

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

MR. WILLIAM TODD ROBINS, of No. 310 East Franklin Street, announces the engagement of his daughter, Elizabeth Todd, to Mr. Maurice Johnston Lunn, of Pittsburg, Pa., the wedding to take place Saturday morning, June 27th.

On account of Miss Robins' illness there will be no cards of invitation, and the ceremony will be performed in the early forenoon, with only her immediate family present.

Jones-Hutchison. The wedding of Miss Emily Wallford Hutchison, daughter of Captain and Mrs. John Ambrose Hutchison, of No. 525 Floyd Avenue, to Mr. Brooke Nelson Jones, son of Mrs. Robert Catesby Jones, will be celebrated to-day at 8 P. M., in the home of the bride, the Rev. J. J. Gravatt, of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, officiating.

A reception will be given after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home when they return from their bridal trip, at No. 201 East Franklin Street.

Walters-Fitzgerald. A charming home wedding at 10:30 o'clock this morning will be celebrated in the home of the bride, when Miss Imogen Tazewell Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Fitzgerald, of No. 11 South Third Street, will be given in marriage to Mr. Samuel Emmett Walters, son of the late Dr. William T. Walters and Mrs. Walters, of Stanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walters will go North for an extended tour, and will reside at No. 2405 Grove Avenue when they return.

Allen-Evans. Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Susie Howard Evans to Mr. James Wilmer Allen.

Both bride and groom are from Richmond. The ceremony was performed Monday, June 8, at the home of the bride's brother, No. 1502 Q Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The bride is the daughter of the late Rev. S. H. Evans, a well known Baptist minister, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen will be at home, after June 20th, at No. 394 South Third Street.

Willing Workers Entertain. The Willing Workers of St. Mark's Church, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Baker, will give a dramatic entertainment, "Clarelle," in the school-room of the church Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The following make up the cast: Fessie Cox, as Cinderella; James Lawler, as Prince Rupert; Joseph Gassar, as King; Lily Priddy, as Peasecree; Ella Dunn, as Stumpet; Madeline Cox, as mother; Eliza Belle Wilkison, as Fairy Godmother; and Thomas Jones and William Cox.

Mrs. Baker will be assisted in the entertainment by pupils of Mrs. Cora Sizer's music class, who will render selections. They will be Misses Pauline Baker, Cora Lynne Woods, Hazel Asher, Katie Asher, Ella Deane Blair, Edward Montague, Katherine Hart.

Get a Pianola Piano FOR THE Summer Home. You Can Play It. It will solve the summer music problem so completely—so satisfactorily—and so easily, that you will be delighted every day.

When you have a Pianola Piano (the one perfect inner player) or a Pianola, then you no longer have a SILENT Piano in your home, but instead, a USEFUL Piano that You Can Play Yourself Equal to a Skilled Pianist.

The interpretation—the delicate shading—is left to your INDIVIDUAL expression. The Inner Player or Pianola Piano is simple, yet powerful in helping any one—even a child to realize the full power of music to charm and delight. It is found in these Pianos only—

Weber, Wheelock, Steck, Stuyvesant Price $550 and Up

THE PIANOLA is this wonderful inner player, separate and ready to be attached to any piano. If you already have a good piano then get a PIANOLA.

Price $250 and Up A SPECIAL OFFER.—We have some slightly used separate Pianolas and Pianos taken in exchange for Pianola Pianos, that we will sell at a big bargain.

Walter D. Moses & Co. 103 East Broad Street. OLDEST MUSIC HOUSE IN VIRGINIA.

The Baking GOOD LUCK BAKING POWDER THE POWDER. When "Good Luck" is used in one round of successes and pleasures. Every product of the culinary art is white, light and delightful to the palate.

Mary Kirsh and Ruby Brock Smith. Woman's Club. The appreciative audience which gathered at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon to hear Miss Helen Hoppe Broadus's piano recital enjoyed a rare musical treat. Miss Broadus is full of temperament, and adds to an excellent technique a depth and fullness of touch unusual in one so young. She has been admirably trained under the careful instruction of Mr. F. C. Hair.

