

NORFOLK SOCIETY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 NORFOLK, VA., March 3.—The subscription card party given at the club on Monday afternoon by the ladies of the Lottaway Sewing Society, for the benefit of the charity fund, was a success. There were thirty-six tables, which were divided into four sections, two of which and two of euche. At euche, the first prize, a brass oval, a picture and an embroidered centerpiece, were awarded to Mrs. H. Westheimer and Mrs. Tischer; the second, a reflector, and a half dozen Mexican dolls, were won by Mrs. Jake Heller, and Mrs. Alder, of Albemarle. The consolation, a plaque, was drawn by Mrs. A. Brown. At whist Miss Jennie Salomonsky received a remembrance collar and Miss Elsie Bennett a picture as the first prize, and the second, an ornament and ring stone comb, were won by Mrs. A. Gert, while the consolation, a gilt pin tray, was cut by Miss Corienne Stern, of Philadelphia. The score was kept by Miss Hilda Frank, Miss Julia Saunders, Miss Fannie Goldsmith, Miss Stella Frankfurt, Miss Goldie and Clara Goodwin, Miss Sadie Weisner and Miss Vera Kahn.

This affair was given under the direction of Mrs. Morris Brandt, Mrs. I. Alder, Mrs. Caesar Hofheimer, Mrs. Moses Zion, Mrs. Morris Brandt, Mrs. I. Alder, Mrs. Benjamin Hofheimer and Mrs. J. W. Spang.

Mrs. Frank Whiting gave a seven-hand euche party on Monday afternoon at her apartments in the Holland. There were three tables, and the prizes, which were all rather engagements pads with silver pencils, were won by Mrs. C. Brooks Johnston, Mrs. Charles Slaughter and Miss Etta Smith, while the consolation, a sweet-grass basket, was drawn by Mrs. John Nichol. Mrs. Whiting's guests were: Mrs. C. Brooks Johnston, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mrs. Fred. M. Killman, Mrs. Victor Blue, Mrs. A. Gordon Jones, Mrs. Andrew S. Brown, Mrs. Forey Reese, Mrs. John Nichol, Mrs. William A. Thom, Mrs. John C. Quinby, Mrs. Percy Stephenson, Mrs. William H. White, Mrs. A. A. Tunstall, of Washington, Mrs. Charles Slaughter, Mrs. R. B. Cooke, Mrs. Thomas H. Kennett, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Miss Caroline Walters, Miss Etta Smith, Miss Nannie Kennett and Miss Marie Whiting.

Mrs. C. J. Hargraves gave a card party on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Boissevain avenue. Five-hand euche was played and there were seven tables. Miss John Nichol received the first prize, a glass non-bon dish; Miss Andrew the second, a silver jade, and the consolation was drawn by Miss Helen Willis, of Cambridge Md.

Miss Abbie Clark gave an "at home" on Tuesday afternoon to Miss Elsie Williams, Miss Lucy Lamb and Miss Josephine Clark, at her residence on Fairfax avenue. Those who called were received by the guests of honor, while in the dining room those who assisted in serving were: Miss E. W. Kete, Miss Miriam Williamson received a collar for keeping score.

Mrs. J. Leighton Hubbard entertained on Tuesday afternoon at her home, on Grace Street. The occasion was a progressive five-hand euche party. Miss Louise DuBarry, who received the greatest number of punches, received the first prize, a piece of pottery, and the booby, a paper weight, was given to Mrs. Robert Baldwin, while the consolation, a flower-holder with a glass center, was cut by Miss Mabel Vaughan. The score was kept by Misses Annie and Carrie Voight, Miss Fannie Grandy, Miss Lucie Godwin, Miss Ella Waddy and Miss Katherine Myers. Immediately after the card party, Misses Louise and Miriam Williamson gave an informal tea. They were assisted in serving their guests by the debutantes and the tea was poured by Miss Louie Taylor.

Mrs. John F. Reid entertained at cards on Tuesday morning at her home on Westover Avenue. There were three tables of five-hand euche and the first prize, a brass jardiniere, was awarded to Mrs. Edward May, while the consolation, a lace handkerchief, was drawn by Mrs. Wallace W. Starke.

Miss Sue Spillman has returned to Richmond, after a visit to her brother, Contractor John Spillman, at the Misses Blacknall's, in Bute Street.

Mrs. Frank Coe, of West Point, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fergus Reid, in Ghent.

Mrs. Emma Wilson, of Massachusetts, is the guest of Mrs. William R. Flournoy, in Ghent.

