

METHODISTS TO MEET IN SUSSEX

Petersburg District Conference to Be Held at Dendron for Three Days.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE

Mr. Waymack Leaves for Australia to Install Tobacco Machinery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., July 7.—A large number of clerical and lay members from this city will attend the Petersburg District Methodist Conference, which begins at Dendron, in Burry county, Tuesday, and will be in session three days. Rev. Dr. B. P. Lipscomb, of this city, who is presiding elder of the district, will preside at the conference, and Rev. F. M. Edwards, pastor of the Central Street Methodist Church, will preach the opening sermon.

Fire of supposedly incendiary origin totally destroyed the barn and outbuildings on the farm of Rev. W. W. Edwards, at Newville, Sussex county, yesterday. Several fine horses and cows, and a farming implement, were destroyed, upon which, it is understood there was no insurance. Mr. Edwards is pastor of the Baptist Church at Newville.

W. T. Waymack, the well known engineer at the Dunlop tobacco factory, will leave here Monday for Vancouver, whence he will sail July 20th for Melbourne, Australia, to install new machinery in the British-American Tobacco Company's plant in that city. Mr. Waymack's trip will take about six months for completion.

Rev. Meade Bolton MacBryde, formerly pastor at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, has been called to be rector of Preston Parish, including St. Paul's Church at Saltville, Va., and Christ Church at Marion.

Elixir Kosine is recommended for only one disease—epilepsy of fits. It is so unerring in curing fits, that it is called the "Cure for Fits."

MOTHER'S PRAYER WAS ANSWERED

Her Plea for More Time to Save Children from the Society a Success.

A NEW HARBOR MASTER

Judge Waddill Grants Writ of Habeas Corpus for Youth in Navy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 7.—The prayer of a destitute Syrian wife and mother that she might hear from her absent husband in time to avoid the giving up of her children to the Norfolk Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children was answered today.

In anger he had deserted her and the little ones—her infant, now about a fortnight old, having been born after he left, but she had the hope that he would send for them.

He went from Norfolk to the South, and from there he had been in transportation ticket and in cash. Most of her immediate wants having been provided for, she will leave Monday with her children for Birmingham, Ala., where her husband will meet her.

JAMESTOWN VISITORS. Among the visitors to the Jamestown Exposition headquarters were Mr. Mrs. L. Stone, secretary of the Exposition Concessioners' Association of the United States, as well as some of the members of the association which he will represent, will have concessions at the Exposition, especially on the war path. In fact, some members of the association have already secured concessions.

MRS. JAMISON TALKS IN JAIL

officer to Westchester, only to find that the woman had been taken to the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia, where on June 6th, she was operated upon for appendicitis.

The police authorities of Philadelphia notified Chief Werner that a watch would be kept upon the hospital, and as soon as the woman was well enough to be discharged from the hospital, she would be arrested. This was done on June 30th, and Detective Sergeant Wren left for Philadelphia, but on account of the delay in securing requisition papers from Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, was not able to leave with his prisoner until middle Friday.

When Mrs. Jamison reached Richmond about 11 o'clock Friday night, when the woman was taken to the jail, where she had an interview with her lawyer, Mr. W. M. Jusis, of this city.

Makes a Statement.

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Jamison talked to a Times-Dispatch man. She was in a cell, stretched out on a bed and appeared to be suffering intensely. She was dressed in a blue kimono and on a table in the room were bandages and material for surgical dressing.

The woman, who is but 27 years old, is good-looking and bears the evidence of refinement, but her face and figure show the suffering and pain she has undergone.

"If any one thinks for a moment I am feigning illness, he is mistaken," said Mrs. Jamison. "I have not been out of bed until yesterday since June 8th, and I have not had a single word of food since that time. I have lost weight and I hope he will be able to attend me every day."

"It has been said that I am a trained nurse, but this is not true, although I studied nursing for a little while. I went to the University of Pennsylvania, at Chester, Pennsylvania. I have never been there in my life, and I did not telephone to Richmond."

Not Talking About Herself.

Mrs. Jamison refused to discuss the charges against her, saying that her attorney had instructed her to do so. She would not discuss the charges against her, saying that her attorney had instructed her to do so.

HABEAS CORPUS.

Another youngster broke into the navy by misrepresenting his age, and now his mother wants to get him out.

On petition of Lillian A. Runde and her husband, to succeed the late C. Howard Johnson, Captain Suddler was appointed to the duties of his new position August 1st. Captain S. J. Duke and Captain A. Morgan were re-elected commissioners.

High-Class Vaudeville Bill Will Again Be on Boards All This Week.

Another high-class bill will be offered the patrons of the Casino this week, headed by Charmion, advertised all over the country as the "most perfect woman."

She is a beautiful trapeze performer and student of physical culture. She is charming to a degree.

Her act is of the sensational kind. She ascends the wires to the trapeze at the top of the stage, dressed in a gown of faultless fashion, and then after a few exercises in physical culture disrobes and appears in the usual vaudeville lion tress costume.

Others on the bill are Sid Baxter, aerial cyclist, Duncan, the former vaudeville artist, who has been a New York favorite for a number of years; Eddie Girard and Jessie Gardner, in a comedy sketch, entitled "The Girl Behind the Drum"; and "The Girl Behind the Drum" as an added attraction. The program will introduce some new pictures.

