

'QUAKE DISTURBS OLD AQUA RUN

Half Acre of Bed of Run Raised Above the Level of the Water.

A STRANGE INSCRIPTION

Egyptian Scroll Comes to Light on Shore of This Newer World.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MONTICELLO, Va., May 5.—Philip Appody, of this place, while returning with his uncle, Mr. Elias F. Blackwell, from a trip to the "shore" near the foot of the Potomac, found an old bottle, the contents of which are of a most unusual nature, and which aroused the greatest interest among all who have seen it.

Mr. Blackwell purchased twelve hundred fish at "the shore" and had gotten so fat on his way home as the ruins of old Aqua, on Aqua Run, where they stopped to camp out for the night. After properly caring for the horses, Mr. Blackwell and his nephew pitched in and cut off the heads and removed the entrails of the fish, a labor that greatly lightened the horses' load. The long, tiresome ride and their late, arduous task caused them both to sleep soundly. It was some time before dawn that they were rudely aroused by the unusual experience of being lifted about three feet off of the ground and, heavily returned to it. It was Thursday, April 19th, but both being in a deep slumber, and not knowing of the earthquake in San Francisco, they did not realize at that time just what had happened.

Aqua Run Disturbed.

After putting to rights the disarranged camp, feeding, currying and harnessing their horses, and eating a hasty breakfast, they found it light enough to take a closer view of the ruins of old Aqua, a flourishing little port in colonial days, but whose prestige and trade left with the receding waters of Aqua Run. Most of the walls and chimneys of the buildings were still standing on the previous day, were now strewn over the ground. But what most excited their interest was where about one-half an acre of the bed of Aqua Run had been thrown violently upwards far above the level of the water.

The Utmost Confidence in Pe-ru-na

Hon. C. C. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building and Loan Co., writes: "I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Pe-ru-na. It is a great medicine."

Colds in Head, Throat and Chest.

Mrs. Lucy Hovey, 874 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I am thoroughly convinced that Pe-ru-na is everything that it is said to be."

"I cured me of a cold which hung on for over two months, and which had me greatly worried. Pe-ru-na, though, acted like magic, and I earnestly recommend it to all sufferers."

The letter entrusted to a slave, was probably lost on his journey up the Nile, and after various buffettings of the waters, evidently found its last resting place in the mud of Aqua Run, where it may have lain for many centuries:

"Twelfth of Chiorak, "Temple of Osiris, at Memphis. "To my old and most dear friend, Prince Pliatop, the wise nephew of King Tanchera, and deep in the hidden knowledge of the priests of the Temple of Isis, on the Island of Elephantine, health and wisdom. And by my slave, Panchenes, this message: "The priests are not alone blamed for the barnacles of superstition that foul the gates of all religions. Our own belief is all in all to us within the circle, but the honest soul cannot help gazing the masses. Weak mind cannot grasp simple, great truths, but must have them fancifully, grotesquely adorned until in time the history of the mystery is often lost to those who help to perpetuate the fraud. Unworthy members of our calling prey upon the fears and weaknesses of the ignorant, throwing a mystery and glamour over common things until the beauty of truth is hid by the tinsel and gaudy colors of falsehood. "In these days Egypt fears drouth and famine, but before the days of the New Temple it was different. On one occasion during a long, damp, misty spell that followed the retreat of the waters the rushes spread out far from the banks of the Great River and grow thick and strong until no oxen could be found strong enough to plow the gardens connected with the Temple of Orsis. A thing like this was such a loss of prestige to Orsis in the minds of the common people that for weeks Memphis lordered on the verge of a bloody religious revolution that would have overthrown every temple in the city and swept every member of the priestly class. Then a young priest came forth, saying Orsis had spoken to him, that the man who should plow up the gardens should be a priest in his temple. Of many who tried all failed until a youth tried whose sole possession was a black bull with a white spot on its forehead and some other distinguishing marks. His success none more restored, Orsis to popular favor, and the populace with the wildest enthusiasm ascribed to the young man and his bull divine powers, which the priests to strengthen their weakened power encouraged by instituting one of the most striking and imposing religious ceremonies to be seen anywhere in honor of Apis, since known as the sacred bull of Memphis. "And those special rushes were ever afterwards termed bullrushes. "Life's greatest mysteries are the simplest when the key is in your hands. "PENTAM. "Scribe of Apis."

