

ROWLAND HEARING GOES OVER AGAIN

Alleged Poisoning Case Awaits Analysis by State Chemist.

DELAYED UNTIL NEXT WEEK

Norfolk and Southern Asks Exemption for Branch Line from New Rate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., June 12.—The official statement was made this morning by Justice Charles A. Sparks that the preliminary hearing of neither Dr. David S. Rowland nor Mrs. Lillian Rowland on the charge of poisoning Mrs. Rowland's former husband, Engineer C. R. Strano, will be held this week. The hearing was set for to-day, but Dr. Strano, the chemist analyzing the stomach of Strano, reported this morning that he could not have the work completed or the report ready before Saturday. However, he expressed confidence that he would have it ready by that time. Then Justice Sparks concluded that it would not be worth while to begin a hearing of the case Saturday to go over Sunday, and he therefore determined to hold off the hearing until early next week, the day to be agreed on by counsel for the State and the defense later. There is no intimation as to how the analysis is turning out.

Request by Norfolk and Southern. President Cannon, of the Norfolk and Southern, has presented to the Corporation Commission the question of exempting certain "new" lines of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad from the operation of the 2-14-cent passenger rate enacted by the last Legislature. It is the Mackay's Ferry or Hamlet division which is asked especially to be exempted, on the ground that it is composed principally of two old lumber roads acquired by the Norfolk and Southern, and practically rebuilt and extended. In fact, this division consists of seventy miles of the old lumber road rebuilt, and forty miles of entirely new road. The commission has the matter under consideration.

TO BRING SUIT IN "WHITE SLAVE" CASE

Attorney Rawley to Institute Proceedings for Damages in Chesterfield Court.

MRS. CAWLEY DENIES CHARGE

Says Girl Was Treated as a Child of Her Own Household.

The case of Ellenora Maryland, the alleged "white slave" about which so much has been written recently, will be brought to a climax shortly, when her attorney, Mr. J. Kent Rawley, of this city, will institute a suit in her behalf in the Circuit Court of Chesterfield against J. J. Cawley, a dairyman of that county.

There will be no criminal proceedings, but the action will be a civil one, and will be brought with the view of recovering damages against Cawley, who is alleged to have held the girl in slavery since she was a child. She has recently left the Cawleys, and is now employed in a tobacco factory of this city. She is boarding with a Mrs. Martin, of Manchester.

The plaintiff in the suit is now twenty-one years of age, and her bill will allege that she was practically sold to Cawley when a child, and made to work without compensation until a few months ago, when she left and went to earn her living in a factory.

Mr. Rawley would not discuss his case in detail when seen last night, saying he would prefer to try it in the courts at the proper time, rather than to set it before the public in the newspapers. It is certain that reliable witnesses and many of them will appear to sustain all that will be alleged in the declaration of the plaintiff, but this is strongly combated by Mrs. Cawley, who declares that the girl was taken in for humanity's sake; sent to school and reared in a proper manner.

The case has been brought to the attention of the National Vigilance League of America, and has been taken up by the Baltimore office, which organization has promised, however, that the girl is no longer in alleged bondage, and is working for her living. Therefore, no further proceedings will be had along this line.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES. An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove of the cause, and then the sore must heal.
