

SOCIETY.

to join the Soldiers' Home Committee are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Dabney Carr, No. 10 East Grace Street, next Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Tyler, who were married at the bride's home in Louisa on Tuesday last, after a trip South, will make their future home in this city.

Misses Hatlie Wyatt and Lucy Fritzel, who have been visiting in Newport News, have returned home.

Mr. E. H. Miller, who has been in the city for several days, has returned to his home in Danville, Va.

Mr. J. L. Moon is visiting relatives near Scottsville.

Miss Mira Parke Jones is in Danville, the guest of Miss Hestia Holland.

Mr. Richard Bidgood has been spending several days in Danville.

Miss Helen White is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Joyner, of Johnson-town. Later Miss White will visit the St. Louis Fair, en route to Kansas City, Mo., where she will spend the winter.

Mr. E. S. Haynes is spending a few days at his home in Yuma, Va.

Miss Flora Stegar, of Washington, who has been spending some time in Lexington and Staunton, is now the guest of friends in this city.

Mr. J. T. Davis is on a hunting trip with friends in Caroline county.

Miss Annie Sneed was one of the wedding party at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Fayette S. Curtis, which took place last Tuesday in Gloucester county.

The second crop of strawberries and green peas was gathered this week at "Belle Haven," the beautiful farm of Captain J. L. Pitts, near Scottsville, Va.

The many friends of Mrs. U. M. Council, who was seriously hurt last Monday by an electric car at the corner of Grace and Robinson Streets, will be glad to know that she is improving.

Mrs. Charles Pickett Stokes has gone for a visit to New York city, where she will be joined by her daughter, Miss Allene Stokes, and Miss Lily Urquhart, of this city, who have been members of a house party given in the home of Mr. William Morris, of Chestnut Hill, near Philadelphia.

Miss Nellie Talbot, of Waynesboro, Va., is the guest of relatives in Richmond. Miss Annie Talbot will come down for Thanksgiving and be in Richmond for the winter. She is a descendant of this season.

Miss Agnes Drewry, of "Mineola," spent the day with friends in Richmond yesterday.

General James Macgill will be a guest of General Ethel Bolling in Petersburg from the time of his arrival in that city on Monday until his marriage to Miss Lucy Lee Hill on Wednesday next.

Mr. Morgan Robinson, who paid a short visit to Richmond, has returned to the University of Virginia, where he will continue his work this year. Mr. Robinson is making a fine record, and one that his Richmond relatives and friends are justly proud of.

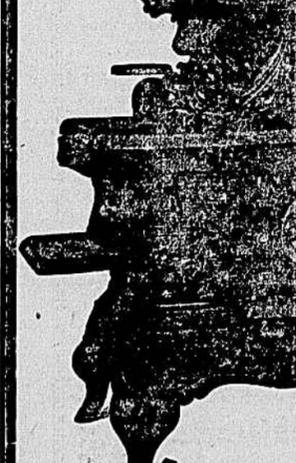

Miss Eugenie Taylor, of Fonthello, will leave Tuesday to visit friends in Lynchburg and Danville.

Mr. J. Beverly Harvie, of Milwaukee, son of Mr. James B. Harvie, of No. 339 South Fourth Street, is the guest of his parents. He expects to be in Virginia several weeks.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

His Excellency Breaks the Record for Brief Proclamation.

Governor Montague yesterday issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation: In conformity with custom and with the We've handled the "Royal" Range shown in this advertisement for the last three years, and have yet to sell the first cent's worth of repairs to any customer. That's the way with all our stoves. We buy stoves just like we've always bought furniture. We buy from first-class concerns only, and never consider a second-rate manufacturer. If you want a thoroughly first-class stove of any kind, come to us and you'll get it.

The "Fortune" & The "Mrs. Rorer" Gas Ranges are guaranteed to bake, cook, boil or broil as good as any cooking stove you ever used. If they don't you get your money back.

What could be fairer? In heating stoves we have several of the very best makes in Self-Feeders, Base Burners, Ovens, Open Franklin, Wood Stoves, etc., etc. If you want to be treated right in a stove purchase—that is, getting a first-class stove at a low price, by all means go to JURGENS' FURNITURE AND CARPET STORE.

410-21 EAST BROAD STREET, BETWEEN FOURTH AND FIFTH. CREDIT CHERFULLY GIVEN ON ALL PURCHASES. We still have a few of the #9 Round Self-Feeders, with plain-glass doors, left.

WRIGHT & WOODALL, 7 East Broad Street.

The Wearer of OUR CLOTHING

looks into the mirror of fashion and is satisfied. We dress you in the latest and best for business pleasure, for church, theatre or club, for travel, stay at home, for social functions and for weddings.

Every Kind of Suit or Overcoat for man or young man.

$7.50 to $25.00

The New Golden Browns

In Suits for men and young men. Sack or Double-Breasted styles.

$12.50 and $15

Wright & Woodall, 7 East Broad.

