

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

It is most interesting to note that people of letters in Richmond and Virginia, authors and authoresses, are all busy, or have been busy, on new books or stories that have just been or are about to appear in print.

Miss Ellen Glasgow, who has made good progress on a book to follow the recent publication of "The Ancient Law," will go abroad with her sister, Mrs. McCormick, in July and spend the summer, or a part of it, in Switzerland. She enjoyed a stay in the Swiss mountains several years ago, and was right to continue literary work every day. A party of Miss Glasgow's friends, including Mr. and Mrs. John S. Munce, are already in Europe, and will probably meet her during the summer.

Miss Mary Johnston's new book is scheduled to make its appearance during the month of July. It is said to be a romance of Virginia life and of the early nineteenth century period, and its mention brings up delightful recollections of "Prisoners of Hope," "To Have and to Hold" and last, but not least, of sylvan Audrey, for whom all the leaves of all the trees whispered music, and waved a beckoning spring invitation.

Princess Troubetsky has a novel that is to be brought out by Harper Brothers this month under the title of "The Golden Rose." As Miss Amelle Rives, the princess lived in Richmond during the early days of her literary career, and her personality as brilliant society woman and authoress, is always recalled afresh in her publications.

Mr. James Branch Cabell has just put before the Richmond public, through the medium of Harper's Magazine, another link in a cycle which he calls the "Dizain of Queens" which will appear later in book form. This special link reverts to the time of Richard II. of England. Mr. Cabell's well known ability as an old English romancer and rhymist is increased in this instance as in others by the quick perception of Howard Pyle, his illustrator, whose pictures for "The Scabard" are full of life and beauty.

Mr. Henry Sydney Harrison, whose "Blunder Into Eden" in the May Broadway magazine has been the subject of an unusual amount of favorable criticism, has more than one successor to this pleasing bit of fiction, already in his publishers' hands.

Footie-Kidd. A beautiful home wedding Wednesday afternoon, April 30, at 4 P. M., in the home of the bride's parents, was that of Miss Caroline Joplin Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boulware Kidd, to Mr. Thomas James Foote, of Wilson, N. C. The house was charmingly decorated in palms, ferns, Southern smilax, Easter lilies and roses, the flowers standing out clearly against a massing of the greenery. In the dining room, pink roses and maidenhair ferns, with pink-capped candles in silver candelabra, were most effective as the ornamentation of table and mantel.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Meade Clark, the Rev. Mr. Proctor, uncle of the bride, assisting. The bride came in with her father, who was handsomely crowned in gray chiffon voile with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Cornel Thomas C. James, of Wilmington, N. C., was best man, and little Master Edmund Henry Meanley, Jr., nephew of the bride, ringbearer. A reception for the bridal party and intimate friends was followed by the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Foote for Natural Bridge, the State, from that point they will make an extended Western tour. Their future home will be at Wilson, N. C.

Wedding Announced. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Sullivan, of No. 1115 Grove Avenue, announce the wedding of their daughter, Josephine, to Mr. Irwin A. Yarnell, of Minneapolis, Minn. The ceremony was quietly performed yesterday at 6 P. M., in the home of the bride's parents and in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Yarnell has always been considered one of the most attractive members of the Junior society set in the West End. The fact that she has married a Western capitalist and will go to a distant city to live is much regretted by her friends.

Bridge Whist Party. A beautiful bridge whist party, given yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Samuel Cohen, No. 10 East Grace Street, was an interesting social event in Jewish society circles. Parlor and house decorations were in Richmond roses, palms and ferns, red-capped candles and shaded lamps. Mrs. Cohen, elegantly gowned, proved a most delightful hostess. The partners were brilliantly fitted, refreshments being served on the card tables after the game. Those playing were Mrs. Siskund Kahn, Miss Rebecca Whitlock, Miss Estelle Whitlock, Mrs. Roscoe Nelson, Mrs. R. B. Stern, Mrs. J. K. Judah, Mrs. Aaron Greenwald, Mrs. Milton E. Marcuse, Mrs. William Schwartzschild, Mrs. Leon Nelson, Miss Marlon Heller, Mrs. D. B. Wallerstein, Mrs. Charles Labenberg, Mrs. Herman Wallerstein, Miss Rosa Block, Mrs. I.

Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the board of Woman's Christian Association was held at 430 P. M. yesterday. The president, Mrs. Beirne Blair, introduced the Rev. Dr. George W. McDaniel, who made the opening prayer and the annual address. The vice-presidential reports were heard from the chairmen of different committees, that from the Belle Bryan Day Nursery proving especially so. Mr. D. O. Davis presided at the election of officers. Mrs. Beirne Blair was again chosen president. The vice-presidents and other officers are: Mrs. Mann E. Quarles, Mrs. R. A. Ricks, Mrs. Coleman Wortham, Mrs. Beverly T. Crump; Miss Elizabeth Baldwin, recording secretary; Miss Elizabeth Richardson, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. C. O. Saville, treasurer. A social hour, with refreshments, closed the meeting.

Fleming-Keesee. The wedding of Miss Mary Constance Keesee, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Flske Keesee, to Mr. Sanford Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warner L. Fleming, was celebrated at 11 A. M. yesterday, the Rev. Dr. W. J. Young, of Danville, officiating. House decorations were in white and white, Easter lilies showing against groups of palms, mantels being banked with ferns and lilies, and palms making a background for the flowers in the bow window, where the altar was erected. An orchestra played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" and other beautiful selections. The matron of honor, Mrs. Oscar P. Reardon, sister of the bride, wore a cream Rajah silk and a pink rose-trimmed hat. She carried pink sweet-peas. Mr. Rives Fleming, brother of the groom, was best man.

Christian-Nelson. The marriage of Miss Grace Elizabeth Nelson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cary Nelson, of Charles City county, to Mr. Benjamin Lacy Christian, took place on Wednesday, April 29th, at 1 o'clock in the Church of the Epiphany, Washington, D. C., Rev. Randolph H. McKim officiating. Among those present were Mrs. Willis B. Moores, Miss Mary C. Moore, Miss Alice Ballard, Mr. George Tebbe Nelson, all of Richmond, Va. The bride wore a traveling suit of Copenhagen blue, with hat to match. After an extended Northern tour, Mr. and Mrs. Christian will be at home at Tellington, Charles City county.

Excursion to Williamsburg. Much interest is evinced in the excursion to Williamsburg to-morrow, under the auspices of Young Ladies Society, Second Presbyterian Church, and indications point to a large and delightful company. The championship ball game between the Richmond College and William and Mary teams, to be played there on Saturday, has attracted a large number, and a charming day is anticipated.

Conservatory Recital. The Richmond Conservatory of Music will give a recital at 8:30 o'clock, Friday evening, at 830 East Grace Street, Friday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

Hampden-Sidney Glee Club. A concert will be given this evening in the Jefferson Hotel auditorium by the Hampden-Sidney Glee Club. A number of society women who are patronesses of the concert and the Hampden-Sidney alumni are combining to render the evening both a success and a pleasure.

For Foreign Missions. Miss Maria Blair will deliver her lecture on "Jerusalem and the Isles of the Adriatic" in the lecture-room of Seventh Street Christian Church, Friday night. The lecture is most interesting and delightful, and it is expected that a large audience will be present.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Garrett G. Gooch, of Staunton, will be the guest for a short while of Mrs. R. T. Hunter, at 215 East Franklin Street. Mrs. W. H. Perkins and Miss Bell Perkins are again at home, at 414 West Franklin Street. Miss Perkins spent the greater part of the winter and early spring in Washington and at Old Point. Miss Mildred Minor Woodward, who has been taking a vocal course of study in New York is now at Chesterfield with her parents. Miss Susie Robertson, of Staunton, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hunter Holmes McGuire. Miss Sarah Robertson is expected to arrive on Saturday. They will remain in Richmond for the Montague-McGuire wedding taking place on Wednesday next, May 6th. Miss Bessie N. Wilson has returned from a visit to friends in Smithfield and Norfolk. Mrs. E. D. Cox is the guest of relatives in Newport News. Miss Jessie Skeen, of Covington, is in Richmond, and is stopping at Miss Pitzer's, 115 East Franklin Street. Mrs. George W. Faves, of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting friends and relatives in Richmond. Miss Fanny Michelbacher is spending a few days in Newport News. J., to-morrow. Miss Laeta Goodwin, of Wytheville, and Mrs. Goodwin are spending some time in Richmond, having been guests of the marriage of their relative, Miss Rutherford, to Mr. Mayo, on April 29th. Miss Levy, of Rock Island, Ill., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. M. Arnold, of 1123 West Franklin Street.

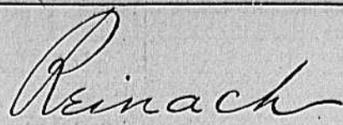

Good Concert at Warren. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WARREN, VA., April 30.—Last evening the choir of the First Presbyterian Church held their annual grand concert before a large and appreciative audience. The artists assisting the choir were Karl Hohn, violinist, and Miss Florence Kinrade, a Canadian soprano. No introduction to Karl Hohn is necessary, as his ability as a violinist is too well known, and last night's efforts only added more laurels to his already successful career. He was very enthusiastically applauded after each number. Miss Florence Kinrade, a new soloist here, and a Canadian soprano of marked ability, instantaneously became the favorite with the audience. After her first number her hearers were delighted with her clear, sweet voice, and plainly showed their appreciation by the marked enthusiasm displayed after each of the young artist's efforts. Undoubtedly the climax was reached when the choir's finale number, Buck's "Deo gratias" was given, with Miss Kinrade's high soprano voice soaring above the entire ensemble until a final E flat was reached, and maintained without the slightest apparent effort, but with a distinctness and power that truly stamped her as a singer of merit. The choir sang their numbers with precision and effect, which showed the careful training they had received under their worthy director, and it is to be congratulated upon the splendid results of his labor with his body of singers, and also upon the success of the concert.

"ECHOES FROM DIXIE" Grand Patriotic Concert Revisited Memories of Old Confederate Days. "Echoes from Dixie," the grand concert of Southern songs, was produced this morning in the Young Men's Christian Association before one of the largest crowds of the season. The hall was almost filled some time before the performance began. The old Southern songs, every one of which was rendered to the audience, were well rendered, and in every instance received with much applause. Much credit is due Mrs. J. Griffin Edwards, the commander-in-chief of the Southern choir, and Mr. F. W. Schlick, of Baltimore, who had the affair in charge. Each number won ample applause. "The Swannee River," by Mr. Schlick; "Songs from Dixie," by Mrs. Edwards; "Ben Bolt," by Henry Ruesher; "Tenting, Tenting, in the Camp," by Mrs. Edwards; "The Woodland Glee Quartet," were perhaps the best. Below is the program: Chorus.....Selected Ladies' Imperial Quartet, "American Patrol".....Selected Miss Agnes Coward, Miss Mildred Coward, Miss Mamie Keck, Miss Ray Whitcomb.....Selected Solo.....Mrs. J. "ECHOES FROM DIXIE" Grand Patriotic Concert Revisited Memories of Old Confederate Days. "Echoes from Dixie," the grand concert of Southern songs, was produced this morning in the Young Men's Christian Association before one of the largest crowds of the season. The hall was almost filled some time before the performance began. The old Southern songs, every one of which was rendered to the audience, were well rendered, and in every instance received with much applause. Much credit is due Mrs. J. Griffin Edwards, the commander-in-chief of the Southern choir, and Mr. F. W. Schlick, of Baltimore, who had the affair in charge. Each number won ample applause. "The Swannee River," by Mr. Schlick; "Songs from Dixie," by Mrs. Edwards; "Ben Bolt," by Henry Ruesher; "Tenting, Tenting, in the Camp," by Mrs. Edwards; "The Woodland Glee Quartet," were perhaps the best. Below is the program: Chorus.....Selected Ladies' Imperial Quartet, "American Patrol".....Selected Miss Agnes Coward, Miss Mildred Coward, Miss Mamie Keck, Miss Ray Whitcomb.....Selected Solo.....Mrs. J. Griff Edwards. Reading.....Selected Miss Eleanor Steinbrecher. Woodland Glee Quartet.....Selected Mr. Russell High, Mr. Charles O'Rourke, Mrs. E. E. Ermy, Mrs. E. E. Ermy.
