The Colts made the Truckers look like veritable amateurs in the way they frisked away with yesterday's game. The story is told by the score—Richmond, 11; Portsmouth, 2—but this does not give an idea of the walkover for Reeve's men. Cassidy was in the box for the locals, while Hallman, the star pitcher, was the man who recently pitched a hitless game, was leading from the mound with formidable left wing. But the prestige of the tall Truckers inspired no terror for the Colts, who went at his delivery, hammer and tongs.

Richmond batted out the victory, securing eleven hits, for a total of fifteen runs, and bunting them in four innings. In the other four they did not touch him. The visitors gave a comedy of errors, chipping in seven misplays at the most inopportune times, viewed from their standpoint. Every error was made in the innings in which the locals were slugging the ball. The consequence was a Waterloo for Portsmouth. Besides the seven misplays, Hallman walked three men and hit another, and added his quota to the error column. It was an off-day for him all around, and likewise an awful one.

The home team kept up the fast pace which has distinguished them since the departure of Shaffer, playing errorless ball and hitting when every safety counted. The men fielded in brilliant form, Heffron, Titman and Reeve adding stellar plays to an otherwise unimpressive game. It was, however, which delighted a crowd of loyal enthusiasts, and they gaped Hallman and Moss unmercifully, though in the most good-natured way. Hallman began by fanning Heffron, but Reeve got a hit on a drive from the ground hit, and Titman was safe by reason of a similar error by Warren. Then the crowd started and whooped things up. Wallace went down, Moss to Butman, a Hallman gave quieted someone in the ribs. Reeve had already scored on a passed ball, and when Gettig got a pass the bases were filled and the crowd was wild with enthusiasm.

Then quieted "Cy" Bowen came up with a fly, and the crowd called for him to do or die. He did, and in great shape. Catching one of Hallman's speedy ones squarely, he smashed it into right field, and it rolled to the fence, the three men on bases counting, and the batter pausing at third to recover his wind. It was a timely hit and a beauty, and it at once won for Bowen the admiration of the crowd. Warren retired the silent damage had been done. Four runs, with but a single hit; one inning that beat a whole nine.

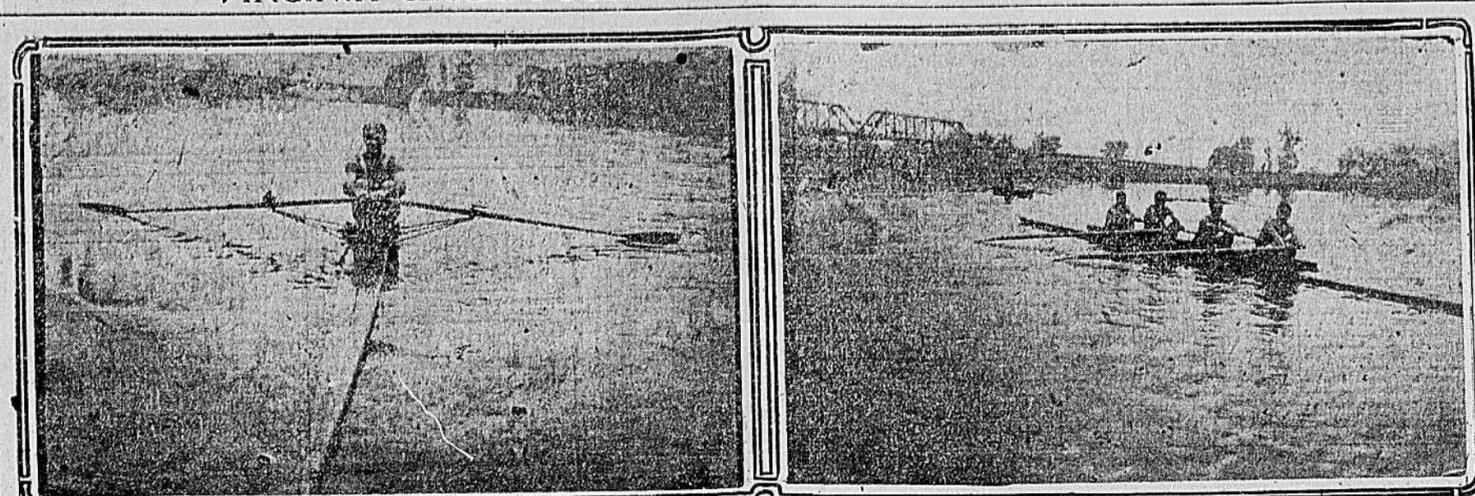

Portsmouth had gleaned a lonely total in their initial inning, but could secure no stratagem by Sullivan and Cooke and a passed ball.

Both teams went down in order in the second, but in the third, the locals demonstrated to Hallman that he was not so mysterious. Titman started the evening with a striking single to centre, Wallace retired on strikes and Siebrle smacked a two-sacker to left-centre, scoring Titman. Moss threw Gettig out at first, but Bowen's safe bouncer scored Siebrle, and Titman ended the inning with a fly to Cooke.

