

.. IN THE SOCIAL REALM ..

Roundel.

I do not know what life may bring,
Sweeter than this; that wild winds blow
Fresh from the skies, and whither wing
I do not know.

The why, the wherefore, let them go;
My love shall laugh, my laughter sing,
And my full heart shall overflow,
I do not know.

Love is the best, and love shall fling
Glad scorn to all that doubt may show;
Question's a slave, whose loveless King
I do not know.

October Weddings.

October is probably the most popular month in the year for weddings. June is excepted, and society is already interested over invitations which are being sent out for October celebrations in Richmond.

The fifth of October is the date for the wedding of Miss Sara Heron Harvie and Mr. Harry Randolph Wayt. The celebration will take place in the home of Mrs. James E. Cannon, the sister of the bride, at No. 121 South Third Street. The hour for the ceremony will be 6:30 P. M., and the Rev. Landon R. Mason, of Grace Episcopal Church, will be the celebrant.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Charlie Virginia Austin and Dr. Meade Mann, of Richmond, the wedding to take place October 6th, in the home of the bride's parents at Lewisburg, W. Va.

An October wedding in which an unusual degree of interest is felt is that of Miss Mary Rogers to Mr. Fairlie Patton Cooke, the prospective bride and groom being among the best known and most popular young people in Richmond.

Among the prominent out-of-town weddings is that of Miss Lois Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Watson, to Lieutenant Hilary Herbert Royal, of the United States navy, the ceremony to be performed in the home of the bride at "Woodland," Va., on September 26th.

Miss Elizabeth Noland Boyden, of Albemarle county, the daughter of Mr. John Boyden, will be another October bride, her marriage to Mr. Hackley Morgan, of this city, being scheduled for that month.

Miss Elizabeth Madison Morrison, the daughter of Mrs. Hackley Morrison, of Norfolk, has announced her marriage to Mr. George Adnor Meredith, to the interest of Richmond as well as Norfolk friends.

Miss Grace Redd, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Redd, will be married in October to Mr. Howard Wayt King, assistant cashier of the Bank of Louisa and manager of the branch bank at Sulphur Mines, Va.

Miss Lucie Madison of King George county, and Mr. Preston H. Luck, of Middleburg, Va., the son of Dr. S. P. Luck, of Loudoun county, will be married October 5th.

Miss Belle Knight Wast and Dr. John Randolph Graham, of Winchester, Va., will be wedded September 28th in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Ward, of South Washington Street, Winchester, Va.

Miss Knowles Will Sing.

The announcement that Miss Margie Knowles will sing to-morrow afternoon at the Woman's Club will be read with great pleasure by Miss Knowles's many friends and admirers.

Miss Knowles will then hear her for the first time since her return from her two years of study abroad, under Madame Morris Black, and have an opportunity to note all that her beautiful contralto voice has gained by training and self-culture.

Miss Knowles will present the following delightful programme:

- 1. Voi ce Sapete—From the Opera.....Mozart
- 2. (a) Lithauesches Lied.....Chopin
- (b) Was ein Junge madchen liebt.....Chopin
- 3. (a) O, for a Bunch of the Moorland.....Fisher
- (b) The Captain.....Robbers
- 4. (a) Berceuse.....Chambade
- (b) Views from the Sea.....Chaminade
- 5. At the Spring.....Bach
- 6. My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair.....Haydn
- 7. Hal—Lull.....Conquest

Miss Knowles has been engaged to sing at St. Paul's Church and has been accorded the highest praise by all who have listened to her.

A brilliant future is prophesied for the charming young singer, in whom her own and her mother's personality seem blended, so fully do they recall the former, as she looked and sang some years ago.

Woman's Club Lectures.

The recent announcement of the literary programme for the coming season at the Woman's Club has turned the minds of many with expectant interest towards the additional pleasure promised by the lecture course of the coming season.

Mrs. Arthur J. Lefroy, who met and fulfilled expectation with such brilliant success last year as chairman of the lecture committee, has not yet completed her list, which has on it many names that carry in their mention the highest assurance of the enjoyment their owners' presence before a Richmond audience must promise.

