

TWO BROTHERS SERIOUSLY SHOT

Stone Thrown Through Church Window Provoked Trouble Which Ended Seriously.

CONDITION OF BOTH SERIOUS

Youth Who Did Shooting Has So Far Successfully Evaded Capture.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAZEWELL, VA., July 15.—Messrs. reports of a fatal shooting at Maxwell, six miles west of here, have just been received here. Charley and Arthur Graybeal, brothers, were seriously shot by Walter McNeill, an eighteen-year-old boy, of the place. Charley Graybeal was shot in the upper part of the chest, the bullet ranging downward, and is paralysed in his right side, due to the pressure of the bullet on some part of the spinal cord. He is at his home in Maxwell, and is in a very precarious condition, grave doubts being entertained of his recovery. His brother, Arthur, was shot in the left lower abdomen, and was taken to a sanitarium in Bluefield, where he was operated upon to-night. The outcome of his wounds cannot be determined at this writing.

The trouble arose from McNeill throwing a brick in a window during services at a Holiness meeting at Maxwell last night, and hitting Graybeal on the head. Graybeal is said to have made some remarks at the time of the throwing of the rock, and was met by McNeill this morning while services were going on. McNeill resented the remarks, drew his pistol and opened fire on Arthur Graybeal, shooting him as above stated. His brother, Charley Graybeal, attempted to prevent him from further shooting his brother, and was himself shot in the upper part of his chest.

All the participants were neighbor boys and bore good reputations.

McNeill is said to have escaped.

SURPRISE TO HIS FRIENDS

Queensberry Said to Have Borne Good Reputation at Green Bay.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREEN BAY, VA., July 15.—The account of the arrest of Mr. J. Bruce Queensberry, of Forest Dept., comes as a great surprise to the citizens of this community. He was born and bred within two miles of this place, and always has borne the reputation of a high-toned Virginia gentleman. It is hoped by his friends that he will have no trouble in proving promptly that he is not guilty. Mr. Queensberry, until a few months ago, was agent and operator at Forest Dept. On account of ill health he resigned. He is at present engaged in the mercantile business. A friend of his who received a letter from him on July 7th, spoke of what a trial he had gone through on account of his wife's death. He wrote, in part, as follows, referring to her death: "It is such a trial to go through my experience, and among those of my household I never saw a more devoted boy who loved his mother better than any child I ever saw, which was so warmly reciprocated by the mother."

AT FISHER'S HILL.

Extensive Preparations for the Annual Reunion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WOODSTOCK, VA., July 15.—The annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans of Shenandoah Valley will be held at Fisher's Hill, on Saturday, August 4th, and will be the largest ever attended and probably the most successful. Senator John W. Daniel, of Lynchburg, will be the orator of the day.

As a special attraction, Stover Camp, Confederate Veterans of this county is held, where the services of the Naval Band of Washington, D. C.

As many as ten thousand persons have gathered on these historic grounds, attending these reunions, and it is expected that the crowd this year will equal if not surpass the number.

The real estate belonging to the late N. B. Schmitt, situated in Woodstock, including a number of shares of stock in the Shenandoah National Bank of Woodstock, the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Luray, were sold here at public auction this week, and brought over $4,000. The stock of the Shenandoah National Bank brought $100.00 per share, par value $100.

The farmers in the vicinity of Woodstock have commenced to thresh wheat, which is turning out very well, as much as 10 and 20 bushels per acre having been threshed.

All Signals Ignored.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., July 15.—A report received by the United States Weather Observatory at Cape Henry as being a Mexican cruiser, passed in the Capes at 5:10 this afternoon and apparently headed for Baltimore or Annapolis. The vessel did not give her name, and signals to her were not answered. The arrival of the vessel at the Capes was altogether unexpected, and nothing of her mission is known here.

EDITORS GOING TO BOSTON TOWN

Spent Quiet Sunday at Chase City, Several Going to Church.

