

THE FIRST BALL AT THE OLD WHITE

They Dance the Riley, An Old White Creation.

BIG GATHERING ON FOURTH

Old Habitués Are Dropping in and the Season Getting in Swing.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, WEST VIRGINIA, July 8.—On the Fourth many Americans availed themselves of their inalienable and constitutional right to "the pursuit of happiness" by coming to the Old White.

In honor of the day the band gave a concert, rendering all the patriotic airs and the much maligned small boy expanded some exuberance in powder and noise. The whole place was gay with pleasure seekers, groups flitting across the lawn, crowding the piazzas, or sitting dreamily letting the soft music creep in their ears.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cunningham, New York; Mr. and Mrs. John Thayer, Charleston, West Virginia; Mr. John Currie, West Virginia; Mr. Will Arch Smith, Richmond; and Mr. L. Castle, of Washington, celebrated the day with an elaborate dinner. The table was prettily decorated with flags and flowers and the favors were all things that make a noise—horns, rattles, and gorgeously arrayed little black dolls that squealed, probably, for joy.

DANCED THE RILEY.

After intermission custom, the first ball of the season was opened with the "Riley," a dance somewhat after the minuet and belongs exclusively to the Old White, never being seen or heard of anywhere else. After this sacred ceremonial had been performed, the dancing became general and lasted till the usual wee small hours.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Thayer, of Charleston, West Virginia, are here for the season. Mrs. Thayer will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Kittle R. Trueheart, who was a belle here for several summers. She and Miss Helen Christian were given a very beautiful and costly German by Mrs. John Skelton Williams.

Mrs. John Currie has come for the summer and the ladies are sure of agreeable and efficient aid in every undertaking for pleasure.

Mrs. Barton Grundy has embellished her cottage with many lovely things brought from home. It is a source of great regret to her many friends that Mr. Grundy will not take an active part in social life this season.

FROM MANY STATES.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon Battle are the latest arrivals from New York. Mr.

DUNLOP PATENT FLOUR

Absolute cleanliness is the law in the manufacture of "Dunlop Patent Flour." The human hand does not come in contact with either the wheat or flour.

The wheat is unloaded by power shovels, and ground by automatic machinery. The flour sacks are sewed by machinery.

No other flour just as good. Manufactured by the Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va. Capacity 2,500 bbls. daily.

Battle is another son of North Carolina, who has won place among the foremost lawyers of the metropolis. Mr. Battle was counsel in the famous Mo-lineux case.

Her many friends will be glad to welcome Mrs. John A. Hutchinson, of Atlanta, again. Mrs. Hutchinson is one of the handsomest women at the White Sulphur.

Dr. and Mrs. Buckner and the baby came last week. Dr. Buckner will be resident physician again this year.

Mr. St. George Bryan and Mr. R. C. Bryan have been up for a few days. Mr. John Magill, of Petersburg, is spending his fourth season here.

Mr. W. C. Seddon and his attractive daughter, Miss Sally Seddon, are here for several weeks. Mr. Seddon is well known to Richmond as his father was Secretary of War during the Confederacy.

Mr. E. M. Holmes, of the Norfolk Landmark, and his beautiful bride have been spending part of their honeymoon in this ideal spot. They made many friends while here.

Nelson Notes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORWOOD, NELSON COUNTY, VA., July 8.—Miss Elvira Cabell and Miss Hopkins arrived here on Monday as guests of Mrs. Wm. D. Cabell and Mr. R. C. Stevenson, of Arizona, and little niece also spent Sunday night at Mrs. William D. Cabell's.

Mr. Moten McCue is the guest of Mrs. Pat Cabell at this writing.

Mr. T. E. Denton spent the Fourth in Richmond.

Revival services are being held in Christ Church this week, services morning and evening. The ladies of the church will have a lawn party in the parsonage yard on the evening of the 24th for the church.

Mr. Beverly Carter, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Mabel Bolton.

Mr. Henry Ewers, of Kentucky, is visiting his family here.

Mrs. Hubard Robertson, of Richmond, has been the guest of Mrs. Geo. Scroggs.

Mr. Carrington Robertson and family, of Hutton, moved his family here on last week.

OLD ROCK ALUM FULL OF LIFE

Vivid Memory Pictures of the Old Beaux and Belles.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

The Season Opened June 10th and a Goody Company is There.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA., July 5.—The name Rockbridge Alum instantly arouses in the mind of old habitués a host of memories and associations, for the Alum is a place with traditions and not dependent on flash advertisements for recognition. Just walk around to the stable and take a look at those "high-swing, bug-back coaches," and instantly the mind travels back fifty years or more, when across these green lawns sauntered the Southern belle in wide hoop skirt and high poked bonnet, with its wreath of roses beneath the brim and broad ribbons tied under a dimpled chin, while by her side in fancy we see the dandy of those times, with his high hat, wide skirted coat and light trousers.

The opening german was on the evening of July the Fourth, the music being furnished by the hotel orchestra.

The floor of the spacious ball-room was in excellent condition. The figures were led by Mr. T. T. Thompson, dancing with Miss Eva Hamilton, of Middlebrook, Va., and Mr. H. R. Mills, Chicago, Ill., dancing with Miss Nannie Twyman, of Charlottesville, Va. The others dancing were Miss Gibbs, of Lynchburg, Va., with Mr. H. Willis; Miss Pauline Embree with Dr. Tyler; Miss Casey, Washington, D. C., with W. H. Gilmore, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Crawford, Baltimore, Md., with Dr. C. C. Coleman; Mrs. W. A. Bentley with W.

BUENA VISTA. Steadily Growing in Favor As a Summer Resort.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BUENA VISTA, VA., July 5.—Buena Vista is one of the most popular summer resorts towns of the State, and the popular hotel on the hill known as the Heights is the scene of many a pleasant occasion during the summer season. The hotel is under the management of Mr. G. P. Roller, whose success as manager last season is shown by the number of last season's guests who are returning for this year. Among them are found Mrs. Casey, Miss Emma Casey, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Bessie Crawford, of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hamilton, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Casey and Miss Crawford were among the most popular young ladies at the hotel last year.

The opening german was on the evening of July the Fourth, the music being furnished by the hotel orchestra.