Among these names is that of Dr. Toyokichi Iyemaga, of Japan, who will give his lecture on "Japan and Russia" November 17th, in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall. The Woman's Club lecture committee have invited the speaker with them in the delightful opportunity offered by Dr. Iyemaga's presentation of the great Eastern question from the standpoint of patriotism and intimate knowledge.

The distinguished lecturer is a graduate of Oberlin College and Johns Hopkins University. As an educator he was connected for several years with the universities in Tokio. As an official he was secretary in the foreign department of widely known reputations for scholarship and prominence.

Mr. Howard Griggs, so favorably known in Richmond and Virginia by his appearance here and his association with the Summer School of Methods, has responded favorably to an invitation from Mrs. Lefroy, and will be heard again in one of his inimitable lectures at the Y. M. C. A. hall, the Woman's Club and the Education Association, on the 10th of October, at 8 o'clock.

Another name which has been added to the list of lecturers is that of Dr. Bannion Williams, who will discuss the most absorbing subject of "Radium," and the Rev. Dr. James Powell Smith will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Chancellorsville." It is hoped that the lecture will be one of the very best, which has ever been presented.

The Horse Show German.

Among the many attractive features of the Horse Show week with the society set will be the Horse Show German to be given at the Masonic Temple on Monday evening, October 17th.

As the Horse Show does not begin until Tuesday, the German will not conflict with it in any way, and will afford the many visitors to the city for that occasion opportunity to see old friends and the Japanese government, of the Formosan government. He has traveled through Persia, Asiatic Turkey, Egypt, India and China. These travels have accorded to him unusual opportunities of experience and observation in the Orient, so as to give him that breadth of view and depth of thought needed for the mastery of the whole situation.

MISS MARGARET KNOWLES.

In the opinion of many, Richmond has no sweeter singer.

His contribution to the Forum, Review of Reviews and other high class American magazines have endowed him as an author with a reputation for remarkable vigor and lucidity in style. His lecture in Richmond will mark the opening of the course in a notable manner, and present a rare and unusual opportunity.

Dr. Richard Burton, of Cambridge, Mass., who is scheduled to give the club, his guests and friends his ideas on "The Modern Novel," presents another name that reflects great credit on Mrs. Lefroy's ability to secure lecturers of such recognized attainments and with such meet new ones, before the distracting pleasure of the show begin.

Invitations have not been issued as yet, but may be expected the latter part of this week.

Winners at Bryn Mawr.

Among the Richmond favorites that won at Bryn Mawr Horse Show were Mrs. A. E. Dietrich on Buck, and Mrs. Courtland Smith on Gee Whiz. There were many handsomely gowned women present some of whom were Miss Katherine Earle, wearing a lace trimmed white wool suit, and a large white plumed hat to match.

Miss Evelyn Virginia Howell, who wore a periwinkle blue hat and veil with a cream broadcloth suit.

Several strawberry-red cloaks were conspicuous. Mrs. Charles Gilpin, 3d, was thus gowned.

Mrs. Berwind wore an exquisite black gown.

Miss May Hobson was in white with a big blue picture hat.

Miss Katherine Dohan had green facings on her white suit and a rose-colored hat.

Grimmell—Von Rosenegk.

A very unique wedding will be solemnized at St. John's German Lutheran Church, October 6th, at 8 P. M., when Miss Elizabeth von Rosenegk, daughter of the Hon. and Mrs. A. von Rosenegk, will be married to Mr. Frederick William Grimmell.

The colors of the rainbow will be carried out in the decorations, bridesmaids' dresses and the wedding invitations.

After the ceremony a large reception will be given at "Rosy Rest," the home of the bride's parents, on West Cary Street Road.

Belvin—Deaderick.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Luella Clifton Deaderick, of Jonesboro, Tennessee, to Mr. John Allan Belvin, of this city.

The company will take place in the First Baptist Church in Jonesboro, October 11th, at 12:30 P. M.

Miss Deaderick is the daughter of ex-Judge Alfred Shelby Deaderick and granddaughter of the late Judge James W. Deaderick, who for sixteen years was chief justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee. She is also the great-granddaughter of Isaac Shelby, the first Governor of Kentucky.

Mr. Belvin is the cashier of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and son of Mr. Preston Belvin.

