

TO UNVEIL STATUE OF JOHN SMITH

A. P. V. A. Plans Big Ceremony for Jamestown Island To-Morrow.

A statue of Captain John Smith, presented to the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, will be unveiled on Jamestown Island at noon to-morrow. The simple but highly interesting ceremonies will begin promptly at 12 o'clock. The Rev. Braxton Bryan, of Petersburg, will make the opening prayer. Mr. Almond Blow, of Belleville, Gloucester county, will present the statue, and it will be received on behalf of the association by Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Elyson. Mr. Blow will be introduced by Mayor D. C. Richardson. The veil will be drawn from the statue by Master Joseph Bryan, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, and son of Mr. and Mrs. St. George Bryan.

Those going to Jamestown for the day from Richmond will take the 9 A. M. train to Williamsburg, from the Main Street Station. Conveyances to and from Jamestown at a reasonable price will be found waiting on arrival at Williamsburg.

The return from the island will be made in ample time for dinner at the Williamsburg hotels and for visits to points of interest.

It is hoped that officers, directresses of branches and members of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will find it practicable to attend and invest the occasion with the dignity which it richly merits.

A cordial invitation is extended to all interested who may wish to take advantage of the opportunity to see Jamestown and Williamsburg under most advantageous chaperonage.

Should the weather prove too inclement, and rain be falling at 8 A. M. to-morrow, the unveiling will be postponed.

INDIGESTION!

A Chelsea Woman Suggests a Course of Treatment.

How to Strengthen the Organs of Digestion and Really Cure the Disease.

There are plenty of remedies by which you can relieve for the time being, pain and gas on the stomach, and can soothe nervous sensibility and induce artificial sleep. But when you take your next meal all your troubles begin afresh.

Some people know that the strength which the weak stomach needs, and for the lack of which the whole body is suffering, can be found surely and quickly in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a preparation known in medical circles as the greatest blood and nerve tonic. In hundreds of instances these pills have succeeded where every other remedy had failed, and in every case the cure was radical.

Mrs. Gertrude Stewart, of 417 Broadway, Chelsea, Mass., obtained relief from indigestion until she tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sufferers from stomach trouble should profit by her experience. She says:

"I had suffered for years from indigestion, and would be in bed for two or three weeks at a time. I tried nearly everything I could think of for relief, but found none. There was a full feeling in my stomach, and I had considerable gas on it. I had a ravenous appetite at times, and then again cured for nothing. I was subject to severe nervous headaches and dizzy spells, and was short of breath. I had very little color, and was in very poor health.

"My doctor's prescriptions did not help me, and I took a salt water trip, thinking that might do me good. But as I got no relief, I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I commenced to get better after taking a few boxes, and could eat without the food distressing me. I took several boxes altogether, and can eat anything I want now, and am in good health."

Every dyspeptic should have a copy of our diet book, which is mailed free to any address. Send postal card request for a copy to-day. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

RALLY IN FULTON

Callitt, Massie and O'Flaherty to Speak at Nelson's Hall To-Night.

Democrats in the East End will hold a rally at Nelson's Hall in Fulton to-night at 8 o'clock, when speeches will be made by Colonel Eugene C. Massie and D. C. O'Flaherty, of this city, and Colonel Robert Callitt, of Lexington.

The meeting is being arranged for by Councilman George W. Rogers and former Alderman J. Harry Lawder, and they declare that the prospects for success are very bright. This will be the first and only rally held in Fulton during the campaign. All the speakers are men of distinction.

Colonel Massie is a member of the House of Delegates and chief of Governor Swanson's staff. Mr. O'Flaherty is a lawyer, and was a member of the recent Constitutional Convention. Colonel Callitt is a former member of the Legislature and the present Assistant Attorney-General of the State.

The meeting will be under the joint auspices of the City Committee and the Bryan Club, and Mr. J. Harry Lawder will preside. The City Committee will furnish a band, which will perform before and during the meeting.

