Patiently Await End of the World

"Holy Rollers" Expect Final Destruction to Come Before To-Night.

BELIEVERS ARE FERVENT

Preachers Still Take Collections Despite Approaching Cataclysm.

WEST DUXBURY, MASS., September 24.—Awaiting the end of the world, which they believe will come before 6 o'clock to-morrow night, the 200 or more members of the "Latter Reign of the Apostolic Church," who call themselves "Tribune Immortalists," and are popularly known as "Holy Rollers," reassembled to-night for a long watch meeting in their Bethel at Ashdod, on the main strip between Boston and Plymouth.

Hundreds of curious people from the neighboring villages lined outside to witness the progress of events, but as the curtains at the windows of "The Bethel" were all drawn close, little of what occurred within was evident to outsiders. Apparently there was a praise service and exhortations, and occasionally a voice pitched high in prayer was heard exclaiming: "O Lord, come soon; don't disappoint us."

Although 10 o'clock this forenoon was originally set as the hour of the coming of the end of all things, the faithful showed little disappointment when one of the elders announced that he had a new revelation that the moral world would not be destroyed until some time during the twenty-four hours beginning at 6 o'clock to-night.

A collection this afternoon, the meeting, which had continued all day, was adjourned for supper. Later the members of the sect returned for the watch service.

Great Enthusiasm. Throughout the meetings almost unbridled enthusiasm and fervor have been manifested. Those participating come from every section of Virginia, and many have journeyed from as far as Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

As the forenoon passed the devout company decided, for reasons not announced, to close the Bethel and move across the road to "The Bethel," a large frame structure belonging to the society, here erected at the end of the road. The doors were carefully excluded, and the windows lowered.

One of the leaders was overheard to say that if the "purification," or end of the world, did not occur before 6 o'clock to-morrow evening, it would, in his opinion, be postponed for fifty years. Many of the believers expressed dissent from this view.

It is understood here that most of the persons who are confidently awaiting the millennium have disposed of their worldly goods, and are content with contributing liberally to the Immortalists, for despite the belief that the expected heavenly material things would be of no value, the contribution box was passed frequently at the meetings, and the donors decline to answer questions concerning the use to which the gifts are to be put.