The following attractive program was rendered: "Schumann's" (Chopin); "Romance" (Schumann); "Valse Brillante" (Chopin); "Serenade" (Chamisso); "Witchens Dance" (McDowell); "Faust Waltz" (Gounod-Liszt).

Among the guests of the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Broadus and Mrs. Leiper Robinson, of Bowling Green; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hair, Miss Louise Lewis, Miss Louise Barker, Mrs. J. P. McGuire, Miss Annie Davis, Miss Porterfield, Miss Leila Wingfield, Mr. Bassett Hough and Mrs. and Miss Stockton, of New York.

Tea was served by Miss Alice N. Parker, while Mrs. E. A. Hoen and Mrs. R. E. Glover presided at the lemonade table.

The Monday afternoon teas will be continued until further notice.

Invitations Issued. Invitations have been issued by Mrs. William Burleigh Clark, of Newport News, for the marriage of her sister, Julia Underwood Whittier, to Mr. Edward McClernand Cabanis, of Lynchburg, the wedding to be celebrated Thursday, June 18th, at 8 P. M. Mr. Cabanis, who is connected in business with the American Tobacco Company, formerly lived in Richmond and has many friends here.

A wedding of much interest will be celebrated at 9 o'clock, on the evening of June 20th, in the chapel at the University of Virginia, when Miss Clara Mary Tuttle, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Albert H. Tuttle, is to be married to Mr. William Henry Robinson. Mrs. Tuttle has frequently visited in Richmond, and is a member of note in the Virginia Society of Colonial Dames and other patriotic organizations. Consequently the issuance of invitations for her daughter's wedding is a matter of note in the social world.

Cards have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Scherer for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Elsie Hamilton, to Mr. Eric Lee Norton, the ceremony to take place at the home of the bride, No. 24th, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Scherer home, 2117 Grove Avenue.

Last Meeting. Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold its last meeting until the autumn to-day at 11 A. M., in Lee Camp Hall.

General Meeting at Noon. A general meeting of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities with the advisory board and central committee will be held to-day at noon, in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society. As this is the final meeting until autumn, and important business will be transacted, all members are urged to attend.

Stay-at-Home Club. The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met Monday evening with Mrs. Arthur Cannon. Four tables played, the highest score being made by Mrs. S. W. Travers and Mr. A. M. Cannon. The meeting next Monday evening will be with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robins, No. 17 South Third Street.

Mr. Holmes at Hospital. Mrs. George S. Holmes, of Charleston, S. C., president of the Jefferson Monument Association, who came to Richmond to attend the ceremonies connected with the turning over of the monument to the city, and who had the misfortune to be painfully injured by a fall on Broad Street, is now at Virginia Hospital, and will be discharged there some time longer before she can be home.

Her friends in Richmond, who have regretted her accident, have been most attentive, and her room at the hospital has been kept fragrant and beautiful with flowers.

Auxiliary to Meet. Church Hill Auxiliary to the Retreat for the Sick will meet this afternoon in the home of Mrs. Charles J. Billups, at 4:30 o'clock. Arrangements will be made for the "West Point Twilight," and a full meeting is desired.

Personal Mention. Miss Eliza Christian left Monday to spend the remainder of the summer at Crozet, Albemarle county.

Miss Louise Yarrington has returned from Bethlehem, Pa., where she attended school during the past year.

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder Cleanses, preserves and beautifies the teeth, and Purifies the breath. A superior dentifrice for people of refinement. Established in 1866 by S. W. Lyon, D.D.S.

Virginia Weddings Lacy-Morrison. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., June 9.—At the Holy Cross Catholic Church this morning at 7:15 o'clock in a beautiful but simple manner, the ceremony of marriage between Miss Mary Morrison and Mr. Edward E. Lacy, a former resident of Lynchburg, but now engaged in business in Petersburg, immediately after the marriage was celebrated Mr. and Mrs. Lacy left for a Northern trip, the bride and groom taking up their residence in Petersburg.

The bridal party entered the church in the following order: Messrs. John Morley, Rutherford Magruder, Messrs. Fred Rucker and James Doherty, who were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Johanna Morrison, a sister of the bride. Then came the bride leaning upon the arm of her father, who met the groom with his best man, Mr. Thomas Curry, of the main floor. The ceremony was performed impressively at one of the side altars by the Rev. J. McGurk.

