

Social and Personal.

Old Scotch Nuptial Poem. When Adam was created...

Great was his consternation. When first he saw his bride...

The woman was not taken. From Adam's hand, you know...

The woman she was taken. From under Adam's arm...

And now, most noble bride's groom. To you I turn aside...

Refrain from sinful conduct. Nor sow the seeds of strife...

Randolph—Mordecai. The many friends of Miss Mary Magill...

Reception by O. D. Chapter. At the reception to be given Thursday evening next...

Lee—Kent. The marriage of Miss Lucile Virginia Kent, the daughter of Mr. L. V. Kent...

Dance at Scottsville. The dance, which was given Friday evening, September 2d, at Beale's...

Mr. Grant's Attendances. Mr. James Henry Grant, whose marriage to Miss Martha D. Shepperson...

At the Pines, Glen Allen. A party was given in honor of Miss Irene Walton and Miss Elizabeth Zacharias...

Music, recitations and delicious refreshments rendered the occasion one of great enjoyment...

CHAPTER IV—Continued. At the command of the balliff they plucked off the fellows shoes...

"If it should chance," he said, "that through the surpassing merits of the blessed Paul your sin-stained soul should gain a way into paradise, I trust that you will not forget that intercession which you have promised."

Alleyne gazed upon the scene—the portly velvet-clad official, the knot of hard-faced archers with their hands on their hips...

He would hide with him for a time and do what he might to serve him. If, on the other hand, he should have hardened his heart against him, he could only go on his way and do the best he might by his skill as a craftsman and a scolyer."

CHAPTER V. HOW A STRANGE COMPANY GATHERED AT THE "PIED MERLIN." The night had already fallen, and the moon was shining between the rifts of ragged, drifting clouds...

It was a strange course which had been marked out for him. Such as it was, however, he had no choice but to follow it, and if he were to begin by making a friend of his brother he had best wait until morning before he knocked at his dwelling.

The plunk door was ajar, but as Alleyne approached it there came from within such a gust of rough laughter and clatter of tongues that he stood irresolute upon the threshold.

"Why, then, did you join the brothers?" asked Alleyne. "A fair enough question; but it is as fairly answered for all that by my sister, and I know that for all that by my brother."

"Why, good dame," said Alleyne, "I would not offend the customs of your house, but it is only sooth, when I say that my purse is a thin one."

"I will take your orders, gentles; I was assuredly to take your orders," the landlady answered, bustling in with her hands full of leathern drinking-cups.

"Why, good dame," said Alleyne, "I would not offend the customs of your house, but it is only sooth, when I say that my purse is a thin one."

"By the thorn of Glastonbury! My days are coming upon Beaulieu," said he. "Here they have got rid in one day of the only two men within their walls who

They had been placed there at different periods. There was no furniture, save a single long dresser covered with coarse crockery, and a number of wooden benches and trestles, the legs of which sank deeply into the soft clay floor...

POEMS YOU' OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry...

IN AFTER DAYS.

By AUSTIN DOBSON. Other selections from Austin Dobson, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

In after days when grasses high O'er top the stone where I shall lie, Though ill or well the world adjust My gladder claim to honored dust, I shall not question or reply.

But yet, now living, fair were I That some one then should testify, Saying—"He held his pen in trust To art, not serving shame or lust, Will none? Then let my memory die In after days!

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

Parrot, Emma Parrot and Charlotte Parrot, and Miss Bessie Davis, F. Gentlemen were Messrs. Ben Sheppard, Willie Lane, Julian and Clarence Davis, Charles Pridy and Arthur Davis.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Cavanaugh and Mr. Joseph E. Powers, which took place at St. Peter's Cathedral on September 7th, was one of the prettiest of the season.

The marriage of Miss Lucile Virginia Kent, the daughter of Mr. L. V. Kent, and Mr. Frederick Cobb Lee, the son of Dr. and Mrs. George Hyde Lee, took place at 7 o'clock last Saturday evening at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bernice Lee, her only attendant. After a wedding breakfast she left with her husband for a honeymoon trip to the Catskills.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. James Gouldman, of Montgomery, Ala., sister of the bride, and Mr. Maurice Powers, of Memphis, Tenn., brother of the groom, who acted as best man.

After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Leaman gave a reception to the bridal party and a few invited guests. The wedding presents numbered over two hundred, all pretty and some very expensive.

