CHOICE MORSELS GIVEN OUT TO HUNGRY FANS

Lipe's Spectacular Triple Feature Play in Great Victory for Colts.

Virginia League RESULTS YESTERDAY. Richmond, 5; Norfolk, 3; Norfolk, 5; Portsmouth, 1.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. Table showing league standings for Virginia League.

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY. Norfolk at Richmond. Roanoke at Portsmouth. Lynchburg at Danville.

Hungry for a game of real baseball, 3,000 local fans had their sporting appetites thoroughly satisfied in Broad Street Park yesterday when the Richmond Colts and the Norfolk Tars gave them a taste of the choicest morsel of the game ever offered to a crowd assembled in the grounds.

There was every form of play. Manager Lipe, as the star of the afternoon, pulled off the first triple play since the 1909 Virginia League season, and aside from this the eighteen men seemed bent on giving out the best they had to show.

Ashton started in to pitch for Richmond, but after the fourth, in which he allowed four singles, Manager Lipe stepped in to do the job.

ELI BLEW UP IN FATEFUL NINTH AND HARVARD WON

Comedy of Errors, After Six Innings of Fast Playing, Lost Game That Yale Should Have Taken.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., June 24—Harvard almost lost, but, principally through the breaking up of the visitors' pitching department, finally won the annual "class day" game with Yale on Soldiers' Field to-day. The score stood 3 to 2 after eleven exciting innings.