Miller-Guy. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., June 9.—At noon to-day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Andrews in Rivermont, Mrs. Virginia S. Guy became the wife of Mr. F. D. Miller, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The home was attractively decorated, but the marriage was very quiet.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left on an afternoon train for an extended trip which will carry them into Canada, after which they will reside here where Mr. Miller is engaged in business.

Shelton-Henry. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DANVILLE, VA., June 9.—Miss Sallie E. Brown, daughter of H. W. Brown, of Danville, and Miss S. H. Shelton, daughter of a dentist, were quietly married this afternoon at the bride's home. The wedding came as a surprise to the friends of the young couple. Rev. William A. Brown, rector of St. John's Church, at Portsmouth, and brother of the bride, officiated. He was assisted by his sister, Mrs. M. H. Hall, rector of the Church of Epiphany.

Miss Roosevelt to Attend. WASHINGTON, June 9.—Miss Ethel Roosevelt left Washington yesterday for Lynchburg, Va., where she will be a bridesmaid to-morrow at the marriage of Miss Georgianna Harding Farr and Mr. Fletcher Harper Sibley.

Shawalter-Kirk. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, VA., June 9.—Mr. C. M. Shawalter and Mrs. E. Kirk, daughter of Mrs. Edward Haymaker, were married last night, Rev. J. W. H. Peale officiating. The groom is a well known business man.

Married at Hagerstown. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, VA., June 9.—After being absent a week from Winchester, Va., because of failure to comply with the State law, Harry Cain and Miss Mary Parker, of Winchester, pronounced their nuptials here, where they were married last evening.

His Jurisdiction Extended. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DANVILLE, VA., June 9.—It is known here to-day that Major Stanley W. Martin, who for twenty years has been clerk of the Federal Court, had been appointed to the position of district and circuit courts, having charge of the clerical department at Danville, Lynchburg, Roanoke and Charlottesville, and the entire mountain section by the death of William Macaulay, at Roanoke.

RICH VEIN OF GOLD OPENED NEAR CATAWBA [From Our Regular Correspondent.] SPENCER, N. C., June 9.—The Peach Tree Mining Company, under the management of B. V. Hedrick, a former merchant of Spencer, has opened a rich vein of gold near Catawba Station, Catawba county, which is yielding 125 tons of ore per day, panning 75 cents per ton. The vein is 1-300 feet wide and several miles in length and with an unknown depth. The company, which owns several thousand acres of valuable land adjacent to the mine, has installed an Erdman gold-washing machine and other modern equipments. The concern will be incorporated within a few days at $100,000. The mine gives promise of being one of the richest in the South.

STILL VOTING WITHOUT RESULT. Over 500 Ballots Taken and Solicitor Not at Home. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DURHAM, N. C., June 9.—The Ninth Judicial District Convention is still in session, holding all night without adjournment save a recess today for dinner, and one hour this evening for supper.

At 9 o'clock to-night 553 ballots have been taken, with only slight change from the original first ballot yesterday at 3 o'clock. Jones Fuller, for solicitor, is in the lead at this hour.

Receivers for Inman Estate. ATLANTA, GA., June 9.—Judge Pendleton in the Superior Court appointed Mrs. Harriet Inman and Mr. J. M. Gray permanent receivers for the estate of the late Walker P. Inman, said to be valued at $1,400,000. Judge Pendleton appointed a receiver for the estate on application of Mrs. Gray, following the failure of the cotton firm of Inman & Company, in which she and the late W. P. Inman, was a partner.

Fix Blame for Accident. SAN PEDRO, CAL., June 9.—The board of inquiry appointed by Rear-Admiral Sebree to investigate the accident on the United States battleship Oregon, at San Pedro, practically completed its work, and its report will probably be forwarded to-morrow to Secretary of the Navy.

Today made a thorough inspection of the boilers. When the investigation is finally completed the boilers will be submitted to a full speed test.