Schmidt—Essig.

Mr. Henry O. Essig announces the marriage of his sister, Mary Louise, to Mr. Frank Edward Schmidt, Wednesday, October 19th, at his home, No. 243 Floyd Avenue.

Millhiser—Brauer.

Miss May Brauer and Mr. Joseph Millhiser, whose engagement has already been announced, will receive their friends this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at the home of Miss Brauer, No. 2100 Venable Street.

Masonic Home Entertainment.

On Friday night, September 30th, the ladies of the Masonic Home Auxiliary will give a "Pie Party" at the Home at 8:30 o'clock.

All who attend are promised a pleasant evening playing this popular new game.

Confederate Memorial Literary Society.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will hold its first fall meeting on Wednesday, September 28th, at 11 A. M.

Birthday Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, whose engagement has already been announced, will receive their friends this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at the home of Miss Brauer, No. 2100 Venable Street.

Kindergarten Work.

Miss Alice Parker, the president of the

(Continued on Sixth Page.)

FOX-HUNTING AT NATURAL BRIDGE

Guests Follow Chase Through the Moonlight to the Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NATURAL BRIDGE, VA., September 24.—The autumn season, with its richer glories of color and harvest, is gathering in full measure its contingent of guests and sight-seers in this wonderful spot.

A few nights since there was a fine fox chase all by the light of moon. It really set all one's sporting blood aflame at the sound of the horn to see the hounds gather with one consent, and troop with noisy and expectant at the feet of their master, and at the word of command head into the hills, the guests following in close pursuit and suppressed excitement when the pack were soon in full cry. As to the trained and well known only to those who have earned it by living in the open air and exercise.

The evenings are so clear and cold that a bright log fire is very acceptable to many, and gathers around its cheerful glare those interested in the social game or the devotees of music, though the summer girl is still game, and in spite of the frost in the air upon the face of the chaperone, the evening finds her under the beams of the same old moon, relating old story, sermons in stones and good in everything.

This resort being the Mecca of the summer girl, Washington and Lee and the V. M. I. furnishing beau galore, and on Sunday a particular favorite, when they have the day at Natural Bridge is always the objective point.

The lovers of music have been enchanted with the concerts given by Herr Kerlenkampff, of Germany, whose cheerful and excellent do credit to the best musicians of the country, and make envious those of us who long for such training.

A coaching party, given by Mr. Paxton to his guests, was one of the most enjoyed events of the week. These cool nights, all agree with cool, these cool nights, making Nature's paint brush busy indeed in beautifying hill and dale. Many parties stop at the Bridge both coming and going to the fair at St. Louis, this magnificent climate being most refreshing to prepare for or to refresh one after the jaunt.

Dr. C. R. Hartsock complimented the Miss Partridge and Mrs. R. H. Carter, of New Orleans, with a farewell dance and fare leaving for the great fair at St. Louis, and this hall will be well. So the rest goes without saying, and there are many pledges to meet again next summer.

Among this week's arrivals are: W. F. Newland, London; J. Kerlenkampff and W. Broden, Pittsburg; Mrs. M. E. Tager, Luray; M. B. Tager, Luray; R. W. Winborn, Buena Vista, Va.; Miss Mangham, Buena Vista, Va.; Master Roger W. Winborn, Buena Vista, Va.; Miss Vaughan, Buena Vista, Va.; Miss Barnes, Murfreesboro, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Tutwiler, Miss Caldwell, Buena Vista; P. Muller, Newark, N. J.; Miss Mary Morrison, Lynchburg; J. C. Butler, Bristol, Tenn.; Miss Hattie Sales, Lynchburg; L. H. Shumate, Chicago; Miss Josephine Wheelwright, Washington; B. F. Wyckoff, New York; Miss Lula Blanton, Lynchburg; Mrs. J. H. Bryant, Lynchburg; J. M. Ways, Lynchburg; C. C. Robinson, Richmond; Miss Ruth, Richmond; E. B. Sherman, Richmond; Miss Martha Wheeler, Miss Netta Tuggle, Blackstone, Va.; Mrs. Edwin Buford Sherman, Lynchburg; Miss Katherine Davis, Lynchburg; Miss Ella Word, Lynchburg; Miss Annie Reed, L. M. West, Norfolk; John S. Thompson, Atlanta, Ga.; D. W. Sue, Lynchburg; Miss Rosa Tucker, Lexington; D. M. Barclay, Lexington; Mrs. S. Black, Chester, Pa.; Miss Anna E. Black, Chester, Pa.; Miss Anna S. Ackfield, Chester, Pa.; W. H. H. Emmons, Boston; Mrs. S. T. Dimmaus, Boston; Miss Virginia Scruggs, D. M. Simmons, Richmond College; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Needles, Roanoke; John Oliver Needles, Roanoke; Mrs. P. B. Williams, Baltimore; Prof. James Lewis Howe, Lexington; Phillip Walter Henry, New York; A. V. Thompson, Louisville; A. G. Holcomb, New York; A. E. Chittenden, Syracuse, N. Y.; J. P. Menland, Prescott, Arizona; Miss Martha Keek, Washington; Miss Marie A. Kuhnle, Washington; G. H.