Mr. John Lynch, Mr. James Phillips, Mr. Charles Huppert, Mr. Charles McManey, Mr. Charles Epps, Mr. Maurice Powers were the ushers.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Powers left for Washington and points in Ohio, New York and the lakes. Mr. Powers is private secretary to Mr. H. C. Vichman in the Chesapeake and Ohio office.

Retirements were served at midnight, after which dancing was continued until 2 o'clock, ending with the old Virginia reel, which was led as no one else can, by Mr. Samuel R. Gault, with Miss Clara Pitts, of Belle Haven.

Misses Marion and Julia Ryland are home after a delightful visit to the Misses Broadus, of Caroline county.

Mr. Garnett Tabb has just returned from a several days' trip to Virginia Beach.

Master Edward Plageman, who has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Plageman, left on Tuesday for Bristol, and accompanied by his brother.

Mr. Robert Campbell is in town after a pleasant stay at the Princess Anne, Virginia Beach.

Mr. John Gibson is the guest of Dr. E. E. Butler, of Caroline.

Little Miss Cammie Cary has returned after a delightful visit to Mr. and Mrs. White, of Caroline.

Mr. Wm. Wilson is in town, after a visit to friends in Norfolk.

Mr. Duncan Robertson is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Julia R. Smith, of Norfolk.

Miss Angie McGurder is spending some time with Mrs. Lucy Woolfolk, at her charming home, "The Ivy Place."

Mr. Edwin Wortham, Jr., and commend themselves. Mr. Wortham says: "Triss; or, Beyond the Rockies," will be presented at the Casino on September 13th by the Richmond High School Debating Society...

Now we're bound to be successful, And obliged to come out right, If the public will us strengthen, And support us in our fight.

"Triss; or, Beyond the Rockies," is a clever melodrama, by Edna Adams, Mr. Warren Portlax and Mr. Henry Staples, in the two leading roles, are well supported by a strong company of actors.

Personal Mention. Mr. Hayes and Miss Elizabeth Hayes are among the guests at the Princess Anne.

Miss Mary Nash, of Norfolk, who has frequently visited here, left last Thursday for the Warm Springs.

Mr. Arthur Travers is at home, after spending some days at Virginia Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Swan have just returned from a visit to friends in Norfolk.

Mrs. John D. Clothier has returned from a visit to the World's Fair and Indiana. During her trip she visited many prominent studios and brought back some fine specimens in china painting.

Misses Marion and Julia Ryland are home after a delightful visit to the Misses Broadus, of Caroline county.

Mr. Garnett Tabb has just returned from a several days' trip to Virginia Beach.

Master Edward Plageman, who has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Plageman, left on Tuesday for Bristol, and accompanied by his brother.

Mr. Robert Campbell is in town after a pleasant stay at the Princess Anne, Virginia Beach.

Mr. John Gibson is the guest of Dr. E. E. Butler, of Caroline.

Little Miss Cammie Cary has returned after a delightful visit to Mr. and Mrs. White, of Caroline.

Mr. Wm. Wilson is in town, after a visit to friends in Norfolk.

Mr. Duncan Robertson is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Julia R. Smith, of Norfolk.

Miss Angie McGurder is spending some time with Mrs. Lucy Woolfolk, at her charming home, "The Ivy Place."

Misses Florence and Helen Broadus, after a visit to friends in the city, have returned to their home in Caroline county.

Mrs. W. Arthur Evans and children are in Lynchburg, visiting Mrs. Evans's mother on Grace Street. Later, they will be the guests of Mr. R. T. Mahone, in Rivermont.

Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, the new president of the University of Virginia, has arrived in Charlottesville.

Miss Louise Bayliss, giving a charming house party at her home, "Shannondale," Va., near Winchester.

Miss Gertrude Clarke is the guest of the Misses Pollard, of Caroline.

Miss Mabel Yarbrough, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Garnet Wash, of Charleston, W. Va., left yesterday for a visit to friends in Newport News.

Mr. E. P. Atkinson and little daughter are the guests of Mr. J. W. Willshire, in Staunton.

ter are the guests of Mr. J. W. Willshire, in Staunton. Miss Annie G. Collins is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. John T. Roth and little daughter have gone on a trip to Atlantic City, Philadelphia and Oraytown.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ellett has returned home, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Collins, near Greensville, Va.

Dr. T. H. Murrell is visiting friends near Staunton.