Miss Helen Willis, of Cambridge, Md., who has been visiting Miss Ruth Wilson, on Granby Street, is now the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Helen M. Brown, in Ghent.

Mrs. Watson has returned to Danville, after being the guest of Mrs. E. T. Lamb, in Ghent.

Miss Victoria Parks, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. Victor Parks, in Ghent.

Miss Florence Tait has returned to "Spring Gardens," Amherst county, after a visit to relatives in Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tait, of Virginia and Maryland, are in Ghent.

Mrs. Charles MacGill, who has been the guest of Mrs. Caldwell Hardy, in Ghent, has returned to Baltimore.

FRANKLIN, VA.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 FRANKLIN, VA., March 3.—Miss Hatte Turner, of Courland, Va., was in town Tuesday visiting her uncle, Mr. C. A. Bell, on Norfolk Street, but left for her home on Wednesday morning.

Miss Ruth Owens, who has been attending Smithfield's Business College in Richmond, returned home Friday night and will take a position with Mr. E. Frank Story, at Courland, Va., as stenographer.

The Hayes Grocery Company has sold out to Mr. T. W. Norris, who was formerly at the head of the commissary of the Camp Manufacturing Company at this place, and who will continue the business of Hayes Grocery Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Holland arrived in Franklin Thursday morning over the Southern Railway, after an extended bridal tour, and will reside at the home of Mr. E. L. Beale, on South Street.

Representatives of the Pennsylvania,

Free Catarrh Remedy

Gives Instant Relief No More Bad Breath

"My Secret Remedy Quickly Cures Catarrh."—C. E. Gauss.

Catarrh is not only dangerous, but it causes bad breath, ulceration, death and decay of bones, loss of thinking and reasoning power, kills ambition and energy, often causes loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, rashes, itching and itching to general debility, idleness and insanity. It needs attention at once. Cure it with Gauss' Catarrh Cure. It is a quick, radical, permanent cure because it rids the system of the poison germs that cause catarrh.

In order to prove to all who are suffering from this dangerous and loathsome disease that Gauss' Catarrh Cure will actually cure any case of catarrh quickly, no matter how long standing or how bad, I will send a trial package by mail free of cost. Send us your name and address to-day and the treatment will be sent you by return mail. Try it! It will positively cure you that you will be welcomed instead of shunned by your friends.

C. E. GAUSS, 6496 Main Street, Marshall, Mich. Fill out coupon below.

FREE.
 This coupon is good for one trial package of Gauss' Combined Catarrh Cure, mailed free in plain package. Simply fill in your name and address on dotted lines below and mail to:

C. E. GAUSS, 6496 Main Street, Marshall, Mich.

.....

Chesapeake and Ohio, Norfolk and Western, Atlantic Coast Line, N. Y. P. & N., and Virginia-Carolina Coast Railways and Old Dominion Steamship Company, comprising vice-presidents and General freight agents of these transportation lines were entertained by the Albemarle Steam Navigation Company this week on a pleasure trip down the Black Water and Chowan Rivers. The special trip was made on the steamer "Nanticoke," leaving here Wednesday morning, from whence the party proceeded first to Avoca, N. C., where they watched the launching of Captain Capehart's seine, the longest in the world.

After visiting Edenton the party returned to Tams, where they took a special Atlantic Coast Line train for Norfolk. Mr. J. A. Pretlow, president and general manager of the Albemarle Steam Navigation Company, entertained the guests in a most royal manner. Messrs. R. A. Pretlow, vice-president of the company, and S. H. Hatton, auditor, also accompanied the party from Franklin.

Camp Manufacturing Company received Wednesday the largest express "package" ever shipped to Franklin. A special car brought the consignment, an electric motor car weighing 6,240 pounds, from Erie, Pa. The express charges were $15.

Colonel C. C. Vaughan went to Norfolk Wednesday to attend with his staff of the Seventy-first Virginia Regiment, an informal luncheon at the Virginia Club, tendered by the Jamestown Exposition Company to the Governor of Connecticut and other prominent State officials, accompanied by the Jamestown Exposition Committee of Connecticut.

Bishop Randolph, of the Southern Virginia Diocese, preached at the Episcopal Church Thursday night, which was attended by a large crowd.

The bishop confirmed Mr. and Mrs. Towns and Miss Robinson.

ABINGDON, VA.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 ABINGDON, VA., March 3.—Mr. Findlay Harris, editor of the Abingdon Virginian, who recently bought the old Findlay residence, on Valley Street, has had it renovated from garret to cellar, and the first of next week will move into his new home.

