net, sister of the bride, maid of honor. A luncheon followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Watson took a Southern Railway train for Montgomery, Ala., where the groom is connected with the American Telephone Company.

Board--Powell. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WAKE FOREST, N. C., October 29.—On Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, in the Wingate Memorial Hall, a beautiful wedding was celebrated, when Miss Jessie May Powell became the bride of Mr. E. F. Board, of Washington, D. C. The Memorial Hall was elaborately decorated with banks of palms, ferns and other flowers, presenting a most artistic and pleasing effect.

The bride, attired in white satin and real lace, and carrying a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies of the valley, her veil being caught with a harvest moon of diamonds, the gift of the groom, entered on the arm of her father, Mr. W. C. Powell. While the ceremony was being performed by Dr. W. B. Royall, assisted by Rev. J. W. Lynch, Mrs. A. H. Fleming, of Louisville, played "Promise Me."

MUCH LITIGATION IN RALEIGH COURTS

Southern Enjoined from Constructing Track Through Goldsboro—Other Interesting Items. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., October 29.—A restraining order, just issued by Judge W. H. Griffin, proprietor of Hotel Kenyon, Goldsboro, restrains the Southern Railway temporarily from building a connecting line from the present Southern tracks on Beach Street, Goldsboro, out to the new union depot that is being completed. The hope of the advocates of the restraining order is that Beach Street can ultimately be relieved of its present monopolization by railroad tracks.

The Supreme Court has decided not to sit next week on October 29th, on the hearing of appeals, and will therefore call the Tenth District appeals on Wednesday, November 4th, the following being the order in which they will be heard: Lanier vs. Heilig, Power Company vs. Whitney Company, Beck vs. Railroad, Wheelbarrow Company vs. Railroad, Holler Company vs. Telegraph, Kinney vs. Kinney, Thompson vs. Railroad, Brown vs. Railroad, Pickler vs. Board of Education, White vs. Kincaid, Beeson vs. Smith, Cox vs. Railroad.

The Industrial Club (Inc.) of Rockingham, Richmond county, having for its special purpose the promotion of the commercial interests of that thriving young city in Eastern Carolina, received a charter to-day. The principal incorporators are W. C. Leake, A. S. Duckery, J. L. G. Everitt and others. Another charter is to the Southern Coal Company, Asheville, capital $15,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by D. C. Sproule, W. E. Varnon and others.

DOUBLE WEDDING AT SOUTH HILL. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SOUTH HILL, VA., October 29.—A double marriage of unusual interest was solemnized at the home of Mrs. W. H. Morris, South Hill, Va., Wednesday, the 28th instant, at high noon, when her two attractive daughters, Miss Pauline and Grace Morris, became the brides of William B. Neell and Dr. C. V. Montgomery, respectively.

Mendelsohn's wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Zella Morris, sister of the brides. The brides were attired in traveling suits of broadcloth, and carried Bride's roses. The groom wore the traditional black. Mr. W. B. Neell holds a prominent position with the American Tobacco Company, of this place, and enjoys the esteem and confidence of all who know him.

Dr. C. V. Montgomery is a prominent young physician of South Hill. Among the more substantial gifts were various checks aggregating several hundred dollars. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. H. Hall, pastor of the Methodist Church.

The happy couples were immediately driven to La Crosse, where they boarded a Seaboard train for Washington and other places of interest. Only immediate relatives of the families were present.
