

ENGLISH PEOPLE STIRRED BY PLAY

Richard Haldane, secretary of state for war, and Reginald McKenna, secretary of the admiralty, are expected to resign unless the pledge was fulfilled in the spirit as well as the letter. It is obvious that the British will allow no slight to their prestige with the problem of naval supremacy.

PITTSBURG CITY ALL RIGHT, BUT-- the receiver of a New York line will find envy. Messrs. Blaxter and Kerr found the Aberdeen greatly and of extreme good nature-headedness. A Prominent Kentucky Woman Says Peruna Ought to Be in Every Home.

Once an Invalid, Now a Well and Happy Woman. Thousands of Mothers Can Tell a Similar Story About Peruna. "I feel that this Remedy ought to be in Every Household, for it is a Blessing to Suffering Humanity."

MRS. WILLIAM C. MOORE.

Mrs. William C. Moore, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes: "It gives me great pleasure to recommend Peruna to those suffering with catarrh. I had catarrh of nose so badly my hearing had almost left me. I was miserable, both to myself and those around. I had tried many physicians and medicines, but without success. I felt that my health was gone."

Mrs. Moore is a housewife of excellent standing in the community where she resides. Every one acquainted with her knows her to be a woman that can be relied upon for veracity. Just consider what she has said. First, she was suffering with catarrh so badly that her hearing was almost destroyed. She was a misery to herself and her friends. She had tried many physicians and medicines, but none of them gave her any relief. She was completely discouraged, and considered that her health was gone.

IN MEMORIAM

WHITE.—Departed this life, January 17, 1929, WENNA WHITE, who was beloved wife of Harry R. White and daughter of the late Jno. Mercer and Anne E. Waller. A pure, gentle spirit, taken from the bosom of a devoted family and kindred. We miss her dear loving presence, but the holy influence of her beautiful, unselfish, concentrated character, ever shines around the home and in the hearts she lived to gladden. So pure was the heart of Jennie White that she saw no evil in the world, and she covered all that was wrong with it from earliest infancy and cannot recall a single unkind and unchristian act. "None knew her but to love her." To her stricken, devoted husband, whose greatest pleasure was to be near her, we would say, do not think of her as dead; she is "only gone before," and the two faithful and sorrowing children who have ever been mindful of her comfort and pleasure, if, as some one has beautifully said, "Heaven is where Jesus is, and here it is where mother is," then to them is heaven doubly dear, since both Jesus and mother are there.
