FROM BRIDAL TOUR, RETURNS WIDOW

Wealthy Wisconsin Woman on Way Home With Bodies of Husband and Father.

CROSSING RUSSIA, KILLED BY PLAGUE

Girl Is Daughter of Ohio Millionaire, Who, With His Son-in-Law, Was Stricken Down by Cholera—Misfortune Pursues Family.

Koenigsberg, Prussia, July 23.—Roger Whitfield, a young American, who arrived here with his wife on July 21 from Russia, died at a local hotel a few hours afterward from what the bacteriological examination to-day shows to have been cholera.

The body was immediately buried with great privacy, so as not to alarm the people of the town. The man's wife and the employees of the train which brought him here were isolated in a detached building, held in readiness for cholera cases, and the railway car in which he arrived was withdrawn from the service and disinfected. It was said the American and his wife had come across Siberia.

Every precaution has been taken to prevent cholera from crossing the Russian frontier, and the medical authorities were most reluctant to admit that the man died from the disease. It was the first case of cholera reported this year in Germany.

Husband and Father Dead. WOSTER, O., July 23.—According to private reports received here, Mrs. Ellmore Quinby, Whitfield, a bride last February, is en route home from Europe with the bodies of her husband, Roger Whitfield, and her father, Edward M. Quinby, a Wooster millionaire, who died within a few days of his arrival.

A year ago Perry Struvers, of Zanesville, O., died within a few months after marrying the oldest daughter of Mr. Quinby.

FLOCK TO HANGING

Five Thousand People Witness Execution of Negro in Mississippi.

BRANDON, MISS., July 23.—Fifty 5,000 persons witnessed the hanging here to-day of Will Mack, a convict convicted of criminally assaulting Miss Mamie Meyer, daughter of a farmer living near Pelahatchie, Miss. Last November he was sentenced to hang in Mississippi for a number of years.

A last moment Mack admitted his guilt. He went to his death with little show of feeling.

Among those in the crowd who witnessed the execution was the negro victim and a number of his relatives. When the body was cut down there was a wild scramble for pieces of the rope as souvenirs.

BIG FLEET IN ACTION

Spends Day and Night on Cape Cod Practice Grounds.

PROVINCETOWN, MASS., July 23.—No word was received to-night from the vessels of the Atlantic fleet, the fighting portion of which has been out on the Cape Cod practice grounds all day. The ships will not return until to-morrow, but it was presumed they are hard at work at sea and squadron drills and battle practice.

Quiet in Wisconsin Again. KENOSHA, WIS., July 23.—In contrast with yesterday's riotous attack on the strike-bound tannery of N. R. Allen's Sons Company, to-day was devoted to a series of conferences looking to a peaceable adjustment of the grievances of the concern's employees.

Contemplates Protectorate. MEXICO CITY, July 23.—That the United States contemplates the formation of a protectorate over the republic of Honduras in the near future was the statement brought to this city by a secret agent of one of the Central American governments. This man arrived last night and went into hiding, but was routed out by a newspaper reporter, who obtained from him the story on condition that the informant's identity be not disclosed and that his business in Mexico be not inquired into.

Adjourns Till Monday. ANNAPOLIS, MD., July 23.—The navy practically rested its case to-day in the investigation of the case surrounding the death of Lieutenant Sutton, of Portland, Ore., who was adjudged a suicide by a board of inquiry two years ago. The board's report to-day Commander John Hood, U. S. N., president of the court of inquiry, adjourned the hearing until Monday.

Appeal to England. BOSTON, MASS., July 23.—An appeal against the British government to make a proposal to the government of the United States for immediate and effective action by these powers to end the alleged abuses in the Congo region, has been issued by the English Congo Reform Association, according to a cablegram received at the headquarters of the American Congo Reform Association here.

New Georgia Jim Crow Law. ATLANTA, GA., July 23.—The first Jim Crow bill in the Georgia Legislature to-day by Senator Womble. It provides that all street car companies operating in Atlanta shall be required to have separate compartments for blacks. Under existing laws, the blacks must ride in the rear of the coaches, but no partition is required.

