

KNOCKED BROWN'S TEETH OUT IN ROW

Mrs. Bradley Admits Using Umbrella; Says Teeth Were Loose.

LONG GRILLING IS CONCLUDED

Accused Murderess Leaves Stand More Confident Than at Be- ginning of Ordeal—Other Witnesses Corroborate Story Told by Defendant.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 21.—The story of former United States Senator Brown's acknowledgment of the paternity of the two youngest of Mrs. Bradley's children was told today in the United States court by other lips than her own. It was a long and a painful one, but it was a story that was told with a confidence that was not to be expected.

WOMAN A MONOMANIAC

Colonel Kaighn told in simple but forceful language of many dramatic interviews with Mrs. Bradley, and closed with the expression of opinion that she has become a monomaniac.

PRISONER UNDER FIRE

When court convened shortly after 10 o'clock Mrs. Bradley immediately took the stand, and District Attorney Baker began his questions by bringing out the facts concerning Max Brown's stay at the Idaho farm in 1902.

KEEP GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT

Jamestown Officials Call on President to Enlist His Aid. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WOMEN TO BE OIL QUEENS

OIL CITY, Pa., November 21.—An oil company, composed entirely of women, has been organized in Butler county to drill for petroleum. The women have secured a block of leases near the Pennsylvania border.

SHOT SWELLS HIS BODY UP

Man's Size Almost Doubled by Being Riddled with Lead.

ROBBED MAN OF BRIDE

Held Up Nival at Pistol Point, Carried Off Girl, and Married Her.

NORFOLK, Va., November 21.—Robert Daily, the daring North Carolinian who yesterday, on the road between Elizabeth City and Camden, N. C., took the girl of his heart, Miss Maggie Baker, from the hands of his rival, John Hall, with whom she was on her way to the altar to wed, arrived here today with the girl, was married to her by the Rev. Mr. Quinton C. Davis, and to-night with his bride, as a prisoner in the Central Police Station. It was reported that Daily shot Hall, but it was proved a mistake. Both bride and groom, after telling their story to the police and the sheriff of Camden county, were released.

FOR METHODIST UNITY

Important Step in That Direction Taken by Wesley Brotherhood. LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 21.—What leading ministers and laymen in attendance upon the National Convention of the Wesleyan Brotherhood today in the Wesleyan Brotherhood building in Louisville, Mo., were looking toward the ultimate union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, was taken this afternoon at Trinity Methodist Church, when the Wesleyan Brotherhood was made an organization for the members of all branches of Methodism.

THE PRESIDENT IS NIMBLE

Mr. Roosevelt Did Not Issue Statement Denying Justice Brewer's Charge. (Times-Dispatch Bureau.)

BACK PAY FOR MR. CARLIN

Representative Rixey's Successor to Be Paid from His Election. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

KEEP GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT

Jamestown Officials Call on President to Enlist His Aid. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WOMEN TO BE OIL QUEENS

OIL CITY, Pa., November 21.—An oil company, composed entirely of women, has been organized in Butler county to drill for petroleum. The women have secured a block of leases near the Pennsylvania border.

SHOT SWELLS HIS BODY UP

Man's Size Almost Doubled by Being Riddled with Lead.

DOG SAVES FAMILY FROM EXTINCTION

Five Children Burned to Death Before Warning Proved Effective.

FIVE PERSONS ESCAPE FLAMES

Heroic Lad Attempts to Save His Little Brothers and Sisters, but is Unable to Do So—Two Other Children Badly Injured.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., November 21.—Awakened by the barking of his dog early to-day, Thomas W. Zuber, an oil producer, living east of here, found his house in flames. With difficulty he saved his wife and her baby. Two sons escaped from the second story, but were badly injured. Five children were burned to death. The dead: EMOHY ZUBER, aged twelve; ROLAND ZUBER, aged eleven; MARIE M. ZUBER, aged nine; LOTTIE J. ZUBER, aged seven; NELLIE R. ZUBER, aged five.

