

THE TIMES FOUNDED 1886. THE DISPATCH FOUNDED 1868.

WHOLE NUMBER 17,319.

RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1906.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Send Your Mail Orders Here. Samples Cheerfully Mailed Free.

See the Line of Buster Brown and Athletic Sweaters $1 to $2.48

Correct New Fall Suits

Stylish Tailored Suits

Excellent values in Novelty Grays and Blue and Black Cheviot Suits, in the new pony coat and fitted models...

signs, full plaited skirts, cuffs and collar piped in pastel shades of cloth; these are very attractive models at $25.00.

Handsome Fall Skirts

Gray Skirts, in fancy mixtures, nine gore, with plaited panels; special, $3.98.

Tailored Waists for Autumn

Blue and Black Taffeta Waist, pin-tucked and box-plaited yoke, tucked back, full sleeve, open back or front; special, $3.98.

Hosiery Specials

School Hose for boys and girls has received our most careful attention, and we have bought only the very best in this line...

Children's Black Ribbed School Hose, in light and heavy weights, 12 1/2-2c and 15c pair.

The Linen Department

This department has taken much care to supply itself with all the requisites for the household, and also for the supply of the boys and girls away at school.

Sheets from 45c to $1.00 each. (These include all widths.) Pillow Cases, 10c to 25c each.

Black Dress Goods

Alluring Price Offerings

50-inch All-Wool Cheviot Panama, $1.00 yard.

Fall Showing of Colored Dress Goods

Scotch Plaids, all the new wool weaves, in rich color combinations $1.00 yard.

Domestic Department (Main Floor)

We show as pretty a line of Plaid and Stripe Gingham, for ladies' and children's dresses, as you could wish to see for 12 1/2c.

Basement Brimful of Bargains

We are closing out a splendid line of 10c Gingham for 7c per yard.

Table listing various goods and their prices, including Black Poplin, Bleached Linen, Nottingham Lace, and various blankets.

GUESTS LINGER AT THE BRANDON

Sight-Seeing Parties Visit, the Near-by Places of Interest.

THE TUESDAY GERMAN

New Arrivals From Richmond Strengthen the Colony.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) THE BRANDON, HARRIS, VA., September 15.—The crowd has been shifting in late, delightful good-byes are spoken in the morning, as duty calls the pleasure-seekers to their homes...

RICHMOND PEOPLE AT THE HOT SPRINGS

They All Enjoy Outdoor Life in the Mountain Air.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HOT SPRINGS, VA., September 15.—There is a large coterie of Richmond people here, all of whom appear to be enjoying outdoor life in the way they like best.

LUNENBURG PEOPLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MCPHARLAND, VA., September 15.—Miss Mary Moore, of Lunenburg, Va., left last Tuesday for the Virginia Christian College, Lynchburg, Va., where she will attend school this term.

BIG GRAVEL BED.

A Valuable Find of Material Near Waynesboro.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WAYNESBORO, VA., September 15.—It is reported that immense bed of gravel, suitable for surfacing up railroad bed, has been discovered on the farm of Mr. Richard Murphy, one mile south of here, on the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

GLADE SPRING, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GLADE SPRING, VA., September 15.—Mr. B. T. Asbury returned Monday night from a trip to Oklahoma, where he visited friends for several days.

A DELIGHTFUL TACKY PARTY AT ELKTON

Unique Costuming and Rustic Ideas Simulated in Every Particular.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HOTEL ELKTON, ELKTON, SHENANDOAH VALLEY, VA., September 15.—The tacky party given by the guests of this hotel Saturday night was, perhaps the occasion of more merriment than any other social event occurring here this season.

HIGHLAND SCHOOLS.

A Corps of Engineers in Camp at Monterey.

THE BLUE RIDGE IN SEPTEMBER

Some Return to Enjoy the Autumn Delights in the Mountains.

AN ELEGANT BIRTHDAY PARTY

John Goode Toasts the Heir of the House of Carson—President to Pianist.

(Special to Southern Bell Telephone.) BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, VA., September 15.—The season here has developed an immense amount of vitality, and the week opened with one of the most beautiful entertainments ever given here.

THE BLUE RIDGE IN SEPTEMBER

Some Return to Enjoy the Autumn Delights in the Mountains.

AN ELEGANT BIRTHDAY PARTY

John Goode Toasts the Heir of the House of Carson—President to Pianist.

(Special to Southern Bell Telephone.) BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, VA., September 15.—The season here has developed an immense amount of vitality, and the week opened with one of the most beautiful entertainments ever given here.