New Spanish Ministers Arrive. NEW YORK, July 23.—The Marquis de Villaverde, the new Spanish minister to the United States, arrived here to-day from Liverpool on the steamer Itatiaia. Accompanying him are his wife, Mrs. Villaverde, and Charles Dillingham, the theatrical manager.

GEORGIA FIGHT RENEWED

Prohibition Battle Rages With Fury in Legislature Again.

ATLANTA, GA., July 23.—When the Legislature adjourned this afternoon it was evident that the prohibition fight, which every one thought would be a two-day affair, had broken out once more, and that the battle would have to be fought all over again. The anti-prohibitionists openly declare in favor of prohibition during the remainder of the session, which is only twenty days. The drys promptly shot through a resolution calling to a session at 9 A. M. and they declare to-night that unless the new dry legislation is passed promptly at this session, they will force extra sessions to accomplish their purpose.

A new feature of the row is a pledge extracted from Governor Brown before his adjournment, which he bound himself to veto any liquor legislation that might be passed. At that time prohibitionists did not dream of more stringent laws, but were endeavoring to fight against any measures introduced by the vote.

The quarrel between as to whether or not Governor Brown can sign the new bill is exciting much discussion. Even the drys are divided over all attempts to put the bill into effect. The trouble makes it illegal to buy, sell or possess any liquid beverage which contains even a trace of alcohol. It was necessary for the bill to be passed under a decision of the courts that to be intoxicating, a liquor must contain more than 1 per cent alcohol. An attempt to put the bill into effect during the session was prevented. Representatives Alexander and Anderson nearly came to blows on the floor, but were separated by friends.

The renewal of the quarrel has attracted the representatives of both sides to the scene, and the battle is now being fought in the hall at a time for absolute prohibition has arrived.

SLAVES IN CHINATOWN

Two Little Girls Tell Story That May Cause New Investigation.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Two round-cheeked little Chinese maids, wide-eyed, and with black hair braided with silk hanging precisely down the middle of their backs, stood before Judge Wyatt in Children's Court to-day and told a story which has attracted in those who heard it little sympathy for the two elderly Celestial merchants who reported their "children" missing to the police on last Wednesday night.

Both little girls swore that they had been held against their will as household slaves, harshly treated and worked from long hours. They were accompanied by an agent of the Children's Society, who had found them on the day following their disappearance from a tenement in an East Side parish house. The two made sworn statements, which were read to-day in court.

Chin King Toy said she was sold in China for $160, brought to this country, and sold again for $500 in gold. Some mornings she was made to read in the morning, and sometimes work right on until 3 o'clock in the morning. He would rather die than go back to China.

The other name is Moy Yum Toy. Pending full inquiry, they will be held by the Children's Society. Their story is supported by that of another girl, a year ago in Chinatown, which has hardly settled down after the chaos and probing which followed the murder of the officer of the Children's Society.

GREAT MEETING HELD AT SOUTH BOSTON

Times-Dispatch Good Roads and Industrial Car Makes Run to Chase City, Then on to Victoria—Everywhere Is Its Campaign Commended.

BY FRANK S. WOODSON. CHASE CITY, VA., July 23.—The Times-Dispatch good roads and industrial car started the second day of its proposed journey to the North Carolina line at 5:30 o'clock this morning, having spent the night in the road in Charlotte county, where it was met by a large number of people, as already reported, the car broke an axle.

The new axle and a new spring to take the place of the one broken in Amelia county yesterday were sent by special messenger to take the car to the camp ground at 3 o'clock this morning. It was a 21-2-hour job to get the parts in place, and when the tedious and difficult job had been completed, the pathfinders struck out for South Boston on a route which was not so circuitous. There was no place to cross Staunton River except at Womack's Ferry, which was fully fifteen miles out of the route, and one of the hardest ferries to find in the land. We had to go a long way to find the ferry, and when we found it, it was a long and arduous trip to get across the river, and then along rough and unworked as well as but little used plantation roads, to find the crossing place. Then, considerable time was spent in finding the aged ferryman, who says he has been plowing the waters of the Staunton for twenty-five years, and is now operating a ferry which has accommodated travelers for more than a hundred years.

