

PEACE MOVEMENT AND THE CHURCHES

Work of Two Great World Conferences Explained by Rev. James L. Tryon.

SOME THINGS ACCOMPLISHED

Judge Mann to Speak at Hoge Memorial—Bishop Gibson Confirms Class.

Having attended The Hague Peace Conference and the International Peace Conference, the Rev. James L. Tryon, of Boston, chairman of the church committee of the American Peace Society, is speaking under the auspices of the Virginia League for International Arbitration, pointing out the things accomplished by the two great meetings.

In St. Paul's Church yesterday morning he spoke on "The Churches and the World Movement for Peace." He explained that the conferences being entirely deliberate in their nature, really did not seem to the public to accomplish any marked results. He showed that while they could not make any real change in international law, still they are making progress in the way of abating the rigors of war, examples being the immunity of private property and the protection of neutrals at sea.

Another instance is the arbitration of claims between the smaller powers. As an example of this, Mr. Tryon cited the agreement recently made between Chile and the Argentine Republic. When their differences had been settled satisfactorily a monument was erected on the top of the Andes between the two countries, made partly of the cannon they had used to fight each other. The inscription on the monument is that the mountain shall crumble before the pact shall be broken.

The address of Mr. Tryon yesterday afternoon in All Saints Church, "The Second Hague Conference and the Outlook for World Peace," was of the same general character, showing particularly what might be expected from the second conference.

SPIRIT OF HUMANITY

Mr. Montague Discusses Some Bills Passed by General Assembly. Signs of the times as indicated by the deliberations of the recent session of the Virginia Legislature were discussed in a most interesting manner yesterday morning before the men's Bible class of the Venable Street Baptist Church by the Hon. Hill Montague, delegate from Richmond city. The audience was large and was very attentive.

As examples of the growth of the spirit of humanity, Mr. Montague cited several bills passed by the General Assembly, which, he said, had established a precedent in this respect. Among the bills discussed were those establishing the new Board of Health, providing for the jails and the penitentiary and creating the Board of Charities. These and other bills passed, Mr. Montague declared, indicate the tendency of man in recent years to assist his fellow-man.

On account of the lack of time, the Byrd bill, which should have been discussed, was not taken up by the speaker. By special invitation of the church, however, Mr. Montague will at some future time address the Bible class on this measure, alone.

The services began last Sunday and will be continued until the beginning on Sunday. The meetings will be held at the Presbyterian Church. The evangelist is being assisted by Rev. HONORED BY THE EMPRESS

MRS. CHARLEMAGNE TOWER.

It is a very rare occasion indeed when the Empress of Germany dines anywhere outside the palace, but she made an exception on March 13th in order to do honor to Mrs. Charlemagne Tower. At 8 o'clock the Empress and Emperor arrived at the Kaiserplatz, next to the Rotunda, one of the best adapted houses for entertaining in the German capital. They were received at the foot of the grand Tower-lined staircase by the ambassador and Mrs. Tower, and conducted upstairs, the Empress offering his arm to Mrs. Tower and the ambassador offering his arm to the Empress.

Gerald Culbertson, the pastor of the church and a member of the camp. Mr. Culbertson's subject was "The Brotherhood of Man." He spoke of good already done by the order, and pointed out what it should do in the future. His address was eminently fitted to the occasion, and was listened to with the greatest attention. Several duets were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Hanson.

The delegation of Woodmen assembled at Marshall Hall, Twenty-fifth and Broad streets, at 8 o'clock, and marched into the church in a body.

The Rev. David Hepburn, the pastor of the church, presided. Encouraging addresses were made to the young people by Mr. Jacob Umlauf and Mr. Knight, a theological student of Richmond College. NOTED LAWYER TO HELP NEGRO

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 22.—Last week Harrison Brown, a well-known colored lawyer, was found guilty in the Police Court of having sold a pint of whiskey to another colored man, and sentenced by Judge Spears Reynolds to serve two years on the chain-gang for violating the prohibition law. Brown took an appeal.

While the case against Brown was pending Francis Tracy Tobin, an eminent attorney of Philadelphia, was in the city, in attendance at the hearing by Special Master Reynolds, who was taking the testimony of several Asheville physicians in the celebrated damage suit of Dr. Knopf, who asks $100,000 damages from the Philadelphia North American for an alleged slanderous story printed by that paper, in which Dr. Knopf was quoted as advising physicians to kill consumptive patients who were dying, with large doses of morphine. Mr. Tobin became very much interested in the case against Harrison Brown, and had several conferences with the colored attorney before leaving for his home in Philadelphia.

Yesterday it was learned that Mr. Tobin has written Brown, tendering his services gratis, and advising the colored lawyer that the case should be taken to the highest court in North Carolina, and if an adverse decision was rendered then the appeal should be carried to the United States Supreme Court. Just why Mr. Tobin displays such a keen interest in this case cannot be learned, but it is looked upon here as a political move.

