

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE first social afternoon at the Woman's Club yesterday, offered an opportunity for much handshaking and many pleasant greetings among friends and members returning from their summer outing.

The tea and coffee tables were set in the club parlors and decorated with tablecloths and pretty ferns. Mrs. Charles B. Ball presided at the coffee table and Mrs. Lewis was the hostess of the tea table.

Among the guests of the afternoon were Miss Blackford, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Minor Lewis, of Lynchburg, who, with her husband, is the guest of Judge and Mrs. L. L. Lewis. Others present were Madame and Miss Gillette, Mrs. Norton Sawyer, Mrs. Christopher Tompkins, Mrs. Catesby Jones, Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Mrs. Howard Hoge, Mrs. T. William Pemberton, Mrs. S. W. Travers, Mrs. Pattison, Mrs. John Munce, Miss James, Miss Augusta Daniel, Miss Fanny Munford and Mrs. T. A. Miller.

The club parlors were particularly attractive, and the lawn, both back and front, was beautifully kept. The Monday social afternoon was gay and animated to a degree, everybody seeming to be glad to resume the activities of the autumn season, and say "I am glad to see you home again" to friends.

Miss Nellie's Picnic Party. Miss Lucille Nelson Neal gave a delightful picnic party on Saturday at Greenwood, the country home of her father, near Brandy, in Orange county. Guests, chaperoned by Mrs. M. A. Samuelson, of Richmond, included Misses Margherita and Katherine Samuelson, of Denver, Col.; Misses Frances Taunt and Miss Mildred Hill, of Culpeper; Miss Lucy Wilcher, of Baltimore; Miss Grace Neal, Miss Helen Haskins and Miss Arvid Samuelson, of Richmond; Messrs. George Wilcher, of Baltimore; Carner Nelson, of Denver, Col.; Charles Neal Goldsborough, of Culpeper; Felger Neal and William J. Grigg, of Richmond.

The weather was lovely and all forms of outdoor and indoor amusements rendered the day ideal.

Miss Hawes Returned. Miss Katherine Hawes and party have returned, after spending several months in European travel. Messrs. Blair and Moylan Pitts and Miss Constance Evans, of Washington, D. C., and W. E. Evans, were among the number of Miss Hawes's traveling companions.

To Visit Richmond. Miss Lucy Wilcher, a beautiful Baltimore debutante of the approaching season, will be the guest of Miss Grump, at the Chestnut, after the return of the latter from abroad.

Birthday Celebration. Mr. E. A. Vivas, assisted by Miss Myra Gills, entertained a number of friends at No. 710 East Clay Street on Thursday evening in honor of his birthday. A delightful musical and social evening was enjoyed by all present.

The parlor was decorated in white, green and yellow. At 10:20 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining-room, where refreshments were served, and much amusement was afforded by guessing what the birthday cake contained.

The guests were Misses Katie Sala, Sadie Abrams, Annie Robinson, Nannie Leland, Lella Lettich, Pearl Brauer, Nannie Herndon, Annie Richardson, Ellen Goodwin, Rosa and Blanch Friedberg and Emma Gills, Messrs. Kenzie Chatter, John Frayer, George Wilson, Ricardo and George Villafra, Matias Covas, Jose A. Font, Manuel Vivar, Pedro Segarra, Rogelio Francisco de Soto, George London and Douglas Gills.

The entertainment closed with a contest of a floral wedding, in which Miss Annie Richardson and Mr. Pedro Segarra were the prize winners.

BUFFALO BILL WRITES A NEW BOOK ENTITLED True Tales of The Plains

COL. W. F. CODY

There is a great big crowd (a multitude, in fact) of Col. Cody's admirers (many millions) waiting for this extraordinary book. It is far more interesting than any fiction ever written. The events all actually happened just as Col. Cody tells them in his fascinating style.

READ TO-DAY

- How Buffalo Bill killed his first Indian at 11, to save other lives.
How his career was nearly ended at 13.
His famous capture of 300 Indians in 21 hours at 14.
His little affairs with horse thieves.
How Wild Bill killed 10 men. This was the greatest hurry-up fight that ever happened in the West. McCandless and his gang exterminated in this fight by Wild Bill were the worst desperadoes on the face of the earth.
How Buffalo Bill secured his title over Comstock in a great Buffalo hunt.
The Fort Phil Kearney Massacre.
The Fight at Embury Ranch.
The Battle of Summit Springs—Buffalo Bill to the rescue.
Cody's last battle.
General Miles' narrow escape.
The death of Yellow Hand in a duel with Buffalo Bill.
Lieutenant DeWolf's hair-raising escape.

These are sample headings of some of the 34 great and thrilling interesting chapters contained in this book of real happenings in the Winning of the West, told with a force never excelled in fiction.

BYARS AND SLEMP MEET IN DEBATE

Rival Candidates in the Ninth Have Joint Discussion, Which Pleases Democrats.

BRISTOL, Va., September 7.—The campaign in the Ninth Virginia District was opened at Jonesville, Lee county, to-day, when a joint discussion of the issues was indulged in by Congressman C. B. Slemp and Thomas Munsey on one side, and Slemp's opponent, J. Cloyd Byars, and I. C. Chamberlayne on the other.

