

COHEN'S SELLING POWER PROVEN ON MONDAY

When we issue a proclamation to the shoppers of Richmond to sell them goods at less profit than any other store in this vicinity we throw down the gauntlet to any and all stores. Some possess the will only, others the will and the power to sell for the little prices that we do, but it is left for The Cohen Co. to prove its merchandise ability by such prices as are not easily to be found anywhere but at this store. We do not expect to convince you by type. We want you to compare our prices with any others so you can convince yourself. Here is a page full showing about what will be Monday.

STAUNTON SOCIETY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, Va., Oct. 29—One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season was that given by Mrs. Glasgow Armstrong on Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the Young Married Ladies' Whist Club. The beautiful home of Mrs. Armstrong was decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums. Bridge what was the game of the evening, after which an elegant supper was served. Mrs. Armstrong was assisted in receiving by Miss Anna Woodward and Miss Emma Hope. Those invited were Mesdames Laura McCoy, Frank M. Hanger, H. A. Walker, Frank Bell, James K. Taylor, R. S. Kerr, Robert Blackford, Charles S. Sterns, William C. Marshall, Thomas Parkins, Charles L. Oliver, Dambur Murray, T. R. N. Egan, H. D. Peck, Fred Eninger, Clay Miller, Thomas Pauntleroy, Baldwin Hanson, Joseph A. Glasgow, S. D. Timberlake, Jr., W. Rogers, Marshall Clay Miller, William Pratt, W. P. Tams, Warr King, B. P. Nottingham, William J. Perry, M. P. Perry, Thomas Hogwood, Julius J. Foster, C. Foster, Carter Braxton, E. J. Cushing, Hugh Sproul, H. B. Wilson, Richard S. Turk, James Woodward, J. R. Fishbourne, R. E. Nelson, Harry Worthington, Glipa Willson, Charles Hoge, McHenry H. Holliday, H. H. Henkel, Frank Tannehill, W. S. Burke, V. L. Denny, Garrett Gooch, Russell Caldwell, R. N. Greenhead, J. B. Cattell, T. D. Ransau, H. H. Wayt, G. B. Crawford, J. Taylor, and B. M. Donah. Misses Mamie Grady, Rose Harrison, Pat Hanger, Mattie Shreckhise, Kathie Hoge, Margaret and Lizzie Cochran, Sadie Weller, Annie Penn, Rosa Witz, Lizzie Jones, Louise Allen, Lizzie Atkinson, Belle Mason, Margaret Timberlake, Janet Sumnerston, Dora Yarbrough, Anny Marshall, Kathie Baker, Helen Hutchinson, Janet Holl, Bessie Baker.

The Success Literary Society met at the Young Men's Christian Association Tuesday night and was well attended. The programme, which was well rendered, was very much enjoyed. Owing to the absence of the affirmative constituents, the debate was deferred until the next regular meeting of the society.
After all business was completed the club repaired to the reading room of the association, where refreshments were served. The evening was one of rare pleasure and every one highly enjoyed themselves.
Miss Mamie Grady has as her guest Miss Anna Penn, of Reidsville, N. C., and entertained very delightfully in her honor Friday night with drive, which the scores were kept with pumpkin seeds and the lady's prize was a large pumpkin rind filled with numerous articles for a ladies toilet, while a similar rind filled with cigars and cigarettes was the gentleman's prize. Miss Lizzie Cochran captured the lady's prize and Mr. Charles M. East the gentleman's. Among Miss Grady's guests were Misses Helen Baxter, Anna Woodward, Florence Tyree, Mabel Little, Rose Harrison and Bessie Baker; and Messrs. A. W. Hackley, W. B. Timberlake, Kent Harrison, A. M. Tyree, Lawrence Patton, W. B. McFarland, James Grady, Dr. A. M. Pauntleroy. After the game an elegant supper was served.
Miss Sarah J. Gold and Mr. William A. Jones were married Wednesday night at Basic City.
Mr. and Mrs. John Kavanaugh left here Thursday for Richmond with their daughter, Miss Mamie, who is to be operated on by Dr. Geo. Ben Johnston at the Memorial Hospital for appendicitis. Miss Mamie is 16 years old, and has had three attacks of appendicitis.
Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Weaver have returned from Richmond where they spent several days attending the horse show. Miss Mary Bruce went to Richmond Thursday.
Mr. Frank W. Danner, of Richmond, after spending two weeks with his brother, Mr. W. N. Danner, in Augusta county, has returned to his home.
John Sharp Williams's Fault.
John Sharp Williams, the Mississippi congressman, is trying to overcome his habit of saying funny things, having realized that to be regarded as a humorist is a handicap in the race for political preferment. He says that Henry Watterson long ago warned him to avoid the pitfall, intimated, "Williams," said the Kentucky editor, "you may have a career before you, but if you do not wish to spoil it you must wrap the mantle of dignity around you and never let it fall off." He solemnly never says anything humorous and never tells a funny story. Then, after an impressive pause; "but if you must do it, Williams, speak with a slight nasal twang, so that you may be suspected of New England ancestry." The Mississippiian says he neglected this advice and has suffered in consequence. Now, he is contemplating an appearance of funeral solemnity.

Just Complaint.
That deficit which the Roosevelt administration has on hand reminds us that every time we Democrats take the government away from them they don't leave us enough with which to keep house in a liberal manner—Wilmington Star.