Mr. Pembroke Pettit, of Fluvanna, who was engaged as one of the speakers, yesterday that he would be unable to attend. The following vice-presidents were selected last night, and are urged to accept without further notice: Captain John A. Curtis, George W. Rogers, L. L. Satterfield, R. A. Cavado, John L. Satterfield, John R. Gimes, W. T. Hancock, Robert Lord, Marion Barnett, Joseph B. Welsh, Arthur Sharp, James Bowen, James A. Black, E. Richards, John B. Welsh, F. H. Garber, R. S. Tiller, E. W. Evans, John Powers, Lewis Washer, James E. O'Grady, John Martin.

DIES OF TYPHOID

Prisoner in Henrico Jail Succumbs to Disease After Short Illness.

Edward Johnson, colored, after ten days' imprisonment in the Henrico county jail, died in the hospital ward of the prison yesterday morning between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock of typhoid fever. He said that he was feeling badly when he was sentenced, and it is believed that he contracted the disease before he went to the jail. He was arrested as a tramp.

Dr. W. A. Deas, the county coroner, who has attended the man since he was committed, said that in his opinion the disease was well developed before he was arrested. The man claimed to have lived at No. 907 North Second Street, and said that he had a sister, Mildred Cross, who taught school in the county. An effort was made yesterday to communicate with his relatives, but up to a late hour nothing had been heard from them.

The body will be held until to-day for his people, and if they are not heard from it will be buried in the Potter's Field.

CONNELLY CASE GOES OVER

Large Crowd Gathers to Hear Testimony in Shooting Trial.

The trial of H. E. Connelly, indicted for the attempted murder of Miss Katie Beal, in a Broad Street shooting, was called in the Hustings Court yesterday and postponed at the request of counsel for the defense. The case, which was a most spectacular one, attracted a crowd to the court-room. Gilbert K. Pollard, for Connelly, appeared as counsel for the defense, and he had recently come into the case. He had not yet been able to prepare himself to enter the trial.

Connelly's attorney, Pollard, asked the Commonwealth's Attorney Folkes to ask the jury to find Connelly guilty of manslaughter, saying that he had recently come into the case. He had not yet been able to prepare himself to enter the trial.

STONED A TORPEDO

Two Children Are Horribly Wounded by the Explosive.

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 22.—Charles and Millard Hale, aged six and nine years, respectively, were horribly wounded by the explosion of a railroad torpedo at their house in Brimfield, Boyle county, to-day.

The children were playing along the railroad tracks when the torpedo, and took it home to use as a target to throw at. The first missile thrown hit the torpedo squarely, causing it to explode. The children are not expected to live.

New Killing Cases. The rooms of the Corporation Commission were in much confusion yesterday, owing to the fact that a large number of killing cases were being brought in and taken care of. There have been in the building for several weeks, but their removal to the rooms of the commission was delayed on account of the scaffolding erected for the removal and the cases will be placed as quickly as possible.

STATUE OF CAPT. JOHN SMITH

URNS WHITE HOUSE INTO HEADQUARTERS

Senator Martin, in Address to Richmond Democrats, Raps President for Directing Taft's Battle From There. Resents Innovation Upon People's Traditions.

United States Senator Thomas S. Martin delivered an able and aggressive speech for the Democratic ticket before the Bryan-Kern-Lamb Club at Sanger Hall last night, at the end of which he was thanked by a rising vote of an audience which filled every available seat. Indeed, there were not enough seats to accommodate all those who came. Perhaps 150 men stood in the back of the hall, while the junior Senator fired on the present administration and defended the policies proposed by the Democratic party.

Senator Martin spoke for nearly two hours, and not a man left the hall. He attempted to stop several times, but yielded to the cries which came from the audience to "go on." The hall, though never crowded, is considered by the municipal authorities not safe for a great crowd, and after it was well filled the police declined to permit others to enter.

The audience was the largest which has greeted any orator who has spoken to the Bryan Club in its history, barring, of course, the Academy meeting which was addressed by Governor Swanson last Friday night. A large number of prominent party leaders were on the stage. Among them were State Chairman J. Taylor Elyson, Judge William F. Rhea, Congressman John Lamb, Captain John A. Curtis, Mr. W. T. Hancock, Colonel Joseph Burton, Mr. Benjamin H. Berry, City Chairman James B. Doherty, Captain Shepherd K. Smith, Colonel E. C. Massie, Major A. R. Courtney, Senator A. C. Harmon, Colonel B. O. James, George Med, Blake, Major William H. Sands,

Charles M. Wallace, Jr., and many others.

