

NORFOLK IS OUTCLASSED

Richmond College Took the Game by a Big Score.

SPLENDID LOCAL ELEVEN

Plucky Youngsters From the Seaside City Won Admiration.

Richmond College demonstrated its superiority over the Norfolk High School team in football at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, although the game was not a good test of the local team's strength.

The Norfolk line-up averaged twenty-five pounds shy of that of the Richmond team, the players weighing on an average 130 pounds. They looked like pigmy beside the Spiders, who have some stalwart, lusty men in the line.

The game was devoid of thrills, except so far as accidents and injuries were concerned. Three Norfolk kids were disabled and carried off the field, while various others were knocked out. One Richmond man suffered a cut over the eye, but pluckily remained in the game until he was retired by Coach Wall.

It was a splendid opportunity for Richmond to practice some fancy stunts for the big games, but they failed to take advantage of the opportunity, and slumped themselves against the Norfolk line, that in each scrimmage left one or two of the players on the ground.

Richmond's strong team. Richmond has a strong team, thanks to Coach Wall. Apparently much stronger than that of last year. Hudgins, Mench, Coleman, Bowen, Snead and Webster are good ones.

Quarter-back Festerlin, of the Norfolk team, put up the best individual work on either side. He weighs 120 pounds, and could do little with the big Richmondsers on the offensive, but his tackling and sprinting were superb, and he gained the admiration of the crowd and the opposing players.

"He's splendid," said Coach Wall. The little fellow was knocked out several times, but kept in the game to the finish.

The score was 24 to 0, in favor of Richmond College—six touchdowns and four goals.

In no instance did the Norfolk boys make gains in line work. The ball was most of the territory gained by them on penalties to Richmond, for offenses, holding and other fouls, except in backs kicks, after the ball had been kicked off by Richmond.

Work Encouraging. The general showing of the Richmond eleven was encouraging, and much may be expected of them in future games when they line-up against teams more on their own weight.

The injured on the Norfolk side were: Stephens, left end, who was hurt by McClure; Pender, right half, who was succeeded by Bain, and Hootan, full, whose place was taken by Faber.

Richmond making another touchdown, and the ball was within the five-yard line. The line-up is appended:

Norfolk Position Richmond. Stephens..... left end.....Southern

Billups..... left tackle.....Hudgins

Thompson..... left guard.....Crockett

Wig..... center.....Webster

Grubb..... (captain)

Curry..... right guard.....Thraves

Bain..... right tackle.....Snead

McBlair..... right end.....Graham

Festerlin..... quarterback.....Mench

Webster..... right halfback.....Coleman

Bain..... left halfback.....Frazier

Hootan..... fullback.....Bowen

Faber..... (captain)

Referee, Haw. Umpire, Elyson. Timekeepers, Pinner, of Norfolk; Hidy, of Richmond. Linesmen, Glenman, of Norfolk; Throckmorton, of Richmond.

PENNAINT WINNERS IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

WILD PITCH GIVES COLLECTOR JESSUP PENNAINT TO BOSTON IN FIRST BY A HEAD

Sensational Finish Yesterday at Great American League Struggle.

OVER 28,000 PEOPLE THERE

First Game Went to Bean-Eaters, But Highlanders Took Second—Season at End.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, October 10.—Boston vanquished New York on the base-ball field yesterday, winning the American League championship pennant for the second time. It was a sensational finish to a thrilling struggle, which has been going on for several months, and while Boston won, the New York representatives were not disgraced. In fact they almost shared the honors with the victors.

The Boston base-ball club of the American League yesterday won the first game of a double-header with New York, and with it won the pennant by a margin of just one run. The run that spelled victory in this game and gave Manager James Collins's Bostonians their second successive pennant, was made on a wild pitch by Jack Chesbro, the wonderful pitcher, whose brilliant work had earned New York to compete for the pennant.

New York won this first game, instead of losing it, by a score of 2 to 0. The wild pitch, which was the key to the victory, was made by Chesbro, who had pitched for Boston in the first game of the double-header, and the game and the pennant went to the New England team, by a score of three to two.

The game was a battle between two evenly balanced teams, which had alternated in the lead for two months. Saturday morning New York was in the lead. That day Boston won two games from the leaders and itself took the place of honor. In percentage of victories that had New York won both contests yesterday, and the wild pitch, which would have carried off the honors.

