Has Not Made Known His Decision As to Western State Hospital.

YOUTH KILLED BY SAW

A Piece of the Broken Metal Strikes Him on the Neck.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., February 14.—Dr. W. F. Drewry, superintendent of the Central State Hospital here, gives no intimation as to his acceptance or declination of the superintendency of the Western State Hospital at Staunton. Dr. Drewry does a great deal of work, but very little talking, and when questioned to-day about State Senator Wickham's bill providing that the commissioner of State hospitals shall be an expert alienist, had little to say except that the present commissioner, Colonel L. W. Lane, Jr., was a great friend of his.

It is understood that the recent sale of the Young Men's Christian Association building to J. W. Seward will stand, and that Mr. Seward has not decided whether he will remodel the upper floors of the building for a hotel or for offices. The first floor is occupied by several stores.

Otto France, seventeen years old, was instantly killed at Swift Creek, in Chesterfield county, a few days ago by the breaking of a circular saw, a piece of the metal striking him in the neck.

The Frances Bland Randolph Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gave a beautiful Valentine party at the A. P. Hill Camp hall this afternoon. The chapter is an earnest worker for the fund now being raised by the Virginia chapters to erect a Virginia column in Continental Hall at Washington.

Winchester Elopement.

Swartz, near Winchester, met young Louis Grubbs on the roadway and drove to the groom's home at Red Hill, where they were married by Rev. S. D. Skelton, of the United Brethren church. The bride is very pretty and her parents objected to her being married.

Letter to J. L. Livingston.

Dear Sir: You buy your horses and mules; your grandfather, if he had a blacksmith, made 'em. You can't afford to hammer them out by hand, when you can buy as good, or better perhaps, ready-made to your hand, for a little more than the cost of the iron.

What do you think of a painter who goes on buying his linseed oil and white-lead, and mixing, and tinting by hand, and charging his time for work that is far better done than he can do it, done by machinery, done as your horsehoes and nails are made.

Mistake isn't it? He is wasting his chance in the world. There is no better staff to do business with than good horsehoes and nails; and no better work than putting them on. Good horsehoes will put out; it's the putting 'em on that makes you a blacksmith; no matter who makes 'em.

Who wants to go back to old times, and make his own horsehoes? Between us two, that painter don't know how to make good paint—he uses too; but put his horse away from him.

Yours truly,

LITTLE BABY'S AWFUL HUMOR

Thin Skin Formed Over Body and Under it Was Watery Blood—When Washed It Would Burst and Break—Suffered for Weeks—Now Sound and Well—

CURED IN ONE WEEK BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little girl baby was one week old she had a skin disease. A thin skin formed over her body and under it was watery blood, and when she was washed it would burst and break. She was in that condition for weeks, and I tried everything I could think of, but nothing did her any good. When she was three months old I took her to San Antonio to see a doctor, but the doctor wanted to see was not at home, so my sister gave me a cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment, and told me to use them, which I did in the time. I used them three times and the humor began to fade, and in one week she was sound and well, and it has never returned since. I think every mother should keep the Cuticura Remedies in the house. Yours truly, Mrs. H. Aaron, Benton, Texas, July 3, 1905."

SUICIDE OF YOUNG LADY IN CITY PARK

Miss Lottie Matthews Found Dead With Empty Pistol By Her Side.

FROM HOME ALL NIGHT

Mystery About the Cause, But is Generally Accepted As Suicide.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., February 14.—The dead body of Miss Lottie Matthews, the eighteen-year-old daughter of W. Frank Matthews, president of the Lynchburg Grocery Company, and a well-known citizen, was found early this morning in Rivermont Park, three miles from the city, with a wound in the right temple, which had been caused by a thirty-two calibre revolver. The pistol which she purchased at a local store yesterday afternoon, was found at her side with all five cartridges fired. The young lady was discovered by her sister, who, with two friends, were searching for her, she having been missing from her home since last yesterday afternoon and they were the first to discover her, in a deep ravine in a remote part of the park.

Dr. Davis, the county coroner, viewed the remains and summoned a jury of inquest, and the jury which was in session for four hours, adjourned at a late hour, until 3 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Case of Suicide.

There seems to be no doubt but that the case is a suicide, but no evidence has been adduced yet to show the cause for it. She had stated, it was testified, that she intended killing herself. The young lady was a strikingly handsome girl, and was popular with a large circle of friends.

The discovery of the remains caused a sensation in the city. There are several circumstances that look as though the case is not one of suicide, and the coroner expects to hold an autopsy late to-night for more light.

The incident has caused the wildest kind of rumors and speculations on the street from the first report of the finding of the body, but nothing has developed up to a late hour to-night, but it is admitted by any other conclusion but that the whole affair has the appearance of a well planned suicide; one in which the plans were carried out apparently as intended by the young lady.

A Love Affair.

One of the rumors that is generally accepted is that the young lady was in love with a gentleman whom neighbors of the family objected to.