Impetus to Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GATE CITY, Va., May 5.—There is more building in progress in Gate City than at any time before in the history of the town. Three brick and concrete business houses, a three-story hotel and several residences are being erected. The large railroad construction in progress in the county has given an impetus to building in the town. In almost every community in the county good dwelling-houses are being built.

How Orline Destroys all Desire for Whiskey or Beer—Guaranteed by Your Druggist.

The terrible craving for liquor is a symptom of disease and to overcome it, the disease itself should be treated in a scientific way. When one has used whiskey, beer or other stimulants for a long time, the nerve cells have become accustomed to the effects of the stimulants and demand liquor in order to perform their duties. If the nerve cells are properly treated, the craving for liquor will be destroyed. It is in this way that Orline cures alcoholism by supplying the nerve cells the strength needed, thus destroying the desire for liquor. It eradicates every particle of the terrible liquor craving, imparts new strength and vigor to the whole system, and restores the general health. Treatise on how to cure drunkennes free on request. HONEST MEN AND WOMEN WHO ENDORSE PE-RU-NA

MISS DELLA STROEBE

MISS MARIE L. MEUNIER

PRINCE JONAH KALANIANA'OLE

Neglected Catarrh Becomes Chronic.

THERE are some things which are as sure as fate, and can be relied on to occur to at least one-half of the human family unless means are taken to prevent.

First, colds not promptly cured are sure to cause catarrh. Second, catarrh improperly treated, is sure to make life short and miserable. The Destructive Power of Catarrh. Catarrh spares no organ or function of the body.

It is capable of destroying sight, taste, smell, hearing, digestion, secretion, assimilation and excretion. It pervades every part of the human body: head, throat, stomach, bowels, bronchial tubes, lungs, liver, kidneys, bladder and other pelvic organs.

Curative Power of Pe-ru-na. There is probably no fact in popular medical science better established than that a teaspoonful of Pe-ru-na before each meal will surely lessen the danger of catching cold.

Now, since this is true, and experience bears it out most forcefully, thousands of lives would be saved, and tens of thousands of cases of chronic catarrh prevented by this simple precaution within the reach of every one. Pe-ru-na is not simply a palliative to relieve some of the distressing symptoms. It brings permanent relief.

Gained Thirty Pounds in Weight. Mr. John C. Russell, 810 County Street, Portsmouth, Va., writes, regarding his wife's case, as follows: "I thought I would be doing but justice to your great medicine to tell you what it has done for my wife."

"Two years ago the doctor called at our house on an average of three times a week in attendance upon my wife, who was suffering from acute indigestion. "While on a visit to some friends she had an attack, and I prepared to go for the doctor when our friend proposed Pe-ru-na."

"I gave her a dose, repeating it in a half hour, and her pains passed away. Since that time my wife has gained thirty pounds. "We are never out of Pe-ru-na. When the children or I have a cold we take some of mamma's Pe-ru-na."

"I find that it has cut my doctor bills down to almost nothing."

Keep Pe-ru-na On Hand. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klee, 215 East Fourth Street, Topeka, Kas., writes: "We are both very much pleased with Pe-ru-na and do not hesitate to praise it. "My wife took Pe-ru-na for liver trouble and a run-down condition incident to the same."

"A few bottles built up her health and strength. "I took Pe-ru-na for a cold which settled in my kidneys, giving me much pain. In a few months I was much better, and in a few months I was well. "We keep it on hand all the time, in case we take cold."