Corner Fourth and Broad Sts. Kaufmann & Co. Corner Fourth and Broad Sts.

This is the Season of the Picturesque in Millinery

The trend of Styles for Fall and Winter indicates that the fashions in vogue during the reign of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette, and, later under the Directoire, have been drawn upon for inspiration.

The large Picture Hats are pre-eminent for evening as well as day-time wear, yet so varied are the shapes, that each individual taste is amply met.

Crowns are high and brims are wide, to go with the full skirts and larger sleeves. Among the Hats most recently smiled upon by Fashion are those with medium high stiff crown, elongated from back to front and slightly sunken at the top. The tall box-like crown—severe, uncompromising, yet regal—is also a favorite.

Taffeta Hats are in again, elaborated with every sort of shirring and diminutive plaitings.

Our Imported Hats On Sale

at less than actual cost abroad—but then they've served their purpose—as we've used them for models.

The Hats of Our Own Design have missed none of the ideas that distinguish the imported models. It will not be at all strange if you pick up one of them expecting to see a Paris label inside—instead, tucked away among the folds of the lining you'll find a tiny bit of cardboard, on it (in ciphers) it plainly tells of the difference between Paris Hats and ours—a difference in price only, and that largely in your favor.

The New Style Ideas in Outer Attire

For Women, Misses and Little Miss Up-to-Date

are now authoritatively represented in their various departments. There is such refreshing individuality about the style, the materials and tailoring that the keen admiration of the discriminating woman is naturally evoked. Never were Women's Tailor-Made Garments so captivating as our present showing. You certainly cannot afford to make your selections until satisfied as to the style most becoming to your figure.

YOU ARE WELCOME TO ALL THESE SHOWINGS MAY TEACH, AND THE FREEDOM OF THE ENTIRE STORE IS EXTENDED TO YOU.

You will observe that our prices tell a story of some very masterful buying, particularly among the Garments of moderate price.

RALLY AT LOVINGSTON.

Congressman Flood and Senator Revercomb to Meet.

The Democrats of Nelson county are expecting a field day at Lovingston to-morrow when Congressman Hal D. Flood will open up his campaign.

Mr. Flood will meet his Republican opponent, State Senator George A. Revercomb, in joint debate, and the contest promises to be a very interesting one. Both are men of culture and ability and are good stump orators.

It is possible that Captain John N. Ople, who is running as an independent, may also be on hand, and if he comes there may be a three-cornered controversy.

A great crowd is expected, as this will be the last court-day in Nelson until after the election.

Old Paper a Curiosity.

Mr. J. M. Lyda, of No. 1214-2 South

MISS MARGARET MARTIN MCKEE.

Miss McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. McKee, is one of the charming young ladies who will attend the special course in art, music and the languages. She will take special course in art, music and the languages. Miss McKee has just returned from an extended trip to Pennsylvania and New York.