THE BENEFIT OF THE BATHS

Mrs. Duke's Music Contributed Greatly to the Enjoyment of the Occasion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHASE CITY, VA., July 15.—Most of the editors who are not going on the Boston trip left last evening or early this morning. The rest remained at the Mecklenburg and enjoyed a restful Sunday. Several attended church services, which indicates that some editors are pious. The party will leave for Norfolk to-morrow morning as guests of the Southern Railway Company. Messrs. Westbury, of Richmond, and Curtis, of Norfolk, are here to see that the company's guests are well cared for. Mr. W. S. Copeland, the newly-elected president, and his wife, will accompany the party to Boston, as will also President L. A. Siler, of the North Carolina Association. Mrs. W. D. Duke, of Richmond, has contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the guests with her singing. Her voice has been much complimented, and especially her method. Mrs. Duke expects to go to New York next winter to prosecute her studies in music. The chief delight of this resort is the system of baths under the direction of Mr. Davis, son of Mr. Geo. B. Davis, of Richmond. Colonel Hughes says that the baths are especially beneficial to newspapermen, because they are guaranteed to stimulate the nerves and increase the circulation.

BITTEN BY MAD DOG.

Boy Tries to Separate Fighting Canines and is Wounded.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SOUTH BOSTON, VA., July 15.—Master Thornton Easley, aged fifteen years, son of the late Thornton S. Easley, was bitten by a supposed mad dog at the home of his uncle, Hon. W. I. Jordan, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Young Easley was standing on the yard and engaged in a fight with the home dog. Easley was bitten rather badly on the left leg while trying to separate them. The dog was pursued and killed, and his head sent to Richmond to the Pasteur Institute this afternoon to be examined. This institution reports the dog mad, and the patient will be taken at once to Richmond for treatment. The wound was cauterized, and the little fellow is resting quietly to-night. It is not thought that the accident will prove serious.

Charles City Affairs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TETTINGTON, VA., July 15.—Farmers are busy finishing up the last workings to corn, threshing wheat and haying, and prospects are good for crops above the average. Mr. R. K. Mooers has sold his farm, "Fairview," to Mr. Schulz, of Wisconsin, who has moved in. The Wulworth-Neville Manufacturing Company has bought large timber interests in Charles City county and are now erecting a woodworking plant at Truss Point, James River. They are doing a "crosscut" business for telegraph and telephone lines. Mr. Edmund Ruffin, formerly of Hanover county, and lately of Williamsburg, has succeeded Mr. W. L. Williamson in the management of "Sandy Pools" for the estate of the late George W. Ruffin. Mr. Ruffin has more than a local reputation as a good farmer, and we are glad to welcome Mr. Ruffin and his family into our midst. The children of Messrs. B. H. Harrison and Henry Waring have been suffering from severe Hay fever, due to the whooping cough, but are now better.

VERGINIANS ARE HOSTS IN NORTH

Pharmaceutical Association Entertains Rhode Island Society at Narragansett Pier.

NEW ENGLANDERS PLEASED

Providence Paper Praises Southerners, and Devotes Much Space to the Occasion.

The Providence (R. I.) Morning Tribune of July 14 gives the following interesting account of the entertainment given by the Virginia Pharmaceutical Association to the Rhode Island society, at the Hotel Gladstone, Narragansett Pier, on the previous evening:

Southern hospitality, which has attained a wide fame throughout the country, was exemplified at Narragansett Pier yesterday, when the Virginia Pharmaceutical Association entertained in a memorable manner their Rhode Island brethren at the Hotel Gladstone. There were over 140 people present, including the local and Virginia Associations, and from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 11 in the evening enjoyment and conviviality reigned supreme. The Rhode Island Association were the guests of the Virginians, who came to the Pier yesterday for their annual summer outing, and yesterday's event was a return of courtesy between the two societies, inasmuch as last year the Rhode Islanders entertained the druggists from the Old Dominion at the Pomham Club. Not to be outdone in hospitality and friendship, the association from the Southern State, extended an invitation to the local organization some time ago, which was promptly accepted, with the result that yesterday occurred an event that will linger long in the minds of all who were present.

Arrived Yesterday.

The members of the Virginia Association arrived in Providence at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. They came by boat, leaving Norfolk, Va., Monday evening, and holding part of their twenty-fifth annual meeting on shipboard Tuesday. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning they went to the Pier by way of the electric, and upon arriving there spent the morning in a leisurely and agreeable manner about the Hotel Gladstone and along the water front.

The Rhode Islanders, who had looked forward to the event for some time gathered at the Union Station, and left there after 1 o'clock in the afternoon on a special car. The weather conditions were ideal, and about 10 o'clock they were at first expected, a party of over eighty turned out to attend the outing. On the way down to the Pier badges were distributed. These consisted of copper medallions bearing the coat of arms of Virginia, which were suspended from red badges which bore an appropriate inscription. Cigars were passed around to the men in the party, and the pleasure was heightened to a greater degree by banjo selections furnished by Arthur C. Moore and William M. King, who played almost continuously on the trip down.