Revised Formula. "For a number of years requests have come to me from a multitude of grateful friends, urging that Pe-ru-na be given a slight laxative quality. I have been experimenting with a laxative addition for quite a length of time, and now feel gratified to announce to the friends of Pe-ru-na that I have incorporated such a quality in the medicine, which, in my opinion, can only enhance its well-known beneficial character."

"S. B. HARTMAN, M. D."

The Utmost Confidence in Pe-ru-na

Hon. C. C. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building and Loan Co., writes: "I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Pe-ru-na. It is a great medicine."

"I have used it, and I have known many of my friends who have obtained beneficial results from its use. I cannot praise Pe-ru-na too highly."

Colds in Head, Throat and Chest.

Mrs. Lucy Hovey, 874 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I am thoroughly convinced that Pe-ru-na is everything that it is said to be."

"I cured me of a cold which hung on for over two months, and which had me greatly worried. Pe-ru-na, though, acted like magic, and I earnestly recommend it to all sufferers."

Recommends Pe-ru-na Highly

Miss Marie L. Meunier, 913 Ontario Street, Montreal, P. Q., Can., writes: "I take pleasure in stating that I have been cured of catarrh by Pe-ru-na. This disease made my life miserable, especially in the morning, when I had to cough and spit and make every effort to clear my throat and air passages. This remedy cured me promptly, and I recommend it most highly to persons afflicted with this terrible disease."

Health Restored By Pe-ru-na.

Miss Della Stroebe, 710 Richmond Street, Appleton, Wisconsin, writes: "For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors and medicines. "I could not enjoy my meals and could not sleep at night. "I had heavy dark circles about the eyes. My friends were much alarmed."

Pe-ru-na For General Debility.

Mrs. M. W. Seffel, 212 Matagorda Street, San Antonio, Tex., writes: "I have used Pe-ru-na for general debility, and have found it very beneficial."

Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Miss Theresa A. Lund, Secretary Alpha Lodge, No. 1103, M. B. A., Marinette, Wis., writes: "I have used your Pe-ru-na for catarrh and have found it to be all that you claim for it. I cheerfully recommend Pe-ru-na to any one suffering from catarrh, as I believe that, as in my case, it will prove a sure cure."

Gives Pe-ru-na Credit.

Mr. James D. King, Alamo Hotel, Colorado Springs, Col., member Youmans of America, writes: "I had to come here on account of lung trouble, and found that my recovery would be slow. "A friend suggested that I try Pe-ru-na, and I did so. I began to improve very rapidly, and I kept right on using it. In four months my lungs were all healed and I cough all gone. "I feel that much of the credit is due to Pe-ru-na, and I am pleased to endorse it."

Pe-ru-na Recommended For Coughs and Colds

Prince Jonah Kalaniana'ole, 1522 K Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., Delegate in Congress from Hawaii, writes: "I can cheerfully recommend your Pe-ru-na as a very effective remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble."

Probably no other physician has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Abner N. Keep, Vineland, Ontario, Can., writes: "For over twenty years I was a sufferer from catarrh, and had tried almost everything I could hear of. I doctored with physicians and specialists, but did not get relief. "Finally I decided to try Pe-ru-na. One bottle of it gave relief. After taking five bottles I was sound and well. I am eighty-two years old, and feel as good to-day as when I was in my thirties."

Book News And Reviews

Mary Tappan Wright has written in "The Tower" (Charles Scribner's Sons) a readable story of life in a college community. The events are concerned with members of the faculty, not of the students, and in this respect the tale has an air of novelty and originality. The heroine is a charming and beautiful spinster, lady of some thirty-eight seasons, her spinsterhood being attributable simply to the fact that the lover of her girlhood parted from her under a misunderstanding. He comes back some eighteen years later, with the opening of his story, as an instructor in the college. Thereby hangs the tale. In two decades the lover's love