Adams, Richmond; Mrs. William F. Fell, Philadelphia; Mrs. H. R. Sheppard, Philadelphia; Mrs. James H. Buford, Montross, Va.; G. M. Hanson, Montross, Va.; G. W. Hanson, Montross, Va.; M. and Mrs. F. L. Hanson, Keyville; D. G. Hobson, Mossy Creek; Miss Warburton, N. Y.; William H. Raiser, New York; J. M. de Luan, Bannahan; Mrs. C. E. Stevens, Buchanan; William M. Rowlett and wife, Hagerstown, Md.; Frank H. Rutter and wife, Washington; G. F. Northern, Lexington; S. G. Turnbull, Lexington; Miss K. Nielsen, New York.

Fourth street, has an excellently preserved copy of the Virginia Herald, of Fredericksburg, dated Saturday, November 7, 1818. The paper is, of course, yellow with age, but every word is perfectly legible. Noticeable for the frequency of their appearance are advertisements for runaway slaves and for the sale of negroes.

Hannon Y's Meeting.

A very important meeting of the Hannon Y's will be held at the home of Miss Louise Werner, No. 467 North Twenty-seventh Street, Tuesday night, September 27th.

All members are requested to be present, as there is important business to be transacted.

The active members of the Hannon Y's have been requested to meet the Flower Mission Superintendent at the Home for incurables, Tuesday morning, September 27th, at 10:30 o'clock.

Justice John's Small Fry.

Willie Taylor cursed his mother and was fined $10 and put under security for twelve months in the Police Court yesterday.

Roy Donley, a small boy, was sent to the Reformatory as a vagrant.

Frank M. Crawford, for being drunk and disorderly, was sent down for thirty days.

Hunter Goods was charged $5 for throwing rocks.

Will Render "Erminie."

The McGill Catholic Union is making preparations to present an elaborate production of the comic opera "Erminie" some time in December. Two years ago they produced "Erminie," which was a success. The public and press alike are anxious to see one of the greatest productions attempted by amateurs.

The cast and chorus of the former company have been called to meet at the rooms, 17 North Sixth Street, to-morrow, at 8:30 P. M.

Wounded With Pitchfork.

Major Bentley, colored, was found guilty of wounding Sam Hughes with a pitchfork, and in the Police Court yesterday Justice John fined him $20 and put him under bonds for ninety days.

Alleged to Be Deserters.

Justice John held Samuel Roberts and James Hasford yesterday as deserters from the United States Navy. They were taken by charge by Officer Kronkel. The United States authorities have been notified.

Just Feeling Rich.

"It's a queer thing, this belonging to a club," said the man who had just paid his first dues. "It's like to feel rich, even once in a while."

"Take the simplest thing in the world—going into the house. All my life I've been used to fishing around for a hatchery, wriggling out of my overcoat, and hollering to knower my home."

restaurant, but you don't get called by name unless you're more of a rouser than I am—and what's worse is that you're not expected to sit around and be waited on unless you're spending money when you're in such a place.

"Oh, it's great to feel rich now and then, and I don't know that it makes home seem any worse."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

THE BEST CHANCE.

Rev. Herbert M. Hope will run his third personally conducted excursion to the World's Fair, over the Chesapeake and Ohio on October 18th.

For the sum of $35.00 he pays your transportation both ways in day coach, and for lodging and breakfast at hotel, and for five cents to the Fair.

For $51 he adds to the above Pullman accommodations both ways. Write him for particulars, Room 26, Merchants National Bank Building, Richmond, Va.

GOOD LUCK

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS

BAKING POWDER.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS. Miss Clara G. Moore, teacher in Marshall School, leads this week in the Quaker Gelatine Popular Teacher Contest by twenty votes. The votes are coming in thick and fast. Send yours at once.

KELLEY AND DUDLEY, Richmond, Va. Sole Agents.

An Elegant Display of Wedding Gifts.

Greater, handsomer, completer in exquisite variety—the SCHWARSSCHILD store greets the bridal season of 1904. No gift more lastingly acceptable nor as universally appropriate, as its Sterling Silver-ware—and our stock is replete with an artistic collection of the silversmith's skill ranging from the Sugar Shell at $10 to a complete Chest at $1,000.

This elegant store maintains its reputation as the one in which every article is appropriate for a gift, and we cordially invite you to inspect.

Schwarsschild Bros., JEWELERS, S. W. Cor. Second & Broad Sts.