NATIONAL BANKS SAFE

Remarkable Showing of Protection for Depositors in Many Years. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 21.—In these days when people with money show a tendency to hoard it in stockings and inside pockets, it is interesting to note the insignificant amount lost by depositors in national banks. During last year only two national banks in the United States failed, with liabilities aggregating $50,747.

SAY DRUCE WAS DUKE

Two Witnesses Give Important Testimony in Dual Personality Case. LONDON, November 21.—The Druce case continues to attract large crowds to the Marylebone Police Court, although since the conclusion of the examination of Robert C. Caldwell, of Boston, and the direct examination of Miss Mary Robinson, the prosecution expects to prove that the fifth Duke of Devonshire and Dr. Druce were one and the same man, little of interest has been elicited.

TO PUT HOWARD ON STAND

Life Convict Will Confer With Caleb Powers and Testify. GEORGETOWN, Ky., November 21.—In the trial of Caleb Powers to-day Judge Morris sustained a motion of the defense to have James Howard, now serving a life sentence in the State Penitentiary, brought to court to consult with Powers and his attorneys relative to the preparation of testimony matter for the defense.

RIOTS IN TROLLEY STRIKE

Police and Strikers Sympathizers Engage in Severe Encounter. LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 21.—Several small riots were precipitated in different parts of the city as a result of efforts of the Louisville Railway Company to operate all of its cars this evening. This was the seventh day of the strike, and when the last car came out to-night it was pelted with a fusillade of stones. A battle between the police and strikers and their sympathizers followed, in which several shots were fired. A number of passengers on a trolley were injured.

AGED WAIF HAD $10,000

Died in His Transformed Chicken-Coop Near the Hackensack Meadows. NEW YORK, November 21.—William Ruter, an aged recluse, was found dead in an old chicken-coop which he had transformed into a home, on Overbeck Avenue, near the Hackensack Meadows, yesterday afternoon. He was 86 years old, lived on crusts and worked occasionally on a nearby dairy farm and was thought to have no money.

WIFE MAY DIE OF JOY

Husband Long Believed Dead Walks In Unexpectedly on Home.

SPEAKER CANNON'S VIEWS

Uncle Joe Takes Optimistic View of Country's Financial Situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 21.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, of the national House of Representatives, arrived here this evening, and will remain for the coming session of Congress. To a representative of the Associated Press Mr. Cannon cheerfully outlined his views on the financial situation.

INDICTMENT IN DISTILLER FRAUDS

H. T. M. Angle, Manager of Dry Fork Distillery Company, Arrested.

District Attorney Declared That Frauds Amounted to $200,000, and Asked That Bail Be Made $25,000. Court Placed Bond at $10,000.

HAD EMPLOYED HIS COUNSEL

District Attorney Declared That Frauds Amounted to $200,000, and Asked That Bail Be Made $25,000. Court Placed Bond at $10,000.

GOVERNOR STOPS FIGHT

With Company of Militia, Iowa Executive Prevents Further Hostilities. DES MOINES, Ia., November 21.—Governor Cummins took a hand in Davenport's widely advertised McFarland-Herman prize fight this evening, and when the fight was over he ordered Iowa National Guard soldiers ordered it stopped before it began.

TERMINAL BANK REOPENS

Brooklyn Institution Resumes Business With Large Deposits. NEW YORK, November 21.—The Terminal Bank, one of the Brooklyn institutions, which closed its doors several weeks ago, reopened for business to-day. More than 100 depositors were in line and $45,000 was deposited during the first hour.

TRAINS MUST NOT BLOCK CITY STREETS

NORFOLK, Va., November 21.—Following a recent decision of Police Justice Simmons, the Norfolk and Western Railway has decided to operate shorter trains while running within the city limits. Justice Simmons recently decided that any train which blocked a street, or a crossing, or a way provided for in the City Code, even if the train should have been in motion all the time, had violated an ordinance bearing on the matter.

