

SPLENDID SHOWING OF VIRGINIA TEAMS

Home Elevens Covered Themselves With Glory Wherever They Played.

BEST GAME OF SEASON HERE

Randolph-Macon and William and Mary Fight Bitterly from Beginning to End.

Great gridiron battles were witnessed all over the country on Saturday, showing what a piece the great college game holds among its kind and how dear it is to all college athletes.

In Richmond by far the best game of the season was witnessed when Randolph-Macon went down in defeat to William and Mary after one of the hardest-fought games either team has ever had.

The lines were pretty evenly matched, but William and Mary was stronger in the backfield. The Orange and White line was not so good as the Yellow Jackets could handle.

There was never a more bitter struggle. Every play was fought out to the hilt and the stiff arm was used to a finish. Both teams ran good interference.

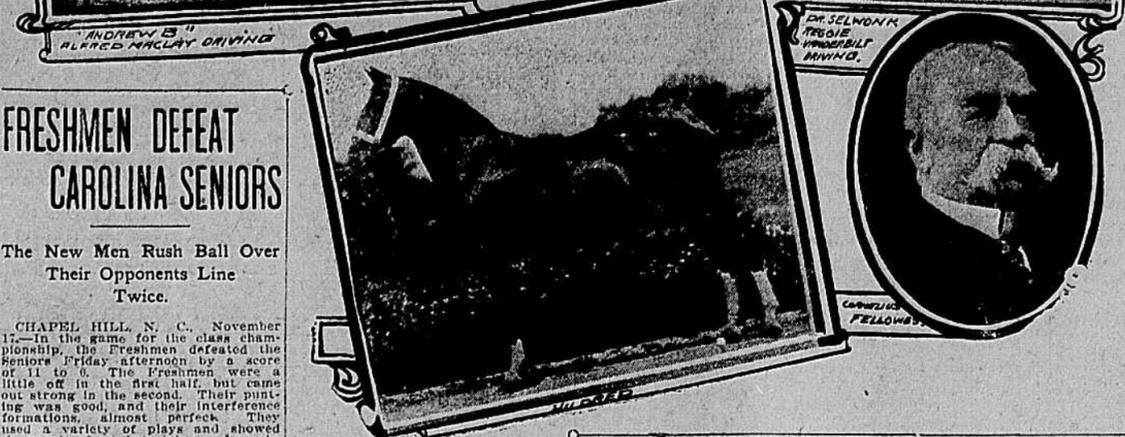

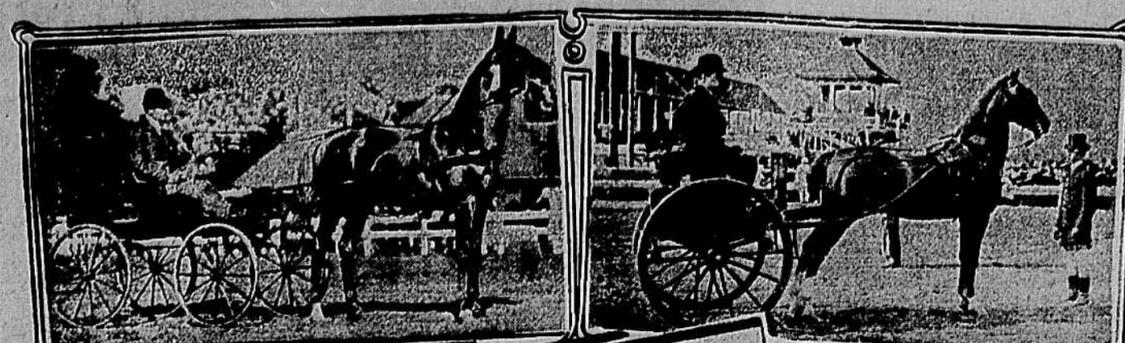

William and Mary's next championship game is with Hampton-Sidney at Hampton, Sunday on Saturday.

Manchester Team Loses. The Pickwick Club Team Was Pretty Contested by 10 to 6.

The Pickwick football team on Saturday defeated the Manchester team in a well-contested game of football by a score of 10 to 6.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT CAROLINA SENIORS

The New Men Rush Ball Over Their Opponents Line Twice.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., November 17.—In the game for the class championship between the Freshmen and Seniors Friday afternoon by a score of 11 to 0.

The Seniors played a good game, considering their lack of training. Their team work was much inferior to that of their opponents.

Neither side was able to score in the first half. The Freshmen made their first touchdown soon after the beginning of the second half, when they recovered a long punt and carried the ball to the end of the field.

The practice work of the varsity for the past week has been confined almost exclusively to signal drills.

On two days only were scrub games had, and they lasted for but a few minutes.

Coach Lamson to save his men as much as possible. He seems to be pretty well satisfied with the work of the new players and is confident that they will now go into hard training preparatory to the Thanksgiving game with V. P. I.

No changes were made in the lineup against Richmond College, it being almost exclusively to signal drills.

Georgetown on November 10th. No major injuries were sustained in the game by the Tarheels.

PROTEST THE GAME GIVEN TO CAROLINA

Richmond College Eleven Returns Claiming They Were Not Beaten by Chapel Hill.

OFFICIAL CHANGED DECISION

Declare That Safety Was First. Called a Touchback by Referee Jackobs.

Declaring that the game played between Richmond and the University of North Carolina on Saturday afternoon was really won by them, the Richmond College eleven and their coaches returned last night from Chapel Hill, and immediately set about correcting the wrong report, as they termed it, of Saturday's game.

A statement from the three Richmond College officials mentioned is appended as follows: "Richmond College was game before the game requested North Carolina to have Dr. Whitaker official. Dr. Whitaker telegraphed North Carolina's manager that he would be unable to be present. The manager of North Carolina said nothing about this until the Richmond College team had arrived at Chapel Hill and then informed that the Richmond manager that the only two available men were 'Bull' Thompson, a North Carolina student, ineligible to play, and Jack Jacobs, North Carolina's assistant coach. It was then agreed to get any other competent officials.

"Carolina won the toss and chose to kick to Richmond. After five minutes of play Richmond head Carolina came down on their two-yard line, and the kicker attempted to punt out. The referee declared it a touchback. The ball was brought to Richmond's twenty-five-yard line and punted to Carolina's backfield. Smith, Richmond's line, Carolina was forced to kick. Atkins caught the ball on the run and carried it through the whole of Carolina's team for a touchdown. Carolina kicked off to Richmond, the ball going over the goal line. It was brought in by the twenty-five-yard line and punted out. After several tries at Richmond's line, Carolina was forced to play. Richmond then worked the ball down the field by line plunges and forward passes to Carolina's forty-five-yard line. Then a kick was fumbled by Carolina's backfield.
