

NEWS GATHERED FROM THE SOUTH SIDE

Assemblyman D. L. Toney Will Resign From Council Within Short Time.

COLLEAGUES OPPOSE HIM

Says His Measures All Fail of Support—Services in Churches To-Day—Personals.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

"I shall resign from the Assembly within a short time," said Mr. D. L. Toney, of the Second Ward, yesterday. "My presence in the lower branch of the city's legislative body may work as a detriment to the best interest of the city, since the Councilmen are antagonistic to me by reason of my fight against the free street car tickets. I have noticed that measures that I have advocated have been defeated, and the ordinance that I have opposed are the ones that are carried through. However, I believe that I have done what is right, and I will carry this fight against the free tickets to the end."

"But what further can you do, now that the City Attorney has given his opinion that the law and police commissioners can ride on complimentary tickets?" The Times-Dispatch man inquired.

"At this time I do not wish to be quoted, but before the 1st of January, not a member of the Council will be using a complimentary ticket," answered Mr. Toney.

It may be inferred that the matter will be taken to the courts and there tested. As to whether a Councilman who is a fire or police commissioner has a right to exempt complimentary transportation on the street railway lines will be finally settled by a judge of a court.

Mr. Toney was first elected to the Council to fill an unexpired term. He ran later on a ticket for the unexpired term, but received enough votes to make him a regularly elected representative from his ward.

For Eating Cocaine.

Gertrude Lewis, a negro woman, was picked up at Twelfth and Hill Streets yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Ed Wymack and looked up at the station house on the charge of eating cocaine.

The woman said that she lived in Richmond and that a negro man named Sam Hill, who was a bartender, had given her the dope. She thought she was going to her home in Richmond when she located the Manchester one at Twelfth Street, she started and a few minutes afterwards these men came. The woman will be given a hearing Monday morning.

In the meanwhile the police of Richmond will look for the negro man who is alleged to be responsible for the woman's condition yesterday.

In the Churches.

The Rev. Father J. H. Harding, of the Placid Order, who has been preaching choirs for the past week, preaching every night in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, will remain here this week, and his themes for the evenings will be as follows:

Monday, 8 P. M.—"The Catholic Church and the Bible."
Tuesday, 8 P. M.—"The Church: Has It Lost Its Authority?"
Wednesday, 8 P. M.—"The Pope's Infallibility."
Thursday, 8 P. M.—"Why Confess One's Sins to a Priest?"
Friday, 8 P. M.—"The Lord's Supper."
Saturday, 8 P. M.—"Should Religion Be External or Internal?" 8 P. M.—"Why I Am a Catholic."

Questions about the teaching laws, claims, history and practices of the Catholic church may be put in a box at the main entrance. They will be answered the night after they are received. Inquiry is invited. There will be no attacks on other religions.

"Old Time Religion" will be the subject of the sermon to be preached in Rockwell Street Baptist Church this morning by the Rev. Dr. Griffin, and at night in Childs will preach from the subject "The Service of God a Personal Service." Revival services will be conducted in this church next week.

The Rev. P. B. McGeenan, of Fifth Street Methodist Church, will preach from the subject "Quenching the Spirit" this morning, and to-night his theme will be "Sin."

"Sympathy for the Fellow That's Down" will be the sermon of the Rev. J. T. Routen, of West End Methodist Church, this morning. The sermon is by request.

In Central Methodist Church, this morning the pastor, Rev. K. J. Joffe, will preach. At night the pulpit will be filled by the Rev. L. B. Betty, of Park Place Methodist Church, Richmond.

Funeral of Mr. Jenks.

Central Methodist Church was crowded yesterday afternoon with sorrowing friends who came to pay their last tribute to the memory of Mr. Henry Jenks, the popular young man, who died Friday morning. The Rev. J. K. Joffe, pastor of the church, conducted the funeral services, which were simple and impressive.

Funeral services were all intimate friends of the deceased and were conducted from the local lodge of Elks and the Heptastoph, of which order he was a prominent member. Interment was made in Meigs Cemetery.

Approaching Marriage.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Mr. Thomas Burns Morton and Miss Lucy Quisenberry Tuesday evening, October 23rd, at 7 o'clock in West End Methodist Church, Swansboro. The Rev. Arthur Davidson and Rev. J. T. Routen will officiate.

The prospective groom is the son of Mr. Matthew Morton, assistant superintendent of the Manchester Water Department, and is a very popular young man of the city. He is employed by the Southern Railroad.

Miss Quisenberry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Quisenberry, of Swansboro, and is an attractive and accomplished young lady.

Personals and Briefs.

The condition of "Sergeant" Walsh, of Eighth and Bainbridge Streets, who has been ill for several days, was unchanged.

