Another Short Talk About Baby Grand Pianos

There is hardly an owner of a piano who has not hoped at some time or other to own a baby grand piano. There is a strange attractiveness about the grand piano which no other style of piano possesses—furthermore it combines musical qualities that no style of upright can equal. The baby grand piano possesses all of these important musical elements, with the peculiar attractiveness alluded to, and then, too, occupies no more floor space than the regular sized upright.

If you desire to own a Baby Grand, communicate with us at once. We take your old upright in exchange.

JEFFERSON PARK IS ALL EXPECTANCY

Its Ample Capacity Fully Engaged for the Horse Show.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
JEFFERSON PARK, HOTEL, July 29.—The all absorbing question in these parts is the Albemarle Horse Show which takes place near this hotel August 1st and 2d. Indications point towards a most successful show, and so numerous are the applicants for board that doubtless the capacity of the hotel will be taxed to its utmost.

The Horse Show ball at the regimental armory will be a brilliant affair. Many of the Jefferson Park belles will figure in the mazou.

The School of Methods crowd have gradually thinned out, and in their places have come other pleasant people from all sections seeking recreation and change. A pleasanter, more congenial party would be hard to find.

One of the most attractive young ladies is Miss Isabel McEwen, of Richmond, who, with her delightful contralto voice charms all who hear her.

Miss Helen M. Parrish, one of the most popular of last season's belles arrived this week in time for the german Monday evening. Miss Parrish is much admired for her stunning appearance and attractive manners.

At the game of progressive euchre on Sunday evening the first prize, a handsome gilt clock, was won by Miss Leslie Boykin, and the consolation, a silver souvenir of Charlottesville, by Miss Virginia Mason, of Rappahannock. The game was a very close one and much interest manifested throughout.

The german on Monday evening was led in admirable style by Stuart Hancock, of Charlottesville, with Miss Elsie Price, of Richmond, as his partner. Some of the most attractive balls on this occasion were Misses Elsie Price, Mary Harrison, Helen Parrish, Elsie and Merle Phillips, Katherine and Ruth Hart, of Richmond; Mamie Collier and Daisy Foster, of Hampton; Virginia Mason, of Rappahannock county, and Mary Loece, of Macon, Ga.

Miss Mildred Hill, of Richmond, is one of the latest arrivals. She, with her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawrence Smith, of Albemarle, will attend the Horse Show.

No lady at the hotel is more generally admired than Mrs. Percy Stewart Lamb, of Petersburg, who, with her handsome personality and charming manners, has won a host of friends.

Faith Pettit, of Bayanna, spent Tuesday night here, and was warmly welcomed by many friends.

Of all the amusements afforded by Jefferson Park this season, there is none so popular as the moving pictures shown at the pavilion every evening. Last Sunday evening the first prize, a handsome gilt clock, was won by Miss Leslie Boykin, and the consolation, a silver souvenir of Charlottesville, by Miss Virginia Mason, of Rappahannock. The game was a very close one and much interest manifested throughout.

MONEY is made in OIL!

In fact, no other product of the present time makes as much money as does oil.

In investing in oil select a conservative company—one managed by competent people and operating in safe oil territory.

The Ohio and Western embraces both of these requirements. Their wells are producing high-grade oil and they are rapidly drilling other wells.

An investment with this corporation now will bring you large returns. A limited number of shares may be had. Send for full particulars at once.

Richmond, Va., July 24, 1905.
Dear Sir:

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony in regard to the Como Lithia Water, as it has apparently cured me of kidney trouble. I was advised to withdraw my application for policy in the Traveller's Life Insurance Company on account of the bad condition of my kidneys, which several of the best doctors pronounced out and out Bright's disease. After drinking this water for several months I was pronounced all right by my family physician, and have since gotten two policies in one of our life insurance companies. I believe any one who will persistently use this water for kidney trouble will be cured.

Yours very truly,
W. E. TANNER,
Tanner Paint and Oil Company.
