

SOCIETY.

(Continued from Sixth Page.)

and Mrs. Ben. Nash, north and south, and Mrs. Charles Nash and Mr. Fred. Valentino, east and west.

Reception to Pastor.

The reception given Friday night by the Ladies Aid Society of Grove Avenue Baptist Church to the pastor and assistant pastor was a great success. About 40 persons, members of the church and congregation, were present at the entertainment. There was great enthusiasm over the singing of Miss Carlton, recently elected soprano of the church, and the solos of Miss Doza Mitchell, of Broad Street Methodist choir, and of Miss Robinson, of Leigh Street Baptist choir, as well as the violin solo by Mr. Victor Menzel, were much enjoyed. Professor Ramos and Miss Gariand Polard presided over the meeting, and Dr. Hawthorne, the pastor, and Mr. Rosser, the assistant, made addresses.

Woman's College Alumnae.

The Woman's College Alumnae Association held its annual fall meeting in the college chapel on Thursday afternoon. The exercises opened with the Alumnae hymn, written by Miss Grace V. Landrum, of Atlanta, Ga. Miss Landrum was present and spoke briefly of "The Power Which An Alumnae Association Can Have in a School." She referred to the annual gatherings of the Alumnae at the Northern colleges, and the pride and interest in the alma mater which helped to sustain a high standard.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year: Miss Clara Bickel, president; Miss Emma Whitfield, first vice-president; Miss Mary C. Anderson, second vice-president; Mrs. Byrd J. Winston, treasurer; Mrs. C. B. Garnett, corresponding secretary; Miss Belle Williamson, recording secretary.

The chairman of the various committees are as follows: Academic, Mrs. R. E. Gaines; Entertainment, Mrs. Byrd Jones Winston; Reception, Mrs. C. B. Garnett; Finance, Mrs. Wm. F. Mathews; Conference, Miss Elsie Hodgson.

Hopkins-Knight.

Miss Carrie L. Knight, of Richmond, and Mr. W. F. Hopkins, of Newport News, were quietly married at Chester, Va., October 28, by the Rev. A. C. Jordan officiating. The bride is well known and popular throughout the State. The couple have the best wishes of a host of friends here and elsewhere. They will reside in this city.

Hagan-Wilkins.

Miss Clara Ernestine Wilkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wilkins, of this city, was quietly married Monday, October 23, at 11 o'clock, to Mr. Stanley Loving Hagan, of Washington. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride, No. 815 1/2 Twenty-fifth street, by Rev. C. H. Boggs, of Highland Park church.

Miss Wilkins, who is lovely both in person and character, was attired in a travelling suit of gray with hat and gloves to match. To the regret of her many friends in this city, she will make her home in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Hagan is engaged in prominent business.

Double Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hyde announce the engagement of their two daughters, the double wedding to take place at home, November 23d.

Miss Elizabeth Hyde will on that date be wedded to Mr. James Clifton Robert, son of Virginia, now a resident of North Carolina, and Miss Mary Meredith Hyde will become the bride of Mr. Walter Ransom Myers, of Smithfield, Va., formerly of Richmond.

Miss Montague's Book.

"The Poet, Miss Kate, and I" has just been published by the Baker and Taylor Publishing Company. The Richmond public will be much interested in its appearance, as the author, Miss Margaret Montague, is well known here, having visited friends in the city many times. She has already gained a reputation in the literary world, and her future is full of promise.

The story is the most complete and satisfying description of mountain scenery and life around the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and the romance is developed with easy grace, a clever, ingenious and thoroughly entertaining. She has a depth of feeling and a sense of humor that make her novel a piece of genuine literature.

Miss Lutto Entertains.

Miss Stella Lutto delightfully entertained her friends at her home, No. 218 North Eighteenth Street, last Tuesday evening.

The parlors were handsomely decorated for the marriage on Wednesday, November 8th, of Miss Suzie Peppett, daughter of Captain and Mrs. F. W. Peppett, to Mr. Randolph Bolling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling, of this city.

