

"SPORTS OF THE TIMES"-DISPATCH

TWO JOCKEYS HURT OVER THE TIMBER

Major Is in Grave Danger and Johnson Is Seriously Injured.

COLLOQUY'S DEFEAT A SHOCK

Talent Thought the Favorite Was Easy Money—Only One Long Shot Got Home.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 8.—Two steeplechase jockeys, Major and Johnson, are in the hospital here because of accidents, and Major is in grave danger of death. He has not recovered consciousness since being thrown in the race yesterday. Johnson was thrown while schooling over the jumps to-day at City Park, his ankle rolling on and seriously injuring him. The defeat of Colloquy, the favorite, in the fourth race to-day was a surprise to the talent, this horse having been a very consistent winner this season. First race—mile, selling—Orient (10 to 1) first, Begonia (2 to 1) second, Lemon Girl (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:42 5-8. Second race—five and one-half furlongs, selling—Emilly Preston (9 to 2) first, Soprano (5 to 1) second, Flora Price (17 to 1) third. Time, 1:00 3-5. Third race—three and one-half furlongs—Zephon (3 to 5) first, Gresham (3 to 1) second, Bayou Lark (60 to 1) third. Time, 42 3-4. Fourth race—six furlongs—Judge Post (19 to 5) first, Colloquy (even) second, Belle Storme (2 to 1) third. Time, 1:31 1-5. Fifth race—seven furlongs—John L. Jangle (4 to 5) first, Polly Tim (10 to 1) second, Royal Breeze (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:27 4-5. Sixth race—mile, selling—Gold Way (8 to 5) first, Orline (12 to 1) second, Roseboro (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:41 4-5. Seventh race—five and one-half furlongs, selling—Miss Leeds (7 to 2) first, Jangle (10 to 1) second, Posing (7 to 1) third. Time, 1:07 2-5.

LExINGTON HORSE NOTES

Five Two-Year-Olds Burned to Death.

LExINGTON, Ky., March 8.—Five two-year-old thoroughbreds owned by J. E. Cushing, of Mississippi, Minn., were burned to death last night in the Louisville and Nashville Railroad yards at Paris, Ky., while waiting to be shipped to Windsor, Canada, where they were to have been put into training. The lot consisted of the following: B. c. by Streamer, dam Odylie, by Onadams; Streamer, dam Fortitude, by George Kinney; B. c. Blues, dam Hattie Walker, by Bloodless; B. f. by Oakwood, dam May Bee, by Vixen; B. f. by Imp. Gallantry, dam Bonnie Brown, by Bonnie Duke. The youngsters were loaded in a car which was set on fire by Del Tazo, who was riding on the train. The horses kicking over a lantern.

Announcement comes from New York that J. B. Haggin has purchased Imp. Indiscretion from M. A. Thomas, and that the stallion will be sent to Elmdorf Stork Farm next week. Imp. Indiscretion is the only son of Melton in the stud in America, and formerly belonged to the late Mrs. J. B. Haggin, who was in California, but was purchased by Thomas at the disposal sale of that stud two years ago. Congressman H. B. Clayton, of Alabama, who has a fine band of brood mares quartered at Senator J. W. Bailey's stock farm, this city, arrived in Lexington to-day from Washington. He came here to look after his stock. Mrs. E. H. McGee, formerly of this city, and Colonel J. E. Pepper, has leased Meadowthorpe Stock Farm for the year 1907.

BASKETBALL

Redskins Scalped Junior Reserves in Good Fashion.

The Redskins scalped the Junior Reserves in the M. A. Basketball League game last night. This was the third time these teams have met this season. Twice the Junior Reserves have been victorious, but last night their colors were lowered to the dusky Redskins. The final score was 22 to 8. The Junior Reserves had the game in the snap that their opponents showed, and the second half was a walkaway for the victors. The line-up and score was as follows: Redskins, 22—L. Cosby, forward; C. E. Brauer, B. Core, forward; P. Bruce, Bruce, S. Padgett, center; Edward W. Dabney, C. Montgomery, guard. Junior Reserves, 8—B. Lewis, forward; D. Jones, Chicago, W. L. Teneneta, (captain), center; W. Lefew, guard; P. Orchard, guard. Field baskets—Cosby 8, Lewis 3, Core, Bruce, S. Padgett, Lewis; points awarded, Cosby, Lewis.