BLOW AT SOCIAL CLUBS

Alabama Senate Passes Bill to Prohibit Their Dispensing Liquors. MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 21.—The Senate to-day passed the Carl Michael bill to prohibit the sale, giving away or pressing of liquors in any way in clubs. It prohibits exactly what the Georgia law allows.

BABY ROASTS AS SHE CHATS

Mother Shocked on Returning to Find Neither Home nor Child.

INDICTMENT IN DISTILLER FRAUDS

H. T. M. Angle, Manager of Dry Fork Distillery Company, Arrested.

HAD EMPLOYED HIS COUNSEL

District Attorney Declared That Frauds Amounted to $200,000, and Asked That Bail Be Made $25,000. Court Placed Bond at $10,000.

GOVERNOR STOPS FIGHT

With Company of Militia, Iowa Executive Prevents Further Hostilities. DES MOINES, Ia., November 21.—Governor Cummins took a hand in Davenport's widely advertised McFarland-Herman prize fight this evening, and when the fight was over he ordered Iowa National Guard soldiers ordered it stopped before it began.

TERMINAL BANK REOPENS

Brooklyn Institution Resumes Business With Large Deposits. NEW YORK, November 21.—The Terminal Bank, one of the Brooklyn institutions, which closed its doors several weeks ago, reopened for business to-day. More than 100 depositors were in line and $45,000 was deposited during the first hour.

TRAINS MUST NOT BLOCK CITY STREETS

NORFOLK, Va., November 21.—Following a recent decision of Police Justice Simmons, the Norfolk and Western Railway has decided to operate shorter trains while running within the city limits. Justice Simmons recently decided that any train which blocked a street, or a crossing, or a way provided for in the City Code, even if the train should have been in motion all the time, had violated an ordinance bearing on the matter.

BLOW AT SOCIAL CLUBS

Alabama Senate Passes Bill to Prohibit Their Dispensing Liquors. MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 21.—The Senate to-day passed the Carl Michael bill to prohibit the sale, giving away or pressing of liquors in any way in clubs. It prohibits exactly what the Georgia law allows.

BABY ROASTS AS SHE CHATS

Mother Shocked on Returning to Find Neither Home nor Child.

INDICT HEART FOR LIBEL

William Astor Chanler Complains of Mentions in Hiltchcock Case.

NEW YORK, November 21.—Justice Wyatt, in the Court of Special Sessions to-day, held W. R. Hearst for the grand jury on a charge of criminal libel preferred by William Astor Chanler, S. S. Carvalho gave bail for Mr. Hearst.

JAILED WITHOUT ARREST

Man Brings Action Against Warden Who Imprisoned Him Without Cause. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, Va., November 21.—Rather a peculiar case will be heard by Mayor Reed, of Portsmouth, tomorrow morning, when Sidney West will be arraigned on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by George L. Gibson. The true status of the case, according to the allegations made by Gibson, is that a man who is employed by County Jailor Hylbert, looked the complainant up in the county jail, and so Gibson says, kept him there several days without cause.

REFUSES HARTJE DIVORCE

Appellate Court Affirms Lower Tribunal and Dismisses Appeal. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., November 21.—Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who was sued for divorce by her husband, H. J. Hartje, of Philadelphia, who had a million-dollar business, was today victorious in the Pennsylvania Superior Court here to-day, when that tribunal affirmed in its entirety the decision of the Allegheny County Court, which refused to grant Hartje a divorce. The petitions filed by Hartje's attorneys, asking the Superior Court to grant the divorce, were denied. The petitions to reopen the case were also denied.