The proceedings were opened with some fine singing by Captain Frank W. Cunningham and his associates, who were introduced by President Harwood as the "Bryan-Kern-Lamb quartet."

Letters were read from Mr. Bryan commending the work of the club, and from Mr. Nathan Straus, of the national committee, urging the members to continue the fight for Democracy until the night of the election.

President Harwood announced that a second contribution of $250 had been forwarded to the national committee, and that the membership had grown to nearly 4,000.

When Colonel Harwood introduced Senator Martin, the latter was accorded a fine ovation. As he came forward he was greeted by tremendous applause. It lasted for at least two minutes, and then the Senator began his speech in a slow and deliberate manner.

"I do not belong to that class of Democrats," he said in opening, "who were described by Mr. Taft here the other night as voting for Bryan and praying for Taft's election. It seems to me that he quite misunderstands the temper of the 'Circles' in the government. I didn't believe in Bryan I would have the manhood to come out and vote for Taft."

"I don't object to any man voting the Republican ticket if he subscribes to the doctrines of the Republican party, but I say that if a man votes for Taft, he has no right to claim that he is a Democrat. I think but little of a man who will vote one way and pray another, even if Mr. Taft has advised this course."

Coming to a brief discussion of the labor questions involved in the campaign, Senator Martin said: "All this rot we need to hear about the full dinner pail has disappeared, and the working people are not getting a fair share in the results of the government in which they participate."

"Mr. Shaw said in Southwest Virginia, 'I don't believe in the government, vote the Republican ticket.' He means vote the Republican ticket to get spots, and in this I tell him that he misunderstands our people."

Senator Martin took a shot at Mr. Henry W. Anderson, who introduced Mr. Taft here last Saturday night, and sharply criticized the utterances of Mr. Anderson on that occasion.

After denouncing the Crumpacker bill, which is designed to reduce Southern representation in Congress and in the electoral college, Senator Martin asked with dramatic effect:

"Do you love a party that deals this way with you? If you do, then turn out John Lamb and vote for this man Lamb up here in Goodland. I tell you, my fellow-citizens, that John Lamb would suffer his right arm to be severed from his body before he would stand up and vote 'aye' on such a proposition."

Senator Martin devoted much time to a discussion of the bank guarantee deposit plank of the Democratic platform, and came out flat-footed in its support.

"There is a man in the hearing of my voice," he said, "who objects to being protected in his bank deposits, he is too big a fool to vote the Democratic ticket. The system proposed will do no injustice to any man. The average dividend declared by national banks last year was over 12 per cent. Don't you think the banks might indemnify and save you harmless, when you deposit the money which enables them to make these enormous profits?"

"I commend the mission of the banks and I am not here to oppose them, but in God's name I say they should not object to guaranteeing the safety of the money of their depositors."

Senator Martin discussed the tariff question briefly, and passing to the trusts he said: "President Roosevelt has never sent a single one of the violators of the anti-trust laws to jail. If you ask, 'How about dear Harriman?'"

"My fellow-citizens it is true that the President assigned Harriman to the Ananias Club, but he got $250,000 out of the poor fellow before he called him a liar. Never before in the history of this country has a President of the United States stooped to the level of a political boss and a campaign manager. Everybody knows now that the White House is nothing but campaign headquarters for the Republican party, and the people are, in my judgment, prepared to resent this innovation upon their traditions."

Senator Martin closed with an eloquent appeal to the people of Richmond for Democracy on election day.

News of the Southside

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

Mrs. Estelle Smith, who was sentenced from the Corporation Court in this city to serve a term of five years in the State penitentiary for the murder of her son, Ralph, whom she whipped with a strap, was defended by H. M. Smith, of Richmond, and Ernest H. Wells, of this city. The prisoner pleaded that the whipping which she administered was necessary on account of the boy's habits.

Mrs. Smith had no relatives in this part of the country. Her brother came down from New York during the trial and made every effort to obtain her release. However, the nature of the evidence was such that the jury could only bring in a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Smith was given the minimum sentence. Upon reaching the penitentiary she was known as convict 6,292. She was considered a model prisoner. When Mrs. Smith was paroled yesterday it was reported that she had returned to Manchester. Efforts to locate her were made last night without success, and it is thought that she has left for New York. The parole was given on condition that she leave the State.

