Neurasthenia

is the physician's name for a condition of weakness or exhaustion of the nervous system. The patient finds difficulty in keeping his mind on his work, is inclined to worry over trifles, is often depressed and irritable, is subject to headaches or a feeling of pressure on the head, is sleepless and sometimes the digestion is disturbed. A tendency to the disease may be inherited or it may result from almost any form of excess, from overwork and worry or the use of drugs or stimulants. The common name for this disorder is or, in extreme cases, nervous prostration. The treatment consists largely in rest, recreation and the use of a tonic, the discontinuance of any practice that may have caused it and abstinence from tea, coffee or other stimulants. As the nerves receive their nourishment through the blood the latter must be built up and made rich and pure. Especially if there is loss of weight and a pallor indicating a weakness of the blood, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the tonic best adapted to effect a cure. They have been used by the most eminent physicians for the treatment of neurasthenia with most excellent results. The late Dr. Lippell, who was physician to two popes, recommended them highly for neurasthenia and for similar disorders.

Home Treatment

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills being perfectly safe as a family medicine without the necessity of a separate prescription for each case, are sold in packages under the well-known trade mark which is our guarantee to the purchaser of the genuineness, purity and harmlessness of the contents. Hundreds of nervous men and women have cured themselves at home with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

A Thorough Cure

Mrs. E. C. Bradley, of 103 Parsells avenue, Rochester, N. Y., says: "I was weak, low-spirited and nervous. I could hardly walk and could not bear the least noise. My appetite was poor and I could not sleep well. I had severe headaches most of the time. I was treated by two doctors but got no relief and then decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I soon began to feel better and the improvement was general. My appetite became hearty and my sleep better. The headaches all left and a few more boxes entirely cured me. I would recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any nervous sufferer."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

RECEPTION TO THE GOVERNOR'S PARTY

Connecticut Executive and Famous Foot Guards Arrive To-Day.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR AT MANSION

After Reception There Ball Will Be Tendered by Richmond Blues.

Arriving here at daylight this morning over the Norfolk and Western Railroad from the Jamestown Exposition, Governor Woodruff, staff and party, of Connecticut, will see the sights of Richmond, and be entertained by Governor and Mrs. Swanson and the Richmond Light Infantry Blues. The Governor's party is being escorted on the trip by the Connecticut Foot Guards, which is the crack military organization of the Nutmeg State.

The entire party will stop at the Jefferson Hotel, and elaborate arrangements have been made for entertaining them. The Governor and Mrs. Swanson will give a reception at the mansion in their honor to-night, and later the Blues will tender the visiting military a ball at the Masonic Temple.

There will be a street parade of the Foot Guards and the Blues, beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and they are expected to present an imposing appearance.

The party will leave here at 12 o'clock to-night, and will stop over for a day in Washington on their return to Hartford.

Guests of the Blues.

The Foot Guards will be the guests of the Blues throughout the day. The local committee—Major B. W. Bowles, Captain R. P. Burwell, R. H. Palmer and J. R. Tucker—has made all possible arrangements for the pleasure and entertainment of the guests.

The Connecticut Foot Guards is composed of two companies, one organized in 1776 and commanded by Major R. Cheney; the other, organized in 1775, is commanded by Major Smith G. Weed. It seems especially appropriate that this famous New England social and military organization should be entertained here by the equally famous and representative Richmond companies.

A reception and ball at the Masonic Temple, from 9 to 11 this evening, will glorify the other events of the day. The Connecticut Foot Guards will go from the reception at the Executive Mansion to the temple, which will be decorated in palms and Connecticut and Virginia colors and flags, and present a brilliant and beautiful scene.

Patronesses of the evening invited to be present will include leading society matrons of the city—Mrs. C. A. Swanson, Mrs. William Ruffin Cox, Mrs. W. C. Mayo, Mrs. W. S. P. Mayo, Mrs. E. W. Bowles, Mrs. R. Page Burwell, Mrs. Russell Palmer, Mrs. Henry Bowler, Mrs. William L. Royal, Mrs. Cunningham Hall, Mrs. C. C. Walker, Mrs. C. O'B. Cowardin, Mrs. Clarence Wyatt, Mrs. C. W. P. Brock, Mrs. B. H. Grundy, Mrs. W. Gordon McCabe, Mrs. A. J. Monagus, Mrs. Joseph Bryan, Mrs. John Lamb, Mrs. T. G. Correll, Mrs. Jennie McPhail Welch, Mrs. H. St. George Tucker, Mrs. Alston Cabell, Mrs. R. T. Wilson and Mrs. N. V. Randolph.

Reception at Mansion.

Governor and Mrs. Swanson will receive at the Executive Mansion this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, in honor of Governor Woodruff and his party.

The reception will be a very handsome affair, the only regret being that to avoid an unfortunate crush, invitations in Richmond have been necessarily limited. The mansion will be decorated in palms, roses and in Virginia and Connecticut colors.

As guests will go from the reception at the mansion to the ball at the Masonic Temple, it is probable that the toilets will be unusually elegant.

While this appeal has been most urgent, I do not recall that there has been one word in reference to the health or life of the mother, nor has the ability of the mother, physically, mentally, morally, spiritually or financially, to rear children been touched upon.