The ceremony will be performed at 7.30 P. M., in the home of the bride, North Sidney, Cape Breton, and will be followed by a handsome reception. The bride and groom will then come directly to the home of Mr. Bolling's parents in this city. They are expected to reach here about Saturday next. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bolling will give a reception in their honor and several entertainments already have been projected by other friends and relatives.

To-morrow will be donation day at the Home for Needy Confederate Women, where a committee will be present during the day to welcome friends and receive what is sent in.

Gifts of all kinds, money, groceries, household stores of every description will be gratefully received. Winter is approaching and the needs of the Home are urgent. It is hoped and believed that kind and liberal Richmond hearts will respond to the call of the helpless and aged.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Randolph Tucker who has been visiting her sister Mrs. C. C. McPhail and her niece Mrs. James Welch for several weeks, left for Washington D. C., Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Carrington is visiting friends in New York city.

Mrs. Small, of Hagerstown, Md., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Belne Blair.

Miss Florence Tyler, whose marriage to Mr. William Gray is scheduled for November 8th, has been spending some days out of the city. The reception following the marriage has been, on account of the large family connection of the contracting parties, limited only to immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will live at No. 310 East Franklin Street this winter.

Miss Nellie C. Preston, of Seven Mile Ford, is visiting Miss Matilda Jones, of No. 210 West Main Street.

Miss Betty Burwell Booker, whose presence in Richmond during the past week has been a source of much pleasure to her friends, will leave shortly for London, England, to fulfill engagements already made, which will extend through the winter. Miss Booker is very fond of London, where she has been most delightfully received, and has many charming friends. It is hoped that Miss Booker will return to the United States next year.

Mr. Beverly H. Tucker, of San Francisco, is in the city and is staying at No. 307 West Franklin Street.

Miss Vera W. Burks, of West Appomattox, Va., is the guest of Miss Alice Crutchfield, of No. 112 North Morris Street.

Mrs. O. A. Blanton and Miss Fannie Hawthorn, of Blackstone, Va., are in the city.

Miss Lizzie Wingo, who has been visiting in Jetersville, Va., has returned home.

The Rev. L. E. Johnston, of Halifax county, is attending the synod here.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Lella O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Neill, of Crozet, Va., to Mr. William McComb, Jr., the marriage to take place Wednesday, November 8th, at 10:30 A. M., in the Crozet Baptist Church. The groom is the son of General William McComb, of Louisiana county.

Miss Myrtle Priddy, of Peakes, Va., has returned to her home after a visit to friends in this city.

Miss Courtney Crump and Miss Louise McAdams, who have been visiting in Fredericksburg, have returned home.

Miss Annie Bell Owen is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Downing, in Brambleton.

Mrs. R. B. Merchant and her daughter, Mrs. Garnett, of Fredericksburg, are visiting in Richmond and Washington.

Miss Sue Gray, of Richmond, was the guest of honor at a supper given by Mr. Louis Smith, at the Hampton Roads

Auxiliary, is the guest of Mr. James Branch Cabell, at No. 1569 Grove avenue.

Captain H. W. Henry, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

The Rev. W. L. Trimble and wife, of Monterey, Va., are attending the Synod here.

The many friends of J. Schreff will be pleased to hear of his recovery. He will resume his business on Monday, October 30th, as heretofore, and will be pleased to see his patrons.

The Rev. J. B. Waller, of Lambert's Point, is in Richmond to attend the Presbyterian Synod.

Mr. A. Lee Knowles, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Dr. C. W. P. Brock is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, in Norfolk.

Mr. Joseph V. Biggins has returned from Suffolk.

Miss Ollie Parkinson, of Taylorsville, has been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Goode have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Judith, to Mr. Wightman Wells Garner, the ceremony to take place at the home of the bride, "Wheatland," near Skipwith, Va., on Wednesday, November 8th, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. W. A. Burke of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, of Norfolk, gave a bridge party Friday evening in honor of Mrs. J. R. Austin, of Washington.