From the best information obtainable, it is said she left home yesterday about three o'clock. About four she purchased the revolver at a Main Street hardware store, and took with her a pistol that could be used easily. When this was found this morning all five of the shells had been exploded, this giving rise to suspicion of foul play. It is believed, however, that she fired the first shots at the revolver, and turned the last to her temple.

Some of those early on the scene declare there was evidence of a scuffle, but this correspondent, along with Dr. Davis, the county coroner, could see nothing out of the ordinary.

Dr. Davis believes the skull is fractured in the region of the wound, but attributes this probably to the effect of the ball.

Hands Blackened.

Her hands were badly blackened inside as if disclosed by grasping a solid club or the like, but this was probably caused by her death struggle on the ground, which had but lately been burned over by fire.

The family of the young lady is prostrated by the tragedy and strong efforts have been made to keep the matter from the local papers, and it is very hard to secure any real facts other than much of the speculation that has been brought out at the inquest.

BUCKINGHAM COURT.

Judge Hundley Comes From Farmville By Way of Richmond. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUCKINGHAM COURTHOUSE, VA., February 14.—Congressman Flood secured a continuance in the Circuit Court here yesterday for his negro client, Tom Parsons, charged with the murder of a white man. Judge Hundley said if the man wanted to lie in jail for two months he did not know of any objection. This is a murder charge which seems a very plain case, and to get a continuance may be just adding so much to the life of the accused. The time was fixed for the hearing of a full Foster as defendant, with Mr. Parsons, Judge Hundley came from Farmville here by way of Richmond, as the Farmville roads are almost impassable.

Several good horses have been killed or ruined by pulling loads of tobacco to Farmville. There was a large attendance on the first day of the court here and much business was transacted. The crowd here in plenty, every one was dressed well and the crowd was orderly and noisy drunk. Good horses were in demand and found ready purchasers. The price of land has advanced very perceptibly. A number of ice-houses were filled on the last freeze, some enterprising citizens hauling five and six miles.

BLIND MAN ACQUITTED.

A Conviction Means a Life Sentence for Chas. E. Bowen. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTERFIELD, VA., February 14.—In the Circuit Court to-day the jury acquitted Mr. Walter Harris, great for cutting Policeman Watts, of Oak Grove, and releasing arrest. The accused, being an elderly man and blind, sympathy probably had weight with the jury, as the policeman's uniform had several cuts in it, and he received a slight cut near a vital spot on the neck. The cutting was being arrested for supposed cruelty to his boy child.

Charles E. Bowen will be tried on Friday for highway robbery. A conviction in his case will mean a life sentence. If he is sentenced to the penitentiary, as he has already served two terms there.

FALL OF A YOUNG MAN WHO IS HELD FOR THEFT

Burglar Alarm in Employer's Office Causes His Detention.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., February 14.—Cleveland E. Turpin, who has been a resident of Lynchburg for a number of years, and who was formerly employed in the office of Ingram & Co., insurance agents, was arrested early this morning on the charge of house-breaking and larceny. It is alleged that he was found in the office of the company early this morning by two young men, who were visiting an adjoining building by a burglar alarm. The police were notified and the arrest followed. It was evident that the entrance to the office was effected by unlocking the door. The firm has been losing considerable money in the past few months and marked money was placed in the office.

When Turpin's office was searched before it was locked up, it is claimed by the police, that this was located. An effort has been made to settle the matter out of the courts, but the preliminary hearing will be held in the Police Court to-morrow or Friday morning. Turpin comes of a widely known family in Amherst county.

ABRAHAM RELEASED.

So. Greenstein, His Assistant Romancer, Still in Jail Here. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., February 14.—Abraham was released from the Portsmouth jail to-day. He was sent there for contempt of court in November for a romance he told before Judge E. Waddill in the United States Court in November. He was testifying as a bankrupt where the money went for which he had sold $500 worth of merchandise from the store, recently opened by him in Portsmouth. He admitted buying and selling the merchandise, but said that he had got into a game of poker in New York and lost $300 and several weeks afterward he had lost $200 in the same place with Sol Greenstein, now in jail at Richmond for perjury in the same case. Judge Waddill declared the story incredible and sent Abraham to jail for contempt.

To-day his attorneys paid $4,500 into court, which entitles him to be released, and Judge Waddill directed the release of the prisoner. It is the first case of the kind in the court here and there was a great deal of interest in the termination of it, because of the remarkable stories told by the man who sold.

Sol Greenstein came here as a witness for his friend Abraham and was himself sent to jail. He escaped during a fire which threatened the jail here and during which the prisoners were removed, but was arrested in Richmond and is in jail there, charged with perjury.

The ordinance adopted by the Board of Aldermen to place a $25 tax on bulldogs, curs or mongrels was defeated by the Common Council.

JUDGE CONDEMNS THE LEGISLATURE

Declares the Commissioners of Revenue Have the Newspapers Sealed.