Hair on Face, Neck and Arms

Removed by the New Principle DeMiracle

The Cohan Company.

Jewel Shaft's

Undaunted by Muddy Roads

The Addresses Were Made in a Large Tent Erected at Groveton.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.)

MANASSAS, VA., October 20.—Despite the bad roads and driving rain, between two and three hundred people assembled on the Bull Run battlefield to-day and participated in the dedication of the New York regimental monuments erected by the State of New York to commemorate the valorous services and heroism of the Fifth, Tenth, and Fourteenth New York Regiments.

A special train from New York, bearing one hundred veterans, some accompanied by members of their families, arrived at Manassas at 10 o'clock this morning over the Southern Railway.

A brief stop was made here for the purpose of taking on the members of the New York party who came Friday evening. The train then proceeded to Washington, from which place the party drove to the battlefield by way of the historic Paganell Lane. The clouds had lightened up somewhat when the special left Manassas, but before Washington had been reached the rain was again driving straight from the north and continued so until late in the afternoon. For this reason the exercises at the monuments were very brief, and the ceremonies mainly in the unveiling of the shafts and very short addresses of dedication and acceptance.

The monument to the Brooklyn Fourteenth was erected just a short distance to the east of Groveton, where a large tent had been erected in which the addresses were made. The visiting veterans were welcomed by Colonel Edmund Berkeley, a hospitable and pleasing Virginia gentleman of the old school.

The Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, rector of the Jones Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., delivered the address of the day.

Dr. Hill, who is an eloquent and forceful speaker, was listened to with the closest attention and his beautiful tribute to the bravery and heroism of the soldiers of both the North and South was greeted with loud applause.

In the party is Colonel James W. Webb, chairman of the monument committee, Colonel Webb, who is a Mason, was seriously wounded in the battle of Second Manassas, and he would probably have died had it not been that he was discovered by a brother Mason in the Confederate Army, who brought a surgeon to Colonel Webb.

Colonel Webb says that he owes his life to the Confederate soldier and Mason. Other members of the monument committee present were Joseph B. Flak, Alfred Atkins, Benjamin Finley, Joseph S. Hamilton, George A. Mitchell, John Trengaski, Andrew Cooper, James McHenry and Edward Whitehead. General Joffe was unable to be present and participate in the exercises, owing to sickness.

The New York party engaged luncheon for three hundred from the Bull Run Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and all who went from Manassas to Groveton were entertained at luncheon by them.

Lieutenant George C. Round of Manassas, acted as marshal, and Colonel Edmund Berkeley as assistant marshal. The New York party will go to Washington to-night and will spend a few days there before returning to New York.

Truth About California.

The prediction is heard in responsible quarters that California has received "a black eye" because of the earthquake; that the commercial progress of the State and its attractions for tourists and prospective homesteaders have been seriously impaired for the same reason, says Leslie's Weekly.

All this is unjust even so far as San Francisco and its immediate vicinity are concerned, and much more so as it affects points as far distant as Los Angeles and other sections of Southern California. A few facts and figures here of area and distance may help to show the true situation and dispel some erroneous notions now prevalent. The whole section affected in any perceptible degree by the earthquake was not over 200 square miles, whereas the State of California has an area of 155,250 square miles. Even at points as near the centre of the disaster as Sacramento, only ninety miles from San Francisco, the tremor was scarcely felt. California has a coast line nearly 1,000 miles long, of which the area embraced by the earthquake did not affect over 100 miles. The fact is to be borne in mind also that San Francisco itself, it was to the fire, and not to the earthquake that the enormous loss of life and property was chiefly due, a distinction with large significance in its bearing upon severe events of the kind in the future.

Some of the earthquake shock itself and disastrous as were its direct results, they were not commensurate in magnitude with visitations of the kind in other parts of the earth in other days. There were no tidal waves, no windings of the earth and other horrors such as have attended earth convulsions elsewhere. Had it not been for the devastation of fire, which may be regarded among the preventable, things, the whole damage wrought would have been comparatively slight. Thus even San Francisco and its neighboring towns may be absorbed from the doom pronounced upon them by some sensational writers and shallow alarmists.

A Knock for the Ladies.

No one who takes note of the lives and easy manners of the girls of the period, misses still in short dresses, or in their first long frocks, but follow well met with all the boys of their acquaintance, can wonder that the lady treat them in turn the same way. But it never occurs to them that gentleness and courtesy should be the first attributes of every man in his dealings with women—Gambeson Sentinel.

Consul William W. Haulder reports from Toronto that the exportation of opium from that island is rapidly increasing, the amount having been over $2,000,000 per annum for some years.