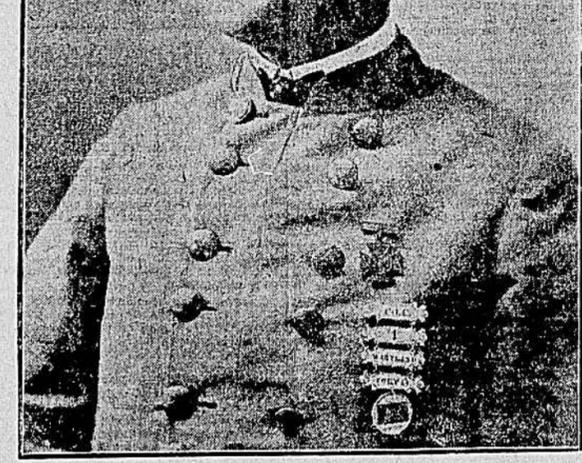

A VISIT TO YORKTOWN, JAMESTOWN AND WILLIAMSBURG.

MRS. U. S. ELDRIDGE.

In anticipation of the Jamestown "Celebration" in 1907, the writer took advantage of a visit to Gloucester county the past summer, to view these old historic places. Crossing the ferry at Gloucester Point, we first visited Yorktown, where still stands in good condition, the celebrated "Nelson" Home, several miles distant is the old "Temple Farm," where Lord Cornwallis surrendered his army in the Revolutionary War to General George Washington.

The "National" Monument, erected at Yorktown in 18— is truly a magnificent work of art, and can be seen for miles and miles in York River—justly worthy of the Nation it represents. On the Gloucester side of the York River are to be seen the fortifications thrown up in three successive wars, which speak most pathetically of those stirring times, and when the Jamestown "Celebration" takes place this historic county, will be the "observed of all observers."

A pleasant drive of twelve miles found our party at the old "Colonial" city of Williamsburg, where is centred so much of historic interest. First of all is the college of "William and Mary," chartered in 1693, being next to Harvard, the oldest institution of learning in the United States. Its library contains many rare books, and when it is remembered that this old building was burned in three wars, its "Relics" have been wonderfully preserved.

GENERAL JAMES MACGILL.

The most important nuptial event of the year, one which will stir hearts throughout the length and breadth of the Southland, will be witnessed in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Petersburg, Va., on the afternoon of November 14th, when Miss Lucy Lee Hill, the daughter of the famous Confederate General A. P. Hill, and the daughter also of the Confederacy, will be wedded to General James Macgill, of Pulaski, the son of the eminent Confederate surgeon, Dr. Charles Macgill, of Hagerstown, Md.

The church will be beautifully decorated with flowers and Confederate flags. The different Confederate camps throughout the State and the different chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be well represented, as both the bride and groom are held in the highest esteem, not only in Virginia, but in the South wherever they have appeared, at the annual reunions and other Confederate celebrations.

Miss Hill, who for some years has been engaged in literary work, has been living with her mother on Ontario Street, Chicago. She and General Macgill will arrive in Petersburg on Monday next, and be the guests of friends in the city until Wednesday.

Exquisite Millinery.

Reinach

OUR high grade of Millinery this season has been the talk of the town. In every instance comments on the swellest Hats worn proved upon questioning to have come from Reinach's.

It's a well-known fact that our Workrooms employ more hands than all other shops in Richmond combined, and these hands are all skilled artists. Our sales-rooms, too, have all experienced heads. Our styles are guaranteed to lead, and our prices are always moderate. Wear a hat from this establishment—you'll never wear any other. Try it.

The Millinery Store, 427 East Broad REINACH Next to Fourquaren, Temple & Co.

THE DAUGHTER OF THE CONFEDERACY TO WED GENERAL JAMES MACGILL.

MISS LUCY LEE HILL.

long as she lived, and are now in possession of her niece, Mrs. Preston, of Narragansett Pier.

Miss Hill is doubly a Confederate, being the niece of the Kentucky hero of the Confederacy, General John H. Morgan, her mother's brother. Her aunt, Mrs. Basil Duke, the wife of a very prominent Kentuckian, and a leader in Confederate and social affairs in Louisville, Ky., will be a noticeable figure at the wedding.

General Macgill served during the Civil war in the First Maryland Cavalry. He was with Jackson in his Valley campaign and fought at Gettysburg, and in most of the other famous battles of the Civil war. In 1861 he was detailed for duty with the topographical engineers and rendered important service in that capacity. His three brothers, Dr. Charles G. W. Macgill, Messrs. William D. and Davidge Macgill, were also soldiers in the Confederate army and ardent supporters of the Southern cause.

General Macgill married, in 1893, Miss Mary Bell Pierce, a niece of General J. E. B. Stuart, who died in 1879. In October, 1900, he was elected and commissioned brigadier general of the Second brigade, Virginia division, United Confederate Veterans. He was re-elected last September in Lynchburg for the fifth time.

Married Woman

may deposit money with us in her own name, and subject to her order only. All business confidential. Don't you think, Madam, that it would be wise to start a small account—today? You never know what may happen. Sickness and adversity are common misfortunes and no one can tell when or where they will strike.

Be independent. Be prudent. Now, while the skies are fair and all is going well, fortify against the trials and afflictions which we hope will never come, but which we know may come. Your husband will help you. And he will praise your good sense in suggesting such a course. If out of town, write us and learn how to bank by mail. It is easy.

GOOD LUCK

When you buy a pair of Sorosis $3.50 shoes you come nearer getting your money's worth than when you buy any other shoe at the same price. The dealer gets a smaller profit—that's all.

BAKING POWDER

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS