We now lead in satisfactory progress looking to successful municipal management in the teaching of trades and in teaching farmers—and yet we have made in these lines only a beginning. Are we not lacking in that sound economic thought which would bring us to greater freedom from mere traditions and formulas? Would it not be well if we were more equally divided into two or more political parties, as a means of doing away with party merely for party's sake? Would it not be fairer and better to judge negroes more by their individual qualities and character, so that the worthy members of the race might get due credit upon their merits? Do Southern people really know just what they have in the way of benefits and advantages? Do they appreciate fully the history of their own country?—Dallas News. How It Happened. A man with a wife back in Gloucester, didn't try her affections to Gloucester. As a matter of course, she applied for divorce. And now the poor fellow has Gloucester!—Puck.

DON'T LET THEM IMPOSE ON YOU. Every once in a while we hear of men equipped with wagons and motley assortments of goods, which they try to sell to consumers and dealers alike, under the false pretense that they are agents of the Baltimore Bargain House or the original Bargain House. Of course all such persons have no connection with us in any manner or form as we employ no drummers, neither have we any branches anywhere. Should you encounter any such, do not be imposed upon by them, but telegraph us immediately, at our expense. Baltimore Bargain House. The Largest Wholesalers of General Merchandise in Baltimore.