For Brides Sterling Silverware always appeals to people of good taste. It's the most appreciated and lasting gift. Our stock of appropriate gifts is constantly being increased by direct shipments from leading manufacturers, and patrons realize that the gift problem can be readily solved here.

This policy of giving exclusive and superior merchandise at better values is cause for the popularity of the Schwarzschild Store.

We cordially invite you to inspect.

Schwarzschild Bros., Jewelers, Corner Broad and Second Sts.

ated, and the music was furnished by a mandolin and guitar club.

One of the many features of the evening was the drawing of partners to keep company and help in the enjoying of the boxes, which the young ladies furnished for the occasion. After refreshments were served, the gathering was entertained by Miss Elfrida Heller, Mr. H. Harris, of Philadelphia, and Mr. J. S. Cohn.

Those present were Miss Stella Lutto,

MR. SAMUEL LEE KELLEY. The engagement of Miss Barr and Mr. Kelley has been recently announced. Their wedding will be one of the interesting social events of the approaching season in Washington. Miss Barr is the daughter of Major M. W. Barr, who served with Longstreet's corps of telegraph operators during the Civil War, and is now officially connected with the government printing office. Miss Barr is prominent in Washington's musical circles. Mr. Kelley is a well known member of the Richmond bar, and represented the city at the last term of the Virginia Legislature.

Miss Rosa Harris, Miss Paula Heller, Miss Maria Lutto, Miss Elfrida Heller, Miss Annie Scheriff, Mrs. Florence Scheriff, Miss Suzie Gold, Mrs. J. M. Kaufman, Mrs. M. Friedman, Miss Jean Friedman, Miss Rebecca Rodin, Miss Lizzie Spiegel, Miss Sarah Hymes, Miss Hattie Dornbraver, Miss Leah Weinstein, Miss Mollie Wolf, Miss Esther Alperin, Miss Celia Watsky and Miss Jennie Murchant; Messrs. Archie Steiner, J. S. Cohn, George Lutto, Simon Steiner, Samuel Levy, Myer Levy, Isaac Spiegel, Abram Alperin, Joseph Spiegel, Max Friedman, H. Harris, L. Friedman, Abram Spiegel, Samuel Solomon, Joseph Eisner, Nathan Schloss, Hyman Libowitz, J. M. Kaufman and Louis Shapiro.

Ladies' Aid Society. The Ladies' Aid Society of Leigh Street Baptist Church held its first regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon, October 24, and the following officers were elected for the year 1905-06: President, Miss Sarah Allen; first vice-president, Mrs. Woody; second vice-president, Mrs. Everett Perkinson; secretary, Mrs. James H. Lester; assistant secretary, Miss Conway Holdcroft; treasurer, Mrs. Wortley Dickey; financial secretary, Mrs. Allen; purchasers, Mrs. West and Mrs. Allen; distributor, Mrs. Hasker.

Mitchell-Scott. A quiet but very pretty wedding took place yesterday at Monumental Church, this city. Mr. F. D. Lee Mitchell, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Louise R. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scott, of No. 219 South Third Street, this city, were the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. Evans, D. D., rector of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left on a trip North. They will be at home in Wilmington, Del., after December 1st.

Bernhardt-Briel. St. John's German Evangelical Church was the scene of a beautiful marriage Wednesday evening, October 26th, at half-past seven, when Miss Carrie J. Briel became the bride of Mr. Otto Paul Bernhardt.

The church was beautifully decorated in orange and pink carnations. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Menzel.

The bride was attired in white crepe de chine over tulle and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught with a spray of orange blossoms, and her only ornament was a brooch of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. She entered with her father, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank Bernhardt, his brother.

Miss Helma Bernhardt, sister of the groom, and Miss Elizabeth Wolff, the bride's cousin, were maids of honor. They wore white chiffon, with girdles of Persian ribbon, and carried pink carnations and maiden hair ferns. The ushers were Mr. Sylvester Kuster, Mr. Henry Overman, Mr. Willie Miller, Mr. Fred Kaslin, Mr. Otto Brauer, Mr. Ignatius Gerling, Mr. John Menzel and Mr. Oscar Kusemann.