When the ferryman was finally found he proved to be a very interesting and accommodating old coddler, but he could not tell us anything about good roads, or bad ones, either, for he says he never leaves the river banks.

After leaving the river banks and winding rocky and gully-washed hill on the Halifax county side of the river, the car struck the best roads it has seen upon since it left the Midlothian Pike, in Chesterfield county. The road fairly flew from the car, and it was a relief to find a road that had been put in "de straight" road to South Boston.

Be it understood that the scouts, who decided after my wire of last night to go to the good roads of South Boston in spite of the springs and axles that were not, were getting pretty hungry and the motto emblazoned upon the Chalmers-Detroit 30 was: "South Boston before breakfast is over or bust." The good summer roads seemed to improve as the car sped along on its way, and the scouts were glad to find a road that had been put in "de straight" road to South Boston.

POLICE GOT BIG BUSH—MONEY PILE

Squeezed as Much as $9,000 a Month Out of Dive-Keepers and Gamblers.

POLITICIAN RAKED IN A COOL MILLION

Recently Raised Rates from $20 to $40, and Dealers, Forced Out of Business, Began to Squall So Loud That Grand Jury Heard Them.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 23.—An astounding story of graft in the West Side loop of Chicago is said to have been related to the grand jury to-day. Detective Sergeant Jeremiah Griffin, alleged collector of protection money from dive-keepers, gamblers and cocaine sellers, was indicted on eight counts. He is said to have garnered as much as $9,000 a month, a small part of the money remaining in his own pockets. In all, Griffin, who was located at the Desplains Street Police Station, headquarters of Inspector McCann, collected $100,000 from dive-keepers of various resorts, it is charged.

Made a Million There. Indictments were returned also against Louis Frank, saloon-keeper and politician, who is said to have accumulated $1,000 in the levee, and Michael Heitler, familiarly known as "Mike the Pike." They are alleged to have collected money from resorts by representing themselves to be agents of the police.

Testimony against Griffin was given by Charles Yanker, a levee proprietor, known commonly as "Monkey Charley." Morris Schatz, who is said to conduct an illegal establishment at 108 Peoria Street, appears on the indictment as complainant. Four detectives also testified.

One witness charged that the price of protection recently rose from $20 to $40 a month, and that he was compelled to quit business on account of the expense.

SWEEPED AWAY IN FLOOD

Two Members of Picnic Party Dead and Two Seriously Injured as Result of a Cloudburst That Deluged Boulder Canyon, North of Boulder, to-day. The dead are Verne Carlisle, aged thirteen, of Boulder, and Arthur Dickerman, aged twenty-five, of Greeley. The injured are Mrs. M. A. Abbott, of Garden City, Kan., and Miss Bristow, of the University of Colorado.

The victims were members of a picnic party. When the rain began to fall they sought shelter under a huge boulder. Presently a torrent of fast water swept down the canyon. The walls of the canyon were precipitous, and it was with great difficulty that the party found places of safety. They were able to gain shelter, but in aiding their companions Dickerman and Carlisle were swept down with the torrent.

KING IN PLOT TO WIN ROYAL LOVERS

Spanish Monarch Turns Matchmaker, Almost Defying Church to Gain Purpose.

BIG SENSATION IN EUROPEAN COURTS

Prince Wrecks His Career to Win Protestant Girl, but Alfonso of Bourbon Will Stand by Them if King of Spain Cannot.

PARIS, July 23.—The details surrounding the romantic marriage of Prince Alfonso of Bourbon-Oribe to Princess Beatrice of Saxe-Coburg, which cost him his position as a prince of the royal house of Spain and his career in the Spanish army, have come into the position of the Associated Press. They reveal the fact that King Alfonso, instead of refusing his consent to the marriage, as reported, actually advised the prince to wed secretly, gave him leave of absence for that purpose, and personally interceded with the Bamberg ecclesiastical authorities, in whose diocese the ceremony took place, to procure a dispensation for it.

Caused Great Sensation. This story was obtained from the prince's own lips by friends a few days ago in Munich, where the couple are spending their honeymoon, and when it is known in Europe it is likely to create a greater sensation than did the wedding and the prince's disappearance.
