

ATHLETICS WIN; CHAMPIONS LOSE

White Sox Defeat Boston Twice. Highlanders Capture Cleveland Game.

RAIN IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pirates Beat Beaneaters in Only Game Played in East Yesterday.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Scores Yesterday. Philadelphia, 6; Detroit, 3. Chicago, 5; Boston, 2. Cleveland, 5; New York, 3. St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0.

Where They Play To-day.

New York at Cleveland. Philadelphia at Detroit. Washington at St. Louis.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P. Clubs, Won, Lost, P. Philadelphia 41, 59, Boston 35, 65, Chicago 32, 74, Detroit 30, 76, Cleveland 32, 74, New York 30, 76, St. Louis 17, 69, Washington 10, 76.

Philadelphia, 6; Detroit, 3. DETROIT, MICH., Aug. 25.—Mullin lost his game by his own wildness.

Chicago, 3; Boston, 2-2. CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Chicago won two games from Boston to-day.

New York, 3; Cleveland, 1. CLEVELAND, Aug. 25.—New York defeated Cleveland to-day.

St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—St. Louis took the opening game of the Washington series.

Where They Play To-day. Pittsburgh at Boston. Cincinnati at New York. St. Louis at Brooklyn. Chicago at Philadelphia.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P. Clubs, Won, Lost, P. New York 33, 70, Pittsburgh 29, 54, Cincinnati 22, 63, St. Louis 17, 69, Philadelphia 12, 65, Brooklyn 11, 33.

Pittsburg, 5; Boston, 4. BOSTON, August 25.—Pittsburg out-batted Boston to-day.

Where They Play To-day. At Nashville: Nashville-Atlanta; no game; rain. At Memphis: Memphis 1, Little Rock 0. At Chattanooga: New Orleans 3, Shreveport 1. At Montgomery: Montgomery-Birmingham; rain.

Emporia, 8; Brownies, 1. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) EMPORIA, Va., August 25.—The Emporia base-ball aggregation of players won the second game from the Richmond Brownies this afternoon in a walk.

St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—St. Louis took the opening game of the Washington series.

Where They Play To-day. Pittsburgh at Boston. Cincinnati at New York. St. Louis at Brooklyn. Chicago at Philadelphia.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P. Clubs, Won, Lost, P. New York 33, 70, Pittsburgh 29, 54, Cincinnati 22, 63, St. Louis 17, 69, Philadelphia 12, 65, Brooklyn 11, 33.

Pittsburg, 5; Boston, 4. BOSTON, August 25.—Pittsburg out-batted Boston to-day.

Where They Play To-day. At Nashville: Nashville-Atlanta; no game; rain. At Memphis: Memphis 1, Little Rock 0. At Chattanooga: New Orleans 3, Shreveport 1. At Montgomery: Montgomery-Birmingham; rain.

Emporia, 8; Brownies, 1. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) EMPORIA, Va., August 25.—The Emporia base-ball aggregation of players won the second game from the Richmond Brownies this afternoon in a walk.

St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—St. Louis took the opening game of the Washington series.

Where They Play To-day. Pittsburgh at Boston. Cincinnati at New York. St. Louis at Brooklyn. Chicago at Philadelphia.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P. Clubs, Won, Lost, P. New York 33, 70, Pittsburgh 29, 54, Cincinnati 22, 63, St. Louis 17, 69, Philadelphia 12, 65, Brooklyn 11, 33.

Pittsburg, 5; Boston, 4. BOSTON, August 25.—Pittsburg out-batted Boston to-day.

Where They Play To-day. At Nashville: Nashville-Atlanta; no game; rain. At Memphis: Memphis 1, Little Rock 0. At Chattanooga: New Orleans 3, Shreveport 1. At Montgomery: Montgomery-Birmingham; rain.

Emporia, 8; Brownies, 1. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) EMPORIA, Va., August 25.—The Emporia base-ball aggregation of players won the second game from the Richmond Brownies this afternoon in a walk.

St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—St. Louis took the opening game of the Washington series.

Where They Play To-day. Pittsburgh at Boston. Cincinnati at New York. St. Louis at Brooklyn. Chicago at Philadelphia.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P. Clubs, Won, Lost, P. New York 33, 70, Pittsburgh 29, 54, Cincinnati 22, 63, St. Louis 17, 69, Philadelphia 12, 65, Brooklyn 11, 33.

Pittsburg, 5; Boston, 4. BOSTON, August 25.—Pittsburg out-batted Boston to-day.

Where They Play To-day. At Nashville: Nashville-Atlanta; no game; rain. At Memphis: Memphis 1, Little Rock 0. At Chattanooga: New Orleans 3, Shreveport 1. At Montgomery: Montgomery-Birmingham; rain.