Entering with the ushers and just preceding the bride party were the following young ladies: Miss Minnie Barning, sister of the groom; Miss Tillie Krug, Miss Elizabeth Heppert, Miss Minnie Metzger, Miss Eleanor Steinbrinck, Miss Anna Menzel, Miss Helen Schnaaf and Miss Agnes Schrauf, of the Sewing Circle, of which the bride is a popular member.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Briel and is a beautiful and accomplished young lady. The groom is the son of Mrs. Wilhelmina and the late Friedrich Bernhardt, and is a successful young business man of this city. The popular young couple was shown by the numerous and handsome presents received.

After the ceremony and a reception given at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt left on the 10:45 train for an extended Northern tour. After November 15th they will be at home at No. 1214 Brook Road.

Bolling-Peppett. Invitations have been received in Richmond for the marriage on Wednesday, November 8th, of Miss Suzie Peppett, daughter of Captain and Mrs. F. W. Peppett, to Mr. Randolph Bolling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling, of this city.

The ceremony will be performed at 7.30 P. M., in the home of the bride, North Sidney, Cape Breton, and will be followed by a handsome reception. The bride and groom will then come directly to the home of Mr. Bolling's parents in this city. They are expected to reach here about Saturday next. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bolling will give a reception in their honor and several entertainments already have been projected by other friends and relatives.

To-morrow will be donation day at the Home for Needy Confederate Women, where a committee will be present during the day to welcome friends and receive what is sent in.

Gifts of all kinds, money, groceries, household stores of every description will be gratefully received. Winter is approaching and the needs of the Home are urgent. It is hoped and believed that kind and liberal Richmond hearts will respond to the call of the helpless and aged.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Randolph Tucker who has been visiting her sister Mrs. C. C. McPhail and her niece Mrs. James Welch for several weeks, left for Washington D. C., Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Carrington is visiting friends in New York city.

Mrs. Small, of Hagerstown, Md., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Belne Blair.

Miss Florence Tyler, whose marriage to Mr. William Gray is scheduled for November 8th, has been spending some days out of the city. The reception following the marriage has been, on account of the large family connection of the contracting parties, limited only to immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will live at No. 310 East Franklin Street this winter.

Miss Nellie C. Preston, of Seven Mile Ford, is visiting Miss Matilda Jones, of No. 210 West Main Street.

Miss Betty Burwell Booker, whose presence in Richmond during the past week has been a source of much pleasure to her friends, will leave shortly for London, England, to fulfill engagements already made, which will extend through the winter. Miss Booker is very fond of London, where she has been most delightfully received, and has many charming friends. It is hoped that Miss Booker will return to the United States next year.

Mr. Beverly H. Tucker, of San Francisco, is in the city and is staying at No. 307 West Franklin Street.

Miss Vera W. Burks, of West Appomattox, Va., is the guest of Miss Alice Crutchfield, of No. 112 North Morris Street.

Mrs. O. A. Blanton and Miss Fannie Hawthorn, of Blackstone, Va., are in the city.

Miss Lizzie Wingo, who has been visiting in Jetersville, Va., has returned home.

The Rev. L. E. Johnston, of Halifax county, is attending the synod here.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Lella O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Neill, of Crozet, Va., to Mr. William McComb, Jr., the marriage to take place Wednesday, November 8th, at 10:30 A. M., in the Crozet Baptist Church. The groom is the son of General William McComb, of Louisiana county.

Miss Myrtle Priddy, of Peakes, Va., has returned to her home after a visit to friends in this city.

Miss Courtney Crump and Miss Louise McAdams, who have been visiting in Fredericksburg, have returned home.

Miss Annie Bell Owen is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Downing, in Brambleton.

Mrs. R. B. Merchant and her daughter, Mrs. Garnett, of Fredericksburg, are visiting in Richmond and Washington.

Miss Sue Gray, of Richmond, was the guest of honor at a supper given by Mr. Louis Smith, at the Hampton Roads

Auxiliary, is the guest of Mr. James Branch Cabell, at No. 1569 Grove avenue.

