

EFFORT TO DICTATE BAD AS THIRD TERM

(Continued From First Page.) Arrival from Lincoln shortly before 9 o'clock in a special trolley car, accompanied by 100 members of the Lincoln Home Guards, was the signal for a great demonstration. The carriage in which he rode to the city park, where he spoke to a large audience composed mostly of workmen in the railroad shops, ran a gauntlet of red fire and Roman candles, while the throngs on the sidewalks vociferously cheered him. His remarks dwelt mainly on the subject of campaign publicity, election of Senators by direct vote of the people and the labor planks in the Denver platform.

November 18, 1892, as any one can ascertain by examining the records. The first session of Congress adjourned in the summer of 1892, and the second session did not assemble until December of that year. I think the language quoted is the same that has been used at other times, when it was charged that I had used the language in an editorial in a paper of which I was at one time editor. It was claimed that the editorial appeared in 1892. This was nearly two years before I became connected with the paper. I do not know whether the editorial ever appeared in that paper, but I know that I was not connected with the paper until long after the date on which the editorial is said to have appeared, and I know that I never wrote an editorial for that paper, or any other paper, or ever said in a speech or otherwise, anything unfriendly to the soldier and his pension. As this misrepresentation was brought to my attention, I take this means of answering it. All of my platforms have endorsed pensions, and I favor a liberal pension policy."

Canon Only One of Them. "Yes, they had Canon, of Illinois, there," said a man in a crowd, "quickly replied Mr. Bryan.

"There are many others there that are just as bad, and one of them was nominated for Vice-President on the Republican ticket by Mr. Sherman, just as bad as Mr. Cannon on all matters of legislation."

Taking up the labor question, Mr. Bryan denounced Speaker Cannon as an enemy of legislation, favorable to labor, and said that he never made a speech in the Speaker's chair nothing in the way of reform could be secured. Even if Mr. Taft were elected, and favored labor legislation, which he said the public opinion candidate did, the Speaker and Mr. Taft would not be in complete agreement. The Democratic party, he insisted, was pledged to legislation for which labor had been pleading.

Mr. Bryan left Lincoln at midnight for a one-day's campaigning in Iowa.

PROSECUTION OF TRUSTS

Editor Daniels Comes Back at Bonaparte for Direct Information.

CHICAGO, ILL., October 5.—Addressing an open letter to Attorney-General Bonaparte to-night, Joseph Daniels, chairman of the publicity bureau of the Democratic National Committee, asserts that the Attorney-General in a statement replying to the inquiry for a statement showing how many trusts doing business in the United States had been prosecuted by the Department of Justice did not furnish the information desired, but instead contained the professions under the Sherman anti-trust law with the professions of railroads and individuals under other acts.

Mr. Daniels submits to the Attorney-General four questions, as follows: "1. How many of the 287 trusts, giving names, doing business in the United States have been prosecuted by the present administration?"

"2. How many of these trusts, naming them separately, have been fined, and the separate amounts?"

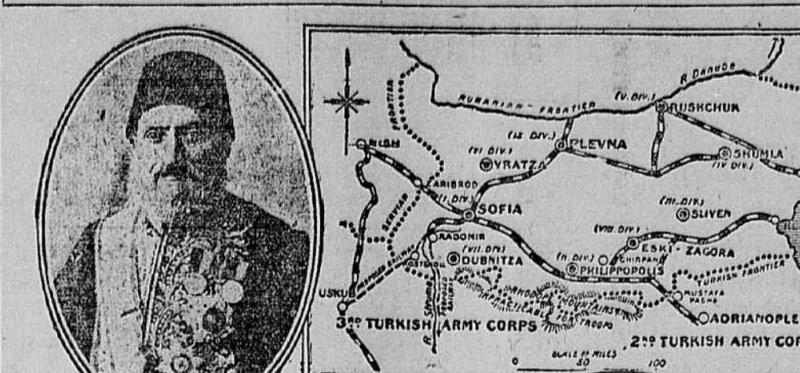

"3. After a trust has been fined, what other steps have been taken to prevent its continuing its illegal practices, for which it was forced to pay the penalty?"