L. P. Summers, collector of internal revenue, accompanied by his wife, is in New Orleans, taking in the Mardi Gras festivities.

Mr. S. A. Carson and wife have gone to Richmond, Philadelphia and New York for a visit of a few weeks.

Mrs. John Wilson, of Gretna, Tenn., nee Miss George Blackenbecker, a former student at Stonewall Jackson Institute, has been visiting the Misses Hurt this week.

Miss Margaret Lynn Preston, of Seven Mile Ford, Va., stopped over to visit relatives on her return from Greenville, S. C.

Mr. Walter G. Preston has returned from a month's visit to Florida.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Joice Morton, who has been quite ill at the home of her kinsman, Rev. R. V. Lancaster, will be delighted to hear that she is very much better.

Mr. W. S. Whiting, of the Whiting Lumber Plant, returned last night from a business trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. T. B. Holman has been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Julia B. Hamilton, left yesterday for her home in Ittabena, Miss. Her husband, Dr. Holman, who has been taking a special course at Bellevue Hospital, New York city, stopped over to see her and panied her to their home in Mississippi.

OLD POINT COMFORT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., March 3.—There is very little to remind one of the season of sociability and gaiety at Old Point. Dinners, luncheons and card parties are quite as numerous as ever and the weekly hops at the Chamberlin continue to be most attractive.

At a beautiful luncheon given at the Chamberlin by Mrs. George F. Adams, some of the guests were: Mrs. Fitzhugh Carter, Mrs. William Chamberlin, Mrs. Clifton P. Carter, Mrs. Harry C. Barnes, Mrs. Samuel Sharlie, Mrs. Cornelius Wilcox, Mrs. Andrew Hero, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Coke Marshall, Fortress Monroe; Mrs. Curry, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Dutton, Mrs. Frank K. Hill and Miss Sullivan, of Washington; Mrs. Scarborough, of New York; Mrs. Doroseng, of Germantown, Pa.; Mrs. William Whistler, of Baltimore; Mrs. Francis S. Brown, Mrs. John B. Kimberly, Mrs. Mildred Beatty Pearce and Mrs. John B. Kimberly, of Old Point.

Mrs. William Whistler, of Baltimore, who is spending some time at the Chamberlin, had as her guests for dinner on Sunday evening, Colonel and Mrs. Ramsey D. Potts, Captain Francis N. Cooke and Captain Robert Kelton, of Fortress Monroe; Miss Helen Doyle, of Annapolis, and Mrs. Mildred Beatty Pearce.

An interesting engagement which has been announced is that of Lieutenant Houston Eldredge, U. S. N., retired, who for a number of years has made his home at the Chamberlin, and Miss Mathews, a daughter of the late William Mathews, of Harrison, N. Y. The wedding will occur in June.

Among the patrons of the Chamberlin are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Palmer Yonkers, of N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. N. Ray Baldwin, of Boston; Mrs. Randolph E. Fishburn, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. G. Proctor, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. George Merrill, Mrs. Langdon Curtis, of New York; Miss M. H. Wheeler, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence De Witt, of New York; Mrs. Arthur Hart Remington; Miss Remington, of Philadelphia.

SCOTTSVILLE, VA.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 SCOTTSVILLE, VA., March 3.—A fine horse was stolen from Mr. Will Page, of Batesville, Friday night. From Batesville the thief proceeded to North Garden, where he appropriated a saddle. From North Garden he hastened to Fryingburg, where he disposed of the animal to Dr. Wright, of that county, for the modest little sum of $2. Sergeant Sutherland, of this place, heard the news Saturday morning, and lost no time in getting the horse and returning it to its owner. The saddle was also returned to its owner. The thief skipped with the money. There is no clue to his identity save that he is a white man.

The district school board is trying hard to find a suitable lot on which to erect an up-to-date school building. The old school building will be sold. A location where there will be ample play-ground for the children is much desired.

The heaviest snow of the winter fell on Tuesday, and the snow which was to have been given at the home of Mr. D. P. Powers, on that date, has been postponed to Friday evening. While the snow storm was at its height, a string of big catfish, just caught, was presented to Dr. J. P. Blair by his office boy.

Dr. James Hart, of the Medical College of Virginia, has been visiting friends here.

Mrs. J. H. Briggs, who has been ill, is much improved, and has returned to her home.

Dr. B. L. Dillard, of Alberene, spent a few days at Chester this week.