Schatz, Golf Medal Winner.

PINNEBURG, N. C., March 8.—G. F. Schatz, of the White Wolf Club, Charlotte, was the winner of the gold medal offered for the best score in the 36-hole qualification round of the annual club championship golf tournament today, with a card of 114 into a margin of six strokes. Others who qualified were: David Fleming, Jr., Mount Airy, Philadelphia; C. I. Becker, Woodland Golf Club, Annapolis, Md.; C. F. Fowles, Oakmont Club, Pittsburg; J. D. Fote, Apawamis; D. E. Little, Woolston, Mass.; J. D. Clime, Cleveland; C. B. Fowles, Belmont; W. C. Fowles, Mt. Airy; J. Jones, Chicago; W. C. Fowles, Oakmont; L. D. Pierce, Woodland; Alan Lard, Columbia, Wash.; Fred Perre, Orchard, Garden City; N. F. Moore, Foxonville, Chicago; C. West Talbot, Fox Hills; N. S. Hurd, Oakmont.

Turf Club's New President.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The annual meeting of the Turf and Field Club was held yesterday, and Perry Belmont was re-elected president, Brayton Ives was named as vice-president, and T. C. Lamontagne, secretary.

GREATEST OUTFIELDER IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

WILLIE KEELER, OF THE NEW YORK AMERICANS.

ATHLETES AWAIT STARTER'S PISTOL

Virginians Will Go Up Against Athletes From Georgetown University To-night.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—Very little work is being done to-day by the athletes who are entered in the Georgetown meet to-morrow night. The hard grind of priming up has been finished, and the men are now waiting the starter's call for action. The final time trials were held in most of the schools yesterday, this being the case at Georgetown, where the athletes who are to represent the Blue and Gray institution were selected by the coaches and captains of the various teams. The Georgetown men have been working long overtime the past week so as to be in the best condition both for the open events and crucial relay race with the Virginians. From the present outlook, Georgetown has a mighty fine chance to capture the two handsome cups that have been offered by Hickman & White and Spalding. The relay team took its final workout yesterday afternoon under the direction of Joe Reilly and Charley Seitz, two of the greatest runners that ever wore the colors of Georgetown. All the men seem to be in the best of condition with the possible exception of Jimmy Sullivan, the little captain of the 1906 team and a member of the track team at Georgetown for the past four years. In case Sullivan is unable to run to-morrow night, the make-up of the team will be as follows: Captain Montgomery, Cohen, Devine and O'Boyle. Word has come from Charlottesville that the Southerners are all in the finest kind of condition, and are imbued with the spirit of "do or die" that has enabled so many Virginia teams to carry off premier honors in athletic contests in years gone by. Relector, Reid and Marbury, of the relay team, are all veterans, and as they are noted for their speed, they can be depended upon to give a very good account of themselves in to-morrow's games. Rector is also entered in the fifty-yard invitation race against Seitz, and is looked upon by some as the dark horse in the race. Jeffries, in the 400 open handicap, and Randolph, in the high jump, are men who have records behind them, and will without a doubt perform in a noteworthy fashion in their respective events. A number of Virginia students have completed arrangements for the trip to Washington, and will be on hand to cheer their favorites along.

MIDDIES ON THE WATER.

Annapolis Crews Practice on the Severn River.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., March 8.—Owing to the fact that the rowing season opens in less than a month, in a race with Georgetown on April 4th, Coach Glendon has put his first and second crews on the water, though there is some ice on the Severn and the temperature rather low. The Naval Academy will have first, second, third and freshman crews on the water this season, and the candidates have been making good progress on the machines and the tanks.

AMATEURS PLAY GREAT BILLIARDS

Poggenburg Established a New National Average Record at Liederkranz Club.

NEW YORK, March 8.—J. Ferdinand Poggenburg, former national amateur champion billiardist, established a new national average record of 21.6-11 in a match in the national amateur tournament at the Liederkranz Club to-day. Poggenburg won from his opponent, T. Morner, 5-0, in a 15-minute match by a score of 300 to 95, closing the match in the fourteenth inning with an unbroken run of 101. Calvin Demarest, of Chicago, defeated Dr. L. L. Mial, going out in the eleventh inning. Mial scored 177. This breaks all record averages for 143 billiards.