The Rev. R. S. Isbell, LL. D., of Louisiana, member of M. E. Conference, is stopping a few days with Dr. J. Hall Moore, of No. 104 North Ninth Street. This is Dr. Isbell's first visit to his native State after a nineteen years' absence.

Miss Rosa Myers, of Norfolk, is the guest of Miss Ethel Redford.

Mrs. H. W. Stamper and son, of Alexandria, are in the city for a few days.

Miss Emma Wintree has returned to Rockbridge county, where she will teach again this winter.

Mrs. W. C. Todd and children are in Staunton, visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Peaco.

Mrs. Elmer Johnson, of Warrenton, and Mrs. Courtland Smith, of Alexandria, will be the guests of Mr. Charles O. Wrenn during the Norfolk Horse Show.

Mrs. Frank Hume and Miss Mabel Hume, who have been among the popular guests at the Greenbrier White Sulphur, have returned to their lovely country home, near Alexandria.

Mr. James Branch Cabell returned last Friday from the Rockbridge Alum Springs, and is at his home in the West End. His mother, Mrs. R. G. Cabell is also at home after a pleasant visit to Philadelphia and Narragansett Pier.

Mr. Hal Threacraft is visiting his brother, Mr. Clayton Threacraft, in Portsmouth.

A large dinner party was given Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page at "Wyndhurst," the Lenox estate of Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan.

Miss Womack, a trained nurse of this city, is spending the winter at her home in Pittsylvania county.

Rev. J. J. Haley, pastor of the Seventh Street Christian Church, has returned to the city.

The Clarence Moores of Washington, D. C., have bought the fine old Passano plantation, near Warrenton. The Washington Times says:

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wallach will be neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Moore's in the old Dominion. Mr. Moore has formulated plans for its improvement which will make it a veritable show place for that part of the country.

Misses Jennie and Victoria Tucker will spend this week in Hanover with their sister, Mrs. Harvey Christian.

THE FASHION EVENT. Fall and Winter Millinery Opening, Thursday and Friday, September 15th, September 16th. REINACH... 427 East Broad Street, The New Millinery Store. Next to Fourquaren, Temple & Co.

Epworth League. The weekly devotional service of Assembly Epworth League will be held this evening at 8:15 o'clock, conducted by Mr. Walter Godwin.

Preached in Hampton. Rev. W. S. Campbell returned yesterday morning from Hampton, where he preached in the Presbyterian church.

There are fashions for everybody in the October Designer, from the pink to the black, while the first time in the world's history to the dear grandmothers, we will be interested and pleased with the designs shown for their special benefit.

At a called meeting of the Board of the Woman's Christian Association yesterday forenoon, a committee, composed of Miss Rebecca Norwood, Mrs. Anna F. Rahm and Mrs. George A. Lyon was appointed to draft resolutions of sympathy and respect to the memory of Mrs. L. T. Faulkner, who was not only one of the earliest vice-presidents of the association, but one who, as long as her life lasted, proved herself a most efficient and esteemed co-worker and member.

Thrown From Buggy. Mrs. R. R. Catlin, of Chestnut Hill, is suffering considerably from a fall she sustained Saturday evening while driving in a buggy across the viaduct. The horse stepped on a broken board on the bridge and fell.

Meditation of Rose. Arthur Rose, colored, got on a tear Saturday night and went into a bar-room with a pistol, which he fired. Then he got arrested, and now he is meditating on the sin of firing a pistol and then concealing it.

Burnett's Extract of Vanilla Prepared from select Vanilla Beans, warranted "Adv."

WE have just finished our annual stock-taking and have made GREAT REDUCTIONS in the prices of many very desirable articles of artistic and intrinsic worth.

Galt & Bro., Established Over a Century, Jewelers, Silversmiths, Stationers, 1107 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

LOOK WELL TO YOUR EYES. DEFECTIVE EYES stunt the mind. Can you expect success in business or fair progress of your children, who will soon be in school, if you do not have their eyesight corrected?

THE S. GALESKI OPTICAL COMPANY, Eighth and Main Streets, Richmond, Va.

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS. BAKING POWDER.

GOOD LUCK. MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS. BAKING POWDER.

LOOK WELL TO YOUR EYES. DEFECTIVE EYES stunt the mind. Can you expect success in business or fair progress of your children, who will soon be in school, if you do not have their eyesight corrected?

THE S. GALESKI OPTICAL COMPANY, Eighth and Main Streets, Richmond, Va.

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS. BAKING POWDER.