It is estimated that the crowd was the largest to be gathered at a political meeting at Jonesville in twenty years. Music was furnished by the Pennington Gap Brass Band.

There was lively cheering for both sides, the enthusiasm having surpassed that of any former occasion in recent years.

The same opponents indulged in a joint discussion at Pennington Gap to-night. The debate covered the whole range of national issues.

Congressman Slemp reviewed briefly his work in Congress, what he has introduced in the way of measures, and what he proposes to put through Congress in the event he is re-elected. He answered the attack made upon his record by his opponent in an earnest manner. There were no unpleasant incidents connected with the debate, although party enthusiasm ran high on both sides.

Byars Men Are Pleased. The joint debate resulted from a third challenge made by Hon. J. Cloyd Byars, the Democratic nominee, to his Republican opponent, Congressman Slemp. Mr. Byars opened the debate in fine style, and demanded of Mr. Slemp to explain his attitude with reference to the Crumpacker bill, but in his reply Mr. Slemp made no allusion to this bill.

I. C. Chamberlayne, a New York Democrat, who was formerly a Republican, followed Mr. Byars, discussing the national issues at length and predicting the success of Byars. The debate was closed for the Republicans by Tom Munsey, of Bland, who distinguished himself as an orator in the convention which nominated Mr. Slemp.

Henry Roberts, of the committee which has the management of Mr. Byars's campaign, said to-night in a special message from Pennington Gap: "Fully 2,000 people heard the debate at Jonesville to-day. They were about evenly divided with reference to the two parties. It was a field day for Mr. Byars, who made a strong speech, and one that impressed the large audience. I am more than satisfied with the opening day."

SPEAKING IN CHARLOTTE

Both Democrats and Republicans Are Given a Hearing.

EURKA MILLS, Va., September 7.—The Democratic campaign was opened in Charlotte to-day, the first speech of the canvass being made by Senator Don P. Halsey, of Lynchburg, County Chairman Lee W. Morton presided, and introduced the speaker. Mr. Halsey's speech was pronounced by the large crowd which heard him to be one of the best delivered in the courthouse in a long time. Mr. Halsey predicted victory under the leadership of that peerless champion of the people, William B. Bryan.

At the close of Mr. Halsey's speech the Republicans took charge of the courthouse. Mr. F. H. Morris, of Halifax county, spoke in interest of the Democrats. His speech was short, and along the usual lines of attack by a Republican speaker.

Mr. Mercer Hartman, of Roanoke, the Republican candidate for Congress from the Sixth District, was present, and in a brief address advocated his candidacy. In his attack upon the Democrats his remarks were spirited.

SPEAKING IN GLOUCESTER

Congressman Jones Makes Vigorous Reply to Mr. Wise.

GLOUCESTER COURTHOUSE, Va., September 7.—An unusually large crowd assembled at Gloucester Courthouse to-day. Judge Claggett Jones was on the bench. At the 12 o'clock recess the courthouse was turned over to the political speakers. Judge Edgar Montague, of Hampton, Democratic collector for the First District, made a strong speech on the Democratic issues. He was followed by Mr. Geo. N. Wise, Republican candidate for Congress from Newport News. He spoke well on State issues and the Republican platform.

Hon. W. A. Jones, of Warsaw, followed Mr. Wise and repelled every argument of Mr. Wise in a wonderful speech which was frequently and enthusiastically applauded by the large attendance. This speaker was said by competent judges to be the most masterly they ever heard. Hon. Boyd Seara also made a fine speech, which was greatly applauded. Democracy seems thoroughly aroused and in the saddle in Gloucester.

Atlanta Has Open-Air Meeting.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 7.—A parade of several thousand laboring men in the morning followed by an open-air meeting at Grand Park in the afternoon, and the closing of all business houses, marked the observance of Labor Day in Atlanta. The meeting at Grand Park was addressed by Governor Smith, Forrest Adair and others prominent in the city's business life.

PARTY LEADERS GATHER

Democratic Managers in Chicago for Conference To-Day.

CHICAGO, September 7.—Members of the Democratic National Committee, who are gathering here for a conference to-morrow met informally at the Auditorium Hotel to-day, and talked over the outlook for the Democratic cause. To-morrow the whole committee will meet and talk over campaign plans with Mr. Bryan and Mr. Kern. There will also be meetings of the advisory and finance committees. During the day Chairman Mack talked with each member of the committee on the situation in the States. Efforts are being made to have Mr. Bryan make a long swing through the far Western States during October, and it is not unlikely that he may consent to make the tour.

Clark Howell, national committeeman from Georgia, arrived here to-day, and held a conference with Mr. Bryan and Chairman Mack. Conditions in the South were discussed. Mr. Howell said:

"This talk of Mr. Taft carrying Georgia and other Southern States is nonsense. Mr. Bryan is just as popular as he ever was, and he will not only get the electoral votes of the Southern States, but he will receive the popular vote as well in that section, and with majorities as large as in former years.

"Our State election takes place October 7th, which is a month in advance of the presidential election. Mr. Brown, our nominee for Governor, will have all of 100,000 majority. Although John Temple Graves, who is one of the candidates for the presidency on the ticket of the Independence party, is a Georgian, I do not believe that he will poll more than 4,000 votes in the State. Taft's vote will be less than 40,000, and the combined opposi-