Emporia, 8; Brownies, 1. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) EMPORIA, Va., August 25.—The Emporia base-ball aggregation of players won the second game from the Richmond Brownies this afternoon in a walk.

St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—St. Louis took the opening game of the Washington series.

Where They Play To-day. Pittsburgh at Boston. Cincinnati at New York. St. Louis at Brooklyn. Chicago at Philadelphia.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, P. Clubs, Won, Lost, P. New York 33, 70, Pittsburgh 29, 54, Cincinnati 22, 63, St. Louis 17, 69, Philadelphia 12, 65, Brooklyn 11, 33.

BARON HEIGHTS DID NOT LOSE

Nor Did the Danville Team Win Yesterday's Game.

There was some rain. But to-day the Pennant-Winning Games Will Be Pulled Off in Home League.

YOUNG MEN'S REVIVAL.

Arrangements Have Been Made for Splendid Meeting.

The Railroad Department of the Young Men's Christian Association will conduct a two weeks' revival in the big tent, corner of Twentieth and Grace Streets, starting Monday afternoon with a great opening meeting at 8:30, and continuing every night at 7:45 as long as there is sufficient interest.

The Dalley Quartette, of Philadelphia, and Mr. W. E. Andrews, of Washington, will be secured for the opening Sunday afternoon with a great opening meeting at 8:30, and continuing every night at 7:45 as long as there is sufficient interest.

On Monday night at 7:45 the Dalley Quartette will sing, and Rev. D. C. McLeod, of Washington, D. C., will preach. The quartette will sing, and the city only for these three services, and those who would like to hear them are invited to come early to get seats.

There is no charge for any of the services at this tent, but for these three special services on the opening Sunday afternoon, the people are expected to bring a dime each time.

All the friends of this association who sing are invited to come and join the big chorus choir, under the direction of Mr. J. C. Van Pelt, song evangelist, formerly with Evangelist Schoolfield.

DAMAGE VERDICT.

Osborn Sues for Twenty Thousand and is Given Four.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., August 25.—In the suit of W. H. Osborn, ex-Mayor of Greensboro, and president of Keeley Institute, against M. T. Leach and a trustee, the jury to-day rendered a verdict of $20,000 damages against the defendants jointly. An appeal will be taken when court convenes to-morrow.

The suit has been in progress all the week, the best legal talent in the State being engaged in it.

The publication consisted of matter furnished by Leach of the contents of a complaint he was going to file in a suit against Osborn in 1900, in which he charged Osborn, who was then a director of the State penitentiary, with having broken contract with him for the purchase of mules for the penitentiary farm, and himself buying the mules and receiving several hundred dollars from the State, to which he was not entitled.

The news and Observer published the statement, but afterwards made the apology and retraction specified in the State libel law.

In his charge to the jury, Judge Shaw instructed them that only nominal damages could be given against the newspaper.

PRESIDENT ACCEPTS.

Commends Plan for Athletics Among School Children.

(By Associated Press.) OYSTER BAY, N. Y., August 25.—President Roosevelt accepted the office of honorary vice-president of the Public Schools Athletic League, the headquarters of which is in New York City, today.

George W. Winkler, the president of the league, President Roosevelt expresses his cordial approval of the objects of the league, and his promotion of athletics among healthy lines among school children. The president says he is glad the boys are being taught rifle practice.

ASHLAND TO VOTE ON LOCAL OPTION

Mr. Addison Makes Welcome Donations to the High School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHLAND, Va., August 25.—Such interest is manifested here in the election which will be held in the Ashland magisterial district September 12th, to determine whether the sale of liquor will be licensed in Ashland or not.

A card party was held last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts, in honor of their guest, Mrs. John Cullen, of Richmond. Six tables were filled with contestants in the game of hearts. The first ladies prize was won by Mrs. E. Coulter. The first gentleman prize went to Mr. Tate Cheney. The bonny prize was awarded to Mrs. Malcolm Hart. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. Henry Cook, manager of Henry Clay Inn, returned with his wife on Wednesday evening from a pleasure trip to Canada and other Northern points.

Mr. James F. Howison left to-day to visit his old school friend, Mr. D. B. Crenshaw, at Reetortown, Fauquier county, Va.

The following are registered as guests at the Henry Clay Inn: Mr. G. S. Barkdale, of Petersburg, Va.; A. H. King, of Richmond, Va.; Miss T. Grant, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. A. Grant, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. John P. Kennedy, State librarian, has just returned from Washington, and with his wife is spending some time at Henry Clay Inn.