SUCH COSTUMES FOR RACING ONLY BE WORN IN FRANCE

A SKATING FETE IN THE BOIS DE BOULOGNE. Two of the lady competitors just before the ladies' race. The position of the Bois renders it very accessible as a playground for Parisians.

THOMAS-MELODY TO FIGHT AGAIN

Baltimore Promoters Offer a $10,000 Purse for Fifteen-Round "Go."

SPECULATORS GET LEMON

Thomas Says He Can Knock the Block Off of "Honey Bill."

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—It is probable that Joe Thomas, of California, and Honey Bill Melody, of New England, the welterweights who fought a six-round bout in this city Wednesday night, will meet for the third time very soon. A Baltimore fight promoter has offered the pair a $10,000 purse to meet in a fifteen-round bout in Oyster-town, the men to weigh 145 pounds at 3 o'clock, as they did Wednesday. The men will likely accept this offer, unless one of the Nevada clubs comes along with a $25,000 purse for a finish fight. It is doubtful whether the gold district promoters will be interested now that on two occasions Thomas has shown clearly that he is his rival's master. Thomas showed no marks of the battle when he appeared on the streets yesterday. He said that he would have finished Melody sure had the bout been for a longer distance. Thomas is very anxious to meet the New Englander in a fight scheduled longer than six rounds. "I am not a six-round fighter, and for that reason did not knock out Melody," he said yesterday. "Give me a longer contest and I'll finish just as I did at eleven rounds in Chelsea last September."

Speculators who cornered many of the choice seats for the bout Wednesday have nothing but slender bank rolls to show for their trouble. They expected that there would be such a rush for tickets that they could sell the masterbats at a premium of 100 to 200 per cent. All the regular patrons of the club purchased their tickets at the box office, and the speculators were obliged to hand out their tickets to the hangers-on at the club entrance for what they could get. Tickets for which the speculators paid $1 were sacrificed for 25 to 50 cents. When the men entered the ring every seat in the house was filled, but many were there as a result of the speculators' ruse to cover.

BRENT WINNER IN FINAL CONTEST

Kilpatrick Had Bad Fall, But Gamedly Continued in Race.

Johnny Brent captured the final contest in the series of one-mile events with the big risk at Bluewood last night before a crowd of nearly 4,000 people. Brent took the lead at the start and clipped into second place on the turn. Kilpatrick's remarkable act as well as his never-hot shot in the "Love and Mial-Air," "Love and Title," and "Next week the Alpha Trio, comedy Gun Club Shoot. The Richmond Gun Club will hold its first annual shoot on the club grounds opposite the Home for Incubables, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. All local and "sit" shots are invited to attend. Mr. Anderson, now representing a metallic cartridge company, will give an exhibition of auto-loading shells.

CITIZENS COMPLAIN.

Alexandria and Fairfax People Want Better Service.

The Corporation Commission was engaged yesterday in hearing complaints of citizens of Alexandria and Fairfax counties against the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company. The hearing was not completed, and will go on to-day. Hon. B. Walton Moore appears for the company, and Messrs. R. C. L. Moncreux and Frank Lyon for the complainants. It is understood that the patrons of the road complain of the passenger service and schedules given by the road.

COMMITTEE MEETS.

Framing Constitution for New Freight Service Association.

The executive committee of the National Freight Service Association, which was organized here Thursday, met at the Jefferson Hotel yesterday afternoon for the purpose of framing a constitution for the association. The work was purely formal and the members had nothing concerning it to make public.

TOLD DANIELS HIS OPINION OF HIM

Rev. Plato Durham, Methodist Pastor, Star Witness in Simpson Investigation.

THE ANTI-TRUST BILL DEAD

Conservatives Win Victory Over Those Who Were Violently Opposed to Trusts.

ALWAYS CONFEDERATE.

Major Wilson Will Be Buried in Old Battle-Flag.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 8.—Major Heuben E. Wilson, who died here to-day at the age of sixty-five years, was one of the few who never became reconciled to the defeat of the Southern cause in the Confederate Uniform. He was so wont to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was to speak, unconstructed. He fought gallantly in the many battles of Lee's great army, and since the end of the conflict Major Wilson's letters have been written upon the subject which were printed the Confederate flag and mottoes, denoting the headquarters of his battalion in the field. Soon after the War between the States Major Wilson went to August 1862, and he was