

AFTEEMATH OF BAR ASSOCIATION

The Types Played Pranks With Allusion to Judge Duke.

WYSOR THE MAN ELOQUENT

His Speech Gives Him Secure Position As After-Dinner Speaker.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.)... WYSOR MONROE, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

An Eloquent Judge.

There were some surprises. For instance, Judge R. H. Prentiss, though known as one of the very ablest men on the bench in Virginia, had a reputation as an after-dinner speaker. His address last night gave him a place hardly second to any man in Virginia as an after-dinner speaker of the kind. The response which he made to the toast, "The Judges," was an effort which would have rivaled many of the most delicate characters, abounding in literary allusions, which evidenced a man of liberal culture, and well-versed in all the intricacies of the practical orator.

A Graceful Toastmaster.

Mr. Thom did not make an annual address as president of the association last night, as well as the cordiality of his manner towards all members and visitors, and the way in which he presided over the evening, causing those who were disappointed in not having the pleasure of listening to a formal address from him to forgive him for his reluctance. Many expressions of pleasure are heard from these Virginia lawyers at knowing that while Mr. Thom has some of the best of the evening, and the applause which it received was wholly deserved. Mr. Weyer's response to the toast, "Dreams," was a gem of oratory which could hardly be surpassed in justice. It gave to the evening a position as an after-dinner speaker which is secure and unique.

Banquet Was Needed.

The speeches were so good that what I have written about them, though it is a little long, seems like extravagance. But it is hardly possible to speak extravagantly of efforts such as those of last night. The gentlemen assembled in the dining-room to hear the lawyers talk last night. Confidently, the success of the banquet was needed to redress the balance of the convention. The attendance was small until the time of the banquet drew near, and the sessions were devoid of great interest.

TRACK STILL BLOCKED.

Two Hundred Men at Work on Scene of Lynchburg Wreck.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... LYNCHBURG, VA., August 11.—The indications to-night are that the main line of the Southern, which was interrupted by the wreck in the bridge over the James River yesterday, will not be restored until later to-morrow evening. It is probable that, meanwhile, the through trains which are being detained over the Chesapeake and Ohio and Norfolk and Western, via Basic City and Buena Vista are arriving here from five to twelve hours late. It will be necessary to send all the trains to-morrow evening to-night and probably to-morrow afternoon. There seems to be no doubt now, but the wreck was caused by the tender jumping the track, as it has been established that the rails did not spread as was at first supposed. The span of the new cantilever bridge has been damaged to such an extent that it will have to be reconstructed, and two hundred men are engaged now in building a temporary trestle to permit traffic to be resumed. During the day, passengers on several local trains were transferred by ferry across the bridge and this condition will prevail to-morrow.

Gave Jailor the Slip.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... LURAY, VA., August 11.—After making three attempts to escape from the Luray jail within the past week, Gilbert Henry, who was awaiting trial for the grand jury's action on a charge of larceny, escaped from that institution last night when Deputy Sheriff Wood went to give him an escort. Henry, who was standing at the head of the stairway and behind the door, slipped out as Deputy Wood entered the cell. Henry is supposed to be hiding in the Massanutten mountains, his home being in that section. Sheriff Redgwick and deputies have been scouring that section of country.

TORTURED BY ECZEMA

Body Mass of Sores. Could not Sleep Spent Hundreds of Dollars on Doctors, but Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA FOR $8

"Cuticura saved the life of my mother, Mrs. Wm. J. Davis, of Stony Creek, Conn. Here was the worst eczema I ever saw. She was hardly able to eat or sleep. Her head and body was a mass of sores, and she despaired of recovery. Finally, after spending hundreds of dollars on doctors, growing worse all the time, living in misery for years, with hair whitened from suffering and so terribly disfigured, she was completely cured by two cakes of Cuticura Soap, five boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. Geo. C. Davis, 161 W. 36th St. N. Y."

CHARLOTTE COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Interdenominational Organization With Large Membership.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... BUREKA MILLS, VA., August 11.—The Charlotte county Interdenominational Sunday School Convention held its annual session at Spring Creek Baptist Church Wednesday and Thursday. The attendance upon this meeting was very good, considering the inclement weather. Whatever was wanting in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. Twenty-four Sunday schools were represented by delegates, with others to report later. The convention has grown to be the largest body in this section of the State, and it is said that Charlotte county has the best Sunday school organization in Virginia. The old officers were re-elected as follows: President, Captain Andrew J. Terry, Charlotte Courthouse; Vice-president, Captain Norman L. Shaw, Drake's Branch; Secretary, Lee W. Morton, Bureka Mills; Treasurer, Frank C. Thornton, Charlotte Courthouse.

FOR A POSTMISTRESS.

The Chesterfield Courthouse People Wish Mrs. Olive Hopkins.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... CHESTERFIELD, VA., August 11.—A petition is being circulated for the appointment of Mrs. Olive J. Hopkins as postmistress for Chesterfield Courthouse, to succeed Mrs. E. W. Ellison, who expects to move to Chester shortly. The personal property book for the Chesterfield district, lately filed in the clerk's office, shows a gain in property values over last year's assessment of $75,000, approximately.

WHITING LUMBER CO. MOVES TO ABINGDON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... ABINGDON, VA., August 11.—The Whiting Lumber Company will establish at once a large band-saw mill here, sixteen cars of machinery arrived here yesterday and workmen are busy unloading and placing it to-morrow. The plant came here from Elizabethton, Tenn., and was moved only because of the superior advantages Abingdon offered. The company owns extensive tracts of timber near Damascus, and it will be located in the mill here by the Virginia Carolina Railway. The promoters have purchased twenty acres of land near the Norfolk and Western station from Mr. W. C. Booker for the location of the mill. The plant will be in operation in about sixty days, and two hundred men will be employed.

A CARD.

To the Editor of the Times-Dispatch: Sir—This is our first campaign for State officers under our new constitution. It is also our first experiment with the primary plan of making party nominations, we have seven State offices to fill, and the Democrats voting at the primary must determine whether they will support the Democratic ticket, or whether it is all right, or the southwest, especially so, since the Republicans have placed three nominees in this section of the State. Respectfully, SAMUEL W. WILLIAMS, August 11, 1905.

NEW MELON WONDER IN HANOVER COUNTY

The Kleckley Sweet Lays Over Every Other Variety Yet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... ASHLAND, VA., August 11.—The successful production of a new variety of watermelon in Hanover county this season has created more than ordinary interest and speculation. Very little scientific thought or attention has been given to the subject up to this time, such as the great Durban in California has given to fruits and flowers. It is a fact, however, as stated by the leading seed houses, that more watermelon seed are sold each year in Hanover county than any other in the State.

DAIRMEN PETITION.

Those of Lynchburg Say They Cannot Get Pure Cow Food.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)... LYNCHBURG, VA., August 11.—Apropos of the consideration of a proposed ordinance to provide for the inspection of milk sold in Lynchburg, the local dairymen petitioned the City Council yesterday, at a meeting of the lower branch, to take some steps looking to securing a better quality of feed for their milk cows than that sold at present in the city.
