PROPOSED MONUMENT TO PATRICK HENRY. Hotel Men's Association Has Inaugurated Movement for a Monument in St. John's Church. The Hotel Men's Association in their meeting held Wednesday afternoon at Murphy's Hotel, inaugurated a movement for the erection of a monument to Patrick Henry. It was determined by the association that the attention of the City Council, the Chamber of Commerce and of the representative in Congress should be called to the matter and that their sympathy and help should be enlisted in favor of the proposed monument.

The site suggested for the monument is St. John's Churchyard, where Patrick Henry made his famous speech for freedom and liberty. The association was very enthusiastic in taking up the matter, and expects, with the aid and cooperation of the bodies and persons named, that the erection of the proposed monument will be assured.

The hotel men have been very energetic in working for the interests of Richmond and have been the means of bringing to the city several large conventions. Officers for the ensuing year are: President, Colonel John Murphy; vice-president, Mr. T. Atkinson; secretary, Mr. J. D. Corrie; treasurer, Mr. Felix Keegan. The president yesterday announced the appointment of the following committees: Executive, Messrs. F. M. FFF, William Rucker, J. Lee Davis; on convention, Messrs. E. H. Gilbert, James H. Grant, M. W. Lawrence, A. G. Anthony, John M. Campbell; finance committee, Messrs. A. G. Anthony, M. W. Lawrence, E. H. Gilbert, John Murphy, Jr.

ENLARGE FORCE AND OPERATIONS. Anti-Saloon League to Have State Superintendent and New Field Man. WORK IS SPREADING OUT. Field Day Movement of Nine Weeks Results in Subscription of Nearly $5,000.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League was held Monday, Reva. J. W. West and Ed. J. Richardson, field and office secretaries, respectively, made the most encouraging financial report in the history of the league. In the absence of President J. W. Mitchell, who was detained by the death of his brother's wife, the meeting was presided over by Rev. W. W. Lear, D. D., and a representative membership of the committee was present.

Two New Officers. The secretaries stated that, in a field-day movement of nine weeks, conducted chiefly in the cities and larger towns of the State, approximately $4,800 in subscriptions had been secured. Their report indicated such growth and outlook of the work that it presented the physical impossibility for two men to continue the current work of the field as it should be done—to organize leagues in the remaining counties, and look after such organizations and counties already organized; and also organize the cities, as should be done. They, therefore, recommended the appointment of two more State superintendents and another field man—to assure the success desired and awaiting progressive action. It was the opinion of the secretaries that, with such additional force, every city, large town and county could be organized and the work placed upon a basis that would surprise even the most sanguine friends of the movement.

The Executive Committee appointed a committee to seek for and recommend a superintendent, and the Headquarters Committee will probably provide for the employment of an additional field man to enter upon the discharge of his duties August first, next. This committee will soon hold a meeting to consider the enlargement of the league force and its operations.

Field Day on Sundays will be continued in the cities and larger towns during the year. Many county conventions and local meetings will be held, and a number of new counties organized. The cities and towns entered on Field Day, with churches used, are as follows: Norfolk-Baptist; Freemason Street, First, Grace, Burrows Memorial, Central, Spurgeon Memorial, Methodist; Christian; Memorial Temple, First and Second Churches; Disciples of Christ and the Christian Church in Berkeley Ward; Episcopal; Christ, St. Stephen's, St. Paul's, St. Thomas; Methodist; Epworth; Centenary; Trinity; Ladies' Aid; First and Park Place; Presbyterian; Second, Colley Memorial and Ghent.

Richmond-Baptist: First, Pine Street, Leigh Street, Immanuel, Randolph Street, Fulton, Barton Heights, Methodist; Central; City Street, Union Station, Laurel Street, Trinity, Denny Street, Epworth, Fairmount, Highland Park, Barton Heights; Christian; Seventh Street, Marshall Street, Third; First English Lutheran.

Manchester-Central, West End, Fifth Street; Methodist; Clifton Street Baptist; Cowardin Avenue Christian.

Petersburg-Washington Street, Market Street, Blandford, Wesley, West Street, Methodist; Christian; Epworth; Methodist; Hampton-First, Central, East Hampton, Lower Fox Hill Methodist; the Christian and Memorial Baptist Churches were open, but one of the league speakers who was to supply these pulpits was ill, and could not be present.

Alexandria-Methoist; South; Methodist; Protestant; First Baptist; Methodist (North).

Portsmouth: Baptist-Court Street, Fourth Street, South Street, Park View, Calvary, Port Norfolk, Methodist; Memorial, Central, Wright Memorial, Park View, Cottage Place, High Street Christian, First Disciples of Christ.

York: First Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian, Church of Christ, First Baptist; Main Street and East Suffolk Methodist; Christian, Baptist, Presbyterian.

In practically all these places other churches would have been entered, but for special services, previously provided for for other good reasons. In no State in the Union have so many churches been open to the Anti-Saloon League in the inauguration of Field Day as in Virginia.

Week-night services were held in the following places: Onancock, Parkley, Pungo, Chincoteague, Wachapreague, Cape Charles, Manassas, Woodstock, Edinburg, New Market, Stephen's City, Berryville, Harrisonburg, Ivor, Windsor, Holland, Scottsburg, Bedford City, Covington, Gordonsville and Eagle Rock.

Public School Exercises. The eighteen district public schools of Richmond will hold their final exercises to-day at their respective buildings. All of them will render a programme, consisting of recitations, music, declamations and delivery of department cards and diplomas. Pupils of the different schools will attend the exercises.