RICHMOND GIRL HEROINE

Miss D'Este Permits Skin to Be Grafted to Save Sweetheart. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., November 21.—Ready to submit to the removal of her own skin so that it may be grafted on the face of her dying sweetheart, Miss Loneta D'Este, formerly of Richmond, Va., now a Chicago artist, was today victorious in the St. Louis court, where Dr. James is to be operated on, ignoring the advice of friends and the protests of her sweet-heart, Miss D'Este, who is to be operated on, ignoring the advice of friends and the protests of her sweet-heart.

RAILWAY WINS APPEAL

Louisville and Nashville's Right to Operate Shorter Trains Upheld. MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 21.—The State Supreme Court to-day handed down a decision in the case of Henry Gray vs. Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, deciding that the latter had the right to operate the North and South roads, which extend from Montgomery to Birmingham. Gray was given a decision in the lower court of Montgomery, the case was taken from that decision and the higher court held that it was an illegal one. Gray attacked the right of the Louisville and Nashville to operate the road.

IF HE RECOVERS HE WILL BE HANGED

NORFOLK, Va., November 21.—According to a dispatch received here from the Norfolk and Western Railway, Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton, the recovery of Thomas Lassiter, the convicted slayer of Charles W. Parks, is being sought by the Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton, who was convicted of the murder, but was afterward declared insane. Mackintosh was hanged. If Lassiter is declared sane he will be hanged without further trial.

RUNAWAY BRIDE ONLY FOURTEEN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WORK OF CARING FOR CITY'S POOR

Annual Meeting of Associated Charities Held Last Night.

REPORTS TELL YEAR'S RESULT

Prominent Workers Discuss Problems and Point Out Remedies—Money Wasted in False Charity—Organization Indispensable.

"Money absolutely thrown away in Richmond each year in false charity work needs to be cut off." This was the chief theme of one of the speakers at the annual meeting of the Associated Charities last night in the Jefferson auditorium, attracted general attention. The spirit of the organization was declared to be that of a civic movement to prevent any worthy person in the city from starving, and to prevent any able-bodied person from eating the bread of idleness at the expense of Richmond people.

REFUSES HARTJE DIVORCE

Appellate Court Affirms Lower Tribunal and Dismisses Appeal. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., November 21.—Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who was sued for divorce by her husband, H. J. Hartje, of Philadelphia, who had a million-dollar business, was today victorious in the Pennsylvania Superior Court here to-day, when that tribunal affirmed in its entirety the decision of the Allegheny County Court, which refused to grant Hartje a divorce. The petitions filed by Hartje's attorneys, asking the Superior Court to grant the divorce, were denied. The petitions to reopen the case were also denied.

RICHMOND GIRL HEROINE

Miss D'Este Permits Skin to Be Grafted to Save Sweetheart. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., November 21.—Ready to submit to the removal of her own skin so that it may be grafted on the face of her dying sweetheart, Miss Loneta D'Este, formerly of Richmond, Va., now a Chicago artist, was today victorious in the St. Louis court, where Dr. James is to be operated on, ignoring the advice of friends and the protests of her sweet-heart, Miss D'Este, who is to be operated on, ignoring the advice of friends and the protests of her sweet-heart.

RAILWAY WINS APPEAL

Louisville and Nashville's Right to Operate Shorter Trains Upheld. MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 21.—The State Supreme Court to-day handed down a decision in the case of Henry Gray vs. Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, deciding that the latter had the right to operate the North and South roads, which extend from Montgomery to Birmingham. Gray was given a decision in the lower court of Montgomery, the case was taken from that decision and the higher court held that it was an illegal one. Gray attacked the right of the Louisville and Nashville to operate the road.

IF HE RECOVERS HE WILL BE HANGED

NORFOLK, Va., November 21.—According to a dispatch received here from the Norfolk and Western Railway, Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton, the recovery of Thomas Lassiter, the convicted slayer of Charles W. Parks, is being sought by the Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton, who was convicted of the murder, but was afterward declared insane. Mackintosh was hanged. If Lassiter is declared sane he will be hanged without further trial.

RUNAWAY BRIDE ONLY FOURTEEN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)