SEAT OF HONOR FOR SPONSOR. The annual field day contests of Richmond College will be held to-day on the college grounds. The majority of the events of the track meet will be interclass, and the several classes are deeply interested in the outcome of each event.

Against the main building on the Broad Street side, a grandstand has been erected and here the sponsor, Miss Ruby Chewing, and her maid of honor, Misses Edith Watkins and Elizabeth Harrison, will sit, presiding. In front of this the contestants will take place.

This year's field day is expected to be the best yet held at the college. The class rivals are great and former records will be no doubt all broken. The class rivalry has been infused, has its source in the splendid work of Mr. A. E. Dunlop, Jr., athletic director. But great credit is due to Mr. F. M. Sayre, general manager of the committee, and to his fellow-committeemen, for the excellent arrangement and ordering which has characterized the preparation.

Another game, and this time Portsmouth did the work. In the ninth inning yesterday the Lawmakers scored their second run and lightly tied up the score of 2-2.

Double Headers Soon. In a very short time, however, there will be double headers, Richmond will have chances to give the people of the city a good long run for their money on a good day by doubling things up. It is not believed that any double headers will be played until after the first of June.

St. Louis will very likely play a double-header here the next time she visits the city and Danville and Lynchburg will do likewise.

Beakstone or Still will be used in today's game and Cornelius will be in the box for the Truickers.

The star work of yesterday's game was done by Hicks and Cuddy, both deeming themselves and playing that good ball. Cuddy stopped at short, looked good for his work, but he made one error, but it did not result in any damage to the score.

Fishman, the shortstop for the Portsmouth bunch, did the best work for Manager Reynolds, and O'Brien, at second, who won for the money. He covered a lot of ground, and his head was in the game all the time. Rose pulled down a difficult one in left, and Titman made the star play of the game by receiving a line drive in the right gap.

Roanoke Beats Norfolk. Willis, Roanoke's Star Pitcher, Makes Record for Strike-Outs. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, Va., May 17.—The Highlanders defeated Norfolk to-day by the superb pitching of Willis, Roanoke's star pitcher, he having sixteen strikeouts to hit three times at his curves—a total of forty-eight strikes and not a hit in them. He, by the great work of to-day, holds the league record for strike-outs, and one that will be hard to beat. Both Roanoke and Norfolk earned one run each, but Willis was master of the game at all times.

Norfolk scored in the ninth, when Hopkins hit for three bases. Rose fanned. A wild pitch allows Hopkins to score. Clarke singled and Evans singled. Wynne and Edwards fanned. The game was the best of the season and snappy and fast at all times. A large crowd yelled themselves hoarse for victory. Brown's catch in the sixth and Whitten's in the fourth were features.

PERCENTAGES OF CLUBS CHANGED

Yesterday's Results Made a Big Difference in the Standing.

LYNCHBURG TIED NORFOLK

Shoemakers Are Making a Great Fight for the First Place—Race for Third Position.

Results of yesterday's games made big changes in the standing of the different clubs. Richmond dropped from fourth place into fifth place, and Roanoke, which was playing tag with Portsmouth, leaped up near Lynchburg, and took the third station in the percentage column. Norfolk lost to Roanoke and Lynchburg was wiped Danville. This tied these two cities for first place.

In the event that Lynchburg wins to-day's game and Norfolk again loses to Roanoke, the Shoemakers will take the first place from Norfolk. The Mary Jane Crew has had an option on the top of the column since the season opened.

Richmond can get into fourth place by winning to-day's game. This is providing, of course, that Lynchburg beats Benny's bunch again.

Hicks covered a lot of ground in the game yesterday, and Cuddy did some good work at short. Both players have been doing fine work since they left last week, and the Richmond fans are expecting them to keep it up when playing here.

Roasting is all right, but a player shouldn't be openly roasted. A dumb play makes the player feel just as bad, and it doesn't help matters any.

Schumann, the fellow who pitched for Portsmouth yesterday, stands five feet eleven and a half inches, and weighs 215 pounds. No wonder he has plenty of steam!

"Reddy" Foster received an ovation when he pitched behind the bat for Portsmouth yesterday. He did good work, but didn't connect with the spheroid to any noticeable extent. His throwing to second was all that could be wanted.

"Bill" Morgan, an old Brownie, is playing right field for the Truickers. Morgan played left field when he was last seen on the Broad Street diamond, and he is the runner who has been thrown out at the home plate on a long fly to left. Morgan is making good, and is batting fairly well.

Jack Anthony, who has been out of the game for several days because of Charlie horse in his right leg, will leave with the team this week, and will be in the game played in Portsmouth. He is getting along nicely, and is taking good care of himself.

Manager Benny, of the Danville team, was pleased with the quick throws of Belmont, the fastest shortstop in the league, that he sent him in to pitch in Wednesday's game. Belmont sent the ball straight over the plate, but the batters connected with it.

Roanoke, Lynchburg and Danville are the only teams that have walked off the Norfolk aggregation of ballplayers.

Umpire Bishop, who is here this week, is a southern pitcher, and could be signed by a city in this league if he cared to play ball this year. He may decide to give up his job as umpire and do some box work before the season is over.

Twice yesterday Richmond had a chance to win the game, but hits were not forthcoming.

Titman's catch of a line drive to right field yesterday was the star play of the game. It very probably saved a run, too, for the next batter up smacked one safely.

Cowan went in to bat for Hamilton in the ninth inning yesterday and afterwards played in center field. He stopped one out there that would have given the batter a chance to make two or three bags had it gone through the fielder.

Hinton sent one down to third that had whiskers on it. The Norfolk third baseman got a glimpse of it after it passed to left field.

Roanoke, Danville and Richmond have each lost one more game than they have won. There is only seven points difference between the three clubs, and one game either way will change things around a whole lot.

The six clubs yesterday made only ten runs. These ten runs won two games, lost two games and tied one game. There were also ten errors made by the six clubs yesterday.

Richmond got three more hits and made less errors than Portsmouth, yet the best to be had was a tie game. Double headers will be extremely fashionable in the summer.

POTATO RACE ON SKATES. Difficult and Unique Contest at Reservoir Rink To-night.

Every one who has ever tried to skate on roller skates knows how very difficult it is to stop, pick up anything, or play ball. The boys and girls who have learned to skate know that while one has the skates on it is necessary to maintain a careful balance at all times, and this can be maintained only a very upright position. Only those who have learned to skate well will care to depart from the very erect posture.

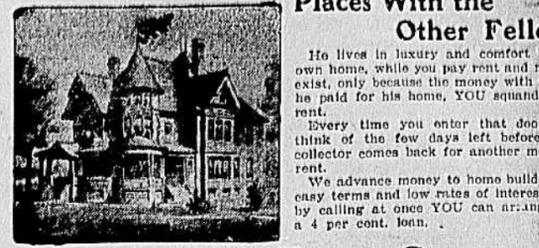

In addition, there will be long rows of potatoes on the floor. Baskets will be at the ends of the rows and the skaters will each one pick up the potatoes in their respective rows—and at a time—and deposit them in their baskets. Of course, there will be a plenty of falling for those who are not experts on skates.

In addition, the potato races there will be a half mile race for misce and girls.
