

GETTING READY TO ADOPT BOOKS

Term May Be for Seven Years and Single List Put in Operation.

GOVERNOR HAS A BUSY DAY

M. C. Clark, of Russell, Here, but Will Not Talk Concerning Famous Telegram.

Governor Swanson spent a very busy day in his office examining bills, receiving callers and transacting routine business. He issued a requisition on the Governor of Pennsylvania for Walter Fluke, who is wanted in Norfolk City for larceny.

Who has ever looked upon Virginia as the mother State, and in this time of unpeppable sorrow her sympathy, conveyed by you, is sweet indeed. For the desolated homes of Collinwood there is no comfort, but I must hope that for this terrible price we may obtain a repetition of this calamity impossible.

"I beg that you will accept for yourself and convey to your people my sincere thanks for your message, and believe me, as ever."

Adopt School Books.

Since the Legislature has decided favorably on a proposition that came up to help the public schools and school teachers of the State, interest in educational circles is turning toward the adoption of text books, to be used after the expiration of the present school year.

The Department of Public Instruction will begin some time next week an advertisement, which will run for thirty days, for all the books to be used in the common schools after the next adoption, which will be for a period of after four or seven years. Heretofore the adoptions have been for four years, but the law was changed by the present Legislature, so as to leave the term for which the adoptions are hereafter made discretionary with the board, provided it is not less than four nor more than seven years.

A prominent member of the board said yesterday that he would make the fight for a seven-year adoption, and that he hoped his plan would be accepted.

When the board meets to determine upon the method of adoption the principle will arise, and it looks as if the former will prevail.

The recent investigation into the prices paid for school books in the State and the campaign which followed last fall have stirred up sentiment in favor of the single list system, and in addition thereto, Delegate Bell, of Culpeper, got through a joint resolution a few days ago requesting the board to follow this method. The question of the adoption of high school books will not come up until next year.

Colonel Button to Move.

Colonel Joseph Button and his assistants are preparing to move the offices of the Department of Insurance back to the Capitol, and the transfer of furniture, records, etc., will probably be made during Murphy's new annex within the next few days. The Department of Insurance, though less than two years old, has developed into one of great importance, and the work is constantly increasing. One of the interesting features of the work in the past few months of the year has been the receiving and filing of the annual reports of the various companies, showing the amount of business done by them, respectively, in the State during the preceding twelve months. Many of these reports are already in hand, the law allows the companies until March 31st to file them. Generally they show that the companies did well in the State in 1935, notwithstanding the business depression of the latter part of the year.

Judge Rhea at Work.

Judge W. F. Rhea was in his office at the State Corporation Commission rooms during the greater part of the day, and was much of the time in conference with his colleagues, Judge Prentiss and Captain Willard, concerning his new work. The commission will hold a hearing about the middle of next week, and it is expected that Judge Rhea's first appearance on the bench.

Mr. M. C. Clark, of Russell, who, but for his absence from the State at the time, would probably have been a star witness at the recent Rhea investigation, was called at the Capitol yesterday. Mr. Clark was the person to whom the telegram alleged to have been sent by Judge Rhea about "getting hold of" the Buchanan returns was addressed, according to Mr. Stuart's testimony. When asked by a Times-Dispatch man if he would make a statement on the subject, Mr. Clark stoutly declined, and the matter is in any form whatsoever. He is here on private business, and will probably remain for several days.

SITUATION TENSE AT CAPITOL NOW

To amend and re-enact section 9 of an act approved March 24, 1935, entitled an act to provide pure elections, primaries and conventions, and to amend and re-enact section 10 of the same act, to limit the expenses of candidates; to prescribe the duties of candidates in providing penalties and remedies for violations of this act, and declaring void under certain conditions, elections in which the provisions of this act or any of them

Omega Oil for Rheumatism. You don't have to buy bottle after bottle to get relief. Usually one or two rubbings stop the pain.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever for medicine may be offered you? Or do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and what they do.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most effective remedy. It is also a most effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comfortable.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made for the disease with which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. J. C. Rhea, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.