Prisoner Jumps from Train. Dashes for Liberty and Minds Not Pliant Shot. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., June 9.—As the westbound Southern train, bound for Raleigh and Greensboro, passed through Auburn last evening, Wilson F. Perry jumped from the train and ran to escape from impending service of one year's sentence in the State Prison for forgery. He was being brought to Raleigh from Tarboro by Deputy Sheriff Frank Dugan and W. Martin. Perry asked for some water and was carried forward to get it. The train was just pulling out from Auburn, and he was in the open door and down the car steps. The deputies fired at him five times, and Martin went in pursuit. Perry was captured and was obliged to remain in the train with another prisoner.

Pythians Gather in Large Numbers Grand Lodge in Session at Raleigh—Kitchen Now Ahead, But Craig Claims Victory. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., June 9.—The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, for North Carolina, assembled in thirty-eighth annual session here to-night, the attendance being the largest in the history of the order in this State. W. C. Crist, grand chancellor, of Winston-Salem, is presiding, and the reports of officers to be submitted to-morrow will show remarkable growth, both in membership and in new subordinate lodges. The formal opening of the grand lodge was at 8 o'clock, and at 9 o'clock there was a public meeting, in which the address of welcome was delivered by Mayor James I. Johnston, and the response by Hon. H. P. Brown, supreme vice-chancellor. Past Grand Chancellor W. W. Willson, of Raleigh, also welcomed the members of the grand lodge. The sessions of the grand lodge will continue through Thursday forenoon.

What Craig Claims. The weekly gubernatorial bulletin issued from Craig's headquarters here to-day, and gives the status of the contest to date to be as follows: Instructed for Craig, 250,935; instructed for Horne, 10,556; instructed for Borne, 10,556; instructed for 37. Counties yet to be taken: Johnston, Johnston, Gaston, Mecklenburg, Anson, Vance, Franklin, Nash, Carteret, Bertie, Martin, Tyrrell, Dar-, Chowan, Currituck. These have 116 votes in the State convention, and the Craig management claim that he will receive a substantial plurality in them. The prediction, that Mr. Craig will have a substantial lead over Mr. Kitchin in the first ballot, and are confident of the nomination.

Camp Will be Ideal. That Camp Glenn, Morehead, the permanent camp ground for the North Carolina National Guard, will be equipped ideally for the accommodation of the guard, one regiment at a time, by July 10th, is the announcement made this morning by Quartermaster General A. M. Mason, of Henderson, who has been in the field several days looking after the progress of the work. The contractors are, he says, pushing the work now with all possible dispatch, and the new equipment will include quarters, sewerage, light and buildings for quarters and storage. Many improvements are also being made on the rifle range. There are forty men at work on the camp.

Governor Glenn to-day issued a commission to La Fayette Douglas, of Manteo, Dare county, as a commissioner of wrecks for that section of the coast.

COTTON MANUFACTURERS. Those of North Carolina to Hold Convention This Week. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WILMINGTON, N. C., June 9.—One of the most important yearly events in the organization life of North Carolina is the convention of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association of the State at Wrightsville Beach, this week. The convention will be held Thursday and Friday, the large auditorium of the Seashore Hotel being used for the purpose. The convention will be a notable one, as it is a gathering of the captains of industry, and at least 200 members are expected to be in attendance.

There will be no set speeches at the convention, but a number of the members have consented to make practical business talks. The members and their topics are as follows: Mr. A. E. Moore, "Labor—Its Control, Its Management"; Mr. D. L. Gore, "Advancement of the Cotton Industry"; Mr. J. B. Hester, "Relation of Mill to Commissioner of Finance"; Mr. A. M. Thompson, "Cotton Exchange"; Mr. M. F. Gouverneur, "Economy of Steam and Electric Power."

An invitation has been accepted by Mr. John H. Winder, president of the Clinchfield Coal Corporation, to address the convention, and will speak on the prices of coal, rates, etc.

Senators Overman and Simmons have also been invited to attend the meetings, as has also Congressman H. L. Godwin, of this district.

SCIENCE AND IMMORTALITY. Dr. Bradley Discusses Subject at Trinity Convocation. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DURHAM, N. C., June 9.—To-day's biennial of Trinity College commenced here at 10 o'clock, with an address by Rev. Henry Stiles Bradley, D. D., of St. Louis. A great congregation heard the music by a picked choir of local talent, and an interesting feature of the subject of disconnection between Science and the Belief in Immortality.

