THREE EASTERNERS TO PLAY WITH CUE

Poggenburg, Gardner and Norris Will Compete for Amateur Billiard Championship.

GAME AT THE CHICAGO A. A.

Other Entries Are Rolls, Wright, Conklin and Demarest.

CHICAGO, March 4.—Entries for the national amateur championship billiard tournament, which is to be held at the Chicago Athletic Association beginning March 12th, closed last night with seven entrants. The contestants follow: Charles S. Norris, New York; H. A. Wright, San Francisco; Ed. Wright, Gardner, Pagan, N. J.; J. F. Poggenburg, New York; C. F. Conklin and Calvin Demarest, Chicago, and T. M. S. Rols, Philadelphia. Seven players will require twenty-one games, and as the gymnasium in which the tournament will be held can be secured only one day, the committee in charge has decided to open the tournament with one game on the first night and two afternoon games and one evening game thereafter until the tournament is completed. This will give the players one day to play off ties should they be any.

Navy Defeats Cornell.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 4.—Cornell defeated the Navy yesterday by a score of six bouts to three. Captain Heckheimer of the visitors, put his name up for the first time in a tournament since he left the Navy in 1898.

Crenshaw, of the Navy, lost only to Heckheimer, and Burdick, who fenced for the first time on the Navy team, won his bout with Fassett. In an intermission, Midshipman Walter Smith defeated Heckheimer (Cornell) in a bout with duelling sword.

The summary: First bout—Diehman (Navy) tied with Heckheimer (Cornell). Second bout—Crenshaw (Navy) won from Howard (Cornell). Third bout—Burdick (Navy) won from Fassett (Cornell). Fourth bout—Crenshaw (Navy) won from Burdick (Cornell). Fifth bout—Howard (Cornell) won from Burdick (Navy). Sixth bout—Diehman (Navy) won from Fassett (Cornell). Seventh bout—Heckheimer (Cornell) won from Fassett (Navy). Eighth bout—Diehman (Navy) won from Howard (Cornell). Ninth bout—Crenshaw (Navy) won from Fassett (Cornell).

Ext. team to decide tie—Diehman won from Heckheimer.

ARMY FENCERS IN AN EASY TRIUMPH

Win Their Annual Tournament With Columbia By Score of Six Bouts to Three.

SAGE BEATEN BY DICKINSON

Announcement of Defeat of Intercollegiate Expert Causes Cheering By Cadets.

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 4.—In their annual fencing tournament here yesterday the cadets defeated the Columbia freshmen by a score of six bouts to three. Much interest was manifested in the meet because Columbia had defeated the naval cadets by a score of five bouts to four. West Point was represented by Humphrey, Willford and Dickinson, and Columbia by Laue, Kehlman and Amund. The most interesting bout was between Dickinson, cadet, and Laue, the intercollegiate champion. Laue had defeated both Willford and Humphrey and the score stood a tie with three bouts each, when the champion and Dickinson faced each other in the first bout of the final round. Dickinson began in a lively manner, the Columbia man's confident bearing changing as he realized that Dickinson was out-gunning him. When the army man was announced winner the cadets broke out with applause that did not cease for fully five minutes. Willford, although losing to Laue, put up a fine exhibition. The decision was a close one. The summary: First Round—Dickinson defeated Amund, Kehlman and Humphrey. Laue defeated Willford. Second Round—Dickinson defeated Kehlman and Laue. Third Round—Dickinson defeated Amund, Willford and Humphrey. The judges were Scott O'Connell, Mr. Kernohan and Mr. St. Gudens, all of the New York Fencers' Club.

GIRLS ENGAGE IN ATHLETIC GAMES

Hampton High School Defeats Female Athletics at City of Williamsburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILLIAMSBURG, Va., March 4.—A novel feature in Williamsburg athletics yesterday afternoon by a large crowd of people, when the young ladies' basket-ball team of Williamsburg was defeated by Hampton High School by a score of 21 to 5.

The young ladies put up a plucky fight, but their opponents showed longer training. This is the first game the team, which has been under the training of Coach Blanchard, of the college gymnasium, has played, but they do not seem at all disheartened by their defeat, and declare their intention of again playing Hampton High School in the near future.

DWYER BEAT KLANK IN A WRESTLING CONTEST

Jacksonville Grappler Wins First and Third Falls, Losing Other.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAMPA, Fla., March 4.—In the best wrestling bout yet seen here, M. J. Dwyer, of Jacksonville, last night defeated Emil Klank, of South Omaha, Neb., winning first and third falls. Dwyer took first fall in 23 minutes and 6 seconds, and third fall in 7 minutes and 52 seconds. Klank won the second fall in 5 minutes and 4 seconds. The purse was $100 and all gate money.

The same men are matched again for next Friday night, no holds barred, for a purse of $500.

THE UNIVERSITY IS WORKING HARD

Will Put Good Base-Ball Squad in Field With Coming Spring.

JOHNSON PLAYS EVERYWHERE

Many Other Players Are Making Good in Their Respective Positions.

BROTHERS ARE MANY IN FIGHTING RANKS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., March 4.—The snow of the past week interfered with the outdoor work of the applicants for the University of Virginia base-ball team, but the indications are that the men will be found back on the diamond at Lambeth field to-morrow afternoon.

To-morrow week the Washington league team will arrive to begin their spring training, and their coming is anxiously looked forward to by Trainer Lannigan and the entire Virginia squad. Last year the Virginia players had their training practice of the Washington team.

The University Squad.

Thirty-five men have thus far reported to Captain Graham, and they have been kept constantly working each afternoon. Excellent practice with the stick has been obtained inside the Fayerweather gymnasium. A large base-ball net, having recently been purchased from Spalding and Bros. The net is oblong, twenty feet high by thirty broad, and two hundred and thirty-five feet in length.

The indications are that Virginia will be weak in the box this year. The loss of Adams, Pollard and Cracraft, three of the best twirlers that ever donned an orange and blue uniform, makes a gap that can hardly be filled in January.

Adams is a twirler of great promise, and much was expected of him this season, but he failed to return. Pollard, who defeated Georgetown last April, is intelligible and Cracraft has graduated. Cole, however, is in good form and will no doubt prove the mainstay of the team this season. He and Chandler will make a reliable battery. Another promising twirler is Suong, who comes from Georgia. He is far from being a novice.

There are three McGovern's who have been in the team. Terry, a first losing twice to Young Corbett, has since maintained his reputation as a knocker-out. He was defeated by Young Corbett and is now to get a crack at Battling Nelson, biggest man of the class. Hughes has carved out a name entirely for himself in the city, with a record of 10 wins and 1 loss. Tommy Murphy will always be remembered as the bitterest kind of struggler.

Lately another brother, Phil McGovern, never amounted to a great deal, though he figured in a number of heavyweight bouts.