Miss Laura Herndon is visiting friends at Alberene.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pitts, of Pine Creek, Va., are guests of the Misses Pitts.

Mrs. E. A. Cobbs, of this neighborhood, died on Wednesday night and was buried at Centenary, Buckingham county, on Thursday.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 3.—Miss Flora Mason entertained her friends one night this week with a beautiful progressive card party in honor of Miss Mildred Foster, of Alexandria, who is her guest. Music was an enjoyable feature, and refreshments were served.

Miss Alan Gray has returned to her home in Stafford county after a visit to her sister in Wilson, N. C.

Mrs. E. E. Buffington, of Huntington, West Va., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. D. Tapscoft, here, has returned home.

Miss Lula Barham, who has been visiting Miss Alice Grammon, has returned to her home in Stafford county.

Mr. W. H. Burkamp has returned from a business trip to Staunton.

Mrs. A. K. Phillips is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. P. Myers, in Washington.

Mrs. H. H. Smith, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Fleming, has returned to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Judge T. C. Bear, of Baltimore, was a visitor here this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brown.

Dr. James Eckenrode, of Baltimore, was a guest of his mother this week.

Miss Fannie Smith, who has been visiting Miss Halle Chichester in Stafford county, has returned to her home in Alexandria.

Mr. T. C. Sweet, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to Phoenix, N. Y.

Mr. Henri Gressitt, of Baltimore, was here this week visiting his sister, Mrs. J. B. Colbert.

BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT.
 Qualification Round With Gold Medal For Best Score.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 PINEHURST, N. C., March 3.—The Country Club is planning another big week of golf in the second annual spring tournament which begins Wednesday, March fourteenth, and continues through Saturday, the seventeenth.

There will be a qualification round Wednesday, with a gold medal for the best score, and four divisions will be provided for with the President's Secretary's and Captain's cups. There will also be a cup for the runner-up in the principal division, and for the winners of consolation divisions.

Mrs. Herbert L. Johnson, of the third annual "club" championship tournament which begins next Thursday, the eighth, and continues through Saturday, promises to be hotly contested for the regular members of the club include many golfers of prominence, and representing a wide range of territory.

Allan Lord of the Columbia Golf Club, Washington, won the honor last year, and Edwin A. Freeman of Montclair, the year previous.

There is also talk of a women's scratch match play tournament in connection with this tournament or the Spring event.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 3.—In the beautiful southeast parlor of the elegant country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rhyne, at Mt. Holly, Tuesday evening, their eldest daughter, Miss Lillian Catherine, became the bride of Mr. Miles Pogram Hoffman, of Philadelphia. One of the most brilliant assemblages—there were over three hundred invited guests—that ever witnessed a Southern wedding, stood while Rev. W. G. Boxer, pastor of the Lutheran Chapel at Mt. Holly, pronounced the words that made them man and wife. Miss Helen Rhyne was maid of honor, and Mr. L. F. White, of Philadelphia, was best man. Miss Allan's Georgia Lowe was the only bridesmaid. The whole house, normally one of the most beautiful in this section, was a vision of loveliness, the color scheme of white and green being preserved throughout with holly, palms and ferns and white wains. An altar was improvised in an alcove in the parlor and a great bank of palms, ferns and ivy formed the background.

Beginning To-Morrow Morning

WE WILL GIVE with all Cash Purchases amounting to $1.00 and over
Free Tickets to 1st Annual Pure Food Show
 Under the auspices of the Retail Grocers Association,
 To be Held at the Masonic Temple March 12th to 24th inclusive

Mail Orders Carefully Filled

Agents McCall Bazar Patterns

Spring's New Silks Are Ready!

WELCOME to the display! By far the most varied and comprehensive gathering we've ever asked you to view. In the morning this beauty show awaits you—so come.

Many decided helps may be gained by looking—by seeing just what Dame Fashion has predicted for Spring Silk Dresses and Waists. All the new color schemes, designs and combinations are included in this, the most worthy Silk showing that Richmond women have ever had the pleasure of seeing—shall this pleasure be yours?