Jewel Shaft's

Undaunted by Muddy Roads

The Addresses Were Made in a Large Tent Erected at Groveton.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.)

MANASSAS, VA., October 20.—Despite the bad roads and driving rain, between two and three hundred people assembled on the Bull Run battlefield to-day and participated in the dedication of the New York regimental monuments erected by the State of New York to commemorate the valorous services and heroism of the Fifth, Tenth, and Fourteenth New York Regiments.

A special train from New York, bearing one hundred veterans, some accompanied by members of their families, arrived at Manassas at 10 o'clock this morning over the Southern Railway.

A brief stop was made here for the purpose of taking on the members of the New York party who came Friday evening. The train then proceeded to Washington, from which place the party drove to the battlefield by way of the historic Paganell Lane. The clouds had lightened up somewhat when the special left Manassas, but before Washington had been reached the rain was again driving straight from the north and continued so until late in the afternoon. For this reason the exercises at the monuments were very brief, and the ceremonies mainly in the unveiling of the shafts and very short addresses of dedication and acceptance.

The monument to the Brooklyn Fourteenth was erected just a short distance to the east of Groveton, where a large tent had been erected in which the addresses were made. The visiting veterans were welcomed by Colonel Edmund Berkeley, a hospitable and pleasing Virginia gentleman of the old school.

The Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, rector of the Jones Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., delivered the address of the day.

Dr. Hill, who is an eloquent and forceful speaker, was listened to with the closest attention and his beautiful tribute to the bravery and heroism of the soldiers of both the North and South was greeted with loud applause.

In the party is Colonel James W. Webb, chairman of the monument committee, Colonel Webb, who is a Mason, was seriously wounded in the battle of Second Manassas, and he would probably have died had it not been that he was discovered by a brother Mason in the Confederate Army, who brought a surgeon to Colonel Webb.

Colonel Webb says that he owes his life to the Confederate soldier and Mason. Other members of the monument committee present were Joseph B. Flak, Alfred Atkins, Benjamin Finley, Joseph S. Hamilton, George A. Mitchell, John Trengaski, Andrew Cooper, James McHenry and Edward Whitehead. General Joffe was unable to be present and participate in the exercises, owing to sickness.

The New York party engaged luncheon for three hundred from the Bull Run Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and all who went from Manassas to Groveton were entertained at luncheon by them.

Lieutenant George C. Round of Manassas, acted as marshal, and Colonel Edmund Berkeley as assistant marshal. The New York party will go to Washington to-night and will spend a few days there before returning to New York.

Truth About California.

The prediction is heard in responsible quarters that California has received "a black eye" because of the earthquake; that the commercial progress of the State and its attractions for tourists and prospective homesteaders have been seriously impaired for the same reason, says Leslie's Weekly.

All this is unjust even so far as San Francisco and its immediate vicinity are concerned, and much more so as it affects points as far distant as Los Angeles and other sections of Southern California. A few facts and figures here of area and distance may help to show the true situation and dispel some erroneous notions now prevalent. The whole section affected in any perceptible degree by the earthquake was not over 200 square miles, whereas the State of California has an area of 155,250 square miles. Even at points as near the centre of the disaster as Sacramento, only ninety miles from San Francisco, the tremor was scarcely felt. California has a coast line nearly 1,000 miles long, of which the area embraced by the earthquake did not affect over 100 miles. The fact is to be borne in mind also that San Francisco itself, it was to the fire, and not to the earthquake that the enormous loss of life and property was chiefly due, a distinction with large significance in its bearing upon severe events of the kind in the future.

Some of the earthquake shock itself and disastrous as were its direct results, they were not commensurate in magnitude with visitations of the kind in other parts of the earth in other days. There were no tidal waves, no windings of the earth and other horrors such as have attended earth convulsions elsewhere. Had it not been for the devastation of fire, which may be regarded among the preventable, things, the whole damage wrought would have been comparatively slight. Thus even San Francisco and its neighboring towns may be absorbed from the doom pronounced upon them by some sensational writers and shallow alarmists.

A Knock for the Ladies.

No one who takes note of the lives and easy manners of the girls of the period, misses still in short dresses, or in their first long frocks, but follow well met with all the boys of their acquaintance, can wonder that the lady treat them in turn the same way. But it never occurs to them that gentleness and courtesy should be the first attributes of every man in his dealings with women—Gambeson Sentinel.

Consul William W. Haulder reports from Toronto that the exportation of opium from that island is rapidly increasing, the amount having been over $2,000,000 per annum for some years.

Fourqorean, Temple & Co. A Store That's Forging Ahead in Public Esteem.