O'Brien-Wingfield.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., July 7.—Mr. Edwin K. O'Brien, formerly of Alexandria, Va., but now of Williamsport, Pa., is in charge of the engineering department of the University of Virginia, and Miss Ruby Evelyn Wingfield, daughter of Dr. Henry Wingfield, of this city, were married at 11 o'clock this morning at Christ Episcopal Church, the pastor, Rev. Harry B. Lee, officiating. Mr. John D. Constable, of Williamsport, was best man, and Miss Ann Wheeler, of this city, maid of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway for Portland, Me., where they will reside for the present.

Bishop Tucker House-Hunting.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 7.—Rev. Bishop Tucker, D. D., who was recently elected bishop conductor of the Diocese of Southwest Virginia, has decided to make his headquarters in Norfolk and here yesterday securing a house.

Elect a Treasurer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WHEATVILLE, VA., July 7.—The Town Council at its meeting last evening elected W. H. St. John, of this city, treasurer for the term occasioned by the death of T. C. Miller Powell.

DR. THOS. WALKER PAGE IS ELECTED

To the Chair at University With Which Name of John Sharp Williams Was Connected.

NOAH DAVIS MADE-EMERITUS

Dr. Lefevre Succeeds Professor Davis and Dr. Payne Succeeds Lefevre.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., July 7.—At an adjourned meeting to-day of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia, there were present Armistead C. Gordon, of Staunton, rector; J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria; Eppa Hunt, Jr., of Richmond; Congressman H. D. Flood, of Appomattox, and Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville.

Dr. Thomas Walker Page, of the University of California, was elected to the chair of political economy, under the new arrangement, which separates it from the school of history. This is the professorship with which the name of Congressman John Sharp Williams has recently been connected by newspaper report.

A Virginian.

Dr. Page is a native of Virginia, thirty-six years of age. He was educated at Randolph-Macon College, University of Virginia, Oxford, at Paris and Leipzig, receiving his doctorate summa laude at the last named institution.

He has taught at many American universities, including the Universities of Chicago, Texas and California. In the Chicago, Texas and California, he is professor of the school of philosophy, ethics and logic, and Dr. Bruce R. Payne succeeds Dr. Lefevre as professor of psychology.

Professor Emeritus.

The resignation of Professor Noah K. Davis, recently appointed a beneficiary of the Carnegie foundation, was laid before the board, and that scholar was made professor emeritus. Dr. Albert Lefevre, who last year taught the subject of psychology, succeeds him.

NEW HARBOR MASTER.

At a special meeting of the Board of Harbor Commissioners for Norfolk and Portsmouth, Captain A. Suddler, now in the service of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, was elected harbor master, to succeed the late C. Howard Johnson. Captain Suddler will assume the duties of his new position August 1st. Captain S. J. Duke and Captain A. Morgan were re-elected commissioners.

There were a dozen other applicants for the position to which Captain Suddler was elected.

SOUDER FOR CONGRESS IN THE FIFTH DISTRICT

Washington Republican Influence Wants Young Man from Floyd to Oppose Saunders.

The session of the United States District Court held in Alexandria last week was short and sweet, the court adjourning Friday in time to admit of the Richmond contingent reaching home that night or early yesterday morning.

The Richmond contingent spent the evenings while away at Hotel Raleigh, in Washington, a place where many of the political leaders of the district are gathered, and it is whispered that the contingent about the person of Floyd, is strongly in favor of his nomination for Congress in the Fifth Congressional District to oppose E. W. Saunders, the Democratic nominee.

Mr. Bowdler is comparatively a young man, and he is a very bright one. He was the candidate of the Republicans last year for the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth on the ticket that was headed by Judge Lewis. When he was introduced to the Roanoke convention last year, the nomination was not explained in any sense to his good looks, for he was probably the homeliest man in the convention. When the laugh which this remark on the part of the man who is determined to make a speech, Mr. Bowdler proceeded to make a speech, and within two minutes everybody had forgotten how homely he really was.

He is an orator of the florid mountain kind—a natural orator, a college graduate and a great student. Mr. Bowdler is probably the ablest man in the Republican party in the Fifth District of Virginia, and perhaps for this very reason he will fall short of the nomination.

Blind Mule's Antics.

There were some frightened negroes, eight of them, who were working in the sewer excavation at Main and Madison Street yesterday morning, when a blind mule, being driven by a man, came to back the cart to which it was attached and to the big hole.

A number of workmen nearby saw the blind mule, took the mule and cart in hand, and by main strength removed both from the dangerous position. No one was hurt.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Mr. William Archer Dies in Memorial Hospital After Short Illness.

WILL OBEY DR. RUCKER

Mr. Ely Thinks He is Under Direction of President of Board of Health.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Mr. William Archer, of 330 Stockton Street, who was seriously injured by a fall from a horse, died yesterday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in Memorial Hospital, with his wife at his bedside.

Miss Archer was brought up in court a short time ago to answer to the charge of maltreating and beating her father, and was put under bond to keep the peace.

There was a general complaint about the manner in which Miss Archer treated her father, and the old gentleman was sent to Memorial Hospital. He was in a very feeble condition when he arrived, and he was practically no longer alive when he died.