Not satisfied with this execution and a score of 6 to 1, the Colts went at Hallman savagely in the fourth. Cassidy got his second promenade, Heffron popped a fly to Butman, and Reeve drove a safety to right, scoring Cassidy, while the batter took second on McShea's error. Titman got into the game again with a corking double to centre, and scored Reeve. Siebrle hit one to safe territory in right, and Titman had already tallied after Wallace's fly to deep right. Gettig singled, sending Siebrle to third, and he scored on the throw to catch Gettig at second. That was all—four hits and four runs in the inning.

The visitors had punched out a single each in the fourth and fifth, but they were unproductive. In the seventh Butman led off with a double, and took third on McShea's out at first. Moss walked, and Martin singled, scoring Butman. That was their last run. Richmond rested until the eighth, when, just to show Hallman they could still find him, Cowan, Heffron and Titman each singled, and these, with an error by Cooke, permitted the final brace of runs.

The game was rather a tame one, but was brightened by some pretty bits of fielding. Bowen at first, played a star game, and Siebrle took care of six chances easily. Heffron in left, had five chances, including one beautiful catch of a drive from Hallman that looked good for two bases. Titman also robbed Martin of a hit by his pretty catch in the fifth.

Umpire Colliflower had several close decisions, and in the judgment of the crowd this was a bit of a trial game, as itched, however, and nobody scummed seriously, save the visitors, when they claimed that Cassidy had obstructed and interfered with Burns.

A double-header will be played to-day, the first game beginning at 2:30 and the second at 4:30. Long and Vall Hobbs will probably do the box work, while Schuman and Loos will probably be sent in by Manager Moss. The score tells in the following:

SHOEMAKERS WIN BRILLIANT GAME

Grim's Men Spook the Hoodoo That Has Followed Them Lately.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, Va., July 26.—The Shoemakers outplayed Roanoke at every stage of a six-inning game this afternoon, and won easily by the score of 6 to 1. The locals again played errorless ball, while the visitors had two rank misplays to their credit, one of these being responsible for the score.

Save for the fact that the Shoemakers connected when hits meant runs, the pitching honors were even between Stewart and Vernuelle. The game was stopped by rain.

FASTEST RACE MILE BY BARON GRATTAN

Geers Drives the Great Trotter and Wins the Free-for-All.

Winner Went the Half in One Minute, and Mile in 2:08 1-4.

DETROIT, MICH., July 26.—Five thousand people at the Grrosse Pointe track to-day saw the fastest race mile of the year in the first heat of the free-for-all pace, when Baron Grattan came from behind in the stretch, and after one of the famous Geers drives, beat Angus Pointer, the favorite, a head at the finish. They had gone the first quarter in 29 1-2 seconds and to the half in 1:09 1-2. Angus Pointer led by a nose in 2:08 1-4.

BLACKSTONE LOST ALL THREE GAMES

The Times-Dispatch Team Shut Them Out in the Last One.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLACKSTONE, Va., July 26.—The Times-Dispatch team of Richmond made it three straight by taking the last game of the series from the locals to-day by the score of 5 to 0.

Griffin was not in his usual form, and the visitors clouted his offerings freely, while Elyson, the visiting twirler, had the home team at his mercy, scattering singles. Elyson's pitching and the playing of Sittarding, Miles and Eanes were the features for the visitors. Griffin secured three hits, his position in clever style. The score:

THURSDAY'S GAME. On Thursday, The Times-Dispatch team defeated Blackstone by the score of 6 to 3 in an exciting eleven-inning contest, the features of which were the pitching of Fitzpatrick, the infield work of Ezekiel and Elyson, for The Times-Dispatch, and the box work of Arnstead, for Blackstone.

Play Two Games To-Day. The Colts and Truckers will play a double-header to-day, the first game beginning at 2:30 and the second at 4:30, unless the rain fails to extricate them. Long and Vall, neither of whom has pitched since last Tuesday, will probably do the box work, while Schuman and Loos will probably be sent in by Manager Moss. The score tells in the following:

KIRKPATRICK SIGNS UP WITH JACK GRIM. LYNCHBURG, Va., July 26.—Third baseman Kirkpatrick, who was farmed to Wilson of the Carolina League, has been secured by the local team, along with Pitcher Hill, and he will be given a trial at third. Fischman will be retained as utility man. These players are expected to report tonight.

Notice to Conductors and Motormen

With the view of encouraging travel upon the street cars of the city, and inconveniencing the public as little as possible in the enforcement of the law regarding the separation of the races—

Passengers are earnestly requested on entering the car to occupy the portion of the car situated in the rear part of the car, and to take seats in the forward part, and the colored in the rear part of the car, and it shall be the duty of conductors as far as possible to inform passengers upon boarding the car of the portion of the car thus set apart for the respective races.

Failure to observe a direction from the conductor subjects the passenger to the forfeiture of his fare, and, upon conviction, to a fine of from $5.00 to $25.00.

Upon such passenger's refusal to leave the car after being thus afforded an opportunity, the CONDUCTOR WILL WARN THE PASSENGER THAT CONTINUED REFUSAL TO MOVE OR LEAVE THE CAR WILL BE CAUSE FOR ARREST, and if after such warning such passenger will neither move nor leave the car, the conductor will place such passenger under arrest until he can be delivered to a proper police officer.