Rubalyat, a very rough Silk Suiting, in leading colorings and black and white, at75c

Fancy Silks, in checks, stripes and other designs50c

Fancy Silks, a choice selection of these at70c

Taffeta Silks, in stripes, figures and checks, at50c

Colored Taffeta Silks, in a beautiful line of shadings58c and 75c

Black Taffeta and Peau de Soie, 36 inches wide$1.00

Black Taffeta, handsome, high luster, 36 inches wide$1.50

Black Peau de Soie and Black Taffeta, special values58c

White Habutai Japanese Silks, from 25c up to$1.00

Crepe de Chines, in a large assortment of colorings50c

Black Japanese Silks, from 37 1/2c to$1.20

To-morrow

starts the full showing of the Spring season's favored Tailored Suit ideas for women. Every Suit is a marvel of High Art Tailoring. There was never a more complete display nor a handsomer line of Women's Suits. Bear this in mind.

Nobby Eton Suits, in blue and black Panama, fancy stitched collar and vest of taffeta, full flare, circular skirts, tailored perfectly; special at$15.00

Ladies' Pony Coat Suits, in fancy gray mixtures, strap trimmings, taffeta lined, gored circular skirts$20.00

Cream Serge Suits, in latest cut Eton and Pony Coats, fancy collar and cuffs and handsomely braided trimmed, full circular skirts with folds.....$20.00 to $25.00

Novelty Suits of Chiffon Panama, in Alice blue, rose and lavender, Eton effects, daintily trimmed in braid and fancy vest. These have short sleeves and latest cut skirt.....$30.00

Extremely stylish Suits of Pin Striped Worsted and Suiting, Eton effects, inlaid braided collar and vests, half length sleeves, deep girde effects and full circular skirts, with folds; very new, $35.

Nobby effects in Cream Serge Suits, fancy tucked Etons, silk girde and collar, with just a touch of Alice blue and rose trimming, braided over, gored circular skirt, with folds; special, $35

News of the New Waists

THEY are here in almost endless variety. All are masterstrokes of ideal needlework—so beautifully are they designed and finished. Be among the waist buyers to-morrow, it's a wise spending of money.

Fine Net Waists, made over silk, with cluster tucking and baby Irish lace yoke; special at$5.00

White Messaline Waists, elaborately trimmed in German Val., pointed yoke back and front, half sleeves, lace trimmed$7.48

White and Black Jap. Silk Waists, daintily trimmed in Val., with fine tucking in yoke style; special$5.00

White and Black Jap. Waists, with vest effect of Val. and cluster tucking, at $3.98

A large assortment of White Lingerie Waists, lace and embroidery trimmed, price$1.00 to $5.00

Notice

We are pleased to announce that Miss Jennie Mitchell, formerly of the Peers & Owens Co., is now in charge of our Woman's Suit Department, and will be very glad to see and serve her many friends.

THALHIMER BROS.

Broad and Fifth Streets

with this tournament or the Spring event.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.
 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
 CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 3.—In the beautiful southeast parlor of the elegant country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rhyne, at Mt. Holly, Tuesday evening, their eldest daughter, Miss Lillian Catherine, became the bride of Mr. Miles Pogram Hoffman, of Philadelphia. One of the most brilliant assemblages—there were over three hundred invited guests—that ever witnessed a Southern wedding, stood while Rev. W. G. Boxer, pastor of the Lutheran Chapel at Mt. Holly, pronounced the words that made them man and wife. Miss Helen Rhyne was maid of honor, and Mr. L. F. White, of Philadelphia, was best man. Miss Allan's Georgia Lowe was the only bridesmaid. The whole house, normally one of the most beautiful in this section, was a vision of loveliness, the color scheme of white and green being preserved throughout with holly, palms and ferns and white wains. An altar was improvised in an alcove in the parlor and a great bank of palms, ferns and ivy formed the background.

and many graces of heart and mind. The groom is a prominent business man of Philadelphia. Many prominent guests were present from a distance.

One of the most delightful dinner affairs of the season was that given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Long Tuesday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Ethel Krause, of Marlton, O., who is the guest of Mrs. E. M. Heilig.

Mrs. C. B. Stephenson entertained Monday afternoon at her home in Dilworth in honor of Mrs. C. H. C. Mills, who was recently introduced into local social circles, and Madame A. R. Gaultier, of Baltimore. Euche was the diversion and refreshments were served.

Miss Norma Van Landingham charmingly entertained the attendants at the Rhys-Hoffman wedding Monday evening at cards. The lady's prize, a handsome Japanese vase, was won by Miss Mamie Beck, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McKnight, of Lynchburg, Va., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Finlayson, on North Tryon Street.

Mrs. Harry Boatwright, of Portsmouth, Va., is expected to visit Charlotte shortly as the guest of Mrs. Walter R. Talbot.

Brass Beds.

Choice Lot Coming.

Sydnor & Hundley, Inc.