as the government is concerned, was added to-day to the case growing out of the refusal of the Postoffice Department to name a Mississippi postoffice after Governor Vardaman, of that State, by the promulgation by Postmaster-General Payne, of a statement, which gave, without comment, a letter from Governor Vardaman, published in the Charleston, S. C. News and Courier. This letter, which is accepted by the Postoffice Department as authentic, contains a statement of Governor Vardaman's editorial remarks about the matter of President Roosevelt, is given in a newspaper publication as follows:

ANDERSON, August 8.—(Special.)—Several days ago the editor of the Anderson Daily Mail wrote to Governor J. K. Vardaman of the Little Rock, Ark. paper, in which he asserted that the Postmaster-General Payne, of the United States, had written a letter to me, in which he had copied years ago, published an editorial making a disrespectful allusion to Mr. Roosevelt, the postmaster-general, and asking me to sign it. The following letter has been received in reply:

"Executive Department, 'Jackson, Mississippi, August 6. 'My Dear Sir—Your kind favor of the 4th instant has been received. I would take great pleasure in sending it to you, but the file of the old papers are in such a state that I cannot find it. In that editorial offensive to Mr. Roosevelt, which I referred to in my letter, I simply stated the facts of the case, and explained the reasons for my action. I am sure that you will understand the necessity of my action. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, J. K. VARDAMAN."

THE ARREST OF A RAILROAD MAN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., August 15.—Captain J. D. Phillips, of Spencer, who had for a number of years been a freight conductor running out of that place on the Southern Railway, was arrested at his home to-day on the charge of robbing a train of mail and express.

The arrest, which has caused quite a sensation, was effected by Chief Detective Connally, Detective Hamie and Deputy Sheriff Dave Julian and J. A. Siscoff, who have been working on the case for a number of weeks.

Among the articles found at the home of Conductor Phillips were two new typewriters, which had been taken from a box car in December, 1903, together with a lot of bolt goods and clothing.

In default of a $1,000 bond, he was committed to jail to await a preliminary hearing, which has been set for Saturday morning. When seen at the jail this afternoon, Mr. Phillips declined to talk further than to protest his innocence of the serious crime which he is charged.

DIED FROM BURNS.

Found Himself in Flames and Could Not Tell How it Happened. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 15.—Mr. A. B. Kent, a prominent young business man of Elizabethtown, who was terribly burned in his room at the Bonita House, this city, early in June, died yesterday at the hospital here as the result of his injuries. Although his burns had almost healed they produced exhaustion, which was the direct cause of his death.

Mr. Kent came to Wilmington in June and stopped at the Bonita House. During the night he was awakened by a fire which he could not explain just how he caught fire.

The remains were taken to Elizabethtown and buried to-day in the family vault.

MORMON QUESTION UP.

Consideration of It Blocks the Idaho Convention. (By Associated Press.) LEWISTON, IDAHO, August 15.—Consideration of the Mormon question is tonight blocking the proceedings of Democratic State convention, which meets here to-day. Senator Dubois presented a radical anti-Mormon resolution. His resolution was softened to simply denounce polygamy, and the mixing of church and State, and promising to favor legislation to carry into effect the resolution, which now is in the hands of the committee.

The national Democratic platform is simply affirmed. Should the Dubois resolution fail, it is considered likely that Senator Helfield, who to-day was regarded as almost certain to be nominated for the governorship, will withdraw in favor of Major James H. Hawley, of Boise.

One of the sharpest campaigns for local tax for the improvement of public schools was closed in the Chatham county section of this county Saturday, with the action of the proposed local tax. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction took an active hand in the fight, and induced Governor Aycock to go out there last Friday and deliver one of his famous educational addresses, but the vote was one of a majority of the registered voters favoring the tax.

INDIANOLA OFFICE REDUCED IN RANKS

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—The postoffice at Indianola, Miss., which figured conspicuously last year in a race to become "the" then negro postmaster, Mimmie Cox, and who was closed last year, has been reduced from a presidential office to the fourth-class.

The Postoffice Department explains that this action was due to the receipts of that office for the last fiscal year falling below the minimum amount which would present a proper case for the retention of the office, and not to any disapproval of the course taken by certain citizens of the town toward the former incumbent of the office, Mimmie Cox.

Before taking final action on reducing the rank of the office, the auditors of the department wrestled with the problem of whether in figuring up the receipts for the Indianola office account should be taken of the fact that the office was closed for two whole quarters of a year. The assistant attorney general for the department held that it would be proper to credit the office with estimated receipts for the time it was closed, but when the question was submitted to the Comptroller of the Treasury, the latter promptly decided that no such estimate was legal, and the office Department had no alternative in the matter.

HORSE AND BUGGY FOUND IN RIVER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILMINGTON, N. C., August 15.—The discovery of a horse and buggy in the Northeast River at Castle Haynes, nine miles from Wilmington, yesterday afternoon would probably disclose a tragedy, traveling man, who was on the road for Butler Brothers, tobacco manufacturers, of Haldwyl, N. C., lost his life.

A valise was found under the seat of the buggy, and in it were papers and clothes marked R. H. Butler, the man who was taken to the river in the night, taking it for a small stream crossing the road. He was last seen leaving Burgaw, a small town ten miles distant from the place the team was found.

A careful search is being made for the body. Relatives of the missing man will arrive on the scene to-morrow to join in the search.

Condition of the Veteran Actor Such as to Cause Alarm. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUZZARD BAY, MASS., August 15.—It is feared that Joe Jefferson, the venerable actor, is near his end.