Francis Tracy Tobin is one of the most prominent lawyers and politicians in Pennsylvania. He was a candidate for appointment as Governor of New Mexico, under President McKinley, and represented that Territory at the National Export Exposition in Philadelphia in 1889; he represented the Territory at the International Commercial Congress and also at the Congress on Divorce at Washington in 1894.

CANNOT IDENTIFY NEGRO

Still suffering from the nervous shock resulting from her terrible experience with a negro on Saturday night, Miss Elizabeth Lee Frazier has not been able positively to identify Andrew Jackson as the man who struck her, though the police believe him guilty of the attack. The negro did not attempt to draw the young lady in the alley, as stated, but caught her roughly by the shoulder and pounded her unmercifully on the head and face. She screamed so loudly that he thought she had fainted. Little evidence can be brought against Jackson, except his own demeanor when placed under arrest, which was suspicious enough.

What the Confidence of Women Will Do

Three times recently has the price of THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL been increased; the magazine has passed through a financial depression without harm, yet in not a single month for four years and a half has its circulation even touched the million mark. Each edition has exceeded a million; this

April Number is 1,100,000 Copies

During these four years and a half it has printed and actually sold over 56 millions of magazines. This without sample copies, premiums, gifts or clubbing. Every copy bought at its full price. The reason is simple: THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL has the confidence of American women.

RICHEST DUKE AND DUCHESS IN THE WORLD

DUKE OF WESTMINSTER.

The duke is devoted to sport, hunting, racing, driving, and is planning a hunting trip to the Rocky Mountains. He is only twenty-nine years of age. Recently the duke and his intimates, in their prodigious youthful spirits, "burglarized" the house of his friend, Lord Cholmondeley. The duke was vastly astonished that the newspapers thought it worth while to describe this escapade.

DUCHESS OF WESTMINSTER.

The duchess is the younger daughter of a famous beauty, Mrs. W. Cornwallis West, whose elder daughter married Prince Henry of Bess. Society has whispered lately that the duke and the duchess are not entirely happy together, but this gossip seems to be baseless. For the other day the duke had a slight accident in the hunting field, and although his wife had just arrived at Cannes, Southern France, she hurried back by the next train to nurse him. The duke and duchess have two children, a son and a daughter.

SPLENDID CONFEDERATE MONUMENT IN MECKLENBURG

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOYDTON, VA., March 22.—This county will soon have completed on the Courthouse Square an imposing Confederate monument. The pedestal of polished granite is already in place, with appropriate inscriptions. The figure to surmount it will be of standard bronze, over seven feet high, and weighing about 1,700 pounds. It represents the typical Confederate soldier, musket in hand, ready for action. The solid granite foundation strikingly tells of the strength of his loyalty to be about $1,850. Of this amount Judge Wood and Captain Jeffers appeared before the board of supervisors and secured an appropriation of $500, and the balance was raised by entertainments and voluntary contributions. The unveiling in April or May will be a grand occasion and thousands will attend. There will be speaking, a band of music, and the Boynton people, noted for their hospitality and generosity, will provide an abundant dinner for all the veterans and visitors.

The Game. NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 22.—Chicago (American), 0; New Orleans (Southern), 9; seven innings; rain.

VARSITY DEBATERS IN MANY CONTESTS

One to Be Held at Richmond on April 3d With Carolina.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., March 23.—Below is given a schedule of Virginia's oratorical and debating contests. This schedule has been completed by Mr. George Miller, Jr., of Mecklenburg, manager of debates, after much trouble and delay, but in return Virginia is offered the most attractive and well arranged schedule it has had in two years. One contest especially deserves worthy mention, namely, the central oratorical contest to be held at the University on May 8th. This oratorical league is composed of Chicago, Ohio, Wesleyan, Columbia, Cornell and Virginia, and to win this would mean much to the orange and blue. In addition to this, the Southern and State oratorical contests should create no small amount of interest. In the former contest Virginia's representatives will meet orators from the Universities of Alabama, Texas, Tennessee, South Carolina and Kentucky. This contest will be held at Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky.

Among the debates of interest are the two with Johns Hopkins and North Carolina, the first to be held at the University of Virginia on April 3d, and the Carolina debate to be held on the same day in Richmond. The contests scheduled are: Virginia-Carolina debate, at Richmond, April 3d. Virginia-Johns Hopkins debate, at the University of Virginia, April 3d. Contests for Oratorical medal, Jefferson Society, May 5th; Washington Society, May 4th. State oratorical contest, at Lexington, Va., May 7th. Southern oratorical contest, at Lexington, Ky., May 7th. Central oratorical contest, at University of Virginia, May 8th.