CAUSED COLONISTS TO REBEL

Judges Have No Business Being Drawn Into Politics and Bill Should Be Defeated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., February 14.—Judge Allan R. Hanckel, of the Corporation Court, to-day condemned the proposition of the Legislature for the appointment of the commissioners of revenue by the courts, and scored the newspapers for not exposing the measure. He said: "The commissioners of the revenue seemed to have the newspapers sealed on the subject. If there is any one official who should be chosen by the people, it is the commissioner of revenue, whose assessment of taxes affects every man, woman and child who owns anything. His powers are far-reaching, and their extent can hardly be conceived by a layman."

"This question of taxation is the very thing that caused the colonists to rebel against Great Britain, and which resulted in the Revolutionary War. This thing of taking the election of commissioners of the revenue from the people is a most serious proposition, and, in my mind, outrageous."

"The bill should be defeated without question. The courts have no business being drawn into politics, and this office above all others, is one that the people should control."

Another lot of fifty-one men were dropped from the navy yard to-day on account of the detestable order of Secretary Bonaparte. This increases the number to nearly 200.

SENATOR NOEL SLATED FOR J. E. B. STUART'S JOB

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., February 14.—A member of the advisory committee appointed to advise the administration in regard to Federal appointments in this district, said to-day that Collector of Customs J. E. B. Stuart would not be re-appointed, and that his appointment in the present instance would not be confirmed. The committee in question said that State Senator Noel probably would be given the post.

TRIAL OF SAMUEL.

Defense Declares It a Damnable Political Persecution. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., February 14.—In the Samuel trial the Federal Court to-day arguments were made to the jury by Judge W. P. Bynum and Governor Aycock, in behalf of the defendant, and by Assistant District Attorney Price for the government. Judge Bynum in his argument declared the prosecution was political, and on this line said: "This is the outcome of an infernal political row in Wilkes county—somebody wants to actuate many Republicans in this State, who, in their infernal lust for office, turn demons in their efforts to damn and blacken good men's characters. Here you find the hottest contest all over Wilkes county in the primaries between Liny and Blackburn, for the nomination to Congress. In the convention Blackburn triumphed, and immediately began the unparalleled, systematic vituperation of this man Samuel, one of Blackburn's strongest supporters, by Liny's supporters, which never stopped when it reached the portals of this court. It was also a fight of old ex-revenue officers, who were out against revenue officers who were in. Following the lead of higher officials, these revenue outs depended on getting office again by slandering those that were in. Look at it! Here is the United States District Attorney Holton. His name has been sent in for reappointment, and here we see charges filed against him and efforts made to blacken his character. It is the most relentless, inhuman, damnable state of affairs that ever existed or ever permitted in any civilized country. Just let a man have the capacity to seek or to properly fill a position, and here flop down a black brood of scavenger harpies and tear his heart out."

Here is Samuel. They all say, and the prosecution in its opening argument admitted, that he was one of the best men and best officers the government ever had, and all witnesses say he bore an irreproachable name as an officer and citizen until the Blackburn and Liny row started, and since that time every means known to modern detective ingenuity have been brought into play to show that this man had suddenly become corrupt, and that he had led a life of dishonesty.

Governor Aycock made a notable speech this afternoon for the defendant, declaring he believed him to be a more efficient, honest and faithful officer than those representatives of the Department of Justice who were prosecuting him.

Solicitor-General Hayes will present the government's case to-morrow.

THE TOBACCO GROWERS OPPOSE SWIFT BILL

They See in It a Big Stick to Beat Their Associates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUREKA MILLS, VA., February 14.—Copies of a bill introduced in the Legislature on the 5th instant by Delegate Granville R. Swift, of Fredericksburg, have been received by several members of the Tobacco Growers' Association in this county. This bill is being commented on freely by all classes, but especially by the farmers. The unanimous verdict of those interviewed by your correspondent, among whom were tobacco buyers, warehousemen, merchants, preachers, farmers and business men generally, is that the bill is aimed directly at the Tobacco Growers' Association, and that if it should be enacted into law, it would sound the death-knell of the association, as it prohibits combination for price-making, regulation of production, and is anti-compact in its general scope. The farmers are writing to their representatives in the Legislature to defeat this bill. At the association's meetings to be held in Lynchburg, the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th, action will be taken in regard to this matter.

The city was represented by Messrs. R. B. Boone, F. L. Fuller and Jones and Fuller, and the Eno Cotton Mill by Mr. W. A. Graham, Frank Nash and S. M. Gattis. A number of affidavits were presented by both the plaintiff and defendant and the case argued and placed in the hands of Judge Ferguson. No decision has yet been reached.

The Seminole went to the lightship station, but she was nowhere in sight. The Seminole came up from Charleston and the Compton went out from Southport this morning. The buoy tender Wistaria is also out in search of the lightship from Charleston.