The champions consist of the following players: James Collins, manager; Criger, catcher; Doran, catcher; Farrell, catcher; pitchers—D. J. Young, William W. Greiner, Edwin Powell, Orib, Putnam, Clarkson, George LaChance, second baseman; Ferris, short-stop; Fred Parent, out-fielder; Schuch, first baseman; the Roanoke, Lynchburg and Richmond clubs. Dave Fultz, an out-fielder, also made a reputation with the Boston team.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

American League Standing.

Table with columns for Clubs, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Washington, and Games Won. Boston leads with 92 wins.

National League Standing.

Table with columns for Clubs, Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Brooklyn, and Games Won. Chicago leads with 96 wins.

Climax of Season.

Yesterday's result was a magnificent climax to a season which has proved the most interesting in base-ball history. Nor was the "chance" League, which was the result of the close competition between two evenly balanced teams, which have alternated in the lead for two months.

The champions consist of the following players: James Collins, manager; Criger, catcher; Doran, catcher; Farrell, catcher; pitchers—D. J. Young, William W. Greiner, Edwin Powell, Orib, Putnam, Clarkson, George LaChance, second baseman; Ferris, short-stop; Fred Parent, out-fielder; Schuch, first baseman; the Roanoke, Lynchburg and Richmond clubs. Dave Fultz, an out-fielder, also made a reputation with the Boston team.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The Chicago team, managed by Charles Comiskey, one of the great ball players in the history of the game, and the finest, but the pace was too fast, and they could not land better than three runs in the first inning. The game was headed by the peerless batsman, Lajoie, and with such brilliant pitchers as Bernhard, Joss, Knickerbocker, and others, the Chicago team was a formidable club, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

The National League. In the National League the season's campaign proved a runaway race for the New York Giants, managed by John J. McGraw, the former Big Game player, for the first time since 1887. McGraw has landed a pennant for New York, the team making a new record by winning the pennant largely due to the wonderful work of Christy Mathewson and McGinnity, pitchers, and McGraw's own leadership, his great endurance. Bowerman, an old Baltimore champion, and Warner, another veteran backstop, did without help from Taylor, Ames and Witt, who among New York's other pitchers, Mathewson is a former Virginia League pitcher, and McGinnity was a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of 1902, with the great Rube Waddell, a pitching wonder, and such other stars as Pudge Beder, Honley and Cockey, made a sport, but on their last Western trip went back to fifth place and the second in the list of clubs.

Won Westchester High-Weight Handicap Yesterday at Morris Park.

WORKOUT RECORDS BROKEN

Lou Dillon Makes Phenomenal Run at Memphis—Bedwood Wins Cup at Lexington.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Collector Jessup at 6 to 1 won the Westchester High-Weight Handicap, six and a half furlongs of the Withers mile, at Morris Park today. Lady Uncas made the pace to the stretch, where she gave way to Collector Jessup, who took the lead and won by a head.

First race—selling, last six furlongs of the Withers mile—Geranium (6 to 5) first, King Pepper (6 to 1) second, Old England (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:14 1/2.

Second race—Last five and a half furlongs of the Withers mile—Trotter (6 to 1) first, Lampo (6 to 1) second, My Buella (16 to 5) third. Time, 1:06.

Third race—The Withers mile—Alan A. Dais (6 to 20) first, Trotter (6 to 1) second, Lady Roshia (12 to 1) third. Time, 1:14 3/4.

Fourth race—Last six and a half furlongs of the Withers mile—Oro (3 to 1) first, Navajo (4 to 5) second, Yeoman (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:23 1/4.

Fifth race—The Westchester Handicap, last six and a half furlongs of the Withers mile—Collector Jessup (6 to 1) first, Wotan (6 to 1) second, New York (20 to 1) third. Time, 1:14 1/2.

Sixth race—One mile and three-sixteenths, Withers course—James F. (6 to 1) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Seventh race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Eighth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Ninth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Tenth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Eleventh race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Twelfth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Thirteenth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Fourteenth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Fifteenth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Sixteenth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

Seventeenth race—Six furlongs—Frontenac (6 to 2) first, Mad Mullah (16 to 5) second, Good Cheer (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.

AUCTION SALES—This Day.

By A. L. Adamson and J. Thompson Brown & Co. TRUSTEE'S AUCTION SALE FRAME DWELLING AND LOT FOURTEENTH STREET NEAR DECATUR STREET, MANCHESTER, VA., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11TH, 1904, AT 5 O'CLOCK P. M.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.

By the Valentine Auction Co., Auctioneers. AUCTION SALE OF Stock Staple and Fancy Groceries, LARGE GROCERY'S ICE-BOX, SAWING TABLE, CROCKERY, CANNED GOODS, ETC., AT NO. 501 W. CARY ST.