

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

AN EVENT of great social interest yesterday was the debut reception and dance at which Miss Lora Crump, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Crump, of the Chesterfield, was presented to Richmond society.

The reception was from 4 to 7 in the afternoon and the dance from 7 to 12 in the evening. Both were given in the parlors of the Woman's Club, where the entire first floor suite of rooms was thrown open. Profuse and beautiful decorations were in palms, mimosas, ferns and southern smilax, with curtains of asparagus fern festooning doorways and gracefully wreathing mirrors and pictures. Palms were grouped in bow windows and wherever else an effective background was needed. The color scheme was developed in green and pink for the drawing rooms, where pink roses and chrysanthemums were massed against the palms. In the hall American Beauties made a lovely contrast.

In the front drawing room during the afternoon stood Mrs. Crump, Miss Crump, Mrs. J. Taylor Elyson, Mrs. Lucian H. Cooke, of Roanoke, and Mrs. William J. Whitburn. Mrs. Crump wore black lace over black chiffon and satin, with diamonds. Miss Crump was most charming in white Brussels point, above white panne crepe de chine. Heaped beside her on a small stand were her flowers—violets, roses, lilies of the valley, orchids and gardenias—forming a fragrant and rainbow-colored heap.

Just beside the folding doors between the parlors were Mrs. Cunningham-Hall, Mrs. Frank Crump, Miss Lucy Whitburn, of Baltimore, and Miss Mary Stuart Cooke, of Roanoke. Miss Whitburn, a pretty debutante of the Monumental City, wore white accordion-plaited liberty silk and pearls; Miss Cooke, white embroidered net over white silk. Miss Whitburn carried lilies of the valley, and Miss Cooke Killarney roses.

Assisting Mrs. Crump during the afternoon in the second and third drawing rooms were Mrs. C. W. Blanton, Mrs. Henry Harwood, Mrs. C. W. Culp and Mrs. William Elyson. At the punch bowl in the small parlor to the right of the entrance hall were Mrs. Ann Malby, superbly gowned in white corded fillet net, embroidered with gold sequins and relieved with touches of pale blue; Mrs. Andrew Gray and Mrs. Philip Powers. An orchestra played during the afternoon and evening.

Guests bidden to the cotillion were received at 9 P. M. by Mr. and Mrs. James D. Crump, Miss Crump, Miss Whitburn and Miss Cooke.

The punch was served during the evening by Colonel and Mrs. Fred Pleasants, assisted by Miss Allene Stokes, Cabell-Lorraine. The wedding of Miss Lillian Hoge Lorraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lorraine, of No. 2517 Grove Avenue, to Mr. Royal Eubank Cabell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Cabell, of Ingleswood, Nelson county, was celebrated at 6 P. M. yesterday in Second Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., officiating.

The church was decorated with palms. Miss Mary Willy Smoot was at the organ, and, during the ceremony, played "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mrs. Wellford B. Lorraine, the matron of honor, wore her wedding gown of white messaline satin, trimmed with duchess lace, and carried a large cluster of maidenhair ferns. Mr. P. H. Anderson was best man, and the other attendants, Messrs. George W. Cabell, John W. Cabell, Adair H. Saunders, George Bernard Lorraine, Robert E. Peyton, Jr., and Dr. Wellford B. Lorraine.

The bride entered with her father, and was given away by him. She wore a princess gown of white messaline and chiffon, and a tulle veil, with orange blossoms. Her flowers were a shower of lilies of the valley.

The ceremony was not followed by a reception on account of the families of both bride and groom being in mourning. Mr. and Mrs. Cabell will spend their honeymoon in the West Indies, and reside at No. 210 East Franklin Street when they return.

Martin-Stevens. The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Allen Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, to Mr. Alexander Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles M. Martin, of No. 315 West Grace Street, was celebrated at 7 o'clock yesterday evening at Clachan Plantation, South Carolina, the Rev. John Kershaw, of St. Michael's Church, Charleston, officiating.

Decorations were in yellow chrysanthemums and green palmetto fans from the swamp near the house. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played by Miss Richardson. Miss Laura Stevens, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. John Martin, the groom's brother, best man. A group of eight bridesmaids included Misses Edmonia Martin, of Richmond; Emily Sinker, Caroline Sinker, Laura Forcher, Caroline Cain, Millicent Dana, of Philadelphia, and Ella Sinker.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore white satin and her veil was caught with the wreath of orange-blossoms worn by her mother on her wedding day. The maid of honor was in yellow satin, and the bridesmaids attired in white lace. They carried large clusters of yellow chrysanthemums.

A reception following the ceremony was attended by friends from Charleston, Richmond and the neighboring plantations, also by relations and friends of the bride from Philadelphia. Many beautiful wedding gifts were received.

BUILT UP THE BLOOD

An Erie Pastor's Wife Tells How She Overcame a Trouble During Her Girlhood.

What anaemia is, how to recognize it and the value of the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, should be known by the mother of every growing girl.

Anaemia is simply lack of blood. It is one of the most common and dangerous diseases with which growing girls suffer.

It is common because the blood so often becomes impoverished during development, when girls are too frequently allowed to overstudy, overwork and suffer from lack of exercise. It is dangerous because of the stealthiness of its approach, often being well developed before its presence is recognized, and because of its tendency to grow so steadily worse, if not promptly checked, that it may run into consumption.

Mrs. E. Wolfe DeWitt, of Reed and Twenty-third Streets, Erie, Pa., the wife of the pastor of the Second Baptist Church, suffered from anaemia for two or three years before she heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and was cured by their use. She says:

"I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when I was growing fast. I was in an anaemic condition, and suffered terribly. I was weak, without ambition, and the least exertion tired me. I had suffocating spells, severe headaches at the base of the skull and over one eye. I was almost bloodless, and my ears were so transparent you could almost see through them. I had no appetite, and finally became so weak I had to leave school."

"I would be faint at times, and the suffocating spells, the doctor said, were due to a nervous affection of the heart. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and only took a few boxes before I was restored to perfect health. I can heartily recommend the pills to all young girls suffering from anaemia."

Send to-day for a copy of our "Disease of the Blood." It gives further information about anaemia, and is free upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are for sale by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, upon receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