Democratic Club To-Night. Besides the meeting of the Business Men's Association and the City Assembly to-night, the Bryan-Kern-Lamb Club will probably hold a meeting at which matters of importance pertaining to the election will be discussed. The subcommittee of the City Central Democratic Committee, which was appointed for the purpose of working in conjunction with the club, in order to arrange for a Democratic mass meeting next week, will make its report, and the active politicians of the city are awaiting the outcome with much interest. That some kind of a meeting will be held next week is almost assured, as the Democratic Club and the City Committee both believe that something should be done to awaken the dormant interest of the voters.

Although facing certain defeat, so far as the city vote is concerned, the Republicans have been active, and that they have made gains is not denied.

Yesterday was introducing Mr. George Blankenship, High Constable of the city, as the most ancient man now living. The joke grew out of a mistake Mr. Blankenship made in drawing up a warrant. Instead of dating it October 1908, Mr. Blankenship made it date a civil case, and the court had to send for Constable Blankenship and have the date corrected before it could be filed. Sergeant Saunders enjoyed the matter as much as any one. Mr. Blankenship said that the only thing that remained in Manchester from 1807 to 1908 were Sergeant Saunders and annexation discussions.

Annexation or consolidation will be the only issue which will come up at the meeting of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association to-night, when a committee from the Richmond Chamber of Commerce will appear before the organization. The meeting was called at the request of Business Manager W. T. Dabney, of the Chamber of Commerce, for the special purpose of discussing the question. The committee which will appear to-night includes the following Richmonders: C. E. Wingo, chairman; Thomas B. McAdams, George E. Wise, L. Z. Morris, E. D. Starke, Henry W. Wood, S. M. Woodward, S. S. Rosenfeld, W. P. Wadley, C. E. Straus, Business Manager W. T. Dabney, of the Chamber of Commerce, will accompany the committee.

Lake Patterson Fined. Lake Patterson, colored, a man who was arrested while attempting to enter the home of Mr. Thomas Westcott, No. 322 Cowardin Avenue, Monday night, appeared before Mayor Maurice yesterday morning. After hearing the evidence the Mayor imposed a fine of $5 and costs. Patterson had up to the time of his arrest had borne an excellent reputation.

Mr. W. H. Owen, master mechanic of the Southern shops, testified that he had been working steadily as a stationary fireman in the shops for more than five years, and had always behaved himself. Other employees of the Southern shops testified to his good character.

Patterson explained the situation by saying that on account of domestic troubles he had been drinking heavily all day, and didn't know what he was doing. He denied that he had been in any way connected with the robberies which have recently taken place in and around Manchester. Mr. Willis C. Pulliam defended the prisoner.

Special Meeting of Assembly To-Night. The City Assembly will hold a special meeting to-night for the purpose of considering the proposition of the Manchester Rattan and Basket Company, as to leasing the shirt factory building from this city as a place in which to carry on its business.

The building is the property of the city of Manchester, and since the company which formerly occupied it failed, it has been vacant. If the proposition of the company which now desires to lease it comes up to what the city expects, the lease will undoubtedly be authorized. Following the meeting of the Assembly, the Street Committee will hold an important meeting.

Death of Guy Markham. Mr. Guy Markham, a well-known young business man of this city, died last night at his home at Fourteenth and Perry Streets after a short illness. Mr. Markham was about twenty-five years of age, and is survived by his wife. He had only been married since last March. He was connected with the furniture firm of L. W. Chesham and Company.

Personal and Briefs. A meeting of the City School Board will be held to-night. Only routine business was transacted. The Republican City Committee held a meeting in the courthouse Wednesday night.

Mr. Ben P. Owen, of the Manchester District School Board, returned yesterday from a visit to the schools in the district. He reports an increase of 10 per cent in attendance over last year.

All of the delegates from the Manchester Councils, J. O. U. A. M., returned yesterday morning from the State Council over several competitors. Manchester received a large majority, they said.

The Buildings and Land Committee held a meeting at the City Hall last night. Only routine matters were transacted.