Captain H. W. Henry, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

The Rev. W. L. Trimble and wife, of Monterey, Va., are attending the Synod here.

The many friends of J. Schreff will be pleased to hear of his recovery. He will resume his business on Monday, October 30th, as heretofore, and will be pleased to see his patrons.

The Rev. J. B. Waller, of Lambert's Point, is in Richmond to attend the Presbyterian Synod.

Mr. A. Lee Knowles, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Dr. C. W. P. Brock is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, in Norfolk.

Mr. Joseph V. Biggins has returned from Suffolk.

Miss Ollie Parkinson, of Taylorsville, has been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Goode have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Judith, to Mr. Wightman Wells Garner, the ceremony to take place at the home of the bride, "Wheatland," near Skipwith, Va., on Wednesday, November 8th, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. W. A. Burke of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, of Norfolk, gave a bridge party Friday evening in honor of Mrs. J. R. Austin, of Washington.

Invitations have been received in Rich-

Reinach Showing of French Hats Tuesday and Wednesday. Also, nobby effects, copies of imported models, and swell Shirt-Waist Hats for the tailor-made gown from our own workrooms, at moderate prices. Reinach 427 E. Broad Street Reinach week has been a source of much pleasure to her friends, will leave shortly for London, England, to fulfill engagements already made, which will extend through the winter. Miss Booker is very fond of London, where she has been most delightfully received, and has many charming friends. It is hoped that Miss Booker will return to the United States next year.

Mr. Beverly H. Tucker, of San Francisco, is in the city and is staying at No. 307 West Franklin Street.

Miss Vera W. Burks, of West Appomattox, Va., is the guest of Miss Alice Crutchfield, of No. 112 North Morris Street.

Mrs. O. A. Blanton and Miss Fannie Hawthorn, of Blackstone, Va., are in the city.

Miss Lizzie Wingo, who has been visiting in Jetersville, Va., has returned home.

The Rev. L. E. Johnston, of Halifax county, is attending the synod here.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Lella O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Neill, of Crozet, Va., to Mr. William McComb, Jr., the marriage to take place Wednesday, November 8th, at 10:30 A. M., in the Crozet Baptist Church. The groom is the son of General William McComb, of Louisiana county.

Miss Myrtle Priddy, of Peakes, Va., has returned to her home after a visit to friends in this city.

Miss Courtney Crump and Miss Louise McAdams, who have been visiting in Fredericksburg, have returned home.

Miss Annie Bell Owen is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Downing, in Brambleton.

Mrs. R. B. Merchant and her daughter, Mrs. Garnett, of Fredericksburg, are visiting in Richmond and Washington.

Miss Sue Gray, of Richmond, was the guest of honor at a supper given by Mr. Louis Smith, at the Hampton Roads

Auxiliary, is the guest of Mr. James Branch Cabell, at No. 1569 Grove avenue.

Captain H. W. Henry, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

The Rev. W. L. Trimble and wife, of Monterey, Va., are attending the Synod here.

The many friends of J. Schreff will be pleased to hear of his recovery. He will resume his business on Monday, October 30th, as heretofore, and will be pleased to see his patrons.

The Rev. J. B. Waller, of Lambert's Point, is in Richmond to attend the Presbyterian Synod.

Mr. A. Lee Knowles, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Dr. C. W. P. Brock is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, in Norfolk.

Mr. Joseph V. Biggins has returned from Suffolk.

Miss Ollie Parkinson, of Taylorsville, has been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Goode have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Judith, to Mr. Wightman Wells Garner, the ceremony to take place at the home of the bride, "Wheatland," near Skipwith, Va., on Wednesday, November 8th, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. W. A. Burke of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, of Norfolk, gave a bridge party Friday evening in honor of Mrs. J. R. Austin, of Washington.

Invitations have been received in Rich-

MISS VIRGINIA IZARD MIDDLETON. Miss Middleton, who is from Charleston, S. C., is president of the "Iota Pi" Sorority of Virginia College, Roanoke, Va. Her engagement to Mr. B. Mercer Hartman, a prominent young Roanoke lawyer, has been recently announced.