GO ON THE TRIP TO NORFOLK, OCEAN VIEW AND VA. BEACH TO-MORROW.

A $1.00 round trip to Norfolk and Ocean View, Va., to Virginia Beach, Quickest route. Leaves Byrd Street Station 9:30 A. M. The only Sunday Outing Train to the ocean without charge of cars.

GO ON THE TRIP TO NORFOLK, OCEAN VIEW AND VA. BEACH TO-MORROW.

A $1.00 round trip to Norfolk and Ocean View, Va., to Virginia Beach, Quickest route. Leaves Byrd Street Station 9:30 A. M. The only Sunday Outing Train to the ocean without charge of cars.

GO ON THE TRIP TO NORFOLK, OCEAN VIEW AND VA. BEACH TO-MORROW.

A $1.00 round trip to Norfolk and Ocean View, Va., to Virginia Beach, Quickest route. Leaves Byrd Street Station 9:30 A. M. The only Sunday Outing Train to the ocean without charge of cars.

GO ON THE TRIP TO NORFOLK, OCEAN VIEW AND VA. BEACH TO-MORROW.

A $1.00 round trip to Norfolk and Ocean View, Va., to Virginia Beach, Quickest route. Leaves Byrd Street Station 9:30 A. M. The only Sunday Outing Train to the ocean without charge of cars.

SOUTHERNERS ANGRY AND MAY BOYCOTT WANAMAKER

Explanation by Booker Washington Has Not Relieved Situation—What Crum Says Asbury Park Incident.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, August 25.—That the latest Booker Washington incident has seriously injured the word and works of Professor Booker Washington is the general opinion here of nearly all who have been made aware of the Wanamaker dinner, at which the Alabama negro was the honored guest.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 24.—William D. Crum, the colored collector of customs at Charleston, S. C., who is visiting in this city, took occasion to-day to deny that he had been refused the services of a white wheel chair attendant at Asbury Park, N. J., as was stated in a news item August 14th.

There is a distinct proposition to boycott Merchant Wanamaker. No doubt it has already occurred to many another mind in the South. But what really annoys Southern whites men, as they are heard expressing themselves here, is the part Booker Washington took in this dinner advertising the Wanamakers, to say nothing of Booker's after-dinner speech about it.

EVEN FIELD FOR FUTURITY TO-DAY

List of Starters in Opening Event at Sheepshead Puzzling to Horsemen.

Daly Enters Veronese Bookmakers and Players Alike at Sea As to Probable Winner.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, August 25.—Racing will be resumed to-morrow on the Metropolitan tracks with the Futurity, the great two-year-old stakes, as the feature, at Sheepshead Bay.

The Futurity has always been a close race, but in all the years of its running horsemen agree that the field which will face the starter to-morrow is about the most evenly matched and most puzzling they have ever been called upon to judge.

While there is general disappointment that Harry Payne Whitney's colt, Burgomaster, and John Sanford's Saratoga special winner, Mohawk II, are not to be among the starters, there is still quantity enough in to-morrow's field to maintain the traditions of the race.

The heavy track conditions have added to the general puzzle represented in the field, and bookmakers and players alike are at sea to-night as to the probable favorite.

There is a strong liking evidenced for the Ormonde colt, Ormondale, which ran in the four- and six-year-old stakes at Saratoga.

Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

Daly Enters Horse. Not a little interest attaches to the appearance in the Futurity of that veteran red and green colored of that veteran turfman of Hartford, William C. Daly.

Veronese to-morrow, and believes his horse has a good chance of winning the race on such equal terms that none will lack for supporters in the betting ring.

REGATTA TO-DAY AT WEST POINT

Arundels and Virginians Both Are Confident of Victory.

Three Races at a Mile Great Crowd From Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk Will Attend.

Yesterday afternoon the race crews of the Virginia Boat Club, accompanied by Drs. Reilly and Russell, coaches, left for West Point, where the regatta will be held to-day.

It is an interstate regatta, and the contest between Maryland and Virginia bids fair to be of the closest variety. The oarsmen from the Arundel Club of Baltimore, coached by Glendon, a professional, whose services have been used by the Naval Academy crew are in the pink of condition, and on account of long training and superior weight, are confident of victory.

The Baltimore papers say that the banners and trophies offered to the winning crews will certainly adorn the Arundel Club-house.

Coach Reilly, however, does not share these views, for although the men under his care are not veterans nor in the heavy weight class, they are all in excellent physical condition, and on edge for their work.

Dr. Reilly says that barring an unforeseen mishap, the trophies will return to Richmond to-night to hang in the Virginia boat-house.