Richmond's Even Break With Roanoke Raises Percentage of the Colts.

LYNCHBURG STILL LEADS

Portsmouth, Roanoke and Norfolk Are Now Tied for Third Place.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

Club	Won	Lost	P.C.
Lynchburg	28	25	.528
Danville	28	28	.500
Portsmouth	27	27	.500
Roanoke	27	27	.500
Norfolk	26	26	.500
Richmond	23	29	.442

Probably more spectators witnessed games in the Virginia State Baseball League yesterday than ever before on one day. Fully 5,000 witnessed the first game here, and nearly double that number saw the second. Twelve thousand are reported to have attended the games between Danville and Lynchburg in the latter city, and the crowds at the Portsmouth and Norfolk contests compared favorably with these figures.

The even break with Lynchburg and Danville lowers the percentage of each, and makes the race in the league that much closer, but leaves the former team still leading by two points. Norfolk's double defeat of Portsmouth and Roanoke's even break with Richmond places the first three mentioned clubs with 500 per cent. each and tying them all for third place. Richmond's percentage, while raised a few points, is still low enough to keep the locals in the cellar position.

RICHMOND HALVES A DOUBLE HEADER

Richmond halved a double-header with Winne Clarke's Roanoke team yesterday afternoon on the Broad Street diamond before two record-breaking holiday crowds. The morning game went to the visitors through errors and hits, but the afternoon contest was all that the 8,000 and more fans could desire in the way of snappy baseball. The Colts annexed the second by the score of 4 to 1.

It was a typical holiday crowd that witnessed both games, and regardless of the fact that the most inexcusable errors and misplays marked the first, there were some redeeming features, and forgetting the comedy they had seen in the morning, they came back for more, and thought they deserved doubtless about the outcome even after Richmond had the lead by 2 to 1 in the fifth, they opened up and gave Shaffer and his henchman enough support to make up for former deficit in this line of goods.

SECOND CONTEST SNAPPY AFFAIR

Richmond began scoring in the second, when on Hessler's error of Steadman's chance, followed by hits by Gettig and Shaffer, pushed the first batter over. Neither crossed again until the fourth, when Hessler's sacrifice and Clarke's sacrifice hit—By Long, 2; by Vernuelle, 1. Struck out—By Long, 1; by Vernuelle, 1. Attendance, 5,500.

POOR SHOWING IN FIRST GAME

If ever an aggregation looked like they needed rest and quiet in large quantities, it was the Richmond baseball team in the morning game, which went to the visitors on errors, both of commission and omission, by 5 to 0. When it comes to an analysis of how it was lost, it appears weird. The winners located Long for but four singles, received five passes from the big fellow, and one panned. Vernuelle allowed but three stinky singles, walked no one and struck out five batsmen. It would seem from this that Long was about even with his opponent, Vernuelle, but such was not the case. Long it was who started the balloon ascension in the first round when he hit Lohr, booted Eustace's drive, was found for two hits and passed one man.

All these pleasant little diversions from real baseball playing were responsible for the two runs made by the visitors in that opening session. Hinton got as far as second in the last half of the first, and that's as near as any Colt got to home until the fifth, when booting balls became contagious, and Hessler gave Gettig a life by this route. Hinton led off in the second with a fly to Gettig. Vernuelle reached first on Reeve's error, and after Lohr walked the former was forced at third by Eustace. The two runners then pulled off a double steal, while Richmond slept, and on a passed ball both crossed the pan.

Loens Were Generous. Despite the fact that the locals generously gave their guests every opportunity to come in with a bucketful of runs, they responded by politely waiting until the sixth, when Gettig insisted on giving them one more by allowing Eustace's drive to get past him, with Lohr on first.

However, there were a few redeeming features to the morning. Clayton pulled off a daring daylight robbery by pulling down one-handed Reeve's

SOME STAR WORK IN PLAYS

Rhoades, New Man for Lynchburg Covered Himself With Glory.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., July 4.—Danville broke even before 12,000 people here to-day, the home team taking the first game by the score of 4 to 2 and losing in the afternoon by 6 to 1.

The morning game was practically a gift to the champions by Fetzer, whose three errors at third were very costly.

In the afternoon game Oakley was hit hard in the first three innings, after which Eckstone stopped the run-getting.

In the morning Murray pitched in better game than Lavender, keeping his hits scattered, except in the sixth, when Fetzer, with the first base occupied, lifted the ball over McKenna's head for a homer. Lavender was found by the locals when hits counted runs.

The star work of the day, however, was by Rhoades, a new man, who covered second for the locals. He accepted sixteen of seventeen chances, some of which were the most brilliant ever seen here. His work no doubt saved the morning game for the home team.

There was some ragged work on the part of both teams, but the games abounded in gilt-edge work. There were about five hundred Danvillians here and the rooting was almost continual.

In the afternoon game a decision by Truby at first gave Danville three runs. The decision was bad, but only a legitimate kick followed from Holl, who held the ball.

BEIGIANS LIKELY TO CARRY OFF THE HONORS

HENLBY, ENG., July 4.—The Belgians apparently are determined to carry off the grand challenge cup for the second year in succession, as the crew sent over by the Club Nautique de Gand to-day defeated Lander, Great Britain's crack eight in the second heat for the trophy. The struggle was a punishing one, being rowed in the teeth of a strong wind, but the Belgians shook off their opponents.

won by a length and a third. Time, seven minutes, fifty seconds. The contest overshadowed everything else at this year's meeting, as the experts were satisfied that the victors of to-day's race were practically certain to win to-morrow's final and the cup.

The Belgians' opponent in the final will be Christ Church, Oxford, who this afternoon easily defeated the Thames Rowing Club. Time, eight minutes and three seconds.

The New England Regatta.
BOSTON, July 4.—The twenty-first annual championship regatta of the New England Amateur Rowing Association was held on the Charles River to-day. The intercollegiate eight-oar shell race, won by the all-Club crew of East Cambridge, by three feet, was the feature. With a slightly changed crew the all-Boston crew raced the Riverside Boat Club senior crew, which rowed a dead-heat in the national regatta at Worcester last year with the New York Athletic Club, and the Riverside won by six feet.