Mrs. Jenkins, who has been visiting Mrs. Edmund Pendleton at Curlew, Va., has returned to the city.

Miss Jessie Farmer, of Richmond, was maid of honor at the marriage of Miss Mattie L. Smith to Mr. James E. Whitehurst, which took place at "Grayside," Nottoway county, on Thursday.

Miss Sarah King, of Peakes, Va., is in the city.

Mr. J. W. Adams, of Fredericksburg, attended the synod here Friday.

Mrs. T. B. Gill, of Caroline, who has been visiting here, has returned to her home.

Mr. J. R. Faulconer, who has been living in Scottsville, Va., has moved to Richmond.

Mrs. M. L. Walker, of this city, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Graham Walker, at Forest Level, Va.

Mrs. Joseph Dickerson, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Waddill, in Charles City, has returned home.

Yacht Club Wednesday evening. Those present were: Miss Sue Gray, Miss Evelyn Grant, Miss Emily Elsworth, Mr. Daniel Lindsay, Mr. William Taylor, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Arthur Kelsey.

At a meeting of the Harrison-Harwood Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, at Charles City Courthouse last Wednesday, the following officers were elected: Mrs. D. G. Tyler, president; Mrs. M. M. Stoddard, secretary; Mrs. John P. Nance, treasurer; Mrs. E. C. Harrison and Mrs. T. L. Christian first and second vice-presidents.

Miss Gillie Cary is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. L. White, in Caroline county.

Miss Suzie Leake is on a visit to New York.

Mrs. Overton Howard, of Ashland, was in town this week.

Mrs. W. C. Boyd and little son, who have been spending the summer in Caroline county, will winter in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Stanard visited Captain and Mrs. George Weight, in Gordonville, Va., last week.

Miss Marge Graves, who has been spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. L. C. Graves, near Somerset, Va., has returned to Richmond.

The Rev. J. E. Ballou, of Craigs ville, Va., is in the city.

Mr. Clyde Berry, of Staunton, has accepted a position with the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gillespie, of Hanford, Va., who have been visiting here, have returned home.

Mrs. E. F. Nottingham, of Eastville, Va., has been called to the city on account of the illness of her son, Mr. Thomas Henry Nottingham, who is a student here.

The Rev. A. M. Fryser, D. D., the Rev. J. N. Vandevanter, and the Rev. W. H. McClung, all of Fredericksburg, are in the city to attend the Synod.

Mrs. Ida Burns is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Crenshaw, in Drapersville, Va.

Captain Maris, superintendent of Naval

Reinach 427 E. Broad Street Reinach

ington. The guests were Mrs. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Jones, Mrs. M. Forney Tiesse, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brooks Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Carey P. Weston, Mrs. Holt W. Page, Mr. Howard Shield, Dr. C. W. P. Brock, Dr. Ross and Dr. Bryan, all of Richmond.

Invitations have been issued by the Misses Johnson, of South Pine Street, to a Halloween party on October 31st.

Mrs. K. A. Schofield, of Danville, Va., is visiting her father, Mr. James Vass, at No. 221 West Grace Street.

A Halloween frolic at the rooms of the Richmond Art Club will be for the benefit of the club "piano fund." Jack-o-lanterns, chessmen and apples will play their part in the evening's gaiety, in which the fates will be invoked and future destinies decided. Tickets are through the press are for Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that a number will come to participate in the evening's enjoyment.

Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Pevsner have returned from a visit to Norfolk.

RAPPIDAN RIPPLES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RAPIDAN, VA., October 28.—Mr. Joe Wilmer is on a trip to Alexandria, Va., and Washington, D. C.

Miss Lucy Belcher has returned from a pleasant visit to her home, at Haymarket, Va.

Mrs. J. Wallace Jacobs, who has been very sick, is convalescent.

Miss Ethel Wambrecht has been a recent Rapidan visitor.

Miss Anna Saunders is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alle Wood, of Orange, Va.

Miss Lucy Wallace Jacobs