Met by Virginians.

When the party reached the Pier at about 4 o'clock they immediately went to the Hotel Gladstone, where the Southern men met with open arms by the Virginian delegation.

Each of the Rhode Island party received another badge, bearing the inscription "R. I. A. 1906," and from which was suspended a medallion which bore a picture of a mortar and pestle. After greetings had been interchanged and friendships which had begun last year renewed, the Rhode Island Association held a meeting at the Hotel Gladstone. President John E. Groff called the meeting to order, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary H. Daggett. It was then voted that the amendment in reference to placing the treasurer of the association at the head of the committee of the State, to solicit subscriptions toward the William Proctor Memorial. The following were admitted: George B. Miller, of Massachusetts, and W. A. Helmer, of the name of Robert T. Thompson was held over until the next meeting.

Prizes Awarded.

It was voted that the volume of "Pharmacopoeia" of the National Association of Retail Druggists for the best paper on pharmacy, be awarded Joseph C. Fraint, of the name of George B. Miller, of Massachusetts, and W. A. Helmer, of the name of Robert T. Thompson was held over until the next meeting.

A Social Success.

The meeting was then adjourned, and once more the two societies joined in making the event a social success as possible. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in strolling about the grounds, and the entertainment of Mrs. T. A. Miller, Mrs. J. A. Hodges, Mrs. H. T. Shippie, T. A. Miller, H. S. Harrington, E. L. Brander, Gordon Blair, Fleet, H. W. Jones and W. G. Williams. The committee that had charge of the local and the entertainment consisted of Messrs. Charles Bowmer, B. H. Fairbanks and officers ex-officio.

Banquet in Evening.

In the evening about 7:30 o'clock the banquet took place. The supper was an excellent one, and after its consumption a period of informal speech-making and toasts occurred. This part of the program, which was the most interesting, after a few witty and clever remarks, the toastmaster introduced the president of the Virginia Association, Dr. J. E. Miller. His address consisted of words of welcome, and he extended a hearty greeting to the party. He also added the next year the Rhode Islanders to his list of either Richmond or Norfolk, whichever they chose, and visit the Jamestown Exposition. The response to his address was made by the president of the local society, J. E. Groff. The "Women" was the toast to which E. C. Hamner responded, and his words were enthusiastically applauded. "Clans" afforded James O'Hara an ample opportunity for oratory, and he was greeted with much applause. The presentation to Virginians. Then occurred one of the most enjoyable features of the entire day. After words of welcome had been made by the Rhode Islanders, the presentation to Virginians. ALLEGED LYNCHERS STAND INDICTED

Twenty Representative Citizens to Stand Trial for Hanging Negro Murderer.

ONLY LAW OF KIND IN STATES

North Carolina Would Punish a Man Even for Attempt to Lynch.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 15.—The first trial in the history of this State for the crime of lynching will begin in the Superior Court of Union county, at Monroe, to-morrow morning, when twenty citizens and the adjoining community will be tried for the alleged lynching of J. V. Johnson, at Wadesboro, on the night of May 28th. Judge Shaw will preside, and Solicitor Robinson will be assisted by John T. Bennett, of Wadesboro, and R. B. Redwine, of Monroe. One of the most prominent arrays of legal talent ever gathered together in one case in this State will appear for the defendants, embracing fourteen able lawyers. The statute under which these men are indicted is probably the one law of its kind enacted in the States, providing for a maximum punishment of fifteen years and a minimum punishment of two years at hard labor or a fine of one thousand to five thousand dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.

All of the defendants are prominent in their county, and great interest is manifested in the trial.

The twenty defendants on the night of May 28th, it is alleged, took J. V. Johnson, a white man, from the jail at Wadesboro and hanged him to a tree. Johnson killed a relative, Guinn Johnson, last December, and, though promptly brought out of the jury box, was discharged, and it was while waiting for a special term of court, ordered by the Governor to try the case, that the mob got in its work. Governor Glenn has been active in his efforts to bring the alleged lynchers to justice, and, in the event of the finding of guilt, the subsequent punishment of those men, the case is expected to have a salutary effect.