We recognize with grateful appreciation the confidence of the public in this store and its advertisements, as evidenced by the constantly increasing response to its announcements, and the continued growth of its sales. We are cognizant of the fact that the people want polite attention, quick and efficient service, worthy modern merchandise at reasonable prices. These results we've been constantly striving to obtain, consequently the business has grown in public esteem and patronage. Those who have not visited this store recently will be delighted at the improvements. Our enlarged store furnishes abundant light, especially for the growing DRESS GOODS and READY-TO-WEAR departments. We never were better prepared to receive you, to supply your needs or make your shopping a pleasure.

Some of the Store News for Now:

- Dress Goods. When your grandmother's childhood dresses were bought the first thing asked was, "Is it serviceable?"... Rich old Velvet has never lost its charm, and the revival of a strong demand for this superb fabric is only a natural coincidence... Black Velveteens, 24 inches wide, at 75c, $1.00 and $1.25 the yard... Imported Black Silk Velvets, at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 the yard... Nonpareil Velveteens, 24 inches wide, with fine, soft pile face, in all the leading colors, at $1.00 the yard... Corduroy Ribbed Velveteens, 24 inches wide, in staple colors, at $1.00 the yard... Rich Imported Silk Velvets, in a wide range of staple, pastel and evening shades, at $1.50 the yard... Lustrous Chiffon Velvets, in leading colors, at $1.25 and $2.00 the yard... Panna Velvets, in all the most desirable colors, at $1.50 the yard... Beautiful New Plaid Velvets, in exquisite color work, at $2.25 the yard... Leading colors in Corduroy Velveteens, Worrell dyed, 25 inches wide, for suits and children's cloaks, at $1.00 the yard.

Suits

Every one of these stylish garments are the best and most attractive type of Women's Tailor-Made Suits for Autumn wear. Our assortment is so large and variety so comprehensive that it is more than likely we have just the garment to suit your taste and purse. The newest fabrics in black, colors, shadow plaids, mannish checks and mixed effects, in price range from $15.00 to $40.00. New and Stylish Coat Suits, made in the correct model, of black or navy all-wool Cheviot, nicely trimmed and tailored; silk-lined coat, full skirt. Special at $15.00. Long Coat Suit of very stylish effect, in fancy gray mixed Suiting, with velvet collar and silk-lined coat. A splendid suit. Special at $22.00. A specially Handsome Suit in black is a very fine imported Broadcloth, beautifully tailored and trimmed; an exquisite new model, that would not be unduly high if marked $50.00. Special at $35.00. New styles in Skirts of Black Chiffon Panama Cloths, at $10.00 to $18.00 each. New line Black Panama Skirts, $5.00 to $8.00 each. New Black Voile Skirts at $10.00 to $18.00 each. New Tourist Coats at $10.00 to $25.00 each. New Fall Jackets at $10.00 to $20.00 each. New Rain Coats, $15.00 to $35.00 each. Misses' Coats and Suits, in a variety of styles and prices. Cravenette Coats, in black, colors and mixtures, garments that are right in texture, workmanship and style. Priced from $12.00 to $25.00. Tourist Coats, for the stylish young women who want the new and nobby things in fancy plaid and checked cloths and latest models. Priced from $8.50 to $25.00. Silk Auto Coats, the swiftest of new wraps, in the proper colorings and latest designs, await you here. Priced from $15.00 to $40.00.

50c Dress Goods

There has just been opened in our Dress Goods Department about 1,000 yards of pretty new wool dress goods, in neat broken checks, plaids and mixtures, that will surprise you in value at 50c. Just the things for children's school dresses, house wrappers, etc. Full yard wide, all new designs.

Braids

New things in Trimming Braids, Guttaes, Persian Bands and Large and Small Match Buttons, Medallions, etc., for dress decoration.

Braids from 10c to $5.00 the yard. Persian Bands, 19c to $1.50 the yard. Beautiful Match Buttons, in small and large sizes, 25c to $1.75 per dozen.

Men's Underwear

Enlarged space gives room for a full assortment of Men's goods, and makes it reasonably certain you can now find here the very items you want. Men's Fine Lined Shirts and Drawers at 50c a garment. Men's Medium Weight Natural Wool Shirts and Drawers at $1.00 a garment. Men's Fine Merino Wool Medium Weight Shirts and Drawers at $1.50 a garment. Men's Lined Shirts, in all-white and fancy colored designs, soft and stiff bosoms, at $1.00 and $1.50. Men's Half Hose, in black, at 12 1/2-2c, 25c to 50c pair. Men's Socks, in new, stylish designs, 25c and 50c.

This month's Butterick Patterns are 10c and 15c—none higher. Fourqorean, Temple & Co.

Consul William W. Haulder reports from Toronto that the exportation of opium from that island is rapidly increasing, the amount having been over $2,000,000 per annum for some years.