Dr. Bradley said: "The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

The doctor here went into the fact of life and argued the point in a most learned way. He said that there is nothing inherently improbable in the belief in immortality, and second that there are many facts in science which render its belief both reasonable and probable."

Weak Women frequently suffer great pain and misery during the change of life, when the womanly functions are undergoing the readjustment that comes to every woman. It is at this time that the beneficial effect of taking Cardui is more than ever appreciated, by those who find in it relief for their seemingly unbearable distress. These hot and cold flashes, pains in back or side, drawing sensations, headaches, dizzy feelings, etc., have been found, in thousands of cases, to disappear, as a result of taking Cardui—at this time as well as earlier in life.

TAKE CARDUI It Will Help You. Mrs. Lucinda C. Hill, of Freeland, O., writes: "Before I began to take Cardui, I thought my time had come. I suffered so badly I was afraid to lie down at night. After I began to take it I felt better in a week. Now my pains have gone. I can sleep like a girl of 16 and the change of life has nearly left me." Try Cardui. All druggists sell it.

VALUABLE BOOK FREE Write for 64-page illustrated book, "Home Treatment for Women," describing symptoms of Female Diseases and giving valuable hints on health, hygiene, diet, medicine, etc., for women. Sent free, postpaid. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

A Good Dinner Needs a good dessert to go with it. Our Ice Cream is the ideal dessert for these sweltering days. It is delicious and every spoonful of it is perfection in the ice cream line.

Moesta Ice Cream Co. 2507 East Broad Street. Phone 7244.

The MARK LUMSDEN is assurance that the BEST has been secured. Then why not have your gift bear that symbol? C. LUMSDEN & SON, Jewelers and Silversmiths, 731 East Main Street.

was received about 9 o'clock this morning. Dr. Andrews was born and reared in this city. After attending the public schools and spending a year at the university, he left for New York City, where he took up the study of veterinary surgery at the University of New York. Three years ago he graduated, and at once entered upon the practice of his profession, associating himself with Dr. McKinney, a noted veterinarian of Brooklyn.

Miss Lottie Shertzer. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WINCHESTER, VA., June 9.—Miss Lottie Shertzer, daughter of C. W. Shertzer, died of consumption to-day at Stephens City, this county. She leaves her parents and one sister.

DEATHS BROOKS.—Died, at his residence, No. 209 North Eighteenth Street, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Mr. W. J. BROOKS, the only son of the late Thomas Brooks, aged fifty-five. He leaves a devoted wife, one son, one daughter, Alice T., and Mrs. John S. Heppert, and two sisters.

The funeral will take place this (Wednesday) AFTERNOON at 4:30 o'clock from Hogg Memorial Church, corner of Richmond and York streets. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend. Lynchburg papers please copy.

CRADDOCK.—Died, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. L. M. Polachek (nee Ada Craddock), in New York City, Mrs. JULIA DEB CRADDOCK, formerly of Richmond, Va., aged seventy-three years. She leaves two sons and three daughters.

CLEMENTS.—Died, June the 9th, at 9:35 A. M., at the residence of her sister, Mrs. James E. Harlow, 411 West Marshall Street, Mrs. CLARA CLEMENTS, wife of T. J. Clements, of Powhatan Courthouse.

The funeral from Immanuel Church, Powhatan county, THURSDAY, June 10th, at 3:30 o'clock.

HOLT.—Died, at his home, 208 East Thirteenth Street, Manchester, at 1 A. M. Tuesday, the 9th, G. G. HOLT. Funeral will be from Cowardin Avenue Christian Church at 4 o'clock THURSDAY, Wednesday, June 10th. Philadelphia papers please copy.

JOHNSTON.—Died, on June 9th, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Lee, Mrs. JOHN W. JOHNSTON, widow of United States Senator Johnston, and mother of Dr. George B. Johnston.

The funeral services will be held from St. Peter's Church, Eighth and Broad Streets, THIS (Wednesday) MORNING at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Lee will meet at Wytheville, Va., Thursday, June 11th.

Post (Formerly called) Toasties spread from house to house "The Taste Lingers." Package two sizes, 10 and 15 cents. Made by Postum Cereals Company, Limited, Battle Creek, Mich.