"4. How many of the officials of these 287 trusts have been criminally prosecuted, and how many have been convicted, and the term of imprisonment, giving the names of each person who has been imprisoned for violating the laws?"

In concluding, Mr. Daniels declares that, even where the administration has successfully consummated prosecutions, the guilty trusts have continued their illegal operations, and that the penalties imposed are analogous to police fines—that is, regarded as a license to continue.

SEEK TO AVERT WAR

France Plays Role of Mediator and Conferences Are Held.

PARIS, October 5.—France has essayed the role of mediator with the object of preventing war between Turkey and Bulgaria, and as a result of Foreign Minister Pinchon's series of conferences to-day with the representatives of the powers, including M. Iswolsky, the Russian foreign minister, Naoum Pasha, the Turkish ambassador to France, the Austro-Hungarian, the British, the American and the Italian ambassadors, and of active exchanges which have been going on between the various cabinets, it was announced to-night that France, Great Britain, Russia and possibly Italy were prepared to act in unison to preserve peace and to call a conference of the signatories of the Berlin treaty to deal diplomatically with the situation that has arisen between Turkey and Bulgaria, and to harmonize conflicting interests so that fresh complications may be avoided.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Chicago Woman Tells How the Tonic Treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Her.

The processes of digestion are controlled by the blood and nerves. That is why the tonic treatment, by which the blood is built up, has cured so many cases of stubborn stomach trouble.

Many people are suffering daily from stomach trouble because they cling to old-fashioned methods, eat predigested foods and in other ways aggravate the disorder they seek to cure. But prejudice must give way before proof such as this statement by Miss S. A. McCarty, of 6028 South Green Street, Chicago, Ill., who says:

"I suffered for four years with indigestion, which I think was brought on by nervousness. My stomach was in such bad shape that as soon as I ate anything I would be distressed, have pains and my stomach would become sour. No kind of food seemed to agree with me.

"I went to a specialist for several months, but he did not help me, so I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills upon the advice of my sister. They soon helped me, and I took them steadily for quite a while. My indigestion gradually disappeared, until I was able to eat and digest any kind of food, gained in flesh and strength, and have not been troubled with nervousness since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be safe and harmless to the stomach, and do not contain any opium, morphine, opiate, narcotic, nor anything to cause a drug habit. They do not act on the bowels, but they actually make new blood and strengthen the nervous system. Weakness, paralysis, locomotor ataxia and the special ailments that only women folk know.

COMPROMISE PLAN WINS IN COUNCIL

(Continued From First Page.) voted down, and communications from Manchester protesting were read in silence. Mr. Ferguson objecting to their reading, saying that the Ordinance Committee had already heard four lawyers and a judge from Manchester say how the council of Richmond should run its business.

Mr. Billey led the opposition in a prolonged debate, in which Mr. Richards and Mr. Ratcliffe favored the ordinance with the restrictions imposed. On the final vote Mr. Billey was the only negative.

The City Attorney was directed to acquire land without compensation from property owners in several districts of the annexed territory for the opening of streets and alleys. It being explained that there were no funds available, and where property owners were not willing to give enough land to have the improvement made, the property must wait.

The Finance Committee was directed to issue $251,200 of refunding bonds to take the place of paper maturing January 1st, and on recommendation of the Finance Committee, $14,745 was appropriated for hands and carts' payroll in the Street Department, on recommendation of the Grounds and Buildings Committee, an ordinance was adopted prohibiting interference by spectators at games held on the public athletic fields at William Byrd Park.

An ordinance fixing the salary of the civil justice at $3,000 was reported and referred to the Finance Committee—as was an ordinance to employ a matron